—Have you a good understanding? Thacker & Brockmann find that they have too many large sizes on hand in men's and women's shoes, and any man who wears a 9, 10 or 11 shoe, or woman who wears size 6, 7 or 8 can get a special bargain. They also have a lot of men's sizes and seven, and women's threes and fours to sell at cut prices.
—Mr. W. F. Fogleman, agent for the Southern Railway at Haw River, and Miss Alice L. Gardner, of Gibsonville, were married at the residence of Mr. John Ferguson, of the latter place, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Parker in an impressive manner. May peace and happiness attend the happy couple.
—Several weeks ago we made mention of the fact that Mr. D. H. Highfill, who has been living in Tennessee for some years had moved to Henderson county, in that state. We have since learned that we were in error in making this statement. Mr. Highfill has recently married and settled near Martin Weakley county. His many friends in this county wish for Mr. Highfill great happiness and much prosperity.

—Mr. James A. Albright has acquired an interest in the furniture business of Mr. W. J. Ridge and the style of the firm in the future will be W. J. Ridge & Co. Mr. Albright is a son of Mr. Daniel E. Albright, who lives three miles west of the city, and is a young man of industry and good habits. The business will be continued at the same stand with increased capital and a larger stock of the best furniture made. Watch for their new advertisement next week.
—Col. S. H. Boyd, referee and adjuster of claims against the Bank of Guilford, has a notice in the Patriot calling on those who have claims against the bank to present the same to him on the first day of February. The receiver, Mr. J. S. Cox, has notified all persons who owe the bank that the obligations must be met when due, or judgment for the amount will be taken. Many notes are now overdue, and when these are paid the receiver will be enabled to begin meeting the obligations of the bank.
—The Sabina, Ohio, News contains the following notice of some fine potatoes raised by one of Guilford's best farmers: "J. W. Briggs, of Blooming-ton, received his barrel of sweet potatoes from North Carolina last week, as he does every year, but this year they were exceptionally fine ones and one specimen was of mammoth proportions. This big one is a red yam and weighed 12 1/2 pounds. The tubers were raised by Jesse Benbow, a venerable gardener, of Oak Ridge, Guilford county, N. C., who is now over eighty years of age."
—A delightful dance, chaperoned by Mrs. Harris, was given in the academy at Summerfield last night. The dancing began at 7 o'clock and ended promptly at 11:30 and was indulged in by a number of charming maids and gallant beaux. The following young ladies were among those present: Misses Clara and Maude Willson, Miss Lillie Medearis, Miss Alred, the Misses Burton, Miss Lalah Smith, and the Misses Warren. Messrs. John R. Stewart, Charlie Gamble, J. W. Crews, Will Ogburn, W. E. Phipps and A. C. Forsythe were the young men from Greensboro present.
—The old Silver Hill lead mine, ten miles east of Lexington, in Davie county, has been purchased by an English syndicate, and we are informed that the mine will soon be in operation again. The old shaft is being enlarged and will be sunk to a depth of 560 feet. The mine was extensively operated in years gone by, turning out an immense quantity of high-grade ore. The output was used by the Confederate government during the Civil war. It is hoped to begin work in the mine during the month of February and four or five hundred men will probably be employed in its operation.
—Santanelli, the hypnotist, is filling his engagement at the Academy of Music this week and is being greeted by large crowds each evening. The performances are as interesting and the crowds as large as when he was here week before last. In fact the interest is somewhat heightened this week by the action of a number of young ladies in going upon the stage and acting as subjects. The manager of the Academy of Music has authorized us to say that Friday night's performance will be especially interesting, and those from a distance who have planned to see Santanelli might do well to attend this performance. But you will be interested and amused, no matter what night you come. Prices of admission are 15, 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seats on sale at Gardner's drug store.
—Mr. Will H. Matthews has disposed of his interest in the clothing firm of Matthews, Chisholm, Stroud & Rankin to Mr. W. H. Rees, who has held a responsible position with the firm since its establishment in June, 1895. Mr. Matthews retires from the firm in order to devote his entire time and attention to the wholesale hat house which is soon to be established in Greensboro. Articles of incorporation for the firm of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees have been filed, and the business will be continued at the same stand with ample capital to meet the demands of their constantly growing trade. May success attend them. The following are the officers of the corporation: T. L. Chisholm, president; W. R. Rankin, vice-president; W. H. Rees, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Rees, the new member of the firm, is clever and accommodating and will prove a valuable addition to the business.

The Jolly Pathfinders.
Patrons of the Greensboro Opera House are being pleased and amused this week by the performances of Rentfrow's company of Jolly Pathfinders. The company is an excellent one and is being well patronized. They played at Charlotte last week and Sunday's Charlotte Observer contained the following complimentary notice concerning their engagement:
"The Rentfrow Company closed a week's engagement here last night, presenting as a farewell 'St. Valentine's Day.' The house was packed from dome to cellar and the play was possibly the best of the week. The matinee yesterday attracted hundreds of children. Cinderella was well staged and proved a delight to each and every child present. The Rentfrows have played a star engagement. It is by far the best repertoire company that has been here in years."
Reserved seat tickets are on sale at Fariss' drug store.
For the Repeal of the Purchase Tax.
The business men of the city have signed a petition asking the legislature to repeal the merchants' purchase tax, which is considered exorbitant and unjust. Much interest is being manifested in the repeal of this law, and Monday night a large number of the representative business men of the city met in the court house to discuss the matter. Mr. J. A. Odell was made chairman of the meeting and expressions of opinion were had from a number of those present. It was decided to send a committee with the petition to Raleigh to work for the repeal of the law and the following gentlemen were appointed to perform this duty: C. H. Ireland, J. S. Hunter and J. W. Scott, with L. Richardson, M. C. Workman and M. L. Shields as alternates.
It was the sense of the meeting that every business man in the city and county who desires the repeal of this law write a personal letter to our representatives in the legislature urging them to use their best efforts in having the measure repealed. If our business men will do this it will have its influence, as well as encourage those of other sections of the state who are working to have the merchants' purchase tax stricken from the statute books.
Our Special Edition.
Work on the Patriot's special industrial treatise of Greensboro and Guilford county is progressing finely, and it is hoped that it will be completed by February 15th.
The compiling of this special class of literature is a task requiring the services of a person with special adaptability and experience, and in order that the standard of the work shall be of the highest character we have enlisted the services of Mr. Alfred Collins, of Philadelphia, who for many years has been engaged in this particular line.
In offering this volume to those friends and acquaintances of the commercial world, and to those who feel an interest in the affairs of our county, it shall be the publisher's intention to treat of the various subjects of industrial import in a manner that will convey a comprehensive idea of their present status and the possibilities here awaiting the judicious investment of capital and labor—to deal with the facts in a manner commensurate with their scope and yet without the slightest exaggeration. Ten thousand copies of this paper will go out where they will bring the best results. It will be the greatest advertising medium ever issued in Guilford county.
Road Notice.
A petition signed by numerous citizens asking that a public road be opened from Tabernacle church by Company Mill to the public road near Bethlehem church, this is to notify all persons who may object to same to appear before the Board of County Commissioners first Monday in February, 1899, and show cause why said petition should not be granted.

Death on the Rail.
A young man giving his name as C. M. Cauble, and claiming Salisbury as his home, was fatally injured by the Southern's northbound vestibule about 11 o'clock Friday night. It seems that he was beating his way to some point and when the train slowed up at the passenger station he jumped from the platform of one of the baggage cars. In jumping his foot was caught in some way, throwing him on the track. The car wheels passed over his right leg and arm, crushing those members in a horrible manner. A ghastly wound was also inflicted on his face.
The wounded man was taken to the old freight depot and given medical attention, but it was soon seen that he was beyond the hope of recovery. The shock was so great that it was not considered advisable to amputate either his leg or arm. Saturday morning he was removed to a boarding house, where he lingered in great pain until 1 o'clock Sunday morning, when the end came. The body was interred in the potter's field Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
A Growing Concern.
One of the most substantial business concerns in Greensboro is that of G. T. Glascock & Son, foundrymen, and the Patriot is pleased to know that their business continues to grow and expand, being much more extensive now than at any previous time in its history. They have recently added to their equipment a lot of high-grade machinery which enables them to add some new departments to their business. Heretofore they have been devoting their time and attention strictly to foundry work, but they are now doing a special line of job work and general repairing of all kinds of machinery, such as cotton mill machinery, engines, boilers, etc., etc. They are also manufacturing wood-working machinery of various kinds. The increased facilities of the concern have cost the Messrs. Glascock a considerable outlay of capital, but it is safe to presume they will be repaid by a growing patronage and an increased demand for their output.
They are to be congratulated on the success that has attended them in their efforts to build up a business strictly first-class in every respect. The goods turned out by this firm have a wide reputation, but they have been specially successful in building up a large trade on their celebrated stoves and feed cutters. We are informed that they are now behind on their orders for these lines.
For a Dispensary.
Petitions were put in circulation Monday morning asking the legislature to establish a dispensary in Greensboro. As noted in these columns last week, the movement has many of the best and most prominent people of the city behind it and those having the matter in charge have made a thorough investigation of the merits and demerits of the system. Up to this time nearly 400 qualified voters of Greensboro have signed the petition and it is probable that no trouble will be experienced in securing the signatures of a majority of the voters.
Last night a large crowd met in the court house and indulged in a full and free discussion of the matter. Dr. W. P. Beall was chairman of the meeting and short talks were made in support of the measure by a number of gentlemen, many of whom have observed the operation of the dispensary law in other places. Another meeting will be held at the same place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, when all who are in any way interested are invited to be present.
As Greensboro is the only corporation in the county now granting license to saloons, this city is the only place effected by the proposed law, though it will be made to cover the entire county. It is proposed to have the dispensary directly under the control of a board of competent men who will employ an upright and reliable man to manage the institution. The concern will be entirely from under the control of any political party.
Deafness Cannot be Cured
by LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
