THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT.

NEW SERIES, NO. 1.185

GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 15, 1893.

By the Patriot Publishing Company, in Advance TERMS $1.00 Per Year

MISSING SCALES. Scales & Scales, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. GREENSBORO, N. C.

Will practice in the state and Federal Courts. Office Opposite Court House. Oct. 25, 1802-17.

N. N. N. 12.24

Wakefield n.

will be at the Benbow House, Wednesday, Feb. 22nd, and on the ith Wednesday of each month thereafter-ALL DAY

PRACTICE LIMITED TO Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. 本長の第一丁丁

DROPLESSON 34. SERVICES to the citizent of a reventions and the surrounding constry. If attend value far or near, day or angle. Here's 1 a day No. 220 p. over Express office.

Dr. W. J. RICHARDSON Office over Porter's Drug Store GREENSBORO, N. C. ar Will practice in Medicine and Surgery in Francis round surrounding country.

Dike Book Company,

GREENSBORO, N.

Dealers in Busks, School Rights, Paper, Ink, Francy Guads, etc.

Agents for Universal Patterns. From 5 to Licents - henper than other patter

Our children they number-well, seven ! There's Richard, the lawyer, you see, And Asher, the doctor; while Ezra, The scholar, has took his degree. Then, too, there is Ivan and Linus. And Arthur, the painter, at Rome: But dearest of all is our Edgar The lad = ho has never come home.

He went off to war in the sixties, With his knapsack and musket so brave! He fought, so they told us, at Shiloh. The papers the whole story gave. ad their after that we list record. His regiment was sent here and there, tel mother and I simply waited-

We couldn't give up in despair. We had but one letter from Edgar. All faded and yellow to day; It tells of some webrissme marching. And how near the events last And next came a terrible battle. When half of the regiment went down ! Our poor lad was never som after His mother put on a black gown.

Ibst still I kept watching and waiting. And can't believe Edgar is dead. He stood just six feet fo his stockings. And his was a handsome young head. With eyes the merricet of hazol. A5, yes, I remember him seli ! His brown hair was glossy and curling-It was never known that he fell.

Perhaps he is living and happy. And quite forgot mother and me, He may have gone west. I am thinking. Or singed there is old Tentessee! He may fill a grave 'neath the south sod -WAY. Yes, after all, that would be best! We could'd bear knowing our dear lad Was hi ling away from the rest.

Fullicement him in with his brothers -He's one of them, dead or alive." Our brightest, and eldest, and bravest. The fittestit seemed to survive. He may be a wanderer - rooffess ! The years have been many to roum. wait for him yet, all unknowing -My lad who has never come home. - Mrs. F. Amden.

old soldier.

Jean rose abraptly.

THE GHOST.

In a street not far from the small uarket place in Antwerp, and a little saving seyond the tobacconist of the Rabbit

I well in the mansion, and it remained speak !

"Do you wish for this gold ?" he house from attic to cellar ; when this turmoil had continued for an hour and asked. the clock sounded one, it placed itself meagro legs and slowly approached the

"See here !" he exclaimed. "I have but one thing to say: talk as much as you like, but don't touch me; otherwise we are enemies. If you dare to advance do not know me yet, my hearty !" The ghost extended his finger and January, in regard to the advisa- lieve, comes up again soon, and if caps from the Confederate General were burned. "Take care !" he cried. "So this is my first bump !"

nothing but the air.

thought to seize him he spized noth-

But the spectre did not cease making signs and pointing to the door. At want. Go shead and I will follow."

where there was a great stone with an tion of its own fundamental law. interest, he introduced the follow- longs. iron ring fastened into it. The ghost Again article 3, section 1 reads as ing supplemental bill : indicated to Jean that he was to raise follows: "No person shall be ad-other. I see something shining like a

"Before your death !" eried Jean, in

He sprang forward with delight to

But the ghost had disappeared for-from the hollow and found his candle.

Jean climed with great difficulty correspondent, surprise. "Are you dead ? One would heap and said in a hollow voice ;

The spectre silently lifted the stone ; physician or minister of the gospel, county in which he resides, setting

MR. J. S. BELL. Some Views in Regard to the Interest of the Alliance-Suggestions as to How to Protect Alliance-men and Defend Democracy

I have been approached by a present usury law the provision It was he who, in May, 1863, underfurther I will break this bottle over great many men from almost every that allows contracting parties to took the seemingly foolhardy but your head. We must keep apart. You section of the State since I arrived agree to a rate of interest so great nevertheless successful exploit of in the city of Raleigh the 1st of as eight per cent. The bill, we be carrying a supply of percussion touched Jean's hand; he felt as if he bility of reorganizing or reviving it passes it will hereafter he unlaw. Loring's headquarters at Jackson, the alliance. Therefore I have ful for any one to charge or to Mississippi, to the beleaguered concluded to write this article on agree to pay upon any contract General Pemberton, in Vicksburg, ance? You appear to have a very hot the subject for publication. I wish more than six per cent interest. when that commander was entirely hand, neighbor. But enough here is to say in the outset, that I am We are very willing to leave it to out of caps, and consequently could thoroughly in favor of the princi- the good judgment of the present not fire a gun.

Interest.

He struck with an empty bottle at ples of the alliance, as set out. in General Assembly, to solve the Fontaine-who then, as now, was the skull of the apparition, but hit our State Constitution but I wish vexed question. But a serious a Mississippian, had horses shot Before displayed in the City of GREENSBORO.

to say right here that I will have question is whether or not, if the under him, and any quantity of Then he was angry indeed. He to see the order in different hand, maximum rate of the interest is bullets fired at him, making numersought to grasp the ghost and throw and running in different grooves fixed at six per cent. people who ous holes in his clothes and equip- that he means business for he is prepared to him, but he could not. When he before I ever have anything more desire to borrow money can do so age, besides other frightful dangers at that rate. In this connection in that terrible experience. He is to do with it. "Look here," said he at last, "You Take the first declaration of the debate upon the usury law in the hero of twenty-seven hardare afraid to say to me now what you principles, which reads as follows: the Senate of 1874-75 comes to our fought battles, and came out of the wish. Why then do you come here 1. "To labor for the education mind. Serving in that body and war minus a leg and bearing other raising a disturbance. I have had no of the agricultural classes in the among its members, was a difinified evidences of his war experiences. business with you or your family. science of economical government and respectable old colored man, He is still living in his native Leave me then in peace and go your in a strictly non-partisan spirit." Senator Richard Tucker, of the State, where, at the age of 60, he original poem :

It is not necessary for me to say county of Craven. He listened works hard at his profession of that this provision of the Consti- with great interest to the discus- surveyor and civil engineer.

89Y.

fro

picket,

and then,

battle;

rattle.

creeping,

sleeping.

fountain,

dark and grim,

asleep-

spoken

his eyes

ing.

tree,

dreary.

the leaves?

flashing?

good-by !"

plashing.

the dead-

fend her!

dlebed.

glittering eyes,

sentry's tread.

By a rifleman hid in the thicket."

signs and pointing to the door. At last Jean took his candle and said crossly: "Come, then, show us what you alliance organ in the State that has understand how the people who of the popular war song, "All not trampled under foot this wanted to borrow at 6 per cent. Quiet Along the Potomac To-night."

pointed to the stairs; Jean was too suspicious to be caught, so he said : church, or government can hope to Senate and it was declared unlaw- recently published he is given the They came at last to the upper hall, live long or prosper in open viola- ful to charge more than 6 per cent. credit which to him rightfully be-this stone; but the soldier laughed, mitted as a member unless he has The General Assembly of North been a citizen of the State of North "You take me for a fool do you, my Carolina for six months past, and SECTION 1. " That any citizen of with four stories, not counting the at-tic. It was as large and handsome as a king's palace; but no one wished to hearty? If you have not a mechanic not then unless he be a farmer, this State desiring to borrow mon-underneath there was a great heap of whose work is mainly in the coun- forth the sum he desires to borrow, haunted. Upon the sir ske of midnight a ghost appeared, hu rying through the spoke :

One word in regard to those same county who has the money. agricultural or non-partisan news SEC. 2. Thereupon the clerk "Ah, jester," said Jean, "you can speak ! We begin to understand each there so called organs to be non the money to appear before him

A Famous War Song.

D. N. KIRKPATRICK There was an interesting discus. "This man, Lamr Fontaine," consion in the Senate last week upon tinued the General, "is famous the proposition to strike out of the through the South for two things. CORDIALLY INVITES THE Public to Call in at G. Will Armfield's old stand 236 South Elm Street, And examine the Largest and Most extensive Stock of

OF EVERY KIND AND STYLE

Also carry a full line of CARPETS. Come and examine this stock before you buy and he will convince you

And his prices and terms will be made to suit all. Country Produce taken in exchange for goods.

RFPAIRING and UPHOLSTERING neatly and substantially done at reasonable prices.

Parties desiring furniture packed can be accommodated by calling on us

FURNITURE

DEALER IN.

American and Italian Marble. & Stock of Frankerd Cottage Monuments, Tabat and Bradatones to select from his East Market SL, near post office, Groundary, N. C. 210.5.

HAVE YOU TIME as neat and refined. TO hest work, at the lowest possible prices. PAY A trial order solicitguaranteed.

.'. Steam Laund

JOHN M. DICK, Prop'r.

The EYE A SPECIALTY.

you may have one after another, and it was not long in any way but go to W. H. FARRAR before he found himself as drunk as an a SON at once, and they will give you old Swiss; but he did not lose his wits, relief if it is possible. They are well and knew very well what he said and the poor, one to the church, and kept is the former of th prepared with all the one he said to himself:

vour blind-

Latest and most improved Opthalmic After having drunk for some time he Instruments, and will do you justice in examining a good flow of dough. The hissing of In the eye. Specs, motes or any foreign it was pleasant and the odor delightful. subtance removed without gain, Glasses The cake being browned on one side, fitted to relieve all abnormal visionary Jean threw it into the air up the chimtroubles, such as Astignatism, Hyperopia, Myopia, Presbyopia, Hyperphoris, Latent Bet, Propheris Muscu- should have fallen upon the pan it hit far Insufficiency, or any compound something in the chimney and fell into troubles. We are agents for the great the cinders.

GERMAN EYE WATER, prescribed "A million-I know not what !" cried by Dr. AGNEW. The bestremedy for Jean. "How shall I swear ? So brown inflamed eyes, granular or yealey eye- and so crisp, and now my cake is in lids, and never fails to cure, and gives the ashes. Bah ? I must put another no pain adleful of batter in the pan."

Off co hours from 10 a. m., to 3 p. m Farrar & Son, JEWELERS, derstand. For no one dared to go into the house, though the ghost only cried. Deliver my soul ! Deliver my soul !" the last proprietor of the mansion, and death.

The Washington

that he had from avarice hidden a great sum of money somewhere in the house. This went on for a long time, until not have judged so from your appearattention to the fact one day came an old soldier of Napolthat your character is eon's wars. He was called Jean the schind the street door and began to ament so sadly that every one had observation, and continued : read in the linen that Strong, and he had said in the ale-house you wear ? You may at which he stopped that nothing would wear a plain suit of give him greater pleasure than to sleep ciothes but if set off one night in this deserted dwelling; if church, and the third is for you.' "For me !" cried Jean, joyously.

compassion upon it-at a distance, un- jolly lot of ten-florin pieces."

ed Shirt, Collar and florins, The owner of the house overheard Cuffs, you are marked this.

grasp it, stumbled, fall upon the heap, "Is that so ? Dare you sleep in the and his light was extinguished. The We furnish the very mansion yonder ?" he asked. "Yes," said Jean. "for I mock at any immediately followed.

vil from all the ghosts and devils in the world. "Well," said the owner, "do it and it ed, and satisfaction is a bargain. What shall I let you have F "Give me a bundle of good beechwood sticks, a dozen bottles of wine, a bottle of gin, a pan filled with dough, and a dish in which to do my baking. "You shall have them all," said the ther ; and when they had been brought he went to bled. Jean went to the dwelling with the pro-

At 4 o'clock he carried his wood and until, looking into the fireplace, he ais pan of dough into a chamber on the first floor, where there were already a plain about table and two chairs. He built a large your blind-ness,headache or any eye trouble that heating he broke off the necks of bottles, was the only way Jean could account to that fund, and that is to either for their existence.

me out of this hole."

He did just what the ghost had bade the farmers and laborers to get tothe third himself. So he became rich, began to grow hungry. He put his frying pan upon the fire and poured in der which the ghost had hidden his treasure, and people to whom he told ney to turn it over. But just when it Waverly Magazine.

An Approach to Perfection.

No book is absolutely without errors when publishe 1. It is said that a Spanish firm once produced a work in which rupting the democratic party. one letter only got misplaced through

But first he poked up the chimney o see what had caused the cake to fall. hungry to investigate its nature. He same end, and issued proof sheets to pushed it aside and proceeded to cook the universities with an offer of fifty his second cake. When this was half pounds if any error was discovered in those so called organs to be non- the money, to appear before him All quiet along the Potomac to-night, partisan? The first job I see for at a certain day or show cause why dreaming: The ghost took three pots from the them to do is to prove that the he should not loan the money to Their tents in the rays of the clear au-Third party, or Peoples party is the petitioner, and shall also aptumn moon "Here are three vessels filled with not a party, or at least not a poli- point a committee of three disin-It was said that this was the soul of gold which I had hidden before my tical party. I admit there is not a terested persons to examine and gleaming.

great deal of the Third party, but report upon the value of the secu- A tremulous sigh as a gentle night wind it is nevertheless a party, a political rity offered for the loan. and a very bitter partisan party. SEC. 3. If the person so sum-They may, however, save themselves moned before the clerk shall ad-The ghost paid no attention to this under Dr. Sanderlin's definition of mit that he has the money as althe difference between a farmer leged and the committee shall re-"I was obliged to walk the earth until and an agriculturist. The Doctor port that the security offered for There is only the sound of the lone these pots were discovered; and you says a farmer is a man who man- the loan is in all respects suffi have come to deliver me. One of them ages a farm and an agriculturist is cient, then the clerk shall duly enby clean, well launder- any one would advance him a hundred you will give to the poor, one to the one who manages the farmer. I ter judgment that the loan be made don't suppose that one of those as demanded by the petitioner upeditors has done an honest day's on the execution and delivery of Far away in the cot on the mountain. proper rate and mortgage.

work on a farm in ten years. I wish to say further that the SEC. 4. That the said judgment clock struck one. A crashing sound alliance + ands to-day indicted be- shall be enforced by proceedings Grows gentle with memories tender, fore the eyes of the civilized world in contempt, in the event the de As he mutters a prayer for the children

"Hah !" cried Jean. "Where am I ? as being corrupted into a huge po- fendant refuses to make the loan My dear ghost, come here ! I have de litical machine. To prove this you as adjudged. livered you from evil-you should help only have to turn to the record of The foregoing bill of Senator almost every leader from its na- Tucker's did not pass, and the law The moon seems to shine as brightly as tional head down to the little sub- fixing the rate interest at six per cent, and no more, was repealed at Why, almost every day you see the next session of the General Leaped up to his lips, and when low He descended to the first floor, and resolutions published that have Assembly.

having drunk two more bottles of wine been passed with closed doors en-Don't waste time, money, and dorsing the course of their leaders, health, trying every new medicine The next morning he awoke late, and and contributing of their funds to you may see advertised in the paconsidered all that had passed a dream further the third party movement. you may see advertised in the dathers his gun close up to its discovered there three vessels filled A great deal of said funds were is in the blood, liver, stomach, or with gold. Evidently the ghost had put there by others. There is $35,- kidneys, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla thrown them down the chimney, which 000.00 in the hands of B. A., our at once, and be sure of a cure. lay behind the big stone. At least that trustee, and I don't see but one way Take no other.

> let the whole structure fall or for The Sherman Silver Act Secure WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 .-- The Reliances, throw open the door and ptblican members of the Senate, for his pot contained at least a hundred make a scourge of small cords and under direction of Senator Shermillions. And he dwelt in the great bind the hands of those who have man, have just completed a poll of mansion, had horses and carriages, prostituted the order, and then the Senate on the proposed repeal slept upon a bel of velvel, drank wine take such steps as will in their wis- of the Sherman Silver act of 1890. and lived at a restaurant all his days. dom save to them this snug ilttle The poll was made by Senators But he could never find the stone un- sum of money. If the charter of Chandler and Dixon and it is said the alliance prevents the proper that the result is not at all satisthe story always listened to it with a management of this money, then factory to those who have looked All quiet along the Potomac tonight, laugh .- Translated by C. A. Shaw for let the general assembly be asked forward to the possible repeal of to change or repeal the charter, so the act. According to the comthat it cannot be used, as it may mon report, these Senators have and can/now be, to aid in further discovered that 'there are only disintegrating the alliance and dis- about eight members on the Democratic side who can be depended The question will doubtless be upon to vote for the repeal and accident, and this is believed to have asked, why throw open the doors. that the result is even more disbeen the nearest approach to perfection Simply for the reason that the or- couraging on the Republican side. his vigorous thrusts and fell into the It is further stated that an English in my opinion ought never again this class Senator Platt is placed, 102 South Eim Street, Greensboro, N. C. fire. Jean was too careless and too house had made a great effort to the be resurrected in secrecy. The who are in favor of or who would further question may be asked vote for the repeal if the measure econamical. what good can you hope to accom- came to vote to bring it under them, but, in spite of this precaution, plish if every body knows what consideration. It is understood several blunders remained undetected you are doing? I might with as that there is a majority of seven or

Plain Words from Grover. A Baltimore Sun reporter recent-