Blaine's Speech

We surrender much of our space this week to the speech of Senator Blaine, of Maine, on the elections in the South. It is intended as the Rudical key note for the presidential campaign. It was made pursuance of a full understanding between certain Radical leaders. who realize that their only hope of success is in keeping alive the sectional contention by which they profited so much in the past. It is a very cunningly framed and worded speech, an appeal, under the disguise of a plea for justice, to the Northern people, especially those who hore arms for the Union. I is full of sophistry in argument, or falsehood in fact and deduction. printed and arculated broadcast to do its devilish work.
