JOB WORK

Of EVERY Description,

KISSES.

BY JOHN J. SAXE. Give me kisses !-- do not stay Courting in that careful way; All the coins your lips can print Never will exhaust the mint! Kiss me then! Every moment-and again!

Give me kisses-do not stop Measuring nectar by the drop, Though to millions they amount, They will never drain the fount; Kiss me, then,

Every moment-and again! Give me kisses-all is waste Save the luxury we taste; And for kissing-kisses live Only when we take or give : Kiss me, then,

Every moment-and again! Give me kisses-though their worth Far exceeds the gems of earth, Never pearls so rich and pure Cost so little, I am sure;

Every moment-and again! Give me kisses-nay, 'tis true I am just as rich as you; And for every kiss I owe, I can pay you back, you know; Kiss me, then, Every moment-and again!

Kiss me, then,

A Few Thoughts on Tobacco. The Greensboro Tobacco Leaf, for June, has made its appear from it we make a few extracts:

We have to report large receipts in all markets. Owing to the stringency of the money markets there has been a slight decline in some grades; more noticeable in common, medium and nondescripts. Good rich fillers and fine wrappers are in demand at fine prices where they have been well handled and assorted in keeping order.

We urge planters to put their tobacco in nice keeping order, taking care to have it well assorted, as we see so much that is so badly as we see so much that is so assorted, many lots nicely tied an uniform and then mixed. It would certainly pay them well to assor it by the bundle, just as they are loading to market, putting different lengths and colors together. Our manufacturers are in need of all grades of tobacco and we would advise farmers to bring in their under way and will need large quantities of all grades. There sems to be a scarcity of fine waxy fillers and wrapper in the crop which we have remarked for some Such grades will command fine Wherever you place woman, sir, prices all the season when brought

A word to my friends about this long wet spell. Should you have all of your tobacco joisted and hung regular on sticks in the barn, think, if this wet spell continues it would be well to try to dry it out a little. Say get the heat from 90 to 100 degrees—I would not advise a greater heat and that for only an hour or two; if you have it in bulk you had best cover it up to keep nor more than twenty men and ten women.

Sec. 5. F i f t e e n Subordinate Granges working in a State can apply for anthority to expense a State of the disbursements, and to place in his sition you put a woman, she is an off, which, I think, would help a litswers well for that purpose. Consequently don't hesitate to take it to

> A FARMER'S APPEAL TO GUILFORD FARMERS. Although Tobacco has been culivated to some extent for a numper of years in the Northern portion of Guilford county, its culture has, until recently, attracted but little attentionSouth of Greensboro.Grain and the grasses, aided in a small degree by a limited supply of fruit, have been the sole reliance; while, as a consequence of this unwise course, gold and bank notes and building in San Francisco.
