3m $5 8 20 25 30 50 80 20 30 50 12 z col. 6.00 10.00

Court orders, six weeks, $7; Magistrates' dices, four weeks, $5; Administrators' less, six weeks, $3.50—in advance.

Double rates for double column advertise.

Professional Cards. P. MENDENHALL. JOHN N. STAPLES. MENDENHALL & STAPLES.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, GREENSBORO, N.C., Will practice in the Courts of Guilford, Rockngham, Davidson, Forsythe, Stokes, Randolph and Alamance: also, U. S. Circuit and who will at all times be glad to wait on District Courts. Special attention given to all who desire either elections in all parts of the State, and to ases in Bankruptcy. t T Office one door North of Court House.

Jan. 27:1y THOS. B. KEOGH,

BALL & KEOGH, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, (Up stairs, new Lindsay Building,)

GREENSBORO, N. C. Jan 12:1y J. I. SCALES. A. M. SCALES.

SCALES & SCALES. Attorneys at Law.

Greensboro, N. C., DRACTICEin the State and Federal Courts. A. M. Scales will attend the Probate Court of Rockingham County at Wentworth on the 1st Monday of every month.

Jno. A. Gilmer. Jno. H. Dillard. Dillard, & Gilmer

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

SOLICITORS IN BANKRUPTCY, Office over Bank of Greensboro, opposite Benbow House. DRACTICE in State and Federal Courts. Gankruptcy, and causes arising under Interaal Revenue, in District Court of Western District of North Carolina. Collections in State and Federal Courts solicited. 205:1y. June 26, 1872.

LEVI M. SCOTT. WALTER P. CALDWELL SCOTT & CALDWELL. GREENSBORO, N. C.

W LL practice in the Superior Court of Guilford, Alamance, Randolph, Davidson, Forsyth, Rowan, Iredell and Mecklen burg. Also in the Supreme Court of the State; in the Federal Court at Greensboro and Statesville, in Bankruptcy, and in courts Molasses, Salt, Bacon, Lard, Fish, Snuff Special attention given to loans of money on Mortgage and other securities.

D. A. & R. F. ROBERTSON, Surgeon Dentists.

Having associa ted themselves in the practice of respectfully offer their professional services to the Greensboro, and the surrounding country. One or the other of them can always be found at their office on andsay's corner up stairs, entrance East Market Street. Satisfactory reference given, if desired,

JOB WORK

Of EVERY Description, Executed in the

VERY BEST STYLE, And at New York prices, at the Patriot Job Office.

Chas. G. Yates,

MANUFACTURER OF Tin, Sheet Iron & Copper Ware A ND dealer in Dry Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, Wood Ware, Lamps, Crockery, and Glass Ware, Groceries, Stoves, and as-Street, Greensboro, N. C. Goods sold low for ash, or barter. jan 19:1y W. SCOTT Wholesale and Retail Dealer in STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES.

Provisions, Crockery, Wooden and Tin Ware. his line, and sells at lowest market rates and prompt attention paid to same. for each or barter.

WM. COLLINS Cabinet Maker, Undertaker, Wheel-Wright,

Corner of Davie and Sycamore Streets, Greensboro, N. C., .WAYS keeps a full line of Walnut and Rosewood Coffins, which can be furnished and delivered within two hours' notice. A good Hearse always in readiness.

Repairing of Buggies, Carriages, &c., a Le Country produce good as cash.

Vew and Improved PATENTED JULY 21st, 1874. Cheapest and best Wheel known. Will not cost half as much as an over-shot

Aug. 10, 1874-3m. Greensboro, N. C

The Greensboro Patriot.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1874.

out on piles, and was open below,

something white, like a woman's pier, and securing it where it would be out of sight, he waded carefully up to the shore, still keeping under

Suddenly his ears were gladdened

with the sound of Charlotte's voice, exclaiming, in tones of suppressed

"My Lord, it's Marse Elliott! Oh,

Marse! I thought, at fust, you was an Injun, and he had found me out," and, bursting into a fit of hysterical weeping, she alternately rejoiced over his arrival, and lament-

It was some time before she was composed enough to tell her story to Hubert. Sad as it was, it yet brought a ray of hope to his bosom.

length, "me and Miss Julee fotch

Miss Fanny as fur as the head of the wharf, arter she was shot, and then we both gine out, and afore we could ketch breath enough to go forder, a great, big Injun just kotch up Miss Julee, and run off with her.

And then, arter that, Miss Fanny

she moaned, and said something couldn't understand, and the light flaring up that minute, I seed this here hollow under the wharf, and managed to drag her inter it, and get afore her, so they couldn't see her white gownd. Arter a while, I seed Mr. Holt swim out, and get inter our boat, and I motioned and made signs, and hollowed to him at last; but just as I did so, a whole o'

the devils charged over the wharf, and I was so feared they'd hear

Miss Fanny a moaning, that I kept my hand over her mouth till she stopped. I haint heard a sound from mortal for nigh on two hours, and I'm feard the poor thing's dead."

direction of her house; his wife and where the houses had been, was strewn with their contents, and Hubert picked up one of Julia's pocket-handkerchiefs, and a little further on a large sun-hat; but she had let them fall; they might,

and probably were, taken from the house by the Indians, and accidentally dropped, or cast away. But his heart grew calmer as he failed to discover her body. If she had been carried off, as Charlotte declared, it must have been for the purpose of making a prisoner of her;

and the short stay that the Indians had made, convinced him that they feared to encounter opposition, and were retreating rapidly. He now bitterly regretted having sent back the horse on which he was mounted.

stantly have followed on the track of the Indians; and he shuddered to think to what Julia might be exposed before she could be rescued from their hands, even if rescued at all.

found still in attendance on Fanny, even the faint comfort derived from not finding Julia's body, was taken mentation, that "her poor young

Miss had been flung in the fire by the owdacious raskels." Hubert might indeed have been burned;

and he ground his teeth with im-

Returning to Charlotte, whom he those of the warehouse.

"You see, honey," said she, at ed the fate of "poor Miss Julee."

New Series No. 340.

Business Cards.

Established in 1821.

W. B. FARRAR Watch-Maker, Jeweler & Optician, Greensboro, N. C., Has constantly on hand Fashionable Jewelry, and some splendid Watches and Clocks. Which will be sold Cheap for Cash

South Elm Street.

South Elm Street. 10-1y
An assorted stock of Guns, Pistols, N. H. D. WILSON. LIFE & FIRE INSURANCE AGENT. Greensboro, N. C., DEPRESENTS first-class Companies

N with an aggregate capital of over THIRTY MILLIONS DOLLARS, and can carry a full line at fair rates. Office, up stairs over Wilson & Shober's Bank, under the efficient supervision

W. H. HILL, Life or Fire Policies.

CHAS. E. SHOBER WILSON & SHOBER,

GREENSBORO, N. C., (South Elm Street, opposite Express Office.

BUY and sell Gold and Silver, Bank Notes,
State and Government Bonds, Rail Road

in kind upon time deposits of CURRENCY Discount Business Paper!

ollections made at all accessible points.

WATCH-MAKER, JEWELER AND

OPTICIAN, No.11 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N.C. HAS a beautiful stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Plated Ware, Pistols, Cartridges, Notions, &c. All repairing warranted. A large and fine stock of Gold Pens. dec 25:1y

Candy, Iron, Leather, Flour, Meal, Soap Tea, Tobacco, and a general routine o, Groceries.

F. G. CARTLAND General Agent for the Machine, doing heavy as well as the finest of work, is the only one having the reversable feed and can be furnished as a side or back feed Machine. The prices are so reduced as to bring it within reach

FURTHER REDUCTION. Orders promptly filled and satisfaction

GUARANTEED. Prices: $50, $60, $75 and upwards Liberal arrangements will be made with reliable parties to act as agents. F. G. CARTLAND, July 8, 1y. High Point, N. C.

HILDSHEIMER. Respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has opened at the McIver Brick building a GRAIN, BACON.

and a

Greensboro, Jan. 1st, 1874. ansboro Book Ston

FREDERICK DETMERING. Boot & Shoe Maker.

Doll Carriages, &c. Fresh fruits and confectioneries received weekly. mar 11-ly The firm of larker.

"Are You a Mason." [The following was the response of Rev. Dr. Magill, rector of St. Paul's Church, Peru, Illinois, on being asked the above question by a lady:] I am one of the band Who will faithfully stand the bonds of affection and love : I have knocked at the door, Once wretched and poor, there for admission I strove.

By the help of a friend, Who assistance did lend, succeeded an entrance to gain, Was received in the West, By command from the East not without feeling some pain.

With a moral quite fraught ith sentiments holy and true; Then onward I traveled To see it unraveled,

Very soon to the East I made known my request ' light' by command did attend ; When, lo! I perceived, In due form revealed, A Master, and Brother and Friend.

Thus far I have stated, And simply related, What happened when I was made free But I've "passed" since then, And was " raised" up again, To a sublime and ancient degree.

That I might be " Arch'd," And, to find out those treasures long lost; When, behold! a bright flame, From the midst of which came A voice which my ears did accost. Through the "vail" I then went.

By the "Signet" I gained, And quickly obtained Employment which suited my mind. In the depth I then wrought And most carefully sought

For Treasures so long hidden there: And by labor and toil, I discovered rich spoil, Which are kept by the craft with due care.

Having thus far arrived, I further contrived, And so Pilgrim and Knight, I stood ready to fight, No recreant foe did I fear.

For the widow distressed There's a word in my breast, helpless and orphan I feel; And my sword I could draw To maintain the pure law,

Thus have I revealed, [Yet wisely concealed] What the "Free and accepted" well know; I am one of the band Who will faithfully stand

From Peterson's Magazine.

THE CAMANCHE RAID

CHAPTER V. Two hours after this, as Hubert Had he retained it, he could in-"Will Holt!" he exclaimed, in surprise. "You here?" Then, some thing in the man's face arousing his what is the matter ?" "Turn back ! turn back !" said the man, eagerly, as if even not yet recovered from his fright. "You are riding to your death. The Indians came down on us just before day, from him by the old servant's la and burnt the settlement-"

" Burnt the settlement !" "Aye! and murdered every soul in it—that is, excepting me," he added, "and I just escaped by the skin of my teeth. You can see the marks of the cursed arrows on the

"You don't mean to say, you cowardly villain, you left the women to perish," And he clutched the man by the collar, and shook him violent-

"I-I did my best," stammered the man, reeling back. "I say, mister, let go. What could I do !-There were three or four hundred ing from his momentary frenzy, and flinging the man away from him .-But stop. You can be of use even yet. Take my horse, gallop to the Point, and tell Le Roy to come up horse for me."

iaus---'

to break the blow to Edward. But, for himself, he had no doubt that Julia was dead, and now he was only intent on revenging her death .- swered by a voice, that he recogcould, till he neared what had been Wallace. Lavacca settlement, and then went "Ah! Mr. Bert, are you there ? I on more cautiously, straining his thought I saw a squaw scouting Valcour Dupre reached Lavacca, ears to catch every sound. But not round under them trees." hing broke the fearful stillness; not | So saying, he advanced to where a creature was seen moving among Hubert stood, adding, as he shook Hubert's note to Valcour without the ruins. The tide was going out, him by the hand and the boat could not get up to the

"I was afeard on it; I was afeard on it; them cussed cowards in Vicshore ; but as Hubert cautiously adtoria knowed the devils was down, a child, but as only a strong man vanced, he descried, underneath the and narry a one of 'em had spunk can weep, when his heart is wrung wharf, or rather pier, for it was built enough to come and give the Lavacca by an agony of doubt and fear. folks warning. I fotch a train in from San Antone, last night; and dress. Drawing the boat under the when I heard as how the Injune was then crushing it in his hand, turned out, and had bore away to the lef o' Victoria, I knowd they was a strik eye, and a flush on his cheek, which the pier, so as to shield himself as ing for this place; and so I put spoke of some new emotion. He right off to warn George on 'em .much as possible from observation. Whar is he-whar is he?"

Hubert shook his head sadly .-" Dead," he replied. "And the rest on 'em-the wimmen and chilern; and Miss Julee; escaped; but while Edward, after the devils aint never got her !- seeing Charlotte, and reading Hu-Don't tell me they have. I tried to bert's note, felt a faint hope spring get down here in time-cuss them up in his breast, Talcour was posihis unavailing search for Julia, re- her; and, for the first time, a doubt peated Charlotte's story, and, final of the success of his wooing crossed ly, showed him Fanny, still alive, his mind. He determined that Hubut senseless. Wallace bent over bert should not alone have the pleasher, thoughtfully, for a few mo- ure of rescuing her, and, therefore, ments, and then gave Charlotte left Edward, overcome with grief some directions as to the dressing and hastened to see that all was in of her wounds. Under their united readiness to pursue the Indians .care, Fanny gradually revived, but His Creole blood was on fire with was too feeble to speak at first, and rage, jealously, and love-the two when she did speak at last, she was first just at that moment preponevidently out of her mind. "It's my opinion, Mister Bert,"

Hubert drew the poor girl out can git together? from her hiding-place, and, finding "No, Wallace, I am going with brother might find her on the other. fate, nor did he meet a living soul. with horses and ammunition. We to submit. George Moreton lay dead and scalp- will make what preparation we can, We must now go back to Julia nothing whatever inscribed on it get to Julia, as he had turned in the ably, and must travel slowly."

"Well, I'm agreeable to your children were saved by their ab. going, ef you can get a horse in sence. The ground around the place, time; but I'll not wait for you; as soon as mine is rested, I'm off."

"No," said Hubert, determinately. "If only one can go, I mean to the finer kinds of leather; espe- Groping in the darkness of evening be that one; she is more to me than | cially in the manufacture of the hard -his watch marked 19 minutes she is to any mortal living; and I grain morocco and similar goods. past 8 o'clock-he lost his footing, neither gave him any assurance that ye find her," said Wallace. of the settlement, farthest from that years ago, our people did not know of people, Bishop Otey of Tennessee, on which the attack was made; and its value, or in what way to prepare and President Swain, of the Uniried his wife and two other children | the world, and even its worst vaover to cast it off, intending to re- perts to be better than any imported turn and look for Julia and Fanny, from Sicily. while his wife waited for them at a Almost every farmer has a clump nent minister an incident which of devilism. By it Satan lost his safe distance, when an arrow struck of these bushes. They are called by may be news and interesting to a seat in heaven; and by it men and him on the head, and he fell sense | some "shoemake," by others "red less into the boat, which was swept shoemake." Probably many farm. well known that Commodore Vanby the tide from the shore; fortun- ers may have tried to kill them by derbilt gave $500,000 to the Methoately, he was stunned; when he re- cutting them down. If they have, covered, it was to find that there they know how difficult a task it is. were no oars in the boat; so they It grows like asparagus-all the gift was $300,000 for endowment, drifted down the bay, till seen from better for being cut; and when and $200,000 for the structures, re-

up by a boat sent out for them. Big Foot and Hubert had com- fodder pleted their sad task, and returned had not thought of this; her body he might keep up his strength; they | leaves and sticks together. had just dispatched it, when Big to his father, and advancing to meet curers are called, pay about one cent wife of the Commodore. She is a the astonished boy, heard with de- per pound for it in a green state. light that his own horse had reached and a strange bridle on his neck. port for 1869. If thirty farmers ter come down, and fetch another a mill, each planting out a few | 000 for the University. The design to you. Mars Bert; he lowed as how acres, says the Ohio Farmer, we is to make it a grand institution in for his brood to poke their bills up "There's something moving be- Big Black warnt fiten for you to have no doubt that the enterprise every respect. It is called Vander- out of the sand. At last, one hot will go up the river in your boat hind that there clump o' bushes; I ride, and you mought want one - would prove far more remunerative bilt University. - Columbus Enquirer. day, just before foon, the sand beand reconnoitre, and then meet you seed a man dodge his head just as He said as how he didn't like the than either corn or wheat, and be looks o' that cut no how, and I was the means of inaugurating a new ment, Ride for your life; and hark," Hubert looked in the direction to to come down and tell you, if Big enterprise in their State. There is American. munition he can. His sister has pro- was sufficient to show it was not an Indian trail to rescue Julia and any bably been carried off, and we must Indian. Supposing it might be some other captives. He also writes a second to Edward, telling him of his hopes of recovering Julia, and, "Come on, if you are a friend; leaving that with Charlotte, he mounted his horse, and, after telling Dick to stay with Charlotte till Edward arrived, set out, accompanied He rowed with all the rapidity he nized at once to be that of Big Foot by Big Foot on the trail of the Indians. They had not been gone an hour, when Edward Le Roy and accompanied by one or two men on cheapness places it in the result foot from the Point. Edward handed all. Why not use it freely?

speaking, and, throwing himself on the grass beside Charlotte, who still sat at Fanny's head, wept, not like

Valcour Dupre read the note which Hubert had written to Edward, and quickly away, with a sparkle in his had believed, from the first, that Julia was dead; so indeed, had Edward; for the more Holt was crossquestioned, the less likely did it ject: seem to them that she could have tively certain, not only that Julia Hubert told all he knew related was alive, but that Hubert loved derating over the last. Edward would not leave until he said Wallace, at length, "that ras had given Charlotte strict injunckils has carried Miss Julee off a tions respecting Fanny. The men prisoner; that fellow would never from the Point promised to remain have ketched her up, and run off with them until Dr. Elliott arrived. with her, if he meant to kill her .- Hastily rigging up an awning for General Felix Huston is out arter the poor girl, they then proceeded this here very gang of Injuns; to dig graves for the burial of the they've got news on it, it's evident, | bodies; while Edward and Valcour, or they wouldn't 'ev cut stick, and having heard from Dick in what cleared out from here so soon. They direction Big Foot and Hubert had hant left narry a beast behind 'em, | departed, struck into the same trail, and mine is pretty well done up for which was broad and unmistakable.

the present. I left him staked yon. They had ridden about ten miles, der, in the long grass, behind them | when the trail parted. Here, stuck bushes. My judgment is, that we on a stick, placed upright, was angit what traps we kin start up to other note from Hubert, informing gether, and when he's sorter rested, them that he and Big Foot had tak-I'll mount and be off on their trail, en the right hand at a venture, and and you kin follow arter, and bring advising them to follow the left; as many more of the boys, as you thus, should Julia not be in the one which they were following, her she still breathed, gave Charlotte you; if you think she has been car- Edward immediately resolved to the Wilson Advance: The Balsam directions as to taking care of her, ried off, I'll never rest till I find her, adopt this advice, and though Val. Fir trees near the Peak have been track.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Sumac. collect the bodies of those who had gates more than 20,000 tons, of wards, at the bottom of this pool. Ewing's father and mother could good sumac cannot be had in this interred here; on which occasion, not be found; they lived at the end | country, but because, until a few in the midst of a large concourse as their boat was missing, Hubert it for market. The sumac of Vir- versity, pronounced eloquent tunhoped they might have escaped .- | ginia, Maryland, and Tennessee in eral orations. And so they had. Mr. Ewing hur- particular is said to be the best in into his boat, and was stooping rieties have been pronounced by ex-

the deck of a schooner, and picked once started upon a lot and cut close serving the right to approve the

The only trouble is in curing it main building to cost $125,000, and to the pecan trees, where Charlotte properly. This must be done with twelve others to cost $75,000. The One evening he came home after a had managed to cook a couple of all the care that is given to tobacco plans were forwarded to the Com- ramble through the woods and by chickens, shot by the former, which, or hops. Exposure, after cutting, modore who disapproved them, bewith a little coffee, gathered from to a heavy dew injures it, and a rain cause the smaller buildings were the quantity scattered over the storm detracts materially from its not fine enough. The commission ground, furnished a breakfast which value. It is cut when in full leaf; suggested that the money would Hubert forced himself to eat, that and when properly dried is ground, not do more. The Commodore sent

An acre in full bearing will pro- erect such buildings as he desired Foot pointed out a boy on horse- duce not less than three tons; and back, and leading another horse .- when fit for market is worth from Hubert immediately recognized eighty to one hundred dollars per both borse and rider as belonging ton. The "manufacturers," as the income. His wife is a cousin of the A sumac mill costs about $3,000. home about an hour after sunrise, The Commissioner of Agriculture with a terrible cut on his shoulder, gave an outline of a mill in his re-

"Oh, master said as how I'd bet- would unite in an effort to establish lock is growing scarce, and every > Whitewashing .- We hardly know more pleasing sight than while whistling along on the various lines of railroads, to see a farm house, with all its out-houses and fences, exhibiting a snowy whiteness in striking contrast to the green fields. It at once impresses our mind that the occupant has at least an idea of cleanliness and beauty. Apart from all this, it is preservative of wood, and it adds at least fifty per cent. pests:

A New Motor for Ships and

Mr. George G Caldwell, a young Baltimore mechanic, has invented a new motor for propelling ships and boats, which, if all that is said in its behalf be true, will supercede all others. Several experiments have been made with it on a small scale which have been deemed highly successful.

The Baltimore Journal of Com merce has the following on the sub of the streams.

2d. It is best for canals, because and backed thereby.

old boats. 4th. The roughest sea will not a fect the speed. 5th. It is best for naval vessels could be made in safety. 6th. It turns the boat in its ow because there would be no wheels matter. - Richmond Whig.

Says a correspondent, up west, of rough, crumbling head stone, with ed in front of his own door. He and start as soon as he arrives; the and her captors, leaving her brother not even his name, except the figures tain as measured by him. On his fifth visit to this peak in June, 1857, for the purpose of confirming his barometrical by a trigonometrical tion of this article throughout the mountaineers, searching for his He and Hubert then proceeded to country, for all purposes, aggre-body, found it eleven days after-

A Check of Only $100.000.

Bishop McTyeire is to have a Tennessee has also raised $200,

Good Indians .- The Virginia City (Nevader) Enterprise gives the distressing information that the Pieute Indians are multiplying more rapidly than any other inhabitants of the are going into operation .- Scientific State of Nevadea. They are also an industrious people, the women virtuous and the men temperate. Their greatest vice and ruling passion is gambling. There are about one hundred births among them to one

> Destroy Bed Bugs .- In the Counfectual in ridding our house of these remedy.

The following are the claims

1st. The "new motor" is a saving of one-third power lost on wheels, which saving is accomplished by forcing from the stern of the vessel two continual and adjoining streams of water, gaining thereby the full power of the engine by the reaction

it does away with the agitation that wheel necessarily makes: also because the boat can be best steered more freight-room; the machinery could also be attached to a tug boat and form a tow for canals, thus say noblest in character. So subtle is ing the expense of abolishing the it in its workings that we learn on exposed to enemy's shot; also, all days. Moreover, envy is utterly the machinery being inside, repairs useless; it helps nobody, it effects no alteration, it wins no goal. As

7th. Can be applied to all vessels We have given space to the above facts on account of their apparent importance, and earnestly hope there is no mistake about the

Professor Mitchell's Grave.

and then proceeded to search for dead or alive. Holt has reached cour would have preferred follow- cut down, so as to give a better operation, and so successful in its some sign of Julia. But he found the Point by this time, and Le Roy ing Hubert, he could offer no good view. Dr. Mitchell's grave is on harm, that the question is asked in nothing that threw any light on her will be here as soon as possible, reason for doing so, and was obliged the top, and has a small, thin, dark, Scripture, "Who can stand before had apparently been attempting to Indians are not all mounted, prob- and two lovers to follow in her "6,711"—the height of the moun breathes inuendoes against your measurement of the height, he was damage. Yes, envy will depreciate Sumac is largely used in tanning over taken by a thunder storm .- the character it cannot publicly dehave the best right to go after her." It is also employed as the base of and tell forty feet into a deep pool the lip and stab with the sugges-"I won't dispute you, if you put many colors in calico and delaine that feeds the Sugar Camp Fork tion of an evil hint in your absence, it on that foot, and the Lord grant printing. Probably the consump of Caney River. Two hundred whilst in your presence it will admire and applaud. been murdered, of whom there were which about two thirds are imported It was buried first in Asheville, and in their own misery does not mitifive, beside George Moreton; Fanny from Sicily, not because just as taken up a year afterwards and regate the wrong they do to others.

We were told vesterday by a promilarge number of our readers. It is dist University, which has since endless ways .- Quiver. been located at Nashville. The once a year, it is as easy to cut as plans for building. The commission had a plan prepared for a a check for $100,000 additional to -making the gift in all $600.000. building on the ground and a large Mobile lady and has relatives in Columbus. Professor Lupton and Dr. Garland, Professors of this University, have gone to Europe to study the different systems there.

death. try Gentleman, I noticed an enquiry and as soon as the young alligators tor a remedy for bed bugs, and your appear, the mother conducts them answer to the same .- Let me give to the water .- Hearth and Home. you a receipt that has proved ef-to the looks of the place, and in a Dust well the bedsteads, crevices sanitary point of view, and its use and niches where they are, with cannot be over-estimated. Its cayanne pepper. There is no dancheapness places it in the reach of ger of poisoning any one with this what is Thy sole property .- John Cold, cold is the blast of winter, Boats. And the grave will seem but a resting place Then sometimes loved ones would wands

Near my solitary tomb. love the beautiful flowers Which to us our Father has given Then let them bloom around me

Our Little Ones.

A WISH.

Let my grave be made among flowers,

And 'twill not seem lonely there.

On my grave let the sunlight fall, Then earth will not seem so gloomy, When away from loved ones all.

And under the ice and snow,

grave would indeed seem dreary,

Then lay me where flowers grow.

ot the gentle zephprs of evening

With the birds and the flowers nigh.

The birds will sing round me sweetly

And the flowers waft a perfume,

To brighten my way to Heaven.

Then let me die in the Springtime

When earth is bright and fair.

Let my grave be made among flowers

And 'twill not seem lonely there.

ENVY.

Envy is one of the most despicable of passions. There is scarcely a crime to which it will not lead its victims. It was envy that robbed poor Nabotu of his vineyard, and added murder to the theft. It was envy that led the guilty Absalom to desire the throne of his father David.

It destroys all that is best and the highest testimony that "envy is rottenness of the bones;" it eats out all honor and manliness; it gives sleepless nights and restless

Breathe o'er my tomb a sigh,

let me die in the Springtime, When earth is bright and fair,

O bury me amid the roses,

For the Patriol

the invention:

3d. The machinery occupies but ittle space, and consequently leaves length, and quickly.

we read in Job, "it slaveth the silly one;" and all sensible people must feel that there is marvellous silliness in envy. But if the indulgence of envy does us no good, it is calculated to do other people much harm. Every passion tends to incarnation in som way. Evil emotion turns to action. and becomes embodied in ignoble deeds! So deceitful is envy in its envy?" It undermines the very ground you are standing upon; it character and reputation, which, light as air to utter, are strong as iron and sharp as steel to do you fame; it will explain virtues to be vices in disguise; it will sneer with

That the envious pay the penalty It does help, indeed, to vindicate the ways of God to man, as it shows us the divine hand dispensing, even in this world, to each men according to his sin! But the misery they feel does not atone for the misery they inflict. Envy is one of the centuries, sinned and suffered in women have, through the long basest of passions; it is the essence

Harry's Chickens. Sammy Brent "lived way down South," and was just as full of mischief as a boy of thirteen could be. the river, and asked his brother Harry, who was eight years young-have some funny chickens ?" "I'm just sure I would," answered "Well, you take these three eggs and put them in a box of sand and set in the sun, and after a while

"Harry, wouldn't you like to er than himself.

you'll have three of the funniest chickens you ever saw." Harry followed his brother's directions, and morning, noon and night he might be seen watching gan to move, and the queerest kind of chickens came out. It had a long, horny, bill, a long, flat body, without feathers or wings, four feet. and a tail nearly as long as its body. As soon as Harry's excited eyes could see clearly, he exclaimed:

"Oh! oh! it's an alligator! it's an alligator come out of the egg." If Harry had been a little older he would have known that the alligators bury their eggs in the sand and wait for the sun to hatch them,

Let me, as a pure crystal, transmit all the light Thou pourest upon me; but never claim as my own Wesley's Prayer, 1733.

Any person sending five subscribers will ve one copy gratis.

Specimen copies free. RATES OF ADVERTISING.

> Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Sewing Machines, and Pistols repaired chesp and on short notice. Call opposite the Express Office, Cartridges, &c., always on hand.

mar 14:1y

N. H. D. WILSON. BANKERS

Stocks and Bonds, &c.

Receive Money on deposit subject to SIGHT CHECK; and allow interest The

M. Houston & Co., Wholesale and Retail Grocers. teele Corner, East Market St., Greensboro, N.C.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

from our respective patrons during the past twelve or fifteen years. 213:tf This has been long tested as a first class and thoroughly reliable Family of all who need a first-class MACHINE Clubs of three or more are allowed a stil which can be ascertained by application

11 & 13 East Market St., Greensboro, N. C. General Commission Business, Keeps on hand a full stock of goods in Liberal advancements made on Consignments

On Davie Street, near Presbyterian Church OOTS and Shoes made to order in th D shortest notice, at the lowest terms. The best of leather, and a good fit guaran-teb 19:1y

H. C. WILLIS, CONFECTIONER, North Elm Street, opposite Court House. Has in addition to his regular line of candies, nuts, fruits, toys, &c., a full stock of SPRING TOYS, Baby Carriages.

wheel and will last four times as long.
State, county and individual rights for sale. Address:

J. J. DODSON, patentee,

J. J. DODSON, patentee,

W. H. HOLT, T. R. TAYLOR. 334-3w.

Here my conscience was taught,

What Hiram intended to do.

Then onward I marched,

And succeeded at length "Sanctum Sanctorum" to find;

Among valiant knights to appear;

Which the duties of Masons reveal.

As a Brother, wherever I go.

BY MARY BAYARD CLARKE. Elliott was riding rapidly along the beach, he saw a small boat about half a mile from the shore. A solitary man was in it, who, by violent gestures, seemed desirous to attract attention. Herbert drew his bridle, and waited till the boat neared the shore, though chafing at the delay.

fears, he cried, "In God's name, boat." "And Miss Le Roy," said Hubert, thinking, in this crisis, only of Julia.

velling devils after me alone." " Pshaw !" cried Hubert, recover-follow them ?" Hubert said this, thinking thus he called out.

potent rage and despair at the hought of it. " Marse, jest help me to carry dis poor child yonder, under the shade of the pecan trees," said Charlotte, as he walked impatiently back and forth, utterly forgetful of Fanny. It was the work of a few moments to bear the wounded girl to the spot where Julia had been carried

Charlotte had drawn the arrows out, and staunched the wounds, as she best could; and, reproaching himself for his neglect, Hubert now gave his whole attention to reviving Fanny. He was suddenly interrupted by Charlotte, who, laying her hand on his arm, said, in a whisper, he said, as Holt swung into the sad- which she pointed, and whispering Black had got away, he was safe at no danger of an overstock. The dle, "be sure you bring back a her to keep quiet, and lie down be- home, and fetch you the young demand is daily increasing, for hemside Fanny, crawled, with his gun bay." "All right," cried the man. "But in his hand, to the edge of the pecans Hubert wrote a note to his father, day new tanneries and dye-houses say, next time don't be so hard on to reconnoitre. He was sorry that telling him what had occurred, and a fellow. You don't know the Ind- he had not put Fanny at once into begging him to come down at once, the boat, and pushed off with her in his boat, and take Fanny and Hubert did not wait for him to and Charlotte; and he determined Charlotte to his house, and see if he finish, but sprang into the boat, say- now to do so. But before he could could render Edward any assistance ing, as he pushed out into the stream, do this, a man cautiously crawled stating that he, with Big Foot Wal-"Tell Le Roy to bring all the am- from the dense clump. One glance lace, would start at once on the one who had escaped the massacre,

To his surprise, Hubert was an-there are none but friends here."