Home Happenings.

—There was quite a large crowd in town to-day in attendance upon Federal Court.

—Prominent lawyers tell us if the people adopt the Prohibition law, at the election to be held in August next; that it will stand any test before the courts. The measure is evidently growing in popular favor.

—Fifty thousand cords of wood were burned last year in the engines of the R. & D. Railroad, between Richmond and Greensboro. The company will soon have most if not all its engines changed to coal burners.

—The New York dry goods market, according to a letter of the 2nd of April, may be thus given:

"Woolen goods continue quiet in first hands. Cotton goods are in steady but moderate demand, at unchanged prices. Prints and lawns are sluggish, but gingham are selling freely by agents and jobbers."

Off for the Great West.

During the present week twenty-four emigrant tickets have been sold at the office of the Piedmont Air Line in this city. Some went to Indiana, others to Missouri and Colorado.

The Guilford Grays.

At a meeting of the "Guilford Grays" held last evening at Benbow Hall, the "spike tail" gray uniform to be made of best Charlottesville goods, was adopted, and a contract was given to Messrs Cartland Bros of this city, to furnish suits for the Company. Mr Jesse R. Wharton was elected Treasurer of the Company and Mr J. J. Nelson Recording Secretary. The Company will meet for drill at Benbow Hall this evening.

Probably He is.

Charlotte Observer, April 7: Isn't Mr. Best unconsciously playing into the hands of his enemies, the Richmond & Danville people? There are some kind of delays which are not altogether dangerous, and some interferences which come like blessings in disguise.

Death of a Monkey.

"Jerry," the young monkey of which we spoke some days ago, recently passed into the possession of Mr. A. L. Ellyson, who bought him of Dr. S. P. Mull. "Jerry" was well cared for, but he could not stand the cold weather. He died on Tuesday last and his owner very kindly prepared a nice little coffin for him, and to-day at 4 o'clock P. M., he was buried. Goodbye, Jerry.

An Attempt to Escape from Jail.

Berry Morgan, one of the notorious counterfeiters confined in Guilford county Jail;—awaiting trial at the present term of the United States Court, attempted to make his escape last night, but he was foiled in the attempt. Morgan had a razor in his possession, and converted that into a saw, with which he went to work and was about to succeed in his efforts, but for the vigilance of the night watch, Schultz, who, on hearing the noise, stepped in and stopped any further work on the part of Morgan. Morgan was then confined in another cell. His trial will probably take place this afternoon, or tomorrow.

Personal Paragraphs.

Col. Thos. C. Feller of Raleigh is in the city, looking after business in the United States Court.

Hon. John Manning of Gaston, one of the members of the Commission to codify the laws of North Carolina, says the Commission will begin work during the month of June.

Commissioners Everts, Thurman and Howe sailed from New York in the steamship Arizona Tuesday, to attend the monetary conference that will begin in Paris on the 19th inst. Mr. Everts was accompanied by his family and Mr. Thurman by his wife. The "race horse of the Atlantic," as the Arizona is called, also has as passengers Mr. John McCullough, the actor, the Earl of Cathness and Rowell, the pedestrian. Cartloads of bouquets were sent on board just before the steamer sailed. As she left the pier a round of cheers was given by the multitude on shore, but whether the vocal salute was intended for the pedestrian, the actor, the nobleman or the three statesmen was hard to tell.

The United States Court.

The district Court which convened in this city on Monday last, His Honor Judge Dick, presiding, is progressing with business as rapidly as possible. District Attorney Boyd, by the way a very efficient officer is doing all in his power to dispatch the business of the term. Mr. Ball, the Assistant District Attorney is just as busy as possible; nothing escapes his eye. Violators of the law may expect to suffer the penalties for doing what they ought not to have done. We are indebted to Mr. C. F. Clark, acting as Clerk in the absence of Mr. Payne, who is detained at home on account of an accident some months ago, for the following statement of the proceedings up to noon to-day: U. S. vs Eli Bean for illicit distilling verdict guilty; Same vs G. W. Lambeth for removing whiskey from store without authority; guilty. Same vs P. S. Shepard, illicit distilling; guilty. Same vs Geo. Oldham, two cases; for illicit distilling; guilty. Same vs W. N. Street for illicit distilling; guilty. Same vs James Oldham, illicit distilling; guilty. Same vs John Wharton, of Guilford, for concealing whiskey on which taxes had not been paid; guilty. Same vs Benjamin Cavanaugh, Claiborne P. Fool, Thos. J. Carver, J. W. Pass and James A. Carver, for violations of the Internal Revenue laws; guilty. Judgment has not yet been announced by his Honor.

In the case of the U. S. vs W. W. Ragland and others, Arch. Bart. n, W. F. Beck and Geo. Flynt, a nol pro was entered in each case.

At 1 P. M., the Court adjourned until 3 P. M.

Salem's Enterprise.

The new mammoth manufacturing establishment of Messrs F. & H. Fries will soon be in full blast and that portion of our time honored sister town the scene of additional business and life. The building itself, which is three stories high, 100 feet long and 72 wide exclusive of the engine and picker room, with a smoke stack over 100 feet in height, presents a grand sight and one seldom met with in a manufacturing point of view. The building will be heated by steam, lighted by gas and have every convenience possible for the comfort of employees and rapid and perfect manufacture of cloths. The capacity exclusive of preparatory and finishing machinery, consists of 3,000 spindles and 120 looms and is propelled by a 200 horse-power engine. The machinery including engine, is all new and of the latest improvements. The opening of the factory will require many additional hands in connection with the former establishment, which will afford a splendid opportunity for "idle hands" to earn an honest and independent living. In the year 1830, we are told, the old establishment manufactured 260,554 yards of sea-serges and jeans and 39,000 yards of bottonades, and consumed 197,750 pounds of cleaned wool. These figures, in connection with the new establishment, which will excel them considerably, will make a grand total, that is scarcely exceeded in the Southern States. It is truly an enterprise to be proud of, and people of the North can justly feel proud of, for upon the development of our manufacturing facilities to a great degree depends the advancement and prosperity of the "Sunny South," the land we love so well.—Winston Sentinel.

Valuable City Property for Sale.—Several desirable lots for residences or stores can be bought at low figures by addressing Lock Box "H," Greensboro, N. C., or applying to the editor of the PATRIOT, at this office. Greensboro is improving; now is the time to invest in real estate. Mch 11-tf.

Mr Levi Houston, proprietor of the Marble Yard, on South Elm Street, between the PATRIOT office and E. M. Caldebaugh & Bro's store, has just received two car loads of splendid Marble. Mr Arthur Jordan, who is with Mr Houston, is prepared to do all kinds of work in the marble line in the very best style, and at low figures. Mr Jordan does his work well, and promptly. Call and see him.

Look at the Figures.—The purchase list as given to the County Register, (see PATRIOT, March 30th.) shows that J. W. Scott & Co., bought several thousand dollars worth more goods the last six months of 1880, than any other house in the City except one (Messrs. Odell & Co.)—Notwithstanding, we were, during that time reducing our stock—and buying as few goods as possible, to prepare for a change in our business, as our copartnership expired by limitation, Jan. 1st, 1881. Good goods, at low prices will sell, and the tax list will tell who sells them. The more goods we sell the shorter profit we can afford to sell at. Very respectfully, J. W. SCOTT & Co., Greensboro, N. C., April 4, 1881.—

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

A 20 inch Davis Improved Turbine Water wheel, under 16 feet head, drives a circular saw-mill with gates half open, using less water than an overshot wheel, only running a corn-mill.

Letter from one who has tried it.

BRICK CHURCH, N. C., }
April 2d, 1881. }

Messrs Davis & Hubbard: Dear Sirs:—Yours to hand, contents noted. You will please order me 28 feet of belt 8 inches wide, four ply. The wheel is doing fine now. I have sawed four logs this morning before nine o'clock, and run with half gate, and with less water than my overshot Wheel; both running at the same time. Hurrah for the Davis Turbine Water Wheel.

Yours with respect, GEORGE HUFFMAN.

We have just built for Mr. Huffman another 12 inch Wheel to run his wheat-mill, under same head, which will be put in, in a few days.
