$200,000 NECESSARY.

The Penitentiary Employees in Some Cases Too Drunk for Business—A Female Convict Ruined by Employees.

Raleigh, Jan. 28.—Before the joint committee on penal institutions this evening, Senator Brown, chairman of the sub-committee investigating the penitentiary, stated that he did not make a full disclosure of the results of examinations, but had no hesitancy in saying that the mismanagement of the penitentiary was beyond a parallel in the history of the State. He said the penitentiary owed $110,000 that he knew of. How much more he was unable to say, and advised that this debt be liquidated at once. He thought a bond issue of $200,000 would be necessary to put the institution in good shape, and believed that within two years, with proper management, the penitentiary would be a source of revenue. Mewborne, he said, was worse than Smith and the employees generally were a disgrace to North Carolina.

Only a few days since his committee could not get books from the penitentiary because a book-keeper was heavily drunk, and even now there was in the institution a woman convict ruined by the employees, and the convicts also at Castle Hayne were allowed to get drunk, and there and at other places were filthy beyond description. He urged the necessity of immediate action, and the committee instructed all newspaper reporters to have their papers insert advertisements that all claims against the penitentiary be sent to J. A. Brown, chairman, inside of ten days.

The masters shall accept no bid less than $25,000,000, and in case that amount is not bid, they shall adjourn the sale and apply to the court for further instructions.

Lawlessness in Santiago.

It is believed that he was murdered by lawless bands who are committing all sorts of outrages despite efforts of soldiers to run them down.
