THE HOME.

There are many things that go to make an attractive home, but there is no one thing more important than a well-kept fruit garden.

Reader, do not longer neglect to order the fruit supply for your family.

There is nothing more healthful than the fruit; there is no way that you can get a few dollars that will yield the return I mean in this space more than many things that I have to offer.

For a catalogue, take the agency for the neighborhood or county, get a great amount from catalogue price, sell the trees and first class fruit to your neighbors cheap, and thereby become a benefactor and make some money yourself. There is no Nursery that deals with the people than the old

GREENSBORO NURSERY.

Best dealings have done it.

JOHN A. YOUNG,

Proprietor Greensboro Nurseries,

—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lee, of New York, are here to spend the winter months.

—Rev. Rossa A. Brown, of Waycross, Ga., is here looking after some business matters.

—Mr. G. H. Royster's announcement this week will interest his friends and patrons. Read his new ad.

—Tobacco is starting off some better than before the holidays, though breaks are light on account of the season.

—Misses Ida and Mary Taylor, of Guilford College, spent a couple of days last week with friends in this city.

—Four of the youngest children of the late R. S. Ryan have been placed in the Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte.

—Mr. R. S. Petty took the road Monday for M. G. Newell's buggy and implement house. He will travel the entire state.

—The net deposits at the Five Cents Savings bank at the close of business Monday, January 10th, amounted to $77,185.49.

—Messrs. N. C. Brandon and Clark Porter, Jr., are still with Howard Gardner, the corner druggist. Call and see them.

—The resolutions of respect adopted on the death of Mr. Henry A. Rust by Alamance Sub-Alliance will appear in our next issue.

—Croup Salve prevents croup, relieves bad colds in children. 25 cents. Opposite Benbow Hotel. Richardson & Fariss, Druggists.

—Mr. John Lambeth, of Elon College, is preparing to move to Brown Summit, where he will engage in the mercantile business.

—Mr. D. E. Thomas has sold his grocery store on South Davis street to Mr. S. S. Halthcock, who will continue the business at the same stand.

—The Keeley Institute is making an enviable record in its new quarters, the attendance being larger and prospects more promising than for years.

—Mr. S. F. Coe, agent of the C. F. & Y. V. railway at Dalton, died recently. He stood well among his fellow employees and the patrons of the road.

—Mr. Maurice Pretzfelder, formerly a merchant here, is now manager of the Dry Goods Emporium at Asheville, having resigned his position at Charlotte.

—George Shaw, a driver for J. J. Phoenix, was bruised and battered in a runaway accident Monday morning but his injuries are not of a permanent nature.

—The Greensboro Hardware Co. has the exclusive sale in this city of the celebrated Buck stoves and ranges, which are warranted for fifteen years. See new ad.

—The old Hodgkin gold mine, in Sumner township, is to be worked at an early date. A Mr. Settle, from Missouri, is here perfecting arrangements to develop the property.

—The Southside hose company's new wagon arrived last Wednesday and was driven about the city. It is a handsome vehicle and will add to the efficiency of the company it represents.

—Mr. W. F. Bogart has about completed arrangements for the appearance here of the original "Wang" opera company, comprising forty or more people. Further announcements will be made next week.

—The widow of the late M. L. Coble last week received through Secretary J. D. Burch a check for $1,000, the amount of an insurance policy carried by the deceased in the Order of the Golden Chain.

—Revs. Dr. J. H. Weaver and J. E. Gay have started a neat little weekly paper devoted to the interests of the Methodist Episcopal churches of the city. The paper is issued from the office of Mr. J. J. Stone.

—The revival of the interest in mining pretends well for our people. Beyond question Guilford contains several valuable mining properties, and we are glad to learn that several of them are in a fair way for development.

—Prof. J. A. W. Thompson, of Siler City, has consolidated his school with that of Prof. Siler at Sanford. Prof. Chas. B. Staley, who has been an assistant teacher in Prof. Siler's school, goes to South Carolina to take charge of an academy.

—Mr. W. C. McLean is finishing the fourth new dwelling in his handsome row of houses on Forbis street, just south of the Catholic church. It will be occupied by Mr. Clarke, of the Cone Export and Commission Company.

—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Piedmont Bank last Wednesday the usual semi-annual dividend of three per cent. was declared and $2,500 added to the bank's surplus fund. The old officers were re-elected.

—Judge Dick has been indisposed for some days and acting on the suggestion of his family and friends left last night for Baltimore to undergo treatment at the Johns Hopkins hospital. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dick and Judge Douglas.

—The North Carolina Journal of Education for January is an unusually interesting number. Aside from its merits that appeal to every teacher and friend to education it contains much valuable historical matter that appears for the first time in print.

—Mr. Tillman Hodgkin, of Centre, and Miss Helen Kirkman were united in marriage last Thursday by Rev. S. T. Barber at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Kirkman, near Pleasant Garden. The groom is a son of Mr. D. S. Hodgkin.

—Mr. S. M. Goolsby, late chief clerk in U. S. Marshal Milliken's office, was tendered his "walking papers" by that official last week. We hope Mr. Goolsby will remain a citizen of our city, even though his hand has slipped from Uncle Sam's pocket. He is a good citizen.

—Miss Minnie Gorrell was saved from painful injury last Thursday morning by her presence of mind. While standing in front of an open fire at her residence on Ashe street her dress caught from a spark, but she smothered the flames by wrapping a cloak about her body.

—A large audience witnessed the presentation of "Pudd'nhead Wilson" by Mr. Theodore Hamilton's superb company last Thursday evening at the Academy of Music. All in all it was one of the best companies that ever visited Greensboro and Mr. Blackburn is to be congratulated upon its appearance here.

—Mrs. L. M. Bell, living east of the city, died Saturday aged about fifty-three years, leaving a husband and three children. She had been a faithful christian for many years and died happy in the sustaining faith of God's promises. Her remains were interred at Holt's chapel Sunday, Rev. J. E. Gay, of this city, conducting the services.

—Mr. C. D. Benbow, formerly of this city, but now superintendent of Pinehurst, the ideal Moore county winter resort established by Millionaire Jno. W. Tufts, of Boston, assumed the duties of postmaster at Pinehurst the first of the month. He will make a good official and his friends here are glad to learn of his preferment for the place.

—Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Washington, D. C., agent of the Peabody fund, spent Monday in the city the guest of Dr. McIver. Dr. Curry is making a tour of inspection of the various southern educational institutions that derive benefits from the fund he distributes. The State Normal and Industrial College here stands exceptionally high in his estimation.

—County treasurer Jno. A. Hodgkin purchased the Oak Hill roller mill property at a receiver's sale Monday, paying therefor the sum of $3,600. It is his intention, provided the sale is confirmed, to put the mill in operation, but already there is talk of a ten per cent. bid. Mr. Hodgkin's brother Frank, now in business in Roanoke, Va., will be connected with the mill.

—The North Carolina Presbyterian, now published at Charlotte, appears in a vastly improved form this week and we congratulate our brethren upon the happy change for the better in the paper's appearance. Nothing is lacking in the way of editorial ability. North Carolina's religious publications as a whole maintain a high standard and the Presbyterian does its share in sustaining the same.

—The PATRIOT is pleased to learn of the recent discovery of gold-bearing ore in the vicinity of Gibsonville. From a shaft sunk near the saw mill there come unmistakable indications of valuable ore deposits which are being developed as rapidly as possible and with gratifying results. Mr. R. W. Drew, a northerner, who has been prospecting about through eastern Guilford for some time, and Gibsonville parties are making the developments.

—Almond Cream Lotion will cure chapped hands and lips. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by Howard Gardner, druggist.

The End Is Not Yet.

After a week and a half of the special term of Superior court the civil docket has lost but a limited number from the formidable array of cases that were met with at the opening. Judge Robinson is compelled to leave the city Saturday for another county where a regular term opens Monday and unless the governor sends another judge here the special term will necessarily end before its prescribed days of usefulness are occupied. Reasonable diligence has been observed in the trial of these civil causes, yet nothing like the showing is made on the docket that our people, especially the tax-payers, would like to see. No blame for this attaches to the court or the attorneys—it is simply a succession of long tedious processes that require and deserve careful consideration and we will have to make the best of the situation. Until Guilford is included in the list of counties having criminal circuit courts there is no hope for any improvement in existing conditions. Since our last issue (and only one case was decided at this term prior to that date) the following cases have been disposed of with the result indicated in each:

T. T. Brooks, receiver Bain Building Co. vs. St. Andrews P. E. church. Judgment for plaintiff and against defendant for $800.

Walter Lewis vs. W. F. Clegg. Judgment for plaintiff and against defendant for $15.70.

Walter Lewis vs. Moore & McKenzie. Judgment for plaintiff and against defendants for $34.75.

Sibley, Lindsay & Kerr vs. E. L. Gilmer. Judgment for defendant against plaintiff; appeal by plaintiff to Supreme court.

A. H. Motley Co. vs. Southern Finishing & Warehouse Co. Trial pending.

The Astley Cooper Hospital a Pronounced Success.

Three months ago Dr. Wm. H. Brooks established the Astley Cooper Hospital in Greensboro, and so successful has been the venture that until now he has not had a favorable opportunity to throw its doors open to public inspection of its various departments. The wards have been full from the first and sometimes crowded. Just now there is but one patient being treated at the institution and Dr. Brooks took advantage of the circumstance Monday to give a pleasant reception to the Board of Lady Managers, who are as follows: Mesdames John Gray Bynum, Ceasar Cone, Robert P. Dick, C. H. Dorsett, Robert M. Douglas, Nell Ellington, John A. Gilmer, M. E. Howard, J. W. Lindau, Reuben Lindheim, E. J. Lynch, Harry C. Martin, B. Frank Mebane, J. C. Murchison, J. A. Odell, Geo. M. O'Brien, Dred Peacock, E. F. Reinicker, Annette L. Wright.

The ladies were not only pleased but charmed with the way the hospital is kept, the way the patients are treated, etc. Mrs. Berry, the superintendent, is a graduate of the Maryland General Hospital Training School for Nurses and has had several years experience in hospital management. The operating room is complete in all the modern appliances, while the wards are neat and cozy. The hospital will be open to visitors on Thursday and Friday of every week from 4 to 6 o'clock. We are justly proud of this enterprise and wish it unstinted prosperity.

—According to the Washington specials appearing in the Sunday papers only a formal transmission of certain documents remained to clinch the appointment of Tyre Glenn as postmaster here and the same was confidently expected Monday, but there seems to be a hitch somewhere. It is reported that Sir Thomas Settle hid himself to Washington Sunday night armed with divers and sundry protests against Glenn's appointment and there is no telling where the plum will land. In the meantime Postmaster Forbis continues to hold the office with his accustomed ability and grace, and we venture the assertion that it will take a good while to weary him in waiting for a successor. A "dark horse" is not the remotest possibility in this race, although Glenn seems to have the strongest kind of backing.

—Miss Lillie Dick, daughter of Mr. Frank Dick, of near McLeansville, is reported dangerously ill. She has not been in good health for some time.
