

The Hillsborough Recorder.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 6 1878.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Terms of the Recorder for 1878. For 1 year, $1.50. 6 months, 75. Payments always in advance. Job printing done neatly, cheaply and promptly.

The weather of last week will be remembered as peculiarly disagreeable, rain, sleet, wind and mud. We escaped the snow of the West and North.

We expect to devote a large portion of next week's issue to a special number. Correspondents must send in their communications before Friday.

Commissioners of the County in session this week.

See ad. of Col. G. M. Tate, which refers to the Thresher and Cleaner of which we spoke recently in these columns.

See ad. of H. T. Vass & Co. Danville. This firm is the successor of the well known house of Hickey & Sottell so well known to the readers of the Recorder. We found on our last visit to Danville that its facilities for business had been much enlarged and there is no establishment of the kind within reach of our readers better able to fill the large patronage they invite.

Mr. E. Dimock was so unfortunate last week as to have his right shoulder dislocated by the unruly movements of a fractious steer. He was attempting to drive or lead the animal by a rope, and was jerked down and hurt as above mentioned.

The School of the Misses Nash & Miss Kellough opened on Friday last with flattering prospects.

Maj. John W. Graham was last week in attendance upon a meeting of the Directors of the N. C. R. R. at Greensboro. He tells us that a dividend of six per cent was declared, payable in March and September. This is better than some other roads have done, and will give satisfaction.

See letter from New York, somewhat old in date it is true, being twenty one days on the coast.

We caught a glimpse of Col. Williamson of Caswell, who came down on Friday last to place one of his daughters at school. The Colonel looks vigorous enough to undergo a dozen more political campaigns.

Mr. Bynum of J. Y. Whitted & Co. has just returned after a long absence at the South. He says, as badly off as we think ourselves here, we are happy in comparison with the people of the South in a financial point of view. It is that comfort, put it in your pipes and smoke it.

To Parents.—How often does a slight cough or cold lead to the most serious consequences. Keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at home. Physicians prescribe it. Thousands take it. Price 25 cents.

Education for the Poor. Through the kindness of a nameless Friend, I have entered of a "Loan Fund," for the benefit of worthy poor young ladies who earnestly desire a thorough education. I would hereby inform such that, by complying with the reasonable conditions of the "FUND," they may prosecute their studies in the WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE, WILLIAMSTON, S. C. At a very small present outlay, and pay the rest of their expenses after they shall have earned the money.

On receiving a stamp for return postage, I will gladly furnish full particulars to any young lady applying therefor in her own hand-writing.

The Supreme Court of the State of New York has decided that J. C. Ayer & Co. of Lowell, have the sole right to use the words CHERRY PECTORAL for a medicine, and has issued an injunction against F. V. Rushton, of New York City, for selling Rushton's Cherry Pectoral or Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, or any other use of the name to deceive the public. This decision of the high court includes all dealers who sell any similar article.—Part Jefferson (L. I.) Leader.

Suffer no disappointment by employing too many "cures,"—but for the diseases of Infancy use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup which never disappoints, and costs only 25 cents a bottle.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Sarah R. Scarlett, widow of the late Mr. Page Scarlett, died very suddenly on Thursday morning last at her residence near University Station. Her son James left her as usual on Wednesday morning for his farm work. Some time afterwards another son, Stephen, entered the house, and found Mrs. S. on the floor insensible. She was never restored to consciousness and died the next morning. She was in the 50th year of her age.

KIEFF HAWK, N. C., Jan. 31.—The Metropolis was stranded on Carrinck Beach the 28 miles south of Carrinck Light House. She is a total loss. Fifty persons swam ashore. There were two hundred and forty-eight aboard.

For the Recorder.

Most heartily, Mr. Editor, do I assure you that we are working for the same end, "the preservation of public credit." I am ready to argue on your side all day long and all night too, and every day and every night, for "a silver medium equal in dignity and proportionate value with gold." We will if you please, enlist for the war against all who would, directly or indirectly, injure "public credit," we will remonstrate with every one who would impose on us silver coin unequal in dignity with gold coin, or of disproportionate value. So will we prove ourselves worthy sons of wise and honest and honorable fathers. Our fathers were ever solicitous to keep silver coin and gold coin of equal value. At first they put into the silver dollar fifteen and a half times as much of what buys, as they put into the gold dollar. After an experience of forty years they found that they had not put enough value into the silver dollar. So, like honest men, they put into our dollar about sixteen times as much silver as gold. As successor to their name and fame, we ought, if we were to restore the silver dollar, to put into it seventeen times as much silver as gold. Then the dignity of the silver dollar would be equal to that of gold and its value proportionate. So we would have, as we ought to have, and as all who deal with measures insist on having, one single, simple standard of value as unalterable as the nature of value will let it be. It has been the departure from this custom of referring all values to a standard that has brought all this trouble and money on us. Had we referred, our paper money, as we referred our silver while we had it, to gold, the promise to pay so many dollars would never have been of doubtful meaning to either creditor or debtor. This was the practice of General Washington, when his ward, young Custis asked him whether he ought to take in and pay out Continental money, then greatly depreciated. General Washington told him to do so unhesitatingly and freely, but always at its worth in the market. General Washington knew, as we all do, that "dignity" and "proportionate value" cannot be deterred, mined by legislation. Nature only speaking through Trade, can determine the relative position of silver, and paper, and gold, and wheat, and cotton, and tobacco and of everything else that is bought and sold in a free market.

I trust his constituents will permit him to remain unmolested as their Congressional representative as long as I may prove agreeable to him. The World gave a very complimentary notice of the lecture, and the Herald devoted to it nearly half a column.

YOUR TRULY SERVANT OCCASIONAL.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT ADOPTED BY THE COLUMBIAN LIBRARY SOCIETY OF TRINITY COLLEGE, N. C. ON THE DEATH OF DR. J. L. BROWER. WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from the scene of His temporal labors, our esteemed and beloved brother, Dr. J. L. Brower, and the Society, which he so dearly loved whilst at College, being desirous of testifying their respect for his memory, and expressing their earnest and affectionate sympathy with those who were most and dearest to him; be it therefore

Resolved, 1st, That it is only a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that, in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard. Resolved, 2nd, That in our natural sorrow for the loss of our brother we find consolation in the belief that it was well with him we mourn.

Resolved, 3d, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased, in the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Resolved, 4th, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother, that a copy be placed upon the minutes of our Society, and sent to Christian ADVOCATE, Goldsboro MESSENGER and Hillsboro RECORDER for publication.

THE PARENT OF INSOMNIA.

The parent insomnia or wakefulness is in nine cases out of ten a dyspeptic stomach. Good digestion gives sound sleep, indigestion interferes with it. The brain and stomach sympathize. One of the prominent symptoms of a weak state of the gastric organs is a disturbance of the great nerve entrapment, the brain. Invigorate the stomach, and you restore equilibrium to the great centre. A most reliable medicine for the purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is far preferable to mineral sedatives and powerful narcotics which, though they may for a time exert a soporific influence upon the brain, soon cease to act, and invariably injure the tone of the stomach. The Bitters, on the contrary, restore activity to the operations of that all important organ, and their beneficial influence is reflected in sound sleep and a tranquil state of the nervous system. A wholesome impetus is likewise given to the action of the liver and bowels by its use.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9th 1878.

MY DEAR SIR: A native of the Old North State and feeling a natural and legitimate pride in all that belongs to her, I was peculiarly gratified on Tuesday evening to make one of a very large audience at the Masonic Temple in this city, for the purpose of listening to a lecture delivered by one of her most distinguished and gifted sons—the Hon. A. M. Waddell. His theme was "Two Americas: a Morse and Maury," and as you are familiar with the graces of oratory with which nature has enriched this young son of a noble house, you will not be surprised when I tell you that from the utterance of the first word of his exordium to the last echo of his peroration he held his hearers in a sort of delightful rapture only broken at intervals when some especially eloquent passage roused their pent up enthusiasm in round after round of applause. Col. Waddell had come over from Washington on business connected with the postal service, and also for the purpose of consulting with the various publishers of New York on matters relating to some proposed legislation in their behalf, and upon which subject he desired to obtain full and detailed information in his capacity as Chairman of the Post Office Committee of the House of Representatives. At the solicitation of the "Mutual Aid Association of the New York Post Office" he consented to give his celebrated lecture. As above stated the house was densely crowded with a distinguished and critical audience and concerning the success of the lecturer there was but one verdict. The stage was occupied by some of the most prominent officials of the city. There were the accompanying documents of exquisite music both vocal and instrumental, and the letter carriers had provided as an adornment for the desk of the speaker a massive and artistically beautiful binnacle.

I had known of Col. Waddell's eloquence vicariously, but I had never been my good fortune to hear him until now, and I assure you sir I was more than charmed. I was electrified and I experience a stronger attachment for the Old State when I see that she can send into the world men like Col. Waddell who not only is eminent in his sphere as a national legislator but who is equally at home in the charmed circle of the blessed of the land.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Finance Committee of the Senate authorized Mr. Allison today to report an amendment to the silver bill by inserting a provision for an International Coinage Convention. The amendment provides that the President shall invite the government of the Latin union, and such other European nations as he may deem desirable, to join the United States in a conference to adopt a common ratio of legal tender as between gold and silver for the purpose of establishing internationally the use of bi-metallic money and insuring a fixed relative value between those metals. Such conference to be held within six months and at such point in Europe or the United States as may be agreed upon by the governments or any three of them. At the same time the President is authorized to appoint three commissioners on behalf of the United States, who shall make a report for the information of Congress, and be paid $2,500 each and their expenses.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Mr. Maxey called up the Senate bill appropriating $200,000 for the erection of suitable posts for the protection of the Rio Grande frontier and it was passed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The Signal Service Station at the wreck of the Metropolis reports that the survivors will leave here to-day, by the Cygnet, for Norfolk. They are destitute of clothing and most all are bare footed and bare headed. They were well cared for by the people.

NORFOLK, Feb. 3.—The wrecking tugs have all returned. They report that a terrible surf was breaking along the shore, with a strong southerly current. Nothing is visible of the wreck but the stern drives; all the workwork is gone.

The Cygnet and other steamers that went by way of the canal will not arrive here until late to-night or early in the morning. The general opinion of the wreckers is that the Metropolis grounded at low tide, which kept her from forging closer to shore, having nothing but her sails to hold her head on, the vessel from the force of the surf, came to with her side exposed to the sweep of the surf, thereby causing so much loss of life: the people on her decks being unable to hold on.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—The Metropolis, hence for Brazil is the second steamer dispatched by the contractors for the Madeira & Mamore Railroad, in Brazil. She carries 200 laborers, 500 tons Railroad iron, and special mails for Brazil. She goes direct to Para, and will be followed soon by the steamer City of Richmond.

fatal, in its course, and one that has puzzled physiologists, who, despairing of explanation, have been too ready to dismiss the subject as the idle fancy of ignorance or credulity. We are glad to see it receiving serious scientific consideration. The selections of the Journal are judicious, and the editorial comments sagacious, and the whole work is well worthy the liberal support of the Faculty of North Carolina, behind none other in the United States in skill, culture and intelligence. Subscription price $3. per annum.

GERMAN SYRUP.

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Boeche's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed free of charge by Druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, Pneumonia and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that German Syrup will cure them. The result has been that Druggists in every town and village in the United States are recommending it to their customers. Go to your Druggist, and ask what they know about it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. John Holden which took place in Williams, Tenn. on the 28th of January, after a long illness. Mr. Holden was a native of this county, born and raised in the vicinity of Hillsboro, but was a resident of Tennessee for nearly 30 years. He was about 60 years of age.
