Home Happenings.

Federal Court will begin in this city to-morrow at 11 a. m.

The Fruit crop in this section has not been seriously injured by the late cold weather.

Grand Opening sale of leaf tobacco at the Enterprise Warehouse in this city on Tuesday April 12th.

Go and hear Dr. Craven to-night. He addresses the Y. M. C. A. in the M. S. Church at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Machinery of Metals."

A Texas preacher and his congregation had a falling out, and while at daggers points the minister received the appointment of chaplain to the penitentiary. In his farewell sermon he took for his text: "I go to prepare a place for you, so that where I am ye may be also."

Son (to his father, who had asked him where he is in his class now): "Oh, pa, I've got a much better place than I had last quarter." "Indeed! Well, where are you?" "I'm fourteenth." "Fourteenth, you little lazy bones! You were eighth last term. Do you call that a better place?" "Yes, sir, it's nearer the stove."

In our notice of the fire which occurred near Greensboro, on Tuesday morning of last week, by which the residence of Mr. A. R. Heath was destroyed, we stated that the loss of Mr. Heath was estimated at $100, and we were so informed, but it appears that our informant was in error. Mr. Heath desires us to state that his entire loss did not amount to more than $50.

The Anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Societies at the Methodist Church in this city last night, was a very fine success; the congregation was very large, and the singing by the choir, first-class. The exercises consisted in reading the reports by the Secretaries and Treasurers of the three societies, and an essay by Miss Makepeace, of the College, and a regular address by Rev. Dr. Bobbitt; after which Rev. Dr. Branton, the pastor, delivered the closing address and raised a good collection—the amount we did not learn. The whole occasion was a grand success.

The New Revenue Law.

We have received a copy of the new Revenue Law as passed by the Legislature at its late session. It contains very few changes of importance. One of its provisions require those who retail spirituous and malt liquors to pay $60 per annum in advance, and provides that no license shall be issued for a less period than twelve months. Mortgages, deeds of trust and marriage contracts are not taxed as formerly.

The Lyceum.

We understand that the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Friday night was very interesting. The literary feature has been successfully introduced, and under the auspices of such an organization, bids fair to become the instrument of much good to our community. The following is the programme arranged for Friday night, April 8th: Original Essay, C. D. Bonbow; Selected Reading, J. W. Rample. Debate:—Resolved, "That the late Legislature erred in not passing an absolute prohibitory liquor law." On the affirmative Messrs. S. B. Adams and A. P. McCormick. On the negative Messrs. W. S. Owen and N. C. English.

Names of New Magistrates.

List of Magistrates elected by the late Legislature of 1881, for Guilford county, for a term of six years in the following Township:
John Cobb, Washington; D. P. Foster, Rock Creek; W. M. Thompson, Grobne; Mebane Apple, Madison; W. P. Wharton, Jefferson; Jos. W. Gilmer, Clay; J. W. Winchester, Center Grove; Henry Rankin, Monroe; L. F. Davis, Deep River; W. D. Wharton, Gilmer; J. A. Gray and J. W. Freeman, Jamestown; John Tucker, Fentress; W. N. Armfield, Friendship; George Donnell, Morehead; J. S. Ogburn, Bruce; F. S. Davis, Sumner; David Jordan, High Point; Jesse Bonbow, Oak Ridge.

The Baltimore and Ohio Ships up Again—The Richmond and Danville Again Triumphant.

The Richmond and Danville people, suspecting that the Baltimore and Ohio would endeavor to obstruct them by a flank movement, went to New York on Monday and made all preparations to anticipate the time for completing their contract with the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line. Under the terms of the contract possession was to have been delivered to day (April 2d.) On Friday the deposit of $500,000 was made in cash the papers all signed and possession of the road delivered. About two hours afterwards an order of junction, obtained by J. W. Garrett and others, was served on the Air-Line—again too late. The Richmond and Danville people are still ahead.—Richmond Dispatch, April 2d.

Bishop Warren's Visit.

Bishop Warren, a distinguished member of the college of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a native of Pennsylvania, though now a resident of Atlanta, Ga., preached in the Methodist Church, this city, at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday, to quite a large congregation. His text was: "I would that men would pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting"—from Paul's Epistle to Timothy. His sermon was one of extraordinary power, the language exceedingly beautiful and his oratorical powers are spoken of in the very highest terms. The congregation were delighted with the visit of the Bishop. At 7:30 p. m., he preached to an immense congregation at the Methodist Church in Warnersville. Bishop Warren made a very favorable impression here, and we hope he will soon favor Greensboro with another visit.

Prompt Payment.

Mr. Michael O'Donnell, who was killed in an accident on the North Carolina Railroad early in January last, was a member of the Knights of Honor of this city. His life was insured in this organization for $2,000. On Saturday last his widow received a check for the amount which was cashed to-day.

Opera Troupe.

The "Juveniles" passed through Greensboro yesterday, and took breakfast at the Meidoo House. They are a bright little set, and seem specially suited for comic opera. They are full of fun and frolic. After breakfast they captured Mr. McAdoo's piano and had a royal old time singing, and rendered some of Moody and Sankey's hymns in a manner that would have done credit to older heads and "bigger" singers. "Little Jennie Dunn, the 12 year old prima donna, is a little beauty and bright as a dollar.

Personal Paragraphs.

Ex-Judge David Schenck was in the city for a short time yesterday.

Col. A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, passed through Greensboro last evening enroute for Richmond.

Mr. W. B. Glean the able and popular Senator from Stokes favored us with a visit to-day. He is in attendance upon Federal Court.

Ex-Gov. Vance passed through the city last evening enroute for Washington, so as to be present at the opening of the morning session of the Senate to-day.

Hon. Robt. B. Vance, one of the most popular members of Congress from this State, spent Sunday in our city, Genl. Vance was on his way home from a visit to New York, and left last evening for Asheville.

The powerful bass voice heard in the Methodist Church choir last night was that of Mr. Walter D. Simmons of Richmond, Va. It was a valuable aid to the excellent voices of the choir, and we hope to hear him again on his next visit to our town.

Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, who served from 1869 to 1873, and was regarded as one of the ablest members of the Senate, once said to a young lawyer who came to him with an application for a government appointment: "I presume you can have the place; but before I take a step in that direction, I feel like giving you one word of counsel. If you take office in Washington, you will ruin your whole life. You will never know how to live without office afterward, and no office can surround a man with the fortune of a gentleman.

In his speech at the Union League Club dinner in New York on Tuesday night, of last week, Ex Judge Albion W. Tourgee said: "The time will come when the best blood of the country will come from the South. It may not be in my day, but I believe the time will come. When the North is over-populated and old, then the strong men will come from the South. I know not of what race or color, nor do I care. The negroes down there are rapidly growing strong, as are also the poor whites, who need the ballot to teach them that they were men. Even the old aristocratic element, the most involved of all, is improving its condition greatly."

Look at the Figures.—The purchase list as given to the County Register, (see PATRIOT, March 30th.) shows that J. W. Scott & Co., bought several thousand dollars worth more goods the last six months of 1880, than any other house in the City except one (Messrs. Odell & Co.)—Notwithstanding, we were, during that time reducing our stock—and buying as few goods as possible, to prepare for a change in our business, as our copartnership expired by limitation, Jan. 1st, 1881. Good goods, at low prices will sell, and the tax list will tell who sells them. The more goods we sell the shorter profit we can afford to sell at.

Very respectfully,
J. W. SCOTT & Co.,
Greensboro, N. C., April 4, 1881.
