GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 22, 1893.

nowhere to be seen.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

& Conts Per Line Each Insertion.

WANTED

To insert notices under this head at 8 cents per line first insertion. After first week at five cents per line-tf. -If you have a cow, pig, goat, horse, wagon, farm, house and lot to sell, advertise in this column.

reasonable price, on easy terms. Write or call on Parmior, Greensboro, N. C. Fire Sale-A Victor Pneumatic High a doze. tirale still Diegele-brand new. Cheap : "I've been up yonder," said Matt. as dort. Write to the Parmor, Greens-copy of blatte, also a copy of "Alas place. ma ere. Address, stating condition | Fortunately it was very dark, so

For Sale- At a Bargain seiginal price 3. visior only $10.00. Call, or write it is soffice, PROPESSIONAL CARDS.

Attorneys at Law REENSBORO, N. C.

Case! a struction given to all busiwith - | Wharton Building,

CORN T. ORITTAIN. . O. L. SAPP. BRITTAIN & SAPP,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW Fourt, and offers his professional ser- from her and opened it nervously. It

McAsloo House it Greenshore on the 1st 3rd Saturdays of November, Saturday, PRACTICE LIMITED TO Eye, Ear, Nove and Throat.

History over Pieter's Drug Hore. GREENSBORO, N. C. sar Will practice in Medicine and Surgery in Promises and serviceding country.

plain about or any eye there was Monk, of Monkshurst. It trouble that was the first time they had met since in any way but go to W. B. FARRAR der. Monk was dressed in a dark sum- whatever to the performance of the across the grass to the close vicinity of in the air. A SON at once, and they will give you mer suit, and looked unusually spick relief if it is possible. They are well and span. prepared with all the whispered colloque of some minutes

Latest and most improved Opthalmic

Instruments, subtance removed without pain, Glasses ly and grew very pale. fitted to relieve all abnormal visionary troubles, such as Astigmatism, Hyperopia, Myopia, Tresbyopia, Hyperphorea Lateut Bet d'rophoria Museular Insufficiency, or any compound for you to wear. inflamed eyes, granular or scaley eye- bled, and shrank away. lids, and never falls to cure, and gives "I don't want it -1 sha'n't wear it."

Farrar & Son,

POMONA HILL

NURSERIES. Pontuga, N. C.

leoro, N. C. The main line of the R. & Jt. R. R. passes through the grounds and within 100 feet of the office and residence. Salem trains make regular stops twice daily each way.

THOSE INTERESTED IN FRUIT OR FLOWERS

Are cordially invited to inspect our

YOU CAN FIND Over One Million Fruit Trees, Vines Evergreens, Shade Trees, Nuts, Reses

etc. In fact, everything usually kept in a first-class Nursery. Three Green Houses

Full of a great variety of Flowers and Foliage Plants. Pot Hores for Spring planting a specialty. Calaingue No. Lot Fruit Trees, Vines etc., and Catalogue No. 2, Green House waters sawait, ww. H. Marringwa; scowling darkly after the fugitive.

Catalogue, furnished tree to applicants. J. VAN LINDLEY, Prop'r, Pomona, N. C.

NEWELL A MATTHEWS,

Successors to L. F. Ross.)

ringes, Phaetons, Buggies, Spring wagons, roud carts, Harness, Saddles, &c. | must be married to me at once." This stock was bought at a discount and we are selling them for much less spoke on it fust I thought you was jokthan the regular price. Come and see ing. Depot Sifeet, Greensbero, N. C.

We are Agents for OLD HICKORY WAGONS, and ANDERSON ROAD CARTS, Emerson and Fisher Ruggies, and Spring Wagons, which are wait no longer." . top well known to the public to need NEWELL & MATTHEWS. Very 1st, 1893

Notice.

Monday in December 1803, for keeper she suddenly reappeared. infirm, for the custing two years.

Matt went out as directed, and it was some hours before she returned. She found her guardian seated in his old place by the fire, looking at vacancy. He started violently as she entered and made a clutch at the rude piece of

BY BOBERT BUCHARAN.

FOR SALE-A Farm of 220 acres at a ship's iron which served as a poker. "Be it you, Matt? Ler. how you startled me! I were I were taking "In where?

"I'p to the painter chap's cart. He WANTED-A granddaughter of Dr. ain't come back, and the man is David Califwel would like to ontain a searchin' for him all up and down the

> of her hearer's face. She walked to light, with the view of igniting the road. rushlight fixed to the table. But in a moment William blew out the match and snatched the box from her. "What are you doin' of?" he cried.

Wasting the matches, as if they cost nowt. You'll come to the workus' The days passed and there was no news of the absent man. Every day

ed William, who had left his usual scatand was standing at the door. "Newt," said Matt, wiping her evelids with the back of her hand. "Don't you tril on lies. You've heard

All at once he had perceived that she suspicious of foul play, had already carried a large roll of something forgotten both the caravan and the Will be present at every term of wrapped in brown paper. He took it owner view to the people of Unliford county, was the cravon portrait of herself executed by the defunct artist.

my pictur'; he give it to me to keep, expenditure of five pounds, from Lon-His master said I were to have it; and | don. I mean to keep it now he's dead!" ture, and seemed relieved, indeed, when it was out of his hands. Matt's eyes, but looking right out to *Who told you he was dead?"

the man, conscious of her scrutiny, turned and plunged into the darkness of his dwelling. An hour later a loud voice summoned ness, headache him forth. He went to the door, and

Where a Mir girl! be exied witer .

Watt, where are you? In answer to the call Matt appeared and will do you justice in examining at the door. No sooner did she peris the eye. Specs, motes or any foreign ceive Monk than she trembled violent-"Come here. Matt," he said, with an something for you-something pretty troubles. We are agents for the great |. As he speke he drew from his waist-GERMAN EYE WATER, prescribed coat pocket a small gold ring, set with by Dr. Att NEW. The best remedy for turquoise atones. But Matt still trem-

Office hours from 10 a. m., to 3 p. m "Nonsense, Mattl" said Monk. "Why, but it on your fineer. So great seemed her agitation, so 102 South Elm Str. et, Greensnoro, N. C., Scep her dread of him, that she could longer. Suppose some one else had not stir; so that when he approached, waist, he slipped the ring on her finger taking the ring off, threw it right Two and one-half mains west of Greens- away from her upon the, and. Then sure.

"WHO GAVE YOU THIS RERE!" CRIED

with a wild gesture of fear and loathing, she rushed into the cottage. William Jones walked over and picked up the ring, while Monk stood

"What the devil alls the girl" cried the latter, with a fierce outh, pockethig the present. "Dunno. She's never been the same bered Monk under his breath. He Wholesals at ! Retail dealers in Car- saded aloud and with decision: "There must be an end to this. She "Do you mean it, master? When you

> Then you were a fool for your pains. She's old enough and bold enough and vixenish enough; but I'll tame her. I tell you there must be no

Sinking their voices they continued to talk together for some time. Now Jones' door, and close to it a light clapped him playfully on the shoulder. Matt was crouching close to the threshold, and had heard every word of the above conversation, and much that followed it. When Monk walked away and disappeared, leaving William Scaled bids will be received on 1st Jones ruminant at the broken gate.

of the County Home for the aged and | Curiously enough all her excitement had departed. Instead of weeping or

Monk had left his horse at the coastguard station. Remounting, he rode rapidly away through the sand hills in the direction of the lake. As he approached the spot of the old encampment, he saw that the curavan had

He rode on thoughtfully till he gained the highway, when he put his horse into a rapid trot. Just before he gained the gate and avenue near to which he had first encountered Brinklev, he saw the caravan before him on the dusty road.

He hesitated for a moment; then hurried rapidly forward, and, arriving close to the vehicle, saw the Irishman's | pot hat and a white resette. head looking round at him from the driver's seat. He beckoned, and Tim

"Has your master returned? I am informed that he has been missing for some days."

Tim shook his head very dolefully. 'No, sir; sorra sight have I seen of him for three days and three nights. that she could not see the expression | I'm going back wid the baste and the the fireplace, and, taking a box of lu- Maybe it's making fun of me he is, house, to tell his friends the bad news. cifers from a ledge, began to procure a and I'll find him somewheres on the

> "I hope you will," said Monk, sympathetically. "I think - hum - it is quite possible he has, as you suggest, wandered homeward. Good day to So saying, Monk turned off by the gate which they had just reached, and rode away up the avenue. Tim looked after him till he disap-

CHAPTER XV. A BRIDAL PARTY AND A LITTLE SUPPRISE. A week passed away. The shadow of the caravan no longer fell on the green meadow by the lake, and the struggling population of Aberglyn, un-

And if facts were to be taken into consideration in estimating the extent of her memory, Matt, too, had for-"Who gave you this here?" cried gotten. It was common talk now that neglected protege of William Jones, was to be married to the master of the quietly smoking a cigar. ter. The painter chapmin't round; and sunrises distant; and Monk, of Monks now Tim's goin' away in the eart to burst, had in his pocket a special tell his friends. And he give me this- license, which he had procured, at an road?" he cried, fiercely, Boubtless, in any more populous lo-William Jones handed back the pie- eality the affair would have occasioned no little scandal, and many ominous "Dead?" he muttered, not meeting | itants were few and far between, and had little or no time for idle gossiping. married." The coast guardsmen and their wives low and unwholesome pool. way, was jubilant. He came to and mony of introduction. fro constantly, and assumed the man- This is Mr. Monk, sir. Mr. Monk, might have struck him as curious: solicitors, Chester." (1) That Matt, though she had consented to marry him, steadfastly re- demanded Monk, with his old savagery. insinuating smile. "See! I've brought fused to wear his ring or accept any "My name is Marshall, Christian other presents; and (2) that she still name, John, though my friends call guised dislike, from his caresses.

It was now late in the month of August, and the weather was broken by troublous winds and a fretful moon. For several weeks William Jones, in his mortal terror, had refrained from visiting the cave; he had It's a ring fit for a lady. Come, let me | never set his foot therein, indeed, since the night of the assassination. At last he could bear the suspense no discovered this treasure, and robbed laughing, and caught her round the him? Suppose some subterranean change had obliterated the landmarks before she could resist. But it only re- or submerged the cavern! Suppose a mained there a moment. With a quick, thousand dreadful things! Tired of sharp cry, she tore herself free, and, miserable supposition, William determined, despite his terror, to make

> So late one windy and rainy night he stole forth with his unlit lantern and fought his way in the teeth of half a gale to the familiar place, which he found, however, with some little difficulty. He was neither superstitious nor imaginative, but throughout aire simpudence. "John Marshall, the journey he was a prev to nameless governor, of the detective force." wart stop and listen. Only supreme was in haste. What do you want? Out greed and miserly anxiety led him on, with it" But at last he gained the cave, within which there was a sound as of clashing awful waters clashing on the cliffs > without, and boiling with unusual the sole heir male of the late Col. screams through the black slit be-Trembling, with perspiration stand. year 1862. ing in great beads on his face, he

Strange to say, however, it had disbecause he could not account for the in 1865 you took pessession." disappearance. A little reflection. however, suggested that one of those only what I already knew?" "He'll turn no move heads," mut- its place on the shingle and carried it because Col. Monk was married and had away in the direction of the Caldron, issue; second, because he did not die in day among the rocks or on the shore wreck of the vessel 'Trinidad' on Christ- "My, but they skinned her mighty in adulterated food and drink, are and think it had been drowned in the mas day, 1864."

Satisfied that everything else was Jones, who had been watching the cavern and ran hastily home.

cart belonging to Monk, and driven by wedding." one of his servants, stood at William country cart, borrowed by William an aged coast guardsman, two coast talk to you presently."

The bridegroom, attired in decent Lightwood, or whatever your name is. black, with a flower in his buttonhole. It seems to me you are simply raving. II. MILLIS, protesting, she looked at William stood waiting impatiently in the gar- If I am not my cousin's heir, who is, den. Despite the festive occasion he tell me that?"

had a gloomy and hang-dog appearance. Presently there emerged from the door William Jones, attired in a drowned seaman's suit several sizes too large for him, and wearing a chimney-pot hat and a white rosette. Leaning on his arm was Matt, dressed in a dress of blue silk, newly made for her, out of damaged materials supplied by Jones, by one of the coast-guard women, a light straw hat with blue ribbons to match, and a light lace shawl. Behind this pair hobbled William Jones' father, whose costume was nautical, like his son's, but more damaged, and who also sported a chimney-The crowd gave a feeble cheer. Matt looked around and smiled, but mingled with her smile there was a kind of vague anxiety and expectation. It was arranged that Monk should drive Matt in the dog-cart, while William Jones and his father followed in the commoner vehicle. At Pencroes, where the ceremony was to be performed, they were to meet with one Mr. Penarvon, a country squire and kindred spirit of Monk's, who had promised to be "best man."

Monle took the reins, while Matt got in and seated herself beside him, the groom getting up behind, and away they went along the sand-choked road, followed by Jones and his father. The day was bright and merry, but

Matt never thought of the old proverb: Merry is the bride that the sun shines she was too busy examining the prospect on every side. All at once, thing ghostly in the reappearance even | this nice Friend of yours (here he the Commissioner of Internal Reveof this inanimate object. He was a again slapped William Jones on the nue and the leading members of

As they approached the spot they saw Tim standing near the vehicle in conversation with two strange gentlemen-one a little man in black broadcloth, the other a tall, broad-shouldered fellow wearing a light overcoat and a wide-awake hat. Directly the procession approached, this group separated, I think! I know nothing of the young and its three members walked several-William Jones, trembling more than she, the grammarless castaway, the hat standing in the center of the road no evidence that any harm has come to great house! Nay, the very day was his hand. Unable to proceed without to William Jones and nudged him in "Him as come looking arter his mas- fixed; and that very day was only two running him down, Monk pulled up the ribs. "What is it? Why do you block the

> "Excuse me, governor," returned the other, coolly. "Mr. Monk, of Monkshurst, I believe?" "That's my name." "Sorry to trouble you on such a day, shakings of the head, but the inhab- but I should like a few words with you."

"I cannot stay-I am going to be Matt did not reply, but gazed at Wil- were the only individuals who exhib- his hat and bowing with a grin to Matt. playing upon your fears, but they can- closeted together in Mr. Stevens' liam so long and so significantly that ited any interest, and even their ex- "Glad to see you miss. How do you do? not frighten me." eitement was faint and evanescent, But the fact is, Mr. Monk, my business like the movements of a fish in a shal- won't keep. Be good enough to step ing his cigar, which had gone out. this way.

But the really extraordinary part of Full of some unaccountable forebodthe whole affair was the conduct of ing, inspired partly by the stranger's of her former repugnance to a union by the rappearance of the caravan, you may have they parted on the night of the mur- with Monk, she made no objection Monk alighted, and followed the other ceremony, and laughed merrily when the house on wheels. The little elderly the was informed that the day was man followed, and the man who had fixed. Mont. in his grim, taciturn first spoken went through the cereners of a lover. Had he been less bent this gentleman is Mr. Lightwood, of truth of your preposterous charge, proon one particular object, two things the firm of Lightwood & Lightwood, duce it.

"And you-who the devil are you?" shrank, with persistent and ill-dis- me Jack," answered the other, with

MONE TOOR THE REINS.

ound of wind or sea made the same | neither of you. I warned you that I ried to jail .- Alamance News.

The little man now took up the conogions, clarion, shricking, drums like voice, and occasionally referring cating, all the storm and stress of the to a large note-book which he carried. "Mr. Monk, you are, I am informed, tween the cave and the Devil's Cal- Monk, your cousin by the father's side, who was supposed to have died in the

"Yes, that's true. What then?" out lawful issue, you hid claim to the than before. William Jones was at once relieved demesne of Monksburst, in Chelshire, and alarmed relieved because he was and that of the same name in Angle.

might have risen well up into the have now to inform you that you incavern, washed away the body from herited under a misconception-first, "In which case," he reflected, "them India, but reached the shores of Eng-undisturbed, he retired as hastily as scene from a distance, came over pant-

"How d'ye do, William Jones? I've tion, "with all this rigmarole, Mr.

As he spoke, Marshall, the detective,

"His daughter," said the man, quietly. "He never married, and he never had

"His daughter, an infant twelve or fourteen months old, sailed to England with him, was shipwrecked with him, but saved by a special Providence, and has since been living in this place un- to serve as a warning to the demoder the name of Matt Jones."

"Your intended bride, you know, added Marshall, with an insinuating

"I see her go into that theer cart," said William Jones. longer here. Listen to me, you two. dier vote. Whether you are telling the truth or and she herself, I may tell you, fully augurated as regards Hawaii. Amappreciates the honor I am doing her." ericans, regardless of party wish ing. "Unfortunately, I, as Miss Monk's archies Mr. Cleveland has not matter. Doubtless this marriage would | yet fully outlined his policy, howbe a very pretty arrangement forkeep. ever. A well known politician says ing the late Col. Monk's fortune and if the slightest hint of an intenproperty in your possession, but I can- tion to restore the deposed Queen not conscientiously approve of the to her throne had been given out young lady's marriage to an assassin." before last Tuesday, that day would "An assassin"-what-what do you mean?" gasped Monk, staggering as if

"Tell him, Mr. Marshall."

"No! nol I never done it! I'm innocent, I am" cried William Jones. "Tell 'em, Mr. Monk, tell 'em-l'd nowt to do with it."

Then he added, turning on his accusers: "You are a couple of madmen, man you speak of. I have heard that he is missing, that is all; but there is him, for his body has not been found." duced just before the adjournment. Here Marshall turned with a wink The committee is putting in some and Farmers of Guilford County and Vicinity. "Don't you think, now," he asked,

"it might be worth while looking for it in that little underground parlor of yours, down alongside the sea?" William Jones uttered a despairing groan, and fell on his knees. "I'm ruined!" he cried. "O, Mr.

Monk, it's your doing! Lord help me! They knows everything." "Curse you, hold your tongue," said Monk, with a look of mad contempt "So I heard," said the man, lifting and hatred. "These men are only diana. These gentlemen were

"No." remarked the detective, light-

"I think we shall even manage that in handcuffs, which he looked at reflect- details of the bill which they have ively, threw up and caught underhand

"You accuse me of assassination. said Mont, trembling violently. " warn you to beware, for I will not suffer such accusations without seeking | than do some of the others. redress. If you have any proof of the

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

KILLED HER CHILD.

Lula Iseley. Colored. Takes the life likely. of her Infant-an Inquest-She is Held for Court.

Thursday night Lula Iselev, a Greensboro, took the life of her Iseley, near the shops, where she of last Tuesday. was stopping. It was discovered sociation has received.

Trinity College.

Through the kindness of Mr. B. "On the report of his death, his name N. Duke a duplicate ceiling has searched the cave for the corpse of the murdered man, expecting to find it being included in an official list of offiwell advanced in decomposition. cerskilled and wounded in action, and sound of the college bell to be washerwomen, I see. It being understood that he died with- heard much farther and clearer Mrs. Hoe Telle: Yes. How do you know? Mr. Hoe Telle: Instead pared a horrible experience; alarmed sea. Your claim was recognized and Society has elected the following and Robinson's shirts I am getting officers: Prof. R. L. Flowers, Presi- some strange garments I never "Well, have you detained me to hear dent M. T. Hartsell, Vice Presi wore before. I suppose they are dent, Prof. E. T. Bynum, Cor. Sec- my own -Truth. since since the painter chap went didal waves so common on the coast "Pardon me. I have not finished. I retary; Mr. J. H. Fitzgerald, Sec'y and Treasurer. - Christian Advo-Little Johnnie, on seeing a skel elevator cables, explosions of steam, coast guard chaps would find it some land, where he perished in the ship- eton for the first time, exclaimed, natural gas and chemicals, poisons close, didn't they! She looks worse a few; but all these dangers, com-Monk was livid. At this moment than Aunt Jane did, before ma bined do not kill as rapidly as gave her that bottle of "Favorite slow and sure Consumption. The possible, sealed up the entrance to the ing and perspiring in ill-concealed ter- Prescription!" "Aunt Jane" was death rate, however, from Consumped. Guaranteed to give satisfac- ery" at once. There is a time when tion or price ($1.00) refunded. it is too late.

Our Delayed Letter.

[Special to PATRIOT.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13, 1893,

The result of last Tuesday ought eratic party. It ought to teach them that there should have been smile. "Hullo, where is the young no delay in rectifying the mistakes of the republicans. It ought also Monk looked round towards the dog- to teach them to move slowly and cart and on every side, but Matt was conservatively in regard to all pension matters. Two things are important factors in any political "Call her!" cried Monk, "I'll stay no campaign, finance and the old sol-

There is a disposition to criticise lies, that girl begoing to become my the Administration severely on acwife-I have her guardian's consent, count of the policy about to be in-"Indeed!" said Mr. Lightwood, smil- to encourage republies not monindeed have been a democratic Wa-

A number of representative to-"All right, sir Well, you see, Mr. bacco men from North Carolina, and profess to be satisfied with their interviews.

There is a strong probability that the tariff bill will not be reported "Silence, you fool!" said the other. by the Ways and Means Committee until some time later than the members themselves expected when Congress adjourned, and than they led the public to expect by the resolution which Chairman Wilson intro-very heavy work these days, or at trusted the framing of the bill.

been a protracted conference at the LAIRD OF DUNCAN is at my GREAT OAKS Plantation forms Arlington, participated in by a erly known as the FOULKES PLACE) near Brown's Summit, N Democratic quartet: Messrs. Wilson, of West Virginia, Breckinridge, of Arkansas, Stevens, of Massachusetts, and Bynum of Inroom Friday night until after 1 o'clock, and last night they were together until a late hour. These mittee finds some points of wide favors a more radical and sweeping change from the Mckinley system animals.

It is known that some of the most important schedules of the bill have not yet been even taken up by the committee, and as there

How large a part the recent electhe sub-committee it is hard to say, fall will be a complete New Stork. half white woman lately from but it is apparent that some of the

THE BEST PLASTER .- Dampen a early Friday morning and reported piece of flannel with Chamberlain's to Coroner Freeman who proceed- Pain Balm and bind it on over the ed to hold an inquest over the body. seat of pain. It is better than any A post-mortem examination showed plaster. When the lungs are sore that the child had breathed, and such an application on the chest WIIII RANKIN, Mallidger. the fact that a string was tied tight and another on the back, between around its neck was further proof the shoulder blades, will often prethat she had taken the infant's life, vent pneumonia. There is nothing May 24th, 1893. The verdiet of the jury was that so good for a lame back or a pain the infant came to its death at the in the side. A sore throat can hands of its mother, Lula Iseley, hearly always be cured in one night So she was bound over to Court by by applying a Cannel bandage dam-Monk now went pale indeed. But, Mayor Hall and a guard placed pened with Pain Balm 50 cent arough his heart like a knife; every recovering himself, he eried: "I know over her till she was able to be car-

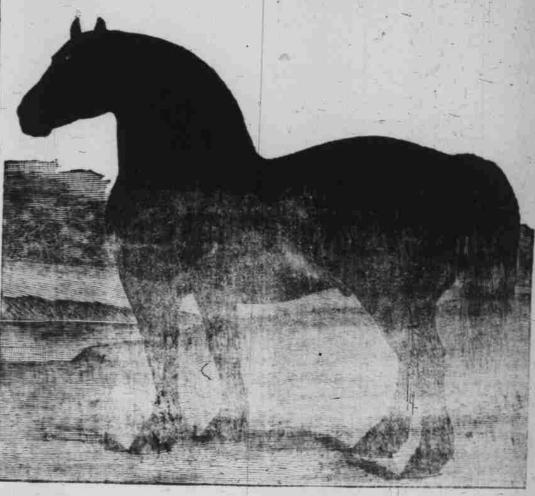

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The The Norfolk & Western Railroad many cheerless, dark, dismal days Company has presented a car load act depressingly, not to say injuriof Pocahontas coal to the football ously, on both old and young. Now association of Trinity College, is the time to re-enforce the vital This is the second donation the as- energies with Ayer's Sarsaparillathe best of all blood medicines.

His Own at Last.

Perils of Modern Life. Contacts with electric wires, railroad accidents, broken car and

The morning of the marriage came- "Lor', Mr. Monk, what is the matter? sus, periodical difficulties and ner- since Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., delay. My mind's made up, and I'll a fine sunny morning. An open dog- Look ye now, we shall be late for the your prostration, that she was a has given to the world his celebraconstant sufferer, night and day, ted "Golden Medical Discovery," but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescrip. a cure for Consumption and Throat tion acted so promptly and favora- and Lung troubles that lead to Jones himself from a neighboring often heard of you, and wished to know bly upon the uterus and other or. Consumption, if taken in time and farmer. The population, consisting of you. Pray stop where you are. I'll gans, that she suffers no pain at given a fair trial. The time to any time, and her general health cure Consumption (which is really guardsmens' wives and half a dozen "I don't know what you mean," was never better. As a remedy for nothing more nor less than Lungdejected children, crowded in front of Monk now said, with dogged despera- all female weaknesses, as a strength scrofula), is in the first stages. A Clydesdale Stallion.

Matt went up to the caravan to make inquiries At last one afternoon she seturned, backing greatly troubled:

| Description of the lone of man of strong nerve, however, and he shoulder) is accused of being your active ways and Means Committee the Ways and Means Committee complice."

Having Purchased the above Horse from Hon L Banks Holt, of

Offer his Services to the Horsemen

Graham, North Carolina,

least that little circle of the elect He is a DARK BAY with black points save a white high hind fetof the Democrats to which is in- lock and small star in forehead: is 16 hands high, WEIGHS FOUR-TEEN HUNDRED POUNDS, is active, of good disposition, a sure For two nights past there has foal getter and not yet six years old.

Services $10 CASH to be paid at time of long sessions mean that the com- service. I ASSUME no RESPONSIBIL-Mattherself. Apparently quite cured snave yet determined manner, partly by the stranger's inadvertently, drew out a pair of steel difference in their views upon the hardeness of the bill which they have to prevail that Chairman Wilson must send their own men in charge of their J. W. M. CARDEZA,

Nov. 8, 1893-3m.

Brown's Summit,

Guilford County, N. C. is likely to be a wide difference of opinion over them, it will be seen A COMPLETE STO that delay beyond the time given We are receiving daily our FALL STOCK of CLOTHING, HATS and FUR out by the managers of the bill is NISHING GOODS. We have just returned frym the Northern Makers where we spent about two weeks in selecting our stock, and we have bought goods at the VERY LOWEST CASH PRICES and expect to give our customers the benefit of these low prices.

tions play in these conferences of We have sold our spring and summer goods down very close, so our stock this We can show you all the Latest Style in Mens' and childrens' Clothing, Hats, but it is apparent that some of the Democrats are shaken in their be- Boys' and childrens' Department first spacen. We have given special attention to our Boys' and childrens' Department first spacen. We are bandling a line of Rough new born infant by tying a string lief as to how radical and sweep- and Tumble Suits - the pants are made with double seat and knees - they are the best suits for children that have ever be at brought to this market. old box near the house of Will bill should be, in view of the votes no trouble in seiling con

230 South Elm St., GRELNSBORG, N. C.

DOYOU NEED

so completely worn out, by prolaption, is being yearly cut down Sash, Doors, Blinds, Moulding, Brackets, Mantels SIDING OR FLOORING, FRAMING, SHINGLES AND LATHES.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Can supply you with anything in this line on short notice and on the most reasonable terms. See our EMBOSSED WOOD, something new, being highly ornamental and costs very little more than ordinary lumber. Used for decoragiving tonic and quieting nervine, cough generally sounds the alarm, tive work. Agents for Hill's INSIDE SLIDING VENITIAN BLIND, best "Favorite Prescription" is unequal- and you should take the "Discov- ever made, and costs very little more than the old style.

Any Size Glass Kept in Stock.