Home Happenings.

—Hypocrites are now called oleomargarine Christians.

—The successful opening of Enterprise Tobacco Warehouse, in this city, has been the subject of much favorable comment.

—To-morrow is Holy Thursday, which is the anniversary of the day on which the ascension of our Saviour is commemorated, ten days before Whitstide.

—Rumor has it that a gentleman of sufficient capital will soon erect another warehouse in Greensboro, for the sale of Leaf Tobacco.—Go on with the good work.

—We have been shown a pretty specimen of leaf tobacco which was sold at the Enterprise warehouse to-day.—It was raised by Mr. J. C. Campbell of Guilford county, and sold at a high price.

—The Lexington Manufacturing Company will open a large warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco in that thriving town, on Friday next.

—Don't forget that Sunday next is Easter,—and by all means prepare something for the little folks: the Easter Egg, a handsome Chromo, or some appropriate book. The latter you can find at our friend Yate's Book Store. He has a splendid assortment of beautiful chromos. Go and see them; and he says to buy.

—The sales of tobacco at the Enterprise Warehouse to-day were largely attended. A quantity of tobacco was sold, and prices ranged high—withstanding the fact that all grades of tobacco are comparatively low. Mr. David Scott was the auctioner and right well did he perform his duty. Everybody wishes the Enterprise success, and it will attain it.

—Col. W. C. Culp, with his magnificent show will be in Greensboro early in the Fall. His circus gave two exhibitions in the city last season and made a very favorable impression. Col. Culp was at one time connected with the Press. Barnum has been an Editor, Robinson, we believe, has been an Editor. It appears that the proprietors of all the prominent shows have been connected with the Press in some capacity. Some months ago we asked Col. Culp why Editors made such successful showmen? Says he "they are so good at turning somersaults."

Cheap Rates for Salem.

It will be seen from the following telegram that parties desiring to witness the interesting Easter Services at Salem, on Sunday next, can go and return from this point for one first class fare:

RICHMOND, Va., April 13th, 1881.

ED. PATRIOT: Please give notice that the Greensboro Agent will sell tickets on Saturday, P. M., the 16th, to Salem and return for one first class fare, good until Monday the 18th of April. W. H. GREEN, Sup't.

Another Fire at High Point.

Our neighboring town, High Point, was visited by another fire yesterday afternoon. About 4 o'clock a building, used as a residence, and the dry house belonging to Mr. S. Perry's spoke and handle factory were destroyed. Both buildings were the property of Mr. Perry. The fire was accidental; loss estimated at $1,000. No insurance.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Post-office at Greensboro, N. C. April 13, 1881.

Eliza Boulden, A. Boyden, Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks, Dan Carr, Norman Carl, Mrs. Minnie Cook, Louise D. Edwards, John E. Field, Mary A. Green, Henry Howard, Catherine Johnson, Samuel McDonald, Miss Jennie Mast, Otta Salzman, Thos. Vail, Mary C. Woody, Miss Lou Wood, Eliza Worth.

Persons calling for any of the above letters, will please say they are advertised and give date of list.

J. D. WHITE, P. M.

New Garden Temperance Society.

This society met at New Garden, April 3d, and re-organized by electing S. W. H. Smith, President; and J. J. Cox, Secretary, pro tem. Capt. J. S. Ragdale, Rev. Mr. Edwards and Mrs. Sarah Godard of Maine, addressed the meeting upon the great subject of Prohibition. Mr. F. S. Blair of Summerfield High School, also made a very interesting speech. He referred to some points made by Capt. Ragdale, especially the one advising young ladies to demand the same high moral standard of the young men, as the young men require of them, and to frown down drinking intoxicating liquors in every form.

A resolution was adopted, appointing a committee to suggest names of suitable persons for officers during the ensuing year. J. E. Cox, A. G. Kirkman, A. Bradshaw, Levin Stack, Mrs. J. E. Cartland, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. Dr. Ector and Mrs. Gideon Cox were named as the Committee.

The Society will meet on the 1st Sabbath in each month at New Garden.

Mr. Albert Peele was appointed a delegate to the State Prohibition Convention, to be held in Raleigh on the 27th day of April.

After the transaction of some other matters of minor importance the meeting adjourned.

Personal Paragraphs.

Col T. C. Fuller of Raleigh is in the city.

Mrs. W. W. Fuller of Raleigh is visiting the family of Col. Staples.

Mr. E. B. Stamps of Raleigh, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary was in the city to-day.

From the Danville News we learn that "Dr. E. K. Gregory, a distinguished physician of North Carolina, is a witness in the DeJarnette case."

The Baltimore Sun, of Saturday last, says: "The widow of the late Gen. Stone-wall Jackson and her daughter called at the city hall Saturday and paid their respects to Mayor Latrobe."

Senators Voorhees and Hill shortly will be presented with gold-headed canes by the citizens of Petersburg, Va., in recognition of the disposition shown by those gentlemen to whale Mahone.

The Danville News says that Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Asylum for the Insane at Raleigh, is a witness in the DeJarnette case now going on in that city. Dr. Grissom has a national reputation. Papers read by him before medical conventions in different parts of the Union, and his controversy with Dr. Hammond of New York, put him in the front ranks of scientific men. He is the only man in the South who has been honored by an honorary membership of the Paris Society of the Superintendents of the Insane.

News in North Carolina.

The Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State will be held at Christ Church, in Raleigh, on Wednesday the 18th of May.

From the Wilmington Star, we learn that the Rev. Dr. Thos. H. Pritchard has no idea of accepting the very flattering call extended to him recently to become the Pastor of the First Baptist church of Savannah, Ga. Dr. Pritchard, as President of Wake Forest College, is doing a very important and certainly very useful work.

Special City Items.

Mrs. C. C. Gorman will exhibit on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, the largest and Handsomest Stock of Millinery ever brought to Greensboro. Hope to see you all and see it.
