

LEGAREDA EXECUTED

AGUINALDO CONDEMNS TO DEATH CITIZENS OF MANILA.

Insurgents Attack Iloilo but are Repulsed by the Americans, With a Loss of Two Hundred Killed and Wounded—The End Not in Sight.

Manila, March 20.—Aguinaldo is taking extreme measures to suppress all signs calculated to cause cessation of hostilities.

Twelve adherents of a plan for the independence of the residents of Manila have been condemned to death because they wrote advising a surrender, and all loyal Filipinos have been called upon to perform a national service of despoiling them.

Friday last Gen. Lagarda visited Malolos for the purpose of advising Aguinaldo to quit. He argued with the insurgent leader and attempted to convince him of the folly of his resistance in the face of such overwhelming odds. Aguinaldo was furious at the advice and ordered Lagarda to be executed immediately and the unfortunate general was promptly decapitated.

Iloilo, March 20.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon Gen. Miller reports that the insurgents attacked Iloilo and the outlying village of Jarro, but were repulsed with a loss of two hundred, killed and wounded.

Col. Dubosec, with a battalion of the First California Infantry, will go to Negros Island to-morrow to join Col. Smith.

The insurgent emissaries of the Island of Panay are reported to be agitating the inhabitants of Negros.

Members of the United States Philippine Commission, with the exception of Col. Denby, who has not yet arrived, held their first meeting to-day.

Wheaton's brigade, which defeated and drove the enemy fifteen miles yesterday, has returned to its position near Pasig. Everything along the lines are reported quiet.

Manila, March 20.—The inability of the commissary train to keep up with the advance has led to considerable suffering. Many men were completely exhausted and fell in the ranks, being strung along the distance almost six miles in numbers, in returning to the camp of the artillery and ambulances, which always close up lines.

A Texas Riot.

LAREDO, Tex., March 20.—The crisis in the disturbance here over the carrying out of the state health officers' regulations in suppressing the smallpox epidemic seems to be passed. When the work of removing the patients this morning was begun, the scenes of yesterday were repeated. Captain Rogers, of the State Rangers, and four assistants attempted to disperse the crowds, but were fired upon and Captain Rogers received a bullet in the leg. The Rangers returned the fire, killing Agapito, an ex-policeman, who was leading the rioters, and wounding a woman and another Mexican. Several other Mexicans were wounded, but the number cannot yet be ascertained, as they escaped in the crowd.

The shooting was followed by a number of scattered shots in different parts of that quarter of the city populated largely by Mexicans, and they were construed as pre-arranged signals by the rioters for re-enforcements. Dr. Blunt, according to arrangements made, had notified Captain Ayres, in command at Fort McIntosh, that the United States troops were needed, and at 11:45 a detachment of the Tenth Cavalry, mounted and fully armed with 100 rounds of ammunition arrived. The city marshal, Jos. Bartholemew, was sworn in as an officer, and the crowds were quickly dispersed. The leader of the first crowd encountered by the military undertook to talk instead of obeying orders to clear out, and was promptly knocked down with the butt of a carbine and so badly hurt that he died within a short time after being carried away. His followers took the hint and rapidly fled. A Gatling gun and an ambulance corps accompanied the cavalrymen, and affairs took on a decidedly martial appearance. All the places of business were closed.

The Wilkes Bond Case.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—An opinion was rendered by the Supreme court today in the Wilkes county, N. C., bond case, dismissing the case for want of jurisdiction. The court held that no Federal question was involved. Thus the case stands as it left the state courts, where the decision was adverse to the validity of the bonds, the amount involved being $1,000,000. The opinion was by Justice Peckham and was unanimously concurred in by the court.

The name of Jim Young, together with the names of the other fusion trustees of the new auditorium building for the white blind, appointed by the legislature of 1897, has been chiseled from the corner stone of that institution. The stone now bears the simple inscription: "1845-1898."

Negroes are Blamed.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 17.—Governor Candler is very bitter in his denunciation of the Palmetto affair. He attributes the trouble to the fact that negro regiments and soldiers have been passing through the country and the sight of them has placed in the mind of the negro a spirit of boldness.

"The Palmetto lynching was as deplorable as it was bloody and cowardly," said the Governor. "It is true the town was burned in the night time, endangering the lives of all its women and children. It is true that I had offered heavy rewards for the apprehension of the incendiaries, and that these negroes had been arrested and some of them had confessed their guilt and implicated the others in the crime. But it was cowardly and barbarous to slaughter them as this mob did, for they had been arrested and were in the hands of officers of the law awaiting a committing trial. The law was adequate for their punishment, and there was no doubt of their speedy trial and punishment, if convicted."

"Until recently there was no race friction in the State. The Georgia negro is not naturally vicious nor predisposed to the commission of atrocious crimes. This was demonstrated during a hundred years of slavery. The Georgia white man is not his enemy, as he has had abundant reason to know since he became a free citizen. Such outrages as this never, or seldom, occurred in this state till regiments of insolent, drunken negro soldiers, the scum of the dives of the cities North and South, were quartered here and there in the State and in the South."

"A mob of negro soldiers ran riot in Tampa and outraged women in broad daylight. Another gang of drunken vagabonds in Macon defied and tried to fire on the police. For months another regiment of these lawless vagabonds, wearing the uniform of the United States soldiers, terrorized Chickamauga and the town of Lytle, in North Georgia, to say nothing of the Griffin episode and other similar occurrences. They had to be escorted through every Southern city through which they passed after they were discharged by a battalion of police to prevent their looting the stores and terrorizing the people."

"The Leesburg outrage, the Palmetto burning and many other similar crimes committed in Georgia by negroes during the last few months are due to the baleful influence and example of these lawless rowdies, who disgraced the uniforms they wore. This is the primary cause of all these troubles. Still this does not justify the bloody and barbarous retaliation of Leesburg and Palmetto."

Bryan in Knoxville.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 18.—Colonel Wm. J. Bryan arrived here this morning at 8 o'clock. He was met at the passenger station by several hundred Democrats who had assembled, despite a terrible rain fall. The rain continued throughout the day and night. This morning at 11 o'clock Col. Bryan was joined by Governor Benton McMillan, of Tennessee. The two held a public reception in the Woman's Building. This afternoon they were entertained at dinner by L. H. Spilman. Sixteen Democrats and one Republican assembled around the festal board. Mr. Spilman and Col. Bryan were boys together in Salem, Ill., and later were in Chicago. Tonight Col. Bryan delivered his lecture on "Pending Problems," in the large public hall of this city. He was heard by 1,500 people. After the lecture he was entertained at a banquet as the guest of Knoxville Democrats. He responded to a toast, "The Democracy of Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan."

This morning Col. Bryan received a telegram from a Cincinnati newspaper asking for an expression in reply to Bob Ingersoll's criticism, that Bryan is a back number and has no political future. Col. Bryan's telegraphic reply was that he did not regard Col. Ingersoll as a capable authority to speak of his eligibility for the back number list, nor upon his prospects for the future.

Col. Bryan will celebrate his 38th birthday here tomorrow, as the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Easter, wife of Rev. Dr. Henry D. Easter, an Episcopal rector of this city.

PATRICK WALSH DEAD.

He Was Mayor and Editor and Ex-Senator from Georgia.

Augusta, Ga., March 20.—Patrick Walsh, ex-senator and mayor of Augusta, died at his residence Sunday morning after three months' illness of nervous prostration. There was little hope in the community of his recovery, but his death was not thought to be so near at hand.

Mayor Walsh was one of the most prominent men in Georgia, and had national recognition as the earnest champion of Southern development, and, perhaps, the best authority on the material resources and manufacturing products of the South.

Mr. Walsh was born in Ireland January 1st, 1840, but his father's family came to America while he was a boy and settled at Charleston, S. C. At 12 years of age Patrick Walsh was apprenticed in the Charleston Evening News, and in due time became a journeyman printer.

He came to Augusta in '62, and has ever since been identified with the press of the city, for twenty-five years past as editor and proprietor of the Augusta Chronicle.

From 1866 Mr. Walsh was general Southern agent of the Associated Press until 1892, when he became manager of the Southern Associated Press.

In 1870 he became a member of the city council; from 1872 to 1878 he served the State Legislature; in 1880, 1884 and 1896 he was a delegate to the Democratic Convention and served for four years as a member of the Democratic National Executive Committee; he served as a member-at-large for the World's Fair Commission; in 1894 he was appointed by Governor Northern to the United States Senate on the death of Senator Colquitt; in 1897 he was elected mayor of Augusta, which office he filled at the time of his death.

Abolition of Army Canteen.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—Whether the canteen system will be continued at army posts or entirely suspended will, in a measure, depend upon the interpretation of the army bill by post commanders, who are to be allowed wide discretion. Army officers severely condemn the provision for the abolition of the canteen, and predict increased desertions if the law is enforced. Officials of the War Department are confident, however, that the law admits of no other interpretation than the abandonment of the canteen, although it is proposed now that the post commanders be left to decide for the present what construction shall be placed on it.

While these officers, under an order issued quoting the law on the subject, are not instructed in any way, it is thought the canteen system will not long continue, and that few garrison officers will proceed on their own authority, but will prefer explicit orders from the War Department for their guidance. Until the War Department promulgates a formal decision furnished perhaps by the Attorney-General it is doubtful if the canteens will be entirely abolished.

The Spanish Prisoners.

MADRID, March 19.—Senor Silveira, Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, had a conference to-day with the French Ambassador regarding the liberation of Spanish prisoners in the hands of the Filipinos. Spain, it is reported, has determined to protest to the civilized world against the attitude of the Americans in hindering the efforts of Gen. Rios, Spanish commander in the Philippines, to liberate the prisoners.
