

THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1891.

(By the Patriot Publishing Company, TERMS $1.00 Per Year, in Advance.)

Dr. A. R. Wilson,
Physician and Surgeon,
Greenboro, N. C.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,
Physician and Surgeon,
Greenboro, N. C.

Doctor W. H. Wakefield,
Physician and Surgeon,
Greenboro, N. C.

Dr. W. J. Richardson,
Physician and Surgeon,
Greenboro, N. C.

Gilmer & Wright,
Attorneys at Law,
Greenboro, N. C.

ROBERT M. DOUGLAS,
Attorney at Law,
Greenboro, N. C.

INSURANCE FIRE,
ONLY FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES
REPRESENTED.

Books! Books! Books!
The Greensboro Book Store

DIKE BOOK CO.,
Books, Stationery, Fancy Goods,
Greenboro, N. C.

J. H. NEESE,
Attorney at Law,
Greenboro, N. C.

GREENSBORO MUSIC SCHOOL,
Greenboro, N. C.

MRS. MARY E. BROCKMANN, Principal,
Miss Mary E. Violin, at
Greenboro, N. C.

BIG MILLINERY DRIVE,
Greenboro, N. C.

Hats at Cost,
Greenboro, N. C.

The Sub-Treasury Scheme.

Said Farmer Squash to Farmer Corn, While grubbing stumps one-day: "The glorious time is comin' nigh When I can soak my hay."

Said Farmer Corn to Farmer Squash, "Why, drat my old gray mule, What's that you say about yer hay? Yer talkin' like a fool."

Then Farmer Squash he straight'ed up His eyebrows lifted high: "I'll soak my hay in '92 In come sub-treasury."

"My cabbage I'll also paw, And pumpkins, cots and eye; I'll soak 'em all with I ole Sam, And yet I'll keep 'em dry."

"And up the spot I'll show my wheat, Reposeful in my bed: My carrots will I sandwich with With salted greens."

"And fruit of hen of ancient date I'll leave in summer's heat: And when my mules get off their feed I'll just put them in lock."

"And when you say 'bout the cash, About taxers' money, What's what's the odds, when farmers hold Got plenty in their jeans?"

Then Farmer Corn open up his mouth, And said, said he, he said, "I should soak, I should soak, I should be your d-d fool head."

DAVIDSON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT
A Grand Success, Southern Beauty and Oratory.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT
In spite of the unfavorable weather, the commencement of Davidson College was a highly entertaining and pleasing occasion.

On Sunday morning, June 14th, Dr. J. E. Shearer, president of the Board of Trustees, presided over the graduation exercises.

On Monday evening the exercises of the graduating class were held in the old Chapel.

The orator then delivered an eloquent speech as an example of the oratory of the class.

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES
The literary societies held their annual convocations on Tuesday evening.

At about eleven o'clock Wednesday morning the students, faculty and Board of Trustees, marched at the head of a procession to the main entrance of the college.

EXPLOITS OF A STAGE ROBBER.

He Contrives to Make Some of His Victims Assist in Another Crime.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—B. Miller, stage robber of Arizona, was registered at the City Prison last night by Sheriff Paul.

About 34 years ago Miller was shot of in the back, on the road between Florence and Grande.

After driving their team the brush he tied their hands behind them, put masks on their faces, and ordered them to stand while they were in this position.

When the stage arrived at the station the driver to stop. The latter did not wait until he was urged, threw out the mail pouch and press box.

They reported at once at the station, and a posse went out and robbed Miller. He was tried before the express company.

He went to Los Angeles and cured work, but in the latter of February he was re-arrested, taken to Florence, tried on a charge of robbing the United States mail.

He started across the desert, in desperation he bit into flesh and sucked his blood, but he was caught by a posse.

He started at this well for a drink, and he was caught by a posse. He started at this well for a drink, and he was caught by a posse.

At the Eleventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar and appendant orders of the State of North Carolina held recently at Mered City.

The opinion of a Madison County, Ohio, Farmer.
"I tell my people that the farmers had better quit fooling away their time going to conventions and all these meetings and stay on their farms and do some work."

This Looks Bad for a North Carolina Institution.
Advices from Charlotte, N. C., say: The board of missions, a Pittsburg, Pa., which furnishes the means for carrying on Bible University, has asked the resignation of President Johnson and two of the professors in order to put in their places—Sander, of Wilmington, as president; Grunke, of Washington, and Brooks as professors.

Ananias Lodge.
Ananias Lodge, No. 1013, Amalgamated Association of American Liars, is a North Carolina institution which is trying to get a hold in Georgia.

A meeting of the trustees from Pittsburg and the trustees of this place was held yesterday.

A meeting of the trustees from Pittsburg and the trustees of this place was held yesterday.

A meeting of the trustees from Pittsburg and the trustees of this place was held yesterday.

GENERAL NEWS.

A rat attacked Policeman Frank Furrell in Brooklyn, bit his finger and then jumped at his throat.

Policeman William Hayes, of Brooklyn, retired last night on half pay, having been twenty years on the force.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, the famous authoress, quietly passed her 80th birthday at Hartford on Sunday.

Proprietors of the Pullman car inventors report that their cars which have run 100,000 miles under their cars, while the average running power of an iron wheel is about 55,000 miles.

Rose Zoldoski, pretty and jealous, who killed Ella Daly, at Lancaster, Wis., because she found her liver would marry her, has been convicted of first degree murder.

When Senator Vance was asked if he didn't expect his sea voyage would make him very sick, the reply was: "Yes, I expect to throw up everything but my seat in the Senate."

The Wilmington Messenger says: Houston, Tex., gave Rev. Sam Jones $3,000 for a week's work.

A woman in California, who has patented a process for drying roses, so as to retain their fragrance, and has secured a market for all she can prepare with a New York firm that makes a business of filling pot-pourri jars.

A mechanic of Portland, Ore., has patented an invention for converting the sawdust and other waste from mills into a wood pulp of peculiar strength and quality that can be utilized for nearly every purpose for which wood is used.

The King's Mountain News says: Rev. P. R. Elam has this week added 1,000 acres more to his large tract of mineral lands.

The Fayetteville Gazette says: "The City of Flowers," by its liberality and public spirit has secured the location of the Industrial School and besides its eligibility as a great railway center, the pupils could have no more pleasant playing place during the presentation of their studies than Greensboro.

Jay Gould has been directed by Dr. Mann to keep away from the seashore; hence the great yacht Atlanta is out of commission.

The Boston Herald says: "Six years ago a New Jersey gentleman bequeathed $3,000 of his estate to his widow and $12,000 to Henry George for the dissemination of single-tax literature."

The Atlanta Constitution says: Bill Xave is enjoying himself in a country village of high altitude in North Carolina.

The following history seems to show that a tendency to crime may be hereditary. The hanging of Charles Ford in Ottawa has called out some peculiar facts in the way of heredity.

Hot Over the Country.

Iron workers at Pottstown, Pa., were compelled to stop work, and many were overcome by the heat.

One person was prostrated at Hazleton, Pa., and six at Milnesville, in the same region, two of which are dangerous.

John Priestly, of Wyoming, Del., was overcome by the sun, and yesterday was taken to the State Insane Hospital at Farnhurst a raving maniac.

Heat spread the raffs and wrecked passenger train No. 5 on the Milwaukee and Northern Railroad near Chilton, Wis., yesterday. Five persons were injured.

Workmen employed on the foundation of the Catholic church at Pottsville, Pa., were compelled to quit work. Several were carried away completely exhausted.

Hundreds of men were compelled to stop work in the iron-mills of Pittsburgh, Pa. At the East Liberty stock yards many hogs arriving on trains from Chicago were found to have died of the heat on route.

His Private Property.
Governor Jackson Wants to Marry the Whole Family.

Governor Jackson, of Missouri, was a great favorite among the fair sex. His first wife was a Miss Sappington. His second wife was a Miss Sappington, sister of his first wife.

They Have Done Well.
Greensboro secures the location in that town of the Industrial school for girls.

Jerry Will Run the Shop.
On and after July 1 we shall see weather as it is weather—old-fashioned weather, such as farmers like and such as we used to have, don't you know, forty years ago.

Two Ungrateful Fellows.
Miss Emma Loup, living at Lewis Lake, a short distance from the city, has just shown her bravery by rescuing two young men who were fishing in that lake.

The Young King is Growing.
The Young King of Spain, who has just completed his fifth year, is beginning to ride on ponies.

She is 70 and Blind Wheat.
A gentleman comes to town and tells of seeing a body 70 years of age blind wheat. No. 7 is the wheat.

All Right Till Your Ox is Gored.
Every one admires the man of path, but nobody wants to be the person pushed aside by that man.

2000 Yards Figured Lawns

same quality and style as merchants have heretofore sold at SEVEN CENTS PER YARD the world over. We have bought this lot at a closing out price and shall give our customers the BENEFIT by closing the case at 5 cents per yard.

GIVEN AWAY a nice Japanese Fan to every Customer.

We are also selling a regular 6 cent Chollie at 5 cents per yard.

RAYMOND & POWELL,
NATIONAL BANK BUILDING, GREENSBORO, N. C.

GERMAN-AMERICAN
Insurance Company of New York.

SAML L. TROGDON, Agt,
Office in Savings Bank,
GREENSBORO, N. C.

HEAD QUARTERS FOR
PURE DRUGS AND CHEMICALS,
Patent Medicine, Mineral Waters
AND
LANDRETH'S GARDEN SEEDS,
TRUSSES AND BRACES CAREFULLY FITTED.

ARCHITECT'S NOTICE.
If you contemplate building, call upon us and we will be pleased to give you any information you may require, in respect to the matter.

Plans, Specifications and Details
furnished at reasonable rates, also Superintendence if desired.

OUR LARGE STOCK OF WALL PAPER
is steadily increasing. Come and examine even if you do not wish to buy at present.

We have the new powerful binders, mowers and rakes of the famous Walter A. Wood, also the genuine parts and "Wood" brand of twine, all choice.

T. S. BOWLES & CO.,
At W. W. DIXON'S Old Stand. The Saw swings over the door
No. 223 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N. C.

A customer who dropped a silver dollar on the sidewalk remarked as it rolled away: "A fair price for a long way in this state."

Heat spread the raffs and wrecked passenger train No. 5 on the Milwaukee and Northern Railroad near Chilton, Wis., yesterday. Five persons were injured.

Workmen employed on the foundation of the Catholic church at Pottsville, Pa., were compelled to quit work. Several were carried away completely exhausted.

Hundreds of men were compelled to stop work in the iron-mills of Pittsburgh, Pa. At the East Liberty stock yards many hogs arriving on trains from Chicago were found to have died of the heat on route.

His Private Property.
Governor Jackson Wants to Marry the Whole Family.

Governor Jackson, of Missouri, was a great favorite among the fair sex. His first wife was a Miss Sappington. His second wife was a Miss Sappington, sister of his first wife.

They Have Done Well.
Greensboro secures the location in that town of the Industrial school for girls.

Jerry Will Run the Shop.
On and after July 1 we shall see weather as it is weather—old-fashioned weather, such as farmers like and such as we used to have, don't you know, forty years ago.

Two Ungrateful Fellows.
Miss Emma Loup, living at Lewis Lake, a short distance from the city, has just shown her bravery by rescuing two young men who were fishing in that lake.

The Young King is Growing.
The Young King of Spain, who has just completed his fifth year, is beginning to ride on ponies.

She is 70 and Blind Wheat.
A gentleman comes to town and tells of seeing a body 70 years of age blind wheat. No. 7 is the wheat.

All Right Till Your Ox is Gored.
Every one admires the man of path, but nobody wants to be the person pushed aside by that man.

We have the new powerful binders, mowers and rakes of the famous Walter A. Wood, also the genuine parts and "Wood" brand of twine, all choice.

T. S. BOWLES & CO.,
At W. W. DIXON'S Old Stand. The Saw swings over the door
No. 223 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N. C.