

THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

(By the Patriot Publishing Company, TERMS $1.00 Per Year, in Advance.)

Doctor W. H. Wakefield,
GREENSBORO, N. C.
WILL STAND CITY AND COUNTY AT ALLS.

Dr. W. J. Richardson,
GREENSBORO, N. C.
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
OFFICE: 101 N. 1st St.

Dr. J. W. Griffith,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office: 101 N. 1st St.

PATTISON'S FIRST VETO.

HOT SHOT POURED INTO THE RANKS OF FORCE BILL ADVOCATES.

The Joint Resolution of Implied Censure of Senator Cameron Killed by the Governor.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 3.—Governor Pattison poured hot shot into the ranks of the Force Bill advocates in the Legislature this evening, when he returned without his signature to the joint resolution of implied censure of Senator Cameron.

After the message had been read in the Senate it was allowed to lie upon the table without an effort on the part of the Republicans to pass it over the veto. This is contrary to the usual custom, and indicates that the Republicans do not intend to press the measure. The message was as follows:

GOVERNOR PATTISON'S MESSAGE.
To the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—Gentlemen: I herewith return without my approval the concurrent resolution of the Senate, adopted January 27th, 1891, as follows, to wit:—

"Resolved, That our United States Senators be earnestly requested to use every honorable effort to secure the passage of the Federal Election Bill."

The twenty-sixth section of Article III. of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, provides that every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary, except on the question of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor, and before it shall take effect, be approved by him, or being disapproved, shall be repassed by two-thirds of both Houses, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

This section is the only warrant for the presentation to me of the resolution herewith returned.

OFFERED TO THE FORCE BILL.
In the absence of any more definite information than is contained in the terms of the resolution I assume that the measure it is intended to favor is the bill now pending in the United States Senate to amend and supplement the election laws of the United States, popularly known as the "Force bill."

I am not willing to give my assent to any declaration in support of that measure, for it trenches on the principle of sovereignty, which is the essence of our free government. In the contemplation of the wise men who made the Federal Constitution it was left impliedly and expressly reserved to "the people of the several States" to choose their Representatives in Congress, and their Legislatures are entirely competent to prescribe the times, places and manner of holding elections for such Representatives.

There is neither public necessity nor popular demand for legislation which seeks to invade this right of the people and to transfer the choice of their Representatives from States to Federal regulation. The proposition to invest the Executive and Judicial branches of the Federal Government with the power to appoint agents to control the election of the Legislative branch is a most pernicious and dangerous one.

WHAT IT PROPOSES TO DO.
The device to this end, which this resolution approves, involves the expenditure of many millions of dollars and the creation of enormous official patronage; it provides for canvassers gathered at remote distances from the election districts in which their powers are to be exercised; it degrades the Judiciary by making it a political appliance to perpetuate the power which appointed it; it affects the State jurisdiction over the elections for State, county and districts by authorizing district supervisors to object voters at such elections which, in their judgment, may be wholly or in part defective, and invites the demand that such a measure should be repealed and not encouraged. Conceived as the General Assembly of Pennsylvania is to consider matters of State concern and to jealously protect the rights of its citizens, I can see no virtue in the approval of a measure which would yield to Federal interference and supervision what fairly belongs to the people of the State, and what is constitutionally guaranteed to them.

THE PEOPLE ARE AGAINST IT.
I believe that an overwhelming majority not only of the people of the country but of our own Commonwealth are heartily opposed to the features of this bill. It is of no consequence, in this view, what pledges have been made by any particular political faction, inasmuch as its foremost exponent has denied that it is a partisan measure, or that any man supporting it is actuated by a partisan purpose. Measured as a question of general public concern, there is neither justification in the origin of the bill nor any wholesome effect to be

HE HAS TWO WIVES.

Ralph Richardson Deserts His Wife and Children and Marries Another Woman.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Feb. 11.—When Florida Richardson saw Viola Deignau reach Columbia, S. C., she may create some gossip.

She has left her on the trail of a treacherous husband, and when she reaches that city a lively time is anticipated, as she ascertained within the past few days that she was married to a husband; that her husband was married also to a woman at that place; that he was the father of two children, and that he had returned to them during the week.

The Brunswick Times tells the story as follows:

She is about twenty-five years of age, and resided in Augusta for some years past, where the marriage took place. She met Ralph Richardson several times during the past two years in Augusta, where he represented himself as a commercial traveler for a house in Columbia, S. C. They became intimate and the result was that he proposed and she accepted him, and the marriage took place in Augusta last November.

Since then she accompanied him on his travels to Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville, Savannah and this city, where he proposed to remain a short while, and took private rooms at a house on Gloucester near North Street.

Tuesday last he told her he was called suddenly away to Columbia on business, and told her to remain here until his return. He left by the Brunswick and Western train that night.

Wednesday she was digging the mantelpiece in her room and discovered a letter and photograph behind a small picture, which revealed to her the fact that her husband of a few months was a bigamist.

The following is the letter and telegram:

COLOMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28, 1891.
My Dear Husband:—

Your long absence is unexplainable. Jennie and Ralph will call daily, and the little slanders ask me, "When will papa come home, mama?" Your letter about coming home are becoming monotonous, and I wish you would say when you surely will come, so that I may answer the children's questions. Your present received. It is a darling, or, as my friends say, a daisy. Such hats are becoming fashionable here now. Good bye, Jennie and Ralph kiss you. Also accept love from your loving wife.

VIOLA RICHARDSON.

The following is the telegram referred to:

COLOMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28, 1891.
Ralph Richardson, A. S. S.:—

Jennie and Ralph are very ill. Come at once.

VIOLA RICHARDSON.

The woman was dumbfounded and sought the advice of friends, and advised her to telegraph to Columbia and ascertain if the facts were such as they appeared to be.

She telegraphed immediately and received no reply until she received a letter confirming her fears.

Mrs. Richardson has immediately made arrangements and left for Columbia, and the outlook for Ralph Richardson is that he will find himself behind the bars in a few days, unless he gets wind of the matter and slips.

The Blue Danube.

Among the most important rivers in Europe is the Danube, in fact, it is the second river. It has a length of one thousand seven hundred miles; and it is tributaries drain a valley having an area of over three hundred thousand square miles. Many nations along its banks and those of the others which flow into it, and nearly thirty dialects are spoken from its source to its mouth. It rises in the Black Forest the north of Switzerland, and almost to the south of the French and Austria is its course, through Hungary, past Servia and Bulgaria, Roumania and Roubella, while tributaries flow in from Bosnia and Macedonia on the south and Poland on the north, so that practically the valley of the Danube comprises the most important portion of Eastern Europe. It runs through the heart of the ground of civilization, and is connected with the Greek empire, the Huns, here the Greek empire strove to maintain its supremacy over the hordes of savage tribes which came down from the steppes of Russia; here, after the empire of the East faded away, Charlemagne contended with savage tribes of semi-Asiatics; here all Europe fought the Turks for generations after generation, until by a great battle fought under the walls of Vienna the flood of the Mohammedan invasion was rolled back toward Asia—New York Ledger.

Death for Refusal to Dance.

MARY, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Chloroform helped a brutal stranger last evening to overcome and criminally assault pretty Lena Marks, while she was in her father's bakery, adjoining their residence, in this place. He then dragged her outside and cut her throat from ear to ear. Since the doctors have refused her to consciousness she tells enough of what the stranger said to her to show that he was an obnoxious fellow with whom she once refused to dance at a party. Officers are on his track.

HE HAS TWO WIVES.

Ralph Richardson Deserts His Wife and Children and Marries Another Woman.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Feb. 11.—When Florida Richardson saw Viola Deignau reach Columbia, S. C., she may create some gossip.

She has left her on the trail of a treacherous husband, and when she reaches that city a lively time is anticipated, as she ascertained within the past few days that she was married to a husband; that her husband was married also to a woman at that place; that he was the father of two children, and that he had returned to them during the week.

The Brunswick Times tells the story as follows:

She is about twenty-five years of age, and resided in Augusta for some years past, where the marriage took place. She met Ralph Richardson several times during the past two years in Augusta, where he represented himself as a commercial traveler for a house in Columbia, S. C. They became intimate and the result was that he proposed and she accepted him, and the marriage took place in Augusta last November.

Since then she accompanied him on his travels to Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville, Savannah and this city, where he proposed to remain a short while, and took private rooms at a house on Gloucester near North Street.

Tuesday last he told her he was called suddenly away to Columbia on business, and told her to remain here until his return. He left by the Brunswick and Western train that night.

Wednesday she was digging the mantelpiece in her room and discovered a letter and photograph behind a small picture, which revealed to her the fact that her husband of a few months was a bigamist.

The following is the letter and telegram:

COLOMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28, 1891.
My Dear Husband:—

Your long absence is unexplainable. Jennie and Ralph will call daily, and the little slanders ask me, "When will papa come home, mama?" Your letter about coming home are becoming monotonous, and I wish you would say when you surely will come, so that I may answer the children's questions. Your present received. It is a darling, or, as my friends say, a daisy. Such hats are becoming fashionable here now. Good bye, Jennie and Ralph kiss you. Also accept love from your loving wife.

VIOLA RICHARDSON.

The following is the telegram referred to:

COLOMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28, 1891.
Ralph Richardson, A. S. S.:—

Jennie and Ralph are very ill. Come at once.

VIOLA RICHARDSON.

The woman was dumbfounded and sought the advice of friends, and advised her to telegraph to Columbia and ascertain if the facts were such as they appeared to be.

She telegraphed immediately and received no reply until she received a letter confirming her fears.

Mrs. Richardson has immediately made arrangements and left for Columbia, and the outlook for Ralph Richardson is that he will find himself behind the bars in a few days, unless he gets wind of the matter and slips.

The Blue Danube.

Among the most important rivers in Europe is the Danube, in fact, it is the second river. It has a length of one thousand seven hundred miles; and it is tributaries drain a valley having an area of over three hundred thousand square miles. Many nations along its banks and those of the others which flow into it, and nearly thirty dialects are spoken from its source to its mouth. It rises in the Black Forest the north of Switzerland, and almost to the south of the French and Austria is its course, through Hungary, past Servia and Bulgaria, Roumania and Roubella, while tributaries flow in from Bosnia and Macedonia on the south and Poland on the north, so that practically the valley of the Danube comprises the most important portion of Eastern Europe. It runs through the heart of the ground of civilization, and is connected with the Greek empire, the Huns, here the Greek empire strove to maintain its supremacy over the hordes of savage tribes which came down from the steppes of Russia; here, after the empire of the East faded away, Charlemagne contended with savage tribes of semi-Asiatics; here all Europe fought the Turks for generations after generation, until by a great battle fought under the walls of Vienna the flood of the Mohammedan invasion was rolled back toward Asia—New York Ledger.

Death for Refusal to Dance.

MARY, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Chloroform helped a brutal stranger last evening to overcome and criminally assault pretty Lena Marks, while she was in her father's bakery, adjoining their residence, in this place. He then dragged her outside and cut her throat from ear to ear. Since the doctors have refused her to consciousness she tells enough of what the stranger said to her to show that he was an obnoxious fellow with whom she once refused to dance at a party. Officers are on his track.

The English Girl and the American Girl.

In "Over the Tea-Cups," that remarkable product of an octogenarian brain, Doctor Holmes introduces two young women, the one an English girl and the other an American girl, and contrasts them in a lively and instructive way.

He describes the English girl as the rosier and the heartier of the two; the American girl as more delicate in features, more mobile and excitable, but suggesting the thought that she would tire out before the other. He points out, also, that, although both of the young women are very inquisitive, very fond of asking questions, there is this curious difference between them: The English girl settles down into her answers and is quiet; the American girl is never satisfied with yesterday's conclusion, but is always reopening old questions in the light of some new fact or novel idea.

It is interesting to note the view of the same topic taken by another American, Mr. W. W. Story, who has, perhaps, had larger opportunities of comparing the two types. Mr. Story says that if you put an English girl beside an American girl whose ancestry is pure English, you will perceive a striking difference in shape, nature and color. The American, as a rule, is slenderer, paler, slighter-limbed, thinner-featured and more vivacious and excited in manner. The English girl is fuller, rosier in color, heavier in build and calmer. From the viewpoint of complexion, the one suggests a lily and the other a rose. The voice of the American is thin and sharp, that of the English girl is rich and low. But according to Mr. Story, the greatest difference is in the feet and hands. The American's foot is small, thin, high-arched and tendentious in the ankle. The English girl's is plump, flat and full in the ankle. There is the same contrast in the hands. Then, again, although an Englishwoman's voice is more pleasant to hear in conversation, American girls sing better, for the English can never fully utter their voice and throw it out—New York Ledger.

QUAY TALKS OF 1892.

He Thinks Cleveland Easy to Beat if Nominated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.—Senator Quay was interviewed today, and is quoted as follows: "I have not been feeling well," he answered in response to an inquiry concerning his health, "and as soon as I am sure that no contingency will again bring up political legislation in the Senate I will pack my traps and start for Florida. I want a change, and I feel that Florida's climate and excitement of tarpon fishing is the only remedy for my worn-out condition."

"Have you been watching the progress of the various Democratic Presidential candidates?" "Why, yes, to some extent. I think that even to-day Cleveland is the choice of the rank and file of the Democratic party for the nomination. Notwithstanding his popularity with the masses he would be the easiest man whipped of all that have been suggested. The enemies of Cleveland would not work his ruin. I will not carry New York. I don't think anything could prevent his doing so."

"What do you think of the Gorman boom? Is there anything in it? Do you think Mr. Gorman is a strong man? Do you think a Southern man could be elected to the Presidency?" "I don't know, but I believe a Southern Democrat would be more acceptable to all parties than one from the North. The Southern Democrats are cleaner and more liberal minded than their Northern brethren, and I believe that in the unfortunate event of a Democratic being elected in 1892 we would fare much better at the hands of a Southerner than we would with a Northern Democrat."

A Wonderful Memory.

The following anecdote of Mozart shows that he must have been a born musician:

When fourteen years old he heard in Rome the Miserere of Allegri; and knowing that it was forbidden to take or give a copy of this famous piece, he paid such attention to the music that when he reached home he noted down the entire piece. He was enabled a few days afterward to check the copy, when he found that he had not made a single mistake. The next day he produced such a sensation in Rome by singing the Miserere at a concert, that Pope Clement XIV, requested that he should be presented to him. Thus, by his wonderful memory, he was enabled to begin with success his musical career—New York Ledger.

FAT SALLIE BERNHARDT.

She Arrives With Her Dogs and Black Snakes.

New York, Feb. 3.—The overdue French steamship La Champagne arrived at her pier this afternoon, bringing Sarah Bernhardt, her company of actors, a huge English coach-dog, a Yorkshire terrier, no bigger than a large-sized rat, and two black snakes. There is one thing sure—jokes about Sarah Bernhardt's thinness are no longer in order. Sarah is very near to being fat. Her face is full and her form rounded.

REV. SAM JONES THRASHED.

The Mayor of Palestine, Texas, Applies a Cane With Vigor.

PALESTINE, Tex., Feb. 4.—The unbridled tongue of Rev. Sam Jones, the evangelist, has kindled a mental conflagration in Palestine. The Rev. Sam, in one of his addresses, dealt plainly, harshly, with some things that had been reported about certain relations of the Mayor of Palestine—relations that the Mayor held dear as the apple of his eye. As a result, the Mayor to-day thrashed the evangelist with a cane.

In the struggle the cane changed hands, and the Mayor received blows before the bystanders could part the angry combatants. Heavy bruises were inflicted, and both bled profusely. In a few minutes the train pulled out of the station with Sam Jones on board. Mayor Word was subsequently arrested and placed under bonds for aggravated assault and for carrying a pistol.

After a hasty meeting of citizens handbills were issued calling for a meeting for the purpose of condemning the attack of the Mayor.

Below we give a characteristic telegram from Sam Jones, giving his version of the affair:

WANTED TO SELL HIS WIFE.

Oscar Hoffman Sorry He Can't Accept a $100 Offer.

LEBANON, Pa., Feb. 4.—Last Friday Oscar K. Hoffman, a cigar-maker of this city, received the following letter from Sam L. Moore, a laborer at Light's rolling mill:

LEBANON CITY, Jan. 30, 1891.
Oscar K. Hoffman:

DEAR SIR:—I hereby ask you whether you will sell me Mary for $100 cash. If you agree, meet me at any office you call for. You say you did not want her no more, and she said she don't want to live with you. She would sooner die than go back to you. If so, let me know at once. I will give you the money at the office.

SAMUEL F. A. MOORE.

P. S.—At any time you wish to meet us we will be there.

Hoffman immediately proceeded to the office of City Controller R. L. Miller, where he has a case of wife desertion pending against him, and asked the Controller if it would not be possible for him to accept the offer, as was badly in need of money, stating that if he could dispose of her in that way he would be willing to take $50 or less, provided she would withdraw the charge against him, and would then settle the costs. The Controller told him that he could not negotiate the matter for him, upon which Hoffman went away much disappointed.

Anecdote of Michael Angelo.

Michael Angelo, at a time when Italy paid so much attention to ancient art that modern had no chance of being judged fairly, had, it is said, resort to a stratagem to teach the critics the fallacy of shaping their judgments by fashion or reputation.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

The Hecla Iron Works at Williamsburg, Pennsylvania, Destroyed.

New York, Feb. 4.—The Hecla Iron Works in Williamsburg were burned at an early hour this morning, causing a loss which is estimated at $300,000.

The iron works were one-story buildings, but covered an entire block. Brennan's Paper Company, and the Enroute Paper Company, and the Enroute Paper Company, caught fire and were partially destroyed. The damage to these signs and buildings is estimated at $100,000.

The Soldiers' Home Association.

The Senate yesterday unanimously passed the bill incorporating the Soldiers' Home Association and appropriating three thousand dollars a year for its maintenance. The people will heartily applaud this action for they sympathize, entire, with the veterans expressed by Mr. Ardy in his remarks. It is not much, but it will relieve the State from any suggestion of indifference to the care and comfort of our old soldiers.

A Cigarette Victim.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 2.—A named Commodore, at Hatter's store, is seriously ill and the doctor, as well as the members of the family, are of the opinion that his sickness is directly due to cigarette smoking. He smoked two packs of cigarettes a day.

AT HALF PRICE

We have decided to close out the balance of our stock at half price.

CLOAKS AND JACKETS

and have marked down from the original selling price just ONE HALF and as follows:

2 New Markets, original price $18 00	Reduced now to	$9 00
2 " " " " " " " "	18 00	8 00
2 " " " " " " " "	8 50	4 25
2 Wraps	10 00	5 00
2 " " " " " " " "	7 00	3 50
1 Jacket	8 00	4 00
1 " " " " " " " "	6 00	3 00
1 " " " " " " " "	5 00	2 50
1 " " " " " " " "	4 75	2 38
1 " " " " " " " "	4 50	2 25
1 " " " " " " " "	4 00	2 00
1 " " " " " " " "	3 75	1 88
1 Knit Jacket	3 50	1 75
1 " " " " " " " "	3 00	1 50
1 Boy's Overcoat, size 4 years	2 50	1 25

This great reduction seems ridiculous, and many will say we cannot afford it, but it is our entertainment and we defray the expenses; so all you have to do is to come and pay to us ONE-HALF PRICE for the goods, and we feel sure that you will say it is one of the best bargains you ever made. Our object in closing these goods out at this price is to avoid carrying them over the summer season. All are marked in plain figures, and one price to everybody. Come early before the best bargains are gone. 100 corsets at 15 to 25 cent each; these corsets cost from 37 1/2 to 75c each, but the boxes have become soiled and broken, consequently they must go. We have a great many drives of this nature at this stock-taking season at our DRY GOODS ARCADE. Can you afford to let these opportunities pass?

Raymond & Powell,

NATIONAL BANK BUILDING, GREENSBORO, N. C.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING.

A Farm and Stock Paper

FREE

TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER OF THE "PATRIOT."

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangement with the publishers of

The Breeder's Guide and PRACTICAL FARMER

whereby we can give that excellent stock, farm and household journal, free to every subscriber of The Patriot upon the condition named below. The arrangement is

For a Limited Time Only.

and will be offered by no other paper in the country.

To all who pay all arrearages and one year in advance from the date of payment in this month we will give the BREEDER'S GUIDE AND PRACTICAL FARMER free for one year.

To all new subscribers who pay one year in advance from date of payment in this month we will give the BREEDER'S GUIDE AND PRACTICAL FARMER free for one year.

To all who pay one year in advance from January 1st we will give the BREEDER'S GUIDE AND PRACTICAL FARMER free for one year.

To all whose subscription is paid a part of the year in advance who will pay enough to make it a whole year in advance, we will give the BREEDER'S GUIDE AND PRACTICAL FARMER free for one year.

What is the Guide and Farmer?

THE GUIDE AND FARMER is a 10-column stock and farm paper, issued twice each month and check full of practical, valuable information for the farmer and stock raiser. It is a fearless exponent of the various farmers' organizations and should be in the household of every reader of THE PATRIOT.

Come and subscribe now. Get your friends to come in and get the best paper published in Guilford county and an excellent farm paper with it.