The DeJarnette Trial.
The Danville (Va) News of this morning says: "It is now believed that this trial, of so much interest in this community, will certainly be commenced in the Hustling Court, Judge Aiken presiding, on Monday. It is understood that both sides are fully prepared and ready for the issue. We hear that a panel of one hundred men has been summoned from which to select a jury, including citizens of Pittsylvania, Henry and Halifax counties."

Death of Sheriff Cunningham.
At 5 o'clock P. M. to-day, James C. Cunningham, Sheriff of Guilford County, died at his residence in this city. His death was not unexpected, he had been ill with pneumonia for several days, and at an early hour this morning his condition was reported better, but with slight hopes of recovery. Soon after 12 o'clock today it was very apparent that he was rapidly passing away. Mr. Cunningham was elected Sheriff on the Democratic ticket in November last and up to the date of his illness made a very efficient and faithful officer. At this hour we have not the time to write a more extended notice. The deceased leaves a wife and six children and a very large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Company was held in the town of Fayetteville on Wednesday, April 6th. A very large majority of the stock was represented. After the organization, Mr. Julius A. Gray, President of the company, submitted his annual report, which was read and adopted. The reports of the General Superintendent, Secretary and Treasurer, and other officers were also read and adopted.

The following directors on part of the State were announced by Dr. J. L. Smith, of Alleghany, the States Proxy: Hon. C. P. Mendenhall, Greensboro; Dr. W. A. Leah, of Stokes Co.; W. A. Moore, Mt. Airy; Dr. L. Harrell, of Wilkes Co.; and Hon. Edmund Jones, of Caldwell Co.
After transacting the usual routine of business, the following officers were elected for the ensuing fiscal year: Julius A. Gray, Greensboro, President, and Messrs. A. A. McKethan, John D. Williams, A. P. Hart and E. J. Lilly, of Fayetteville, Directors.
The reports of the different officers were very satisfactory, and the meeting throughout was harmonious.
After the adjournment of the stockholders meeting the Board of Directors met and re-elected all the old officers of the Company.

Personal Paragraphs.
Mr. Julius A. Gray, President of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Co. returned from Fayetteville last evening.
General Johnstone Jones, Adjutant-General of North Carolina, and Col. Paul B. Means of Concord, were in the city today.
Col. A. B. Andrews, Supt. of the North Carolina Railroad was in the city this morning on his return from Wilkes county.
Capt. W. H. Greene, Superintendent of the Richmond & Danville Railroad passed through Greensboro last evening on his way to Raleigh.
Old John Brown's widow is in Washington seeking a government clerkship. She is a middle-aged woman, of fair complexion. She still wears mourning. Her home is near San Jose, Cal., where she has been living with an unmarried daughter. The latter has been obliged to work on a farm to eke out a scanty living.

Mr. J. A. Odell, of Odell & Co., and D. Curtis & Co., merchants of this city returned from his second visit to the Northern markets this morning. He tells us that he has bought a magnificent stock of goods for D. Curtis & Co., the retail establishment; and has added very largely to the stock of Odell & Co.; the latter firm sells exclusively at wholesale.
The New York World contains two long obituaries on James Buchanan Johnston who died in Baltimore on March 25th. He was the son of Harriet Lane Johnson, the niece of Ex-President Buchanan, the brilliance of whose social reign at the White House is so well remembered; Her son, although only fifteen years old at the time of his death, had given many evidences of possessing extraordinary mental power.

For the Penitentiary.
This morning Sheriff Neil, of McDowell county, passed through Greensboro en route for Raleigh, having in charge a notorious horse thief named David Atkins, who was convicted at the present term of McDowell court of horse-stealing, &c. Judge McKay sent him to the State's Prison for 20 years, and Sheriff Neil will place him there today. Atkins is said to be a man of very bad character, and was the leader of a regular band of horse-thieves operating in East Tennessee and Western North Carolina. Coming down on the Western North Carolina Railroad yesterday Sheriff Neil asked Atkins what he thought about the sentence of His Honor Judge McKay. "Oh well," says Atkins, "the Judge is a very clever old fellow, and he gave me the limit of the law—20 years—but d—him he couldn't add one hour more." Atkins is about forty years of age.

Another Consolidation.
At a conference of the directors of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway and Fayetteville and Florence Railroad, held at Fayetteville, N. C., Wednesday, the two roads consolidated, the Fayetteville and Florence, transferring all rights to the other company, subject to the approval of the stockholders of both companies, which will doubtless be given. Mortgage bonds to the amount of $150,000 will be issued, and in thirty days work will begin on the extension of the Florence road to Florence, where it will connect with roads to Columbia, Charleston and the whole southern country.
The above paragraph, which we find in a special telegram to the New York Herald is in the main correct. The stockholders of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Company at their late meeting unanimously approved the action of the joint conference, and it is understood that the stockholders of the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad will hold a meeting at an early day for the purpose of taking action in premises. It is believed that they will, also, unanimously agree to the consolidation of the two roads.

General News Notes.
Miss Francis Kerr, aged seventeen, dropped dead suddenly in the cloak room of the Model School at Bradford, Ont., Thursday morning. —The Tennessee Legislature adjourned at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, having passed all necessary laws to provide for the interest on the State debt. —All work in the Fryer Hills mines, Leadville, has been suspended, because of a fire that is raging furiously in the bowels of the earth between the Little Pittsburg and the Carboniferous. —On Wednesday, while burning straw in a field, near Gaston, N. C., the clothing of Mary Falcon took fire, and before the flames could be extinguished she was completely roasted to death.
