NORTH CAROLINA AT GETTYSBURG. Applications are constantly made for copies of THE OBSERVER containing the articles in regard to the conduct of North Carolina troops at Gettysburg. The number of requests for these from the North-State, especially, has latterly become so great that it has been determined to publish them in book form.

ON THE DEFENSIVE.

By far the most important result of the great investigation thus far is that, for the first time in twelve years, the radical party has been thrown completely on the defensive. It is not possible to over estimate the importance of this fact in a general political sense, while its bearing upon the future of the investigation itself is of almost equal moment.

Year after year the radicals have moved to the attack; and the democrats have fallen back upon lines of defense. No matter how the campaign was planned, that has always been the fate of it. But at last the radicals reached the limit of their offensive capacity.

MAN'S AGE.

Few men die of age. Almost all die of disappointment, passion, mental or bodily toil, or accident. The passions kill men sometimes, even suddenly. The common expression, clothed with passion, has little exaggeration in its force though not suddenly fatal, strong passions shorten life.

Year after year the radicals have moved to the attack; and the democrats have fallen back upon lines of defense. No matter how the campaign was planned, that has always been the fate of it.

PETER CARTWRIGHT.

Among the most notable of the American pioneer preachers was Peter Cartwright, who was born in Amherst county, Va., in 1784, and died at Pleasant Plains, Ill., in 1872.

WHAT EDUCATION DOES.

The historian of the Atlanta Constitution says: "I have heard 'cribbing' across the fence to a neighbor's son, and called you to the school."
