LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Maj. A. Summers, of Gibsonville, was a welcome caller Monday.

—Mrs. L. A. Smith is having a nice residence erected on Summit avenue.

—Messrs. John R. Stewart and C. C. Shoffner went to Winston Monday on business.

—Mr. G. A. Smith left at noon yesterday on a business trip down the A. & Y. road.

—Editor Phillips, of the Telegram, spent Sunday with friends and relatives in Chatham county.

—Col. W. H. Osborn went to Durham Saturday to attend a meeting of Keeley Institute directors.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Stewart have moved into the residence one door west of Mr. J. L. Brockmann's.

—Prof. W. H. Albright, who has just closed a successful term of school at Ramseur, called on us one day last week.

—A contract has been let for the new Catholic church, on North Elm street. Heecker & Morris are the contractors.

—Rev. J. B. Tabor, pastor of the Greensboro circuit, preached at the Baptist chapel, in the eastern part of the city, Sunday night.

—Mr. G. H. Royster has returned from Charlotte, where he spent some time in the interest of the Knights of Pythias Endowment Rank.

—Mr. P. H. Apple, of Morton's Store, was in the city last Thursday for the first time in three years. We were glad to receive a call from him.

—Rev. W. L. Grissom occupied the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Smith, who was in High Point.

—Rev. Dr. L. W. Crawford went to Germantown Saturday, where he delivered an address. He occupied the pulpit of Centenary Methodist church, Winston, Sunday.

—Revs. E. P. Parker, G. A. Stauffer, H. M. Brown and P. D. Risinger, and perhaps others from this county, went to Salisbury last week to attend the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina.

—Prof. C. J. Brockmann, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, and Messrs. Ney Forbis and Frank Blount went to Wilmington last Thursday to assist some of the musicians of that city in giving a concert.

—Mrs. F. L. Reid is preparing to build a new residence on the corner of West Market and Edgeworth streets, on the lot now occupied by her home. This house will be moved farther up street.

—The largest stock of infants' and children's sandal slippers and oxfords in the city and the largest and best stock of tan and black shoes for boys and girls can be found at Thacker & Brockmann's.

—A called meeting of Orange Presbytery will be held in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow for the purpose of ordaining Rev. Allen Jones, who is engaged in evangelistic work in Ashe county.

—Mr. R. C. Dick, of Whitsett, was here yesterday. It was his intention to go on to Charleston to attend the Confederate Veterans reunion, but a sudden attack of sickness forced him to abandon the trip.

—Recently an election was held and carried in Reidsville to issue bonds for water works and other municipal improvements. Last week the 5 per cent. bonds were sold at $109.40 and the 6 per cent. bonds at $118.83.

—Those who heard Rev. J. R. Jones' address on his recent European travels, at the Friends church Friday night, were well pleased with it. Mr. Jones is an observant man and while in the old country he learned much of interest to the public.

—Mr. H. L. Carter, the clever traveling representative of D. M. Osborne & Co., manufacturers of the renowned Osborne farm machinery, has moved his family from Charlotte to this city. They occupy the residence on South Forbis street recently vacated by Mr. Buchanan.

—Ex-Sheriff Hoskins again advertises quite a number of delinquent taxpayers. If you should be so unfortunate as to have your name on the list it would be well to square accounts with the ex-sheriff before the first Monday in June, or the property will be sold for the amount of taxes due.

—About one hundred Confederate veterans from Durham and Person counties, under the command of Col. J. S. Carr, passed through early yesterday morning en route to Charleston to attend the reunion. A delegation from the Daughters of the Confederacy met the veterans at the depot and served hot coffee and sandwiches.

—The Century will issue three special numbers: June, "Out-of-doors Number"; July, "The Story-tellers' Number"; and August, "Midsummer and Travel Number." An article by Henry van Dyke on "Fisherman's Luck," and a dozen striking pictures of Niagara Falls by the artist Castaigne, are two of the features of the June issue.

—Memorial Day will be celebrated here this afternoon with appropriate exercises. The Daughters of the Confederacy have arranged a suitable program for the occasion. The procession will leave the court house at 4.30 o'clock and move to the cemetery, where homage will be done the memory of those heroes of the "Lost Cause" who have gone before.

—Miss Elise McAllister, of Asheboro, a sister of Mr. A. W. McAllister, of this city, died Saturday morning in Charlotte, where she was in school at the Presbyterian College. She had been seriously ill for several weeks and her death was not unexpected. The remains were taken to Asheboro and the funeral held from the Presbyterian church of that town Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. She was nineteen years of age and was a young lady of much culture and a high order of intelligence.

—The sale of lots in the Vanhooklin tract last Monday afternoon was somewhat interfered with by the rain storm which came up shortly after noon, but was held as advertised. On account of the unfavorable weather the attendance was not as large as it would otherwise have been, though quite a crowd of buyers was present. Under the circumstances the sale was fully as successful as could have been expected. The lots sold did not bring high prices, nor were such prices expected. There are many lots left which are as desirable as those sold, and any one desiring to make a purchase can do so at private sale as well as at public auction. Messrs. Jordan, Sinclair & Macdonald have charge of the property.

—Mr. Yancey Tickle, of Elon College, was in the city this morning and favored us with a substantial call.

The state of North Carolina's net debt now is estimated to be $1,250,000. To this must be added the $110,000 to pay the loss incurred by John E. Smith and Mewborne in pretending to run the penitentiary, and the bonds to be issued to pay penitentiary farms.

Nash County Gold.

A Rocky Mount special to the Raleigh Post, under date of May 4th, has the following. Mr. E. W. Lyon, one of the gentlemen operating the mine, is a citizen of Greensboro:

"A gold bar weighing 4 pounds, worth between $800 and $900, Nash county gold, is on exhibition at the Planters' Bank in this town this morning.

"It is the product of a six-days' run of the Mann-Arrington gold mill, operated by Messrs. Campbell & Lyon, of Argo, Nash county.

"The bar is pure gold and its value and the time required in getting it out shows a yield of $150 per day at a cost of about $35 of $40.

"The eastern Apalachian gold belt is on the eve of a great movement, and the eyes of the world will soon be opened to the wonderful richness of the East Carolina mines. Some of the best gold mines of the world are to be found within twenty-five miles of Rocky Mount, and gold mining is expected to become a mammoth industry in this section."

FLOGGED AT THE PEN.

Story of Federal Prisoners incarcerated.

Washington, May 9.—The Evening Star yesterday published a complaint from a number of Federal prisoners incarcerated in the State penitentiary at Raleigh, N. C. The prisoners were ordered to work at some brick yards 8 miles from the prison and refused to comply, claiming immunity under the law from labor outside of the prison walls, whereupon they were flogged for insubordination.

The complaint was submitted to the Attorney General and an investigation has been ordered.

A conference of the Mormon Church is in session at Chattanooga, Tenn. There are over 500 elders and 9,000 communicants in the Southern states.
