HIATT & LAMB.

—Dr. W. A. Coble, of Brick Church, one of the foremost men of eastern Guilford, was in the city Tuesday. We were delighted to receive a call from him.

—Ex-Sheriff Hoskins Monday sold about fifty tracts of land on which 1897 taxes were due. The law allows the delinquents twelve months in which to redeem the property.

—The young ladies of the State Normal and Industrial College observed Arbor Day Monday with appropriate exercises. At night an enjoyable entertainment was given in the college chapel.

—Officer Jordan yesterday arrested Bud Lane, colored, for retailing whiskey without license. Bud is an old offender and the officers have been on the alert for him a good while. There are seven cases against him.

—The pulpits of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Protestant Methodist, Baptist and Friends churches of the city were occupied Sunday by visiting ministers who were here attending the Epworth League and Sunday school conference.

—Rev. L. K. Probst, secretary of the mission board of the United Mission Synod, South, and Rev. P. D. Risinger, pastor of the Lutheran congregation at this place, are in the city. Mr. Probst made a talk in the Brockmann School of Music hall last night.

—The High Point Daily Citizen has been sold to Mr. J. J. Farris, of the Enterprise. Mr. H. A. Foote, who published the Citizen, will establish a weekly paper at Thomasville. We have not learned whether Mr. Farris will continue the publication of the Citizen.

—Dr. J. J. Cox was Monday elected mayor of High Point by a majority of 123 over Mr. Mat. Sechrest. Messrs. J. A. Lindsay, A. B. Horney, O. N. Richardson, W. P. Pickett, E. A. Snow, E. H. C. Field, George A. Matten and Dr. D. A. Stanton were elected aldermen. There was no politics in the election.

—The A. and M. College, Raleigh, and the Guilford College teams played an interesting game of baseball at Athletic Park Saturday afternoon. It was one of the prettiest games played here this season, the A. & M. team playing an errorless game. Guilford was defeated by a score of 7 to 8. A small crowd witnessed the game.

—Mr. Robert D. Douglas, who was recently elected one of the managers of the dispensary, declines to serve in view of the fact that certain persons here seem fit to impugn his motives in entering the dispensary fight. He is still an ardent advocate of the dispensary system, and only declines to serve on the board of managers because of the repeated efforts to drag the matter into politics.

—The old Felton factory building, at the junction of the Atlantic & Yadkin and Southern Railways, is being repaired and put in shape for a new manufacturing enterprise, which will be in operation within the next few months. We are not at liberty to publish the details of the matter just now, but suffice it to say that it will be a valuable acquisition to the many manufacturing enterprises now in operation here.

—The second annual inter-scholastic athletic meet was held on the grounds of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Saturday, and Oak Ridge Institute again won the state championship in athletics. Mr. Carter, an Oak Ridge student, was declared the champion track athlete of the state schools and was presented with a silver cup by the University Athletic Association. Several other Oak Ridge students also made enviable records.

—Mr. Charles D. Clark, a former resident of this city, and who is well known here, suffered a severe accident Sunday afternoon in Asheville, where he has resided for some years. In attempting to alight from a trolley car he lost his balance and fell, one of the car wheels passing over his right leg, shattering the bone, and also mashing the toes of his left foot. It was necessary to amputate the leg, it being taken off three inches below the knee.

—The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly committee on English and literature was in session here Saturday. They met to formulate a report which will be submitted to the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead City in June. The committee was composed of Professors Edwin Mims, of Trinity College; T. H. Harrison, of Davidson College; J. Y. Joyner, of the State Normal and Industrial College, and W. T. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute.

—Last week we published the fact that the Empire Steel and Iron Company, operating the furnace at this place, had purchased the Henry Clay and Tipton furnaces at Reading, Pa., and a furnace at Bellefonte Pa. The company has since acquired by purchase the plant of the Crane Iron Works, at Catasaugua, Pa., consisting of four furnaces. The formal transfer of the property, representing an immense sum of money, occurred Monday.

—A telegram was received here yesterday conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Edwin V. McDaniels, of Lowmoor, Va. He had been sick about three weeks, but his death was not expected. He was a son of Dr. A. P. McDaniel, of McLeansville, and had lived at Lowmoor more than three years, being connected with the Lowmoor Iron Works. He was twenty-eight years old and leaves a wife and one child. The grief-stricken loved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their sad affliction.

—Mr. Robert A. Foard, a former well known resident of this city, was married last week at Wakefield, S. C., to a Miss Orr. He and his bride passed through here Thursday on their way to Elkin to spend a few days with friends and relatives, after which they will return to Greensboro. Previous to leaving Greensboro Mr. Foard was a clerk in the postoffice, resigning this position about three years ago and going to Alabama, where he has been engaged in teaching. He is an educated and refined gentleman and has many friends who will rejoice to hear of his good fortune.

—Mrs. Martha E. Hassell, the beloved wife of Mr. M. C. Hassell, died of heart trouble at her home near Lego last Sunday. She was born August 9, 1846, and was fifty-two years, eight months and twenty-one days old at the time of her death. A number of years ago she professed religion and joined the Methodist church at Hickory Grove, ever afterward living a faithful and consistent Christian life. In her death the community has lost a kind neighbor, and the home an affectionate wife and devoted mother. Mrs. Hassell was the daughter of the late Madison Frederick and leaves a large number of friends and relatives.

Special Term of Court.

By order of Governor Russell a special term of Guilford county Superior court will convene on Monday, May 22nd, and continue for two weeks. This term will be for the hearing of civil cases alone. W. C. BOREN, Chm. B. C. C. 17-t.

—Sunday's Charlotte Observer has the following complimentary notice of the Pomona Hill Nurseries: "There came to The Observer yesterday a box of beautiful flowers from the Pomona Hill Nurseries, at Pomona. In the box were gorgeous American Beauties, beautiful white roses, exquisite La Frances, amilax and feather ferns. The flowers were sent with the compliments of Mr. J. Van Lindley, of the Nursery Company. Mr. Rudolph Topel is the florist. He and Mr. Lindley have succeeded beautifully with all flowers, but with roses in particular. No more beautiful specimens than those sent The Observer could be desired."

—Mr. Charles S. Cude, of this city, and Miss Callie Stanley, of Center, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Isaac Stanley, last Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Hodgkin in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cude passed through this city Friday morning on their way to Colfax to spend a few days at the home of the groom's father. Mr. Cude is an industrious young man of fine character and has many friends. He is one of the Wakefield Hardware Company's popular salesmen. His bride is a young lady of culture and refinement, and is popular with all who know her. We join their friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

—The oratorical contest, which was given by the Websterian Literary Society in Memorial Hall, at Guilford College, Friday night, was quite a success. A large and cultured audience was present, and the orations and music were greatly enjoyed. Mr. T. B. Hinton, whose subject was "An Uncrowned Hero," won the orator's prize. Mr. C. W. Davis won the medal for the most improvement in society work during the year. Excellent music for the occasion was furnished by the Brockmann Orchestra, of this city. A Henry Clay contest was held in Memorial Hall Saturday night and proved a most delightful occasion to all present. Six bright young men contended for the orator's medal, all of them delivering their orations in a creditable manner. The judges awarded the medal to Mr. A. S. Parker, who spoke on "The Framing of Our Constitution." The music, both instrumental and vocal, was excellent.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

as mercury will certainly destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
