And thanks to Him to whom all thanks are due, for sometime past the Democratic people have ruled in Guilford and in North Carolina, and if we wish this to be contined we must have unity of spirit among the people, and concert of action in all our political movements; and to have this unity of spirit and concert of action we must have close, compact and complete organization. "United we stand divided

Let there be no jealously and no prejudice between the East and the West, nor between the town and country. I would say to my friends in the country, whose sentiments and feelings I am well acquainted with: for I have experienced them myself, that the people of Greensboro entertain no feelings but that gard for the wishes of the country people in the choice of candidate
