Scales & Scales,

GREENSHORD, N. C. practice in the State and Federal from two Office Op, calle Court House. frat 26, 1832 15.

Wakefield Will be at the Benhow House on Wedres av, Maren 8th, and Wednesday March 22mg (2d, and 4th Wednesday zings on the 8th, 8.30 to 230; on the 22nd, 8.30 to 5.

PRACTICE LIMITED TO Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Dr. Arthur E. Ledbetter,

DEGRESSIONAL SCHVICES to the differen

Dr. W. J. RICHARDSON Office over Porter's Dryg Store-

GREENSBORO, N. C.  Will practice in Medicine and Surgery in remoters and derivative country.

Dike Book Company.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Brewlers in Braks, School Books, Paper, Lall, Fancy Goods, etc.

Agents for Universal Patterns. From Line Lowers : beaper than $1500 patterns

J. H. NEESE.

American and Italian Marble.

attention to the fact with me? that your character is wear a plain suit of Greensboro : Steam : Laundr JOHN M. DICK, Prop'r.

in any way but go to W. R. FARRAR & SQN at once, and they will give you Latest and most improved Opthalmic Instruments, and will do you justice in examining perobia, Myopia, Presbyopia, Hyperphoris, Lafeut Bet, Prophoria Muscu-GERMAN EYE WATER, prescribed by Br. Atan E. W. The best remedy for hand, had turned as he reached the de Sevigne, writer of equally famous lids, and never falls to cure, and gives to are from 10 a. m., toll p. m W. By Farrar & Son,

The Washington

OF NEW YORK.

The policies written by the WASH- if he marries Cecile Grey. INGTON are described in these general terms. Non-forfestable, Unrestricted as to Residence and Travel af-INCH YESPA Incentestable after two occurred by an Invested Reserve Solidly backed by bond to r than Railroad Se-AUG! PR Not affected by the Steck Market. ester Paving Invest-States Bonds.

Definite Contracts. T. L. ALFRIEND, Manager, Richmond, Va. T. C. GALES, Special Agent, Greensboro, N. C. AS MY UNCLE USED TO SAY.

we thought a power on men and things, is my kincle ust to say. of of folks don't work as they pray, I fings M'y, they ain't no use to pray!
If you want semethin', and jest dead-set i-possion' for it with both eyes wet, tight ours won't bring it, w'y, you try awest As my tracle ust to say.

They's some don't know their A B Ca. Army uncleus to say, nd ; it don't waste no candle grease, Nor whistle their lives away : of of they can't write no bank, nor rhyme key can blaze the way for the march sublime As my unele pst to say.

Whoever's foreman of all things here, Avery uncle not to pay, He knows each job 'at we're best fit fer, And our round-up night and day : and a sizin' his work, east and west, $ ind north and south, and gorst and heat. ale't got nothin' to suggest, As my unele ust to say. - James Whitcomb Riley.

THE WEST PASTURE.

of the farmhouse, and slanting across Jack's room. he row of shining milkpans, formed a Jack was just awaking from a troubled Seft Behind Me." on her hands and thought seriously, a of it. perplexed pucker between her straight brown. Pretty she was not, but her fair, calm face, looking placidly tout rom beneath her crown of really beauiful hair, the envy of all the village ris, was very attractive. The farm hands were coming in for going on around her.

"A penny for your thoughts, Cecy !" poke a manly voice, and Jack Newton ppeared at the outer door. Ceey, turning, came out from her jucation so occupied my thoughts that instant had led the way to safety. I had forgotten my evening duties."

I saw you, and that settled my doubts Jack's feet.

allow her dislike to spoil our pleasure? he will forgive me some day. So it is settled? You will come

"Yes, Jack.

Well pleased, the young man went The cause of Mrs. Newton's dislike Cecile was a trival one. When she was a little child Cecile's father had said, and fill in the corner, thus mak-A trial order solicit- ing her acres form almost a square. ! She ed, and satisfaction had set her heart on having the pasture, but Cecile loved the place, and by coaxing and liberal offers to gain I shall be proud to take my wife. Will er point, but the girl was determined. At last, flying into a passion, the elder on good for her place, and who would craved.

sever get her Jack, for whom she had et her cap." And having thus releved her mind she went home. For two years she had not entered plain about the Grey farmhouse unless she knew hands, says, "They are the most beautiyour blind- the only daughter was absent. Good, ness, beadache motherly Mrs. Grev overlooked the or any eye conditional Jack cordially when-feud of the west pasture is at an end. you may have ever he called, paid little neighborly visits to Mrs. Newton, and in every about her datues with a light step and in the eye. Spees, motes or any foreign room, which was tastefully adorned by subtance removed without pain, Glasses her own hands, and sitting by the win-Meanwhile, Mrs. Newton, her face ed with anger, stood listening to Jack, sho with his bedroom lamp in his

> "I must be up early in the morning, other, for I am going to the picnic. twelle has promised to accompany me, intend to ask her to be my wife," he sent on, in some confusion. "She will make you a good daughter, mother; author of "John Halifax." Mrs. Bar-

"But not such a one as you want to had no children, and the same was the give me," exclaimed Mrs. Newton. No. Jack, I will never welcome her to his house! If it had been any one be but Cecile Grey-never!" "Mother," said Jack, firmly, "why an not you overcome this foolish pre-uslice? I shall marry Cecile if she Mrs. Newton was taken by surprise bed, dreamed of Jack. At first her and swear they will hold possession it not for the very trying tints of in sight for an instant. wore on they became disturbed, and at ast she awoke with the strange feeling but her lover was in danger.

he window. As she threw up the sash stid leaned out across the sill, she saw that a cloudy sky had taken the piace and marigages, first of the starry one she had gazed at earlier in the night. The wind had ally conceded to the United States' risen and blew in fitful guests around twenty-dollar gold piece, a marvel the corners of the house.

A troubled thought of the pleasure she had anticipated came to Cecile, and loveliest of God's handiwork is a ments than United then all at once, as a stronger gust of handsome woman, if in the bloom wind came to her, she smelled a faint of health; if she is not, Dr. Pierce's than oder of musk. Looking quickly at the Favorite Prescription will restore Assessment Certiff barn and other buildings, she could see her. Ladies who use this peerless nothing unusual. She raised her eves remedy are unanimous in its praise, More Liberal than the and looked anxiously in the direction for it cures those countless ills of Jack's house. What was that red glow spreading above the treetops? she wondered; and then she realized for it cures those countless ills marriage was one of the most brilliant celebrated in Cairo in many she wondered; and then she realized irregulaties, dragging-down pains, vears. that the Newton farmibouse was on fire. Running down stairs she roused he father; then out of the door and through the darkness she

FOR LADIES ALONE.

All was quiet when she reached the gate, which was locked. What should she do? She looked up at the high The New York Styles, Straw Hats pickets with their cruelly sharp points, and then began to climb resolutely up ; balancing herself on the top she dropped to the ground. Her skirts caught on the sharp points, but she managed to wrench them free, and never noticing how her hands were bleeding, made her way to the house.

her father never come? Looking anxiously around she saw an open window; she sprang through it, and found that she was in the thickest scarf she had thrown over her head, and temple of histrionic art. binding it around her mouth prepared ward, till, blinded by the smoke, she The autumn day was closing in a struck her foot against the lowest step. glory of purple and gold ; the last rays | With a little scream of joy she flew up of the setting sun entered the window the stairs and along the wide hall to alo of gold about the head of the sleep. Hearing Cecile's voice he inarmer's daughter, Cecile Grey, as she stantly sprang up, comprehending the stood with the full pail of milk poised danger almost before she could tell him

"Mother sleeps down stairs in the little room on the right," he said in answer to her question. "Wait Cecile!"

in revery, and unmindful of what was flow down the stairs, and reached the door just as one cruel tongue of fire a big bow under the chin. darted across the top of it.

I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking of the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how, she knew not,
I was thinking the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how the picnic to-morin a blanket, and the picnic to-morin a blanket, and how the picn ow, Jack. No one has asked me to managed to drag her into the hall. Fifth Avenue milliners are show- ginian was introduced by Mr. Gres. Hartford Courant: "Those who to, and I wondered if I must stay at There Jack joined her. He promptly nome, after all. That momentous relieved her of her burden, and in an ing them.

saked you before. But as I was strol- this fact Cecile's courage and strength from imported models. ting past, half inclined to give it all up, gave way, and she slipped down at

Mrs. Grey now came hurrying up, There was a tender light in the young and together she and Jack half dragged aroused Mrs. Newton, who listened

> "I misjudged her. Forgive me." Jack's face brightened, but he condoor of the room where Cecile lay. Just as the morning dawned she clouds for a few minutes and the opened her eyes and asked, "Is Jack glitter was dazzling. iven ber the deed of a picturesque bit safe?" Then she fell asleep with a The hat that bids fair to make ed Shirt, Colleg and of land, called the west pasture, which happy smile on her lips. She had have burned her hands and arms; her of Mr. Grey. Two years before our beautiful hair was singed badly, and story opens, Mrs. Newton had made her strength had been terribly taxed; Cecile an offer for the land; it would but in a month she had recovered suffiinst complete her east pasture, she ciently to take a short drive, and Jack bunch of violets left side front civil war but probably none more may be worth while to apply this took her to see the ruins.

Every building on the place bad fall on the hair. been burned to the ground.

you come, Cecile?" "What will your mother say?" she lady rated the younger soundly for "a asked with a touch of playfulness conceited minx who thought herself while her eyes gave him the answer he

"She is more than anxions to welcome you as a daughter.'

as she looks at her daughter Cecile's Jack and his wife are very happy.

Famous Women's Small Families. Among famous women who were mothers of small families comes Elizabeth Barrett Browning, who had only son only, though she was twice martice this first of all things.

ried. Mage. George Sands had two

I gave one of the Irish maids in

I let my horse run, and soon left

As she stared at him the person. George Eliot (Mrs. Cross) was had to give her another veil. childless, and so was Mrs. Craig, the 101 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N. C. von know you have always longed for bauld, whose prose and poetry were both much admired in the last century,

A model wife -The poor artist's, porary, Mrs. Opic.

case with her equally praised contem-

After all, she thought, if he does have decided that the lands on The Eminence shades are every-

The Handsomest of all Coins.

This proud distinction is generof beauty in design and finish. The on, hysteria, sleepless-" all gone" sensations their daily lives. A without alcohol,

Already Being Worn.

NEW YORK. that spring is about to dawn on us or was simply a discontented Repast week here has been something ministration because of his per-The flames shot upward; the smoke abominable, windy, cold, rainy and sonal belief in the patriotism and rolled in huge columns toward the of course muddy. Yet in spite of honesty of President Clevelanddarkening sky, but still no sound came this straw hats are beginning to To-day Senator Vest, of Missouri from the inmates of the burning build- bud. Only last night at the theatre called on the Secretary of State. ing. Could she save them? Would I counted eight or ten quite near Gresham and Vest are old and very

of the smoke. What she did must be at the magnificent architecture and tion at Chicago; when Senator Vest done quickly. She snatched a woolen grandeur of everything at this in passing through Chicago called The most prominent feature on him. To-day, when the Missouri Many dear old friends grew tired to fight her way to the foot of the entering, is the elaborate display Senator called at the State Departstairs. Inch by inch she pressed for of rich marble wainscoting, in vesti- ment to see Mr. Gresham, the Secbule, lobby and foryer, and the ad retary grasped his hand warmly miration increases even unto the and said : end of the very beautiful drama "Vest, when we last met at being presented there "The Girl I Chicago before the meeting of the immense Empire poke trimmed always knew that your associations with a broad double alsatian bow were Democratic, that you thought In the city lying southward, He frautically searched for his cloth. and a big purple rose in the centre like a Democrat and talked like a ing, but Cecile was away again, bat- of it, where some aigrettes were Democrat. I did not think you Eating, sleeping, waking, loving, tling with the smoke, which almost stiffly perched. The frame was of would be in so soon, but I am glad overpowered her. The flames were brown straw with long ears, broad to see you." suppor, the day was dying as the sun licking their way towards Mrs. New- ties came from underneath the "Well, Vest," said he, "here I unk reluctantly behind the trees, and ton's room. Cecile saw this, and brown velvet bow and are caught am, and by —, I am the best While we all each day draw nearer with a rose at each side then tie in Democrat in Washington."

> She found Mrs. Newton in a heavy odd for these big poke shapes are He reinforced the declaration a The Man Who Doesn't Drink-Mr. stupor, and all her efforts to rouse her | certainly neither pretty or becom- | little later when Hon. W. L. Wilson, were in vain. She could not wait for ing, but nevertheless are fashion of West Virginia called upon him. Jack, so she wrapped the heavy form able and will be worn, because Wilson and Gresham had never met

Then too they go with the big Gresham said: Mr. Grey and his men, having but sleeves, short waists, and very full "Mr. Wilson, while I have never the forthcoming changes in all the Will you go with me, Cecile? It is just reached the scene, were preparing skirts as the dresses are made this met you before, I sat within two or departments of the public service, that he means business for he is prepared to mother's account that I have not to fight the fire, and after taking in spring, or rather the ones copied three feet of you when you deliver. say that the first question which going to be most used is coming agreed with every word you said place is-does he drink? Mr. Cleveman's eves as he spoke, and the pretty half carried the two helpless ones to her window, trimmed with broad rib- a little further now." ink color flushed into Cecile's checks. home. A doctor was sent for, and bons, and very pretty they are with If Judge Gresham believed every to drink; that the men who do not Of course I will go, Jack! Why the simple application of restoratives the grasses and dainty flowers. word that Mr. Wilson said in his drink are the men who do the reasonable prices.

ism. Turning to Jack she said simply ginable made of jet jewels, lace, entirely safe to say that he is a in commercial and in business life inued his restless walk before the windows at morn the other day administration. when the sun peeped through the

the greatest hit, for early spring is glazed sailor with a high crown, and narrow brim trimmed with a of marvelous and hairbreadth es. year increasing in his country. band of emerald green velvet, a capes have been related of the late

"I am glad of it," said Jack. "I beautiful than ever and while we war of 1877 known as the Cottonwould not sell it. Mrs. Newton tried intend to build a new house to which see a great many plumes, still wood fight.

flowers will reign. are everywhere, on sedate looking drawing blood, and one burned both They spoke at greater or less bonnets, on girls hats and in fact on everything in the way of millinery we see the saucy little drawing blood, and one burned both length upon politics, religion, weather, millinery, gloves, neckties, bonnets, on girls hats and in fact lips and loosened a front tooth. length upon politics, religion, linery we see the saucy little About one week later I was run- skating, the drama, society, dancbunches. Some are wired into ning a race with some fifteen or ing, the public schools, the church So it was settled; and Mrs. Newton, the aigrettes for the centre of a twenty Indians; the goal was a and its mission, the probability of a cluster and stand up naturally stiff small mound; whoever reached the continuance of sleighing, the diffiof the new things and trim the the mound. The horse I was riding was yet awake, but he set the dan-They are talking of another picnic to dainty little plaques most grace- was quite fast; I had got a hundred ger at naught and stayed. way tried to mend the breach which take the place of the one planned a fully, the soft pleated stuff can be yards or so ahead of my companion There was another danger which Purple veils are still worn, and my horse, just as a young fellow It seemed a very cold and dis green ones are shown but I havn't came up. We were on the move, tant form of address, but he had seen anybody yet who has had the when he said, "Lew, I'm shot." I previously decided it was the best courage to wear one of them, as asked him if he was hurt bad. He under the circumstances. one son. Mrs. Somerville, the math- they are most horribly unbecom- said, "No, I have caught the bul- "I wish-to-speak to you of ematician, had two daughters and one ing, and a woman is quick to no- let.', "All right," said I. "Put something very near my heart."

children, a son and a daughter; so had my boarding house a white veil him, for I had the trail and the plexity in her face suddenly gave Lady Mary Montagu, whose "letters" and seeing her dressed on Sunday Indians had the grass. I reached way to intelligence. to go out. I asked her why she the foot of the mound when the "Oh, yes, I know; your lungs. "letters" in French. Mme. de Stael had did not wear it, she answered quick- nearest Indian was about 150 yards How are they, anyway? How stuthree children in her early married life; ly-"Sure and its not becoming to from the foot on his side. The pid of me not to ask." when forty-eight years old she married my complexion." Of course this mound was tolerable steep and He never knew what he murmurmost stylish ones are those of net off; and the Indians were on the was crushing noisily under his closely dotted with tiny chenille run to get out of the reach of my feet. dots, and are worn big and loosely. long range Remington. I opened There are also quite pretty ones, fire and kept it up as long as they Didn't Know it Was Sunday and though not so becoming, made of were in sight. When the excite-plain brussels net with three or ment was over the young fellow One of the funniest and most four rows of very narrow ribbon showed me where he had been shot. novel cases comes to light. Our to form a border, these are shown The ball had just grazed his arm, good friend, Mr. David Parish, of even for that. Jack shall lose the farm Mr. Bryan has made several at. thing, dress goods, trimings, mil- ruined, but it saved his life. tempts to compromise the matter, linery and even gloves, these colors bability is that there will be seri. a person with very clear skin need

> The ceremonies and festivities flying. in connection with the recent marriage at Cairo of Mahmud Pasha Riaz, govenor of the Suez Canal. to the daughter of the late Rassain Pasha, lasted one week. More than 4,000 guests were invited to the wedding. Many dinners in both of 70 cooks and 100 waiters. The pens got $1 apiece

Gresham A Democrat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13 .-She question has often been asked Just between them I am staying, since the installation of the present administration if Judge Gres-We are all beginning to realize ham had really become a Democraagain, and yet the weather, for the publican serving the present adwarm personal friends. They had It was at the New Empire theatre, not met before since the day before and one almost holds his breath the Democratic National Convenupon Gresham and lunched with National Convention, you little But I must stifle my enthusiasm, thought that when we next met I The oddest one I saw was an "That is so," said Vest. "I

This declaration it is to be pre-I only spoke of this as being sumed settles Mr. Gresham's status.

ed your speech at the National Con. Mr. Cleveland now asks as to any The prophesy that big hats were vention on taking the chair. I person proposed to him for public Still too there are medium shapes splendid speech on taking the chair greatest things in this world's af- Parties desiring furniture packed can be accommodated by calling on us with tears to the story of Cecile's hero- and the dearest little bonnets ima- at the National Convention it is fairs. He has discovered the value flowers, aigrettes and so much gold. Democrat good enough to serve as of the man who does not drink. I was standing by one of the Secretary of State in a Democratic He knows that there are some rail-world-Tutt's Pills.

Catching and Kissing Bullets.

and another bunch in the back to wonderful than the two incidents principle to politics, and to discovwonderful than the two incidents principle to politics, and to discov-we give below as furnished by a provide a man is not tive work. Agents for Hill's INSIDE SLIDING VENITIAN BLIND, best The flowers this season are more participant in the Nez Perce Indian worth as much for public office ever made, and costs very little more than the old style.

"F. A. Fenn had a bullet cut Naturally as it is spring, violets four holes in his pataloons without fach's mother kept fresh by daily year ago, and it is to be held in the made into such pretty fans and and stopped to take a shot_at an he wished to broach. Indian. After I shot I jumped on "My dear friend-"

ous trouble before the matter is attempt to wear, for all of the with 70 grains powder and 45 thank you, I don't want to be make up for the lost time they obaround when there are any more Little Things That Tell.

It is the little things that telllittle brothers for instance, who

For the PATRIOT. Between Two Cities. One the city of the dead And the other of the living, Where men toil for daily bread. Looking Northward-from my window,

Many a marble shaft I see, Standing over the dreamless loved ones Hid awhile from you and me. There lies Charlie, happy playmate

Of my merry little son; But his spirit went to Heaven With their friendship just begun. Little Christine, too, is sleeping Silently, the years aways. All my household fondly loved her, But she said "Good-bye" one day.

And they laid them there to rest, With folded hand and brows of snow, On the green earth's mother-breast." Men lie there whose warning voices Thrill'd us as they preached God's will,

Now they are silent but their memory And their teachings linger still. Precious children, sisters, brothers;

Can you blame us if we weep? All is motion, work and strife;

And we mortals call it life. Some are sad while some seem happy; To the city of the dead.

Cleveland Looking for Him.

been consulted frequently as to that it is becoming a fashion not road companies who will not em-The family medicine of the drinks at any time; that no railroad company will permit its employes to drink during the hours of service, and that the value of a Many and many thrilling stories man who does not drink is each He has discovered, I think, that it mercial enterprises."

She Was Stupid

and upright to give height to small mound first could hold it, We had culty of getting hired girls, minor some friends coming on the trail, importance. Still he lingered, 1n-Pleated laces of ribbons are one which passed just at the foot of stinct told him that the old man a second time and then had another settled the matter, and I knew I about 150 feet high. I let my ed in reply. When he recovered horse climb as fast as he could. complete consciousness he was The most popular as well as the When I reached the top I jumped walking home and the crisp snow

There is quite an excitement on the glazed sailors, I have before making a blue streak about five western No. 11 township, tells us cill have me; better accept the inevi- down about New Berne. The ne. described, gathered full on the inches long, and had struck his the facts. Notwithstanding March groes have built up a little village brim and eaught up loosely at the gun barrel (where it screwed into 5th was Sunday, Mr. Adam Stough the frame) and had raised a dent caught out his team, put on plough on the inside of the barrel as large gears and hitched up. He did one ASSETS, $12,000,000. marry her, that west pasture will come which the village is situated right. where, and are going to be the as a pea; it then glanced and fell of the biggest day's ploughing in But I will never give in, not fully belongs to James A. Bryan. swellest colors this spring in everycident he discovered about 3 o'clock The shot had been fired at me, in the afternoon that it was really That night Cecile, in her pretty white but the negroes indignantly refuse would soon become common, were as the young fellow had not been and truly and without doubt the unconditionally or die. The pro- reddish purple in them, that only I tell you those bullets that are house put in the day baking and out of those Government guns, preparing for Sunday, which they Mechanically she arose, and having finally settled.—Wilkesboro Chron- Eminence colors bring out every grains lead, are dangerous things ing. These people are all good, to be kissing and catching. No, Sabbath observing people, and to served Monday as Sunday, except going to church. Just how they forgot one day in the week may be a dream .- Concord Standard.

> The Nankin correspondent of a hide away in the parlor while sister Shanghai paper says: "Tianwasi entertains her beau, etc. Dr. Pierce's man came to this city, bringing the Arabian and European styles that tell. They tell on the liver and nature in the shape of his two Pleasant Pellets are little things with him a remarkable freak of tone up the system. So small and sons, aged 8 years. The boys are yet so effectual, they are rapidly alike in tace and form, but they ious Headaches, Biliousness and arm, and joined together just be-Constipation. Put up in vials, low the walst, making the twins The first working who made convenient to carry. Their use stand face to face. The twins nev-pens got $1 apiece them. attended with no discomfort. er fall the same time."

Always in the Lead!

WE ARE NOW RECEIVING NEW

Hats and Furnishing Goods EVERY DAY.

If you want the best makes and latest styles in CLOTHING and HATS we have got them. We have been and intend to remain the leaders of styles in FINE CLOTHING, HATS and Neckwear. Don't fail to take a look through our stock if you want FINE GOODS CHEAP. We still have a big lot of Overcoats and Winter Suits that we will close out for less than cost to make room for our large

SPRING STOCK.

All we ask is to see our stock and learn our prices and you will buy the best goods and latest styles.

on this subject and return to my hats, which I left most abruptly. The oddest one I saw was an "That is so," said Vest. "I Precious children, sisters, brothers;

D. N. KIRKPATRICK

Public to Call in at G. Will Armfield's old stand 236 South Elm Street,

And examine the Largest and Most extensive Stock of FURNITURE

OF EVERY KIND AND STYLE ham's private secretary. Judge constantly see him, and who have Before displayed in the City of GREENSBORO. Also carry a full line of CARPETS. Come and examine this stock before you buy and he will convince you

Meet all Legitimate Comptition, true, for we see them in every show then and I am perhaps ready to go land, I can tell you, has discovered And his prices and terms will be made to suit all. Country Produce taken in exchange for goods. RFPAIRING and UPHOLSTERING neatly and substantially done at ploy a man in any capacity who Sash, Doors, Blinds, Moulding, Brackets, Mantels GUILFORD LUMBER MANUFACTURING CO.

DOYOU NEED

GREENSBORO, N.C. Can supply you with anything in this line on short notice and on the most reasonable terms. See our EMBOSSED WOOD, something new, being highly

Any Size Glass Kept in Stock.

CARTLAND,

Elegant Colths

Has Received a Large Supply of

of all kind for FALL and, WINTER SUITS. Perfect FITS Guaranteed.

H. H. Cartland. 106 South Elm Street, Greensboro, N. C.

MY PRICES ARE VERY LOW.

IF YOU WANT "WALL PAPER" CHEAP,

T.W. WOOD & SONS