THE PATRIOT is devoted to the great and diversified business interests of progressive Greensboro; the Agricultural, Industrial and Commercial interests of Guilford county, the Fifth Congressional District and the "Old North State" generally.

No attention given to anonymous correspondence, and rejected communications not returned by mail unless postage is sent for that purpose.

Communications on local topics especially solicited from every portion in the Fifth District. The editor is in no wise responsible for views expressed by correspondents.

Notice of marriages and deaths inserted free of charge. Politically, THE PATRIOT is Democratic to the core, but is not blind to the faults and shortcomings of any man, and will expose such when it comes to the surface. It furthermore believes that "to the victor belong the spoils."

All announcements and recommendations of candidates for office, will be charged at regular advertisement rates.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, charged transient rates for the time actually published. Advertising rates furnished on application at this office.

Circulation. THE WEEKLY PATRIOT is read at the freeholds of Guilford, Rockingham, Caswell, Person, Alexander, Hatteras, Chatham, Moore, Davidson, Forsyth, Surry, Stokes and Granville; Pittsylvania, Patrick and Henry counties, Virginia.

Address all communications to THE PATRIOT, Greensboro, N. C.

The Patriot is the largest, oldest and most extensively circulated newspaper in Piedmont North Carolina—embracing the entire tobacco belt. Advertisers must appreciate the value of such a medium for placing their business before a progressive people.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1887.

The testimony developed at the inquest into the great loss of life attending the burning of the Opera Comique, indicate an almost indescribable carelessness and want of system on the part of the management.

The constitutional amendment permitting election to the presidency of Mexico for two consecutive terms, after having received the approval of both houses of Congress, was officially promulgated yesterday, with all formalities prescribed by the law.

Another weekly newspaper is soon to be published at Salisbury, with B. F. Tipton and J. C. Tipton as editors. The Lincoln Press and the Dallas Current will be merged in the new paper.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Discussed Here and Elsewhere in the "Old North State."

A negro named Van Johnson was sentenced at Tarboro last Saturday to be hanged for an outrageous assault.

News has been received of the burning of the store of H. Sherman, at Mount Holly, with its stock of general merchandise.

The Mann-Arrington Mining Company has been incorporated under the laws of this State, with a capital stock of $700,000.

The Raleigh News-Observer tells us that only one drummer's license has been issued by the State treasurer during the past six weeks.

A letter from Asheville says that the farmers declare that a third of the entire tobacco crop in that section was hurt by the frosts.

Last week the cornerstone of the Episcopal College at Asheville was laid, Rev. Dr. H. Buell, of Asheville, conducting the ceremonies.

In a quantity of cotton carried to a gin in Pitt county a few days ago were great numbers of small black worms about an inch in length.

The cotton-gin of H. C. Dockery, in Richmond county, was burned Saturday, with some cotton, the total loss being $2,000, with no insurance.

Some persons are making up a test case in regard to the validity of the Wilmington subscription to the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina railway.

Mr. Eugene G. Harrell, of Raleigh, succeeds John Nichols as Secretary of the State Agricultural Society and Secretary of the State Fair.

Joseph A. Holmes, professor of geology at the State University, was married at Wilmington last night to Miss Jennie Sprunt, of the latter place.

A negro lad was arrested a few days ago charged with being concerned in the assassination in Wayne county last week of the negro man Robert Padgett.

We learn that the Wilmington and Weldon road proposes building a line from Clinton to a point in Robeson county on the Carolina Central railway.

There were present to day at Wake Forest College 195 students—the largest number on record.

The chemical laboratory is completed, and will be occupied next week.

Plans are being considered for reopening the old canal at Fayetteville, which furnished so much motive power for factories, &c., and putting it in shape for use again.

Another fatal accident occurred in Pamlico county. Benoni Cartwright, a young white man aged eighteen years, while in the woods hunting was crushed by a falling tree.

It is the intention of the survivors of the first cavalry regiment to secure the building of a monument in the Capitol Square to the memory of North Carolina's Confederate dead.

The Henderson county people desire the Carolina Central railway extended from Rutherfordton to Asheville, and a proposition to urge $50,000 for that purpose is urged upon them.

At the Undertaker's Convention in Raleigh last week, J. W. Brain, of Raleigh, was elected president, F. H. Vogler, of Salem, secretary, and J. M. Barnes, of Henderson, treasurer.

GREENSBORO'S NEW MARBLE YARD.

We wish to say to the readers of the PATRIOT and "all the people round about" that the undersigned have opened a marble yard in Greensboro near the R. and D. depot opposite the McDonald House on McDonald street, where we will keep at all times a large and varied stock of marble. We are well equipped to do all kinds of headstone and monumental work; also granite for curbing, and window and door sills. Parties in need of anything in our line will find it decidedly to their advantage to call and examine our work and get prices before purchasing. We guarantee satisfaction in every particular. All orders promptly filled at short notice. Hoping to receive that portion of the patronage our workmanship merits. We are Very Truly,

B. F. JORDAN, R. V. SPILLER.

PLEASE OBSERVE. Prof. S. S. Jackson, who has been for some months in the employ of Mr. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, the well-known dealer in musical instruments and sewing machines is no longer with him; and Mr. Stone desires to inform the public that Mr. Jackson is not authorized to transact any business whatever for him.

CARTLAND, The Tailor, has a fine line of ENGLISH CLOTHS, CHEVIOTS and WORSTEDS, from which you can select a suit to please and have made up in first-class style. He has also a nice line of SHIRTS, "Coom" brand of COLLARS and CUFFS, UMBRELLAS and UNDERWEAR of all kinds. Call and examine the finest line of Neck-wear in town.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Town Destroyed by Fire. LONDON, Oct. 22.—The town of Katab, in Bueharea, Central Asia, has been destroyed by fire and half its inhabitants burned to death.

Snow Storms Raging. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 22.—Reports received here show that a snow storm is raging throughout this State generally, and in portions of Dakota.

The Total Number of Cases. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The marine hospital bureau is informed that there have been 150 cases of yellow fever at Tampa up to date and twenty five deaths.

Decision of the Treasury. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The treasury department has decided to allow invoices to be certified by the agents of importers when the signature of the non-resident owner of the imported goods cannot be secured.

A Contemptible Piece of Business. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 22.—The Tribune publicly acknowledges the error it committed in publishing any matter uncomplimentary to Mrs. Cleveland during her visit to this city. William F. Haskell, junior member of the Tribune company, assumes over his own signature the responsibility for the Cleveland editorial, and entirely exonerates Mr. Blithen from all knowledge, participation or responsibility in the same.

Editor Haskell, of the Boston Herald, is the father of young Haskell, of the Tribune. The terrible scorching which Blithen has received evidently compelled Mr. Haskell, Sr., who foots up all the Tribune bills, to investigate the matter.

A Horrible Death. A little son of Leander Hill, living near Covington, Tenn., went to his father's gin Wednesday of last week, and sewing the press half full of the fleecy staple, lay down and went to sleep. Later the negroes filled the press to complete the bale. The terrific pressure of the block was brought down, and when the bale was rolled up from the press, bound with iron ties, the life blood of the boy oozed through it. The bale was at once opened. To the horrible and unspeakable grief of Mr. Hill, the body of his little son was found crushed to a jelly.

A Plucky Little Fellow. A mail train on the Southern Pacific Railroad was flagged, near El Paso, Texas, and when it stopped three men ran up, hurried dynamite bomb against the mail car, shattering it to pieces, and the boarded the car. The mail agent, though considerably shaken up, recovered sufficiently to seize a double-barreled shot gun with which he shot the foremost robber dead in the doorway of the car. The others ran, when the mail agent shot again, killing one of the other two.

Women and Their Ways. The Dutchess of Southernland is an enthusiastic collector of bird's eggs.

Mary Anderson wears a cloak in "A Winter's Tale," which it took twenty-five women three weeks to embroider.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor, while paying her chief cook seven thousand dollars per annum, is such a sufferer from dyspepsia that she has to content herself with the plainest kind of fare.

Mlle. Melva, the new prima donna, who has just scored a great success at Brussels, has a voice of greater volume than Patti's. People who wish to hear this woman sing when she comes to America should begin to save money at once.

George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, has a warm admiration for Mrs. Cleveland. He treasures the two letters she has written him since her visit to Wootton and likes to show them to his friends. Both letters are worded in a most felicitous manner.

Curious Things of Life. A man died in New Hampshire the other day, who had never been away from home for forty-three years.

A negress, 28 years old, of Somerset county, N. J., is a grandmother. She was a mother at 13 and her daughter married at the same age.

At Quito, the only city in the world on the equator, the sun rises at 9 o'clock, and sets at the same hour in the evening, all the year round.
