THE HOME JOURNAL.

INCREASED IN SIZE.
IMPROVED IN QUALITY.
REDUCED IN COST.

THE HOME JOURNAL, takes the earliest occasion of the resettlement of business upon the specie basis to return to its old subscription rates before the war, two dollars a year. This was its price during nearly the entire period of the editorship of S. P. WILLS and G. P. MORRIS. The present reduction is doubly for the advantage of the subscriber, for while the rate is the same as a year ago, the size of the paper has been increased fully a third, a variety of new literary attractions have been added, with a full review of the news of the best society at home and abroad at every week, making what the press has almost unanimously declared to be

The Best Literary and Society Paper in America.

This marked gain to the subscriber the publishers are gratified to be able to make without loss to themselves by reason of the present large circulation of the paper. In the same direction they count on still greater advantages to their subscribers, constantly increasing the value of the paper and reducing its price. Thus keeping it in the future as it has been in the past, the leading departments of the Journal comprise Editorials on topics of fresh interest; Brilliant Romances and Portraits of American Life; Editorial Reviews of new events in the world of Letters, Painting, Sculpture, Science, Music, and the Drama; Original Essays; Ample Excerpts from the best European Writers; Spicy Letters from Correspondents in all the great Capitals of the World; copious Extracts from New Books; and many specialties of essays, happenings and details in the South, West and elsewhere, the very freshest matters of interest in this country and in Europe—the whole completely mirroring the news and speaking gossip of the time.

TERMS: FIVE OF POSTAGE.
The Home Journal one copy, one year, $2 00; three copies, one year, $5 00.
Subscribers who wish to join with the Home Journal any one of the leading periodicals like Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Lippincott's, Blackwood's, The English Quarterly, etc., may do so at the reduced rate of $2 for the four dollar magazines; $6 75 for Lippincott's; $4 50 for Appleton's Journal.
