

Dillsborough Recorder.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1878

UNWISE AND DANGEROUS.

The election of a United States Senator next winter is a question likely to enter into the ensuing campaign for election of members of the Legislature; and if so, to operate prejudicially to the harmony of the Democratic party...

Office seeking is just at present an epidemic. The stock of men willing, and in their own estimation, able to serve the people, was never greater.

This is the class which will take advantage of opportunity and make the interests of the Democratic party suffer for its unwarranted and premature departure from the first principles of unity and of legality.

Nothing should be done to imperil the majority in the coming Legislature. It is quite as important as it has been in the past to retain the ability to adopt additional amendments to the Constitution.

The people and the politicians too, will be wise if they keep their minds fixed upon that fact; therefore let them exact no premature pledge having only the adjustment of individual aspirations for their fulfilment.

Mr. Harris of Teup, has introduced a bill to repeal the tax on the circulation of State Bank issues. In the early part of the session Hon. J. J. Davis also introduced a bill to the same intent.

The Barque Apr sailed from Charleston last week with 250 negro emigrants for Liberia, 16 of whom were from North Carolina. The scheme is either a fraud or a delusion.

SUPREME COURT NOMINATIONS.

Our attention is attracted by the communication of "Truth" in a recent number of the Raleigh Observer in which the fitness of the Hon. Matthias E. Manly for a seat upon the Supreme Court Bench is forcibly portrayed.

More than a year ago, for all these considerations, the RECORDER named Judge Manly as one of the three qualified by character, services, ability and learning who ought to compose the regenerated tribunal of the Supreme Court.

That storm has been stayed; the waves of passion have gone down; and it is now more possible than it was a month ago to calmly consider the question of nominations.

Making public opinion by leaving facts out of the way has been supposed to be an art in which Yankee outrage manufacturers were conceded to be without rivals.

Why do you think the English are so anxious to convert the Chinese to Christianity? They kill them and take their blood, marrow &c., from various parts of their bodies to make medicine, giving them great skill and quickness of mind.

The whole North Carolina delegation is firmly opposed to reopening the Presidential question on the basis of Blair's suggestion to try the title by writ of quo warranto.

Another revolution is on foot in Mexico to overthrow Diaz. He will be jumbled out of his seat before he receives the recognition of the U. S. government, which was made just a little too late.

The bill repealing the Bankrupt act is now a law, the House having also passed it; and it goes into effect immediately.

We would inform our friend of the Charlotte Observer, that we are not oblivious to the past valuable services of that journal in advocating the cause of legal advertising.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

This bill passed the House on the 22nd "amid turbulence," in which we do not wonder, considering the great prominence given to little matters, and the trifling consideration extended to great ones.

The work, once done, and done at once, becomes permanent and effective. Fettered away what is done for the nature of the obstacles to be surmounted is such that prompt, vigorous and concentrated action is essential for success.

We hope the Senate will make such amendments as will secure to the improvement to the Cape Fear river which have been so strongly urged as essential and feasible, both by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, and by the U. S. Engineer in charge of the works.

We can now only refer to this disgraceful subject. There is no doubt of the confession of McLin, nor can there be any doubt of its truth. Mr. Hayes is concluded to be elected by the Electoral Commission; but by the Electoral vote of Florida.

We have become wearied with the telegrams in relation to the Eastern question. They indicate no progress in affairs. One day war is imminent; the next, there is prospect of peaceful adjustment, and so it goes on to a wearisome infinitum.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, April 22.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald telegraphs that the German and Austrian ambassadors at the Russian imperial court give it as their settled conviction that the Congress will now assemble.

It is England about to act? A dispatch to the Daily News, dated Constantinople, Saturday, says Mr. Lay has taken steps to put English subjects under the protection of the American Minister. The latter has asked the consent of his government.

LONDON, April 25.—The growing belief in the failure of the mediation in the Eastern troubles continues to depress the stock markets, and there has been a general fall in prices. Russian securities are down one cent.

should have fallen ill at this critical juncture. The Russians are doing their best to strengthen their position and address from various sides colour that there are considerable movements of troops towards Constantinople as well as Gallipoli.

ATLANTA, GA., April 21.—A special to the Constitution states that the cyclone which passed over the section of the country was four miles from Round, Ga. cleared everything as it went.

COLUMBUS, GA., April 21.—Col. W. L. Salisbury, banker, mayor of the town, and owner of the Equator, was in Columbus, Ga. was fatally shot in the back while entering the train at Seale, Ala. on Saturday at 10 p. m.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Hon. Wm. Orton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, expired this morning at seven o'clock, of apoplexy, with which he was struck at 11 o'clock last night.

MEMPHIS, April 25.—At 9 o'clock last night a rain and thunder storm set in and continued throughout the night; 2.85 inches of rain fell.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Special agents of the Government report with great positiveness that Louisiana and Florida negroes have been kidnapped, and are in slavery in Cuba; and it is shyly intimated that persons in this interest put the spider in Leonard's soup.

ADVERTISMENT. The following lines have been sent us for publication by our friend C. S. Cooley, well known as a manufacturer of furniture, bedsteads, mattresses, &c.

"An inscription for the dead, should be simple in style, sparing in words, modest in eulogy. The long and glowing epitaph is seldom read. Glowing eulogies are received with distrust. Excessive praise, phony always, seems especially so when heaped upon the dead."
