LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Our Thom's Mill items came too late for publication this week.

—Old Irish potatoes, for second crop planting, at Phoenix's, $1.25 bushel.

—Mr. Fuller L. Reid is recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

—Rev. J. T. Stanford, of Burlington, spent Sunday with relatives in the city.

—Dr. J. W. Long, of Salisbury, came up Sunday to attend the funeral of his relative, Rev. R. P. Troy.

—Howard Gardner has all the different varieties of fresh turnip seed. Read his ad. and give him a call.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dorsett returned Monday evening from a trip to Richmond and Washington.

—Mr. W. Theo. Williams, of Graham, is spending a week's vacation with friends and relatives in this city.

—Dr. Charles D. McIver was in Charlotte the latter part of last week attending the Mecklenburg summer school.

—Mr. Leonidas W. Crawford, Jr., spent Sunday at Ruffin, Rockingham county, where he organized an Epworth League.

—Misses Fannie and Hallie Wilkins, of Mt. Carmel, Va., who have been visiting at Mr. S. L. Trogdon's, returned home Saturday.

—Dr. Cooper Curtice, of Raleigh, state veterinarian, was here last night on his return from a trip to the western part of the state.

—All kinds of turnip seeds are advertised in this issue by T. W. Wood & Son, of Richmond, Va., the widely known Southern seedsmen.

—Mr. H. L. Hopkins was here this morning on his return to his home in Reidsville from a business trip through Virginia and Eastern Carolina.

—Revs. J. F. McCulloch and T. J. Ogburn are in Detroit, Mich., this week attending the national convention of the Christian Endeavor Society.

—Several hundred Charlotte negroes came on an excursion to this city last Thursday. It was one of the most orderly excursion crowds ever seen.

—Mr. N. W. Beeson, a well known citizen of High Point, died suddenly last Thursday morning. He was a good man and beloved by all who knew him.

—The work of the list-takers and assessors closed Saturday. Between 3,500 and 4,000 persons listed taxes in Morehead and Gilmer townships. This is an increase over the number listing in former years.

—Mr. M. Royal Farrar left Monday night for Philadelphia, where he goes to take a thorough course in engraving. During his absence his jewelry business will be under the management of Mr. W. G. Frazier.

—If you want to buy a carpet, matting, rugs, floor oil cloth, window shades or curtains, remember that Thacker & Brockmann carry a large stock of these goods and sell them at very reasonable prices.

—Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Washington, D. C., general agent of the Peabody fund for public schools in the South, spent Saturday night and part of Sunday in the city. He was returning home from Asheville.

—Mr. Silas Lambeth, who enlisted in the army here a few weeks ago, and who went to New York last week to take passage for Cuba, was turned down on the final examination. He returned home a day or two ago.

—It was our pleasure to receive a call Monday afternoon from that sterling citizen and polished gentleman, Dr. W. A. Coble, of Brick Church. He was on his way to High Point to attend the Fourth of July celebration.

—Mr. Jere Highfill, of Summerfield, gave us a pleasant call yesterday. He had with him a sample of gold-bearing ore which was recently found on his place. He is preparing to make an investigation of the quality and extent of the precious metal on his property.

—Messrs. George W. Kestler & Son have recently made some improvements on their Asheboro street drug store which adds greatly to its appearance. Mr. S. S. Halthcock, a well known and popular pharmacist, has recently connected himself with the firm.

—The Fourth was an exceedingly dry day in Greensboro, there being no celebration either here or at the Battle Ground. Several parties went out into the country to picnic, though the rain hindered any outdoor enjoyment. The postoffice, the banks and a number of other business concerns were closed during the day.

—Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees invite their customers and the public generally to make their store headquarters while in the city attending the gala week and firemen's tournament. Their store, on the corner of South Elm and West Washington streets, is a pleasant place and you will be made welcome.

—Mr. F. A. Hodgkin, who has been in the revenue service for some time, occupying the position of general storekeeper for the eastern district, has been promoted and is now distributing clerk in Collector Duncan's office at Raleigh. He is a clever and capable gentleman, and his friends in this county congratulate him on his promotion.

—Mr. M. C. Stewart, as agent, offers for sale two good farms in one of the best sections of the county. These farms are in a good state of cultivation, are well timbered and can be purchased at reasonable prices. See the advertisement in this issue. Mr. Stewart can be found at the Greensboro Hardware Company's store.

—The advertisement of Greensboro Female College will be found in this issue. This institution is too well known to need any word of endorsement at our hands; for years it has been liberally patronized by many of the best people of this and adjoining states, and today the institution is in better condition than ever before.

—There will be two services at Lee's Chapel next Sunday, this being Children's Day. The morning will be devoted to the exercises of the children, and in the afternoon there will be addresses appropriate to the occasion. All are invited to attend and take dinner with them. There will be preaching by the pastor at Mt. Pisgah at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

—The Asheboro Courier of the 29th ult. contained the following kindly reference to a gentleman well known to many of our readers: "Dr. J. M. Worth celebrates his eighty-eighth birthday today. The Doctor has lived a commendably noble life and in these eighty-eight years has benefited his fellow men to an immeasurable degree. We wish that he may yet enjoy the happiness and peace of many years."

—We desire to call the attention of our readers to the column advertisement of our friend W. O. Stratford, which will be found on the fourth page. He advertises the famous Pennsylvania Low Down disc grain drills, which have many points of superiority. One advantage is the low position of the body, although the wheels are standard height—four feet. Mr. Stratford will take pleasure in showing you these implements.

—On account of the inclement weather the seventh annual Sunday school convention of Beone Station township, which was to have convened at Sharon Lutheran church, Gibsonville, on June 11th, was postponed until Sunday, the 23rd inst. Some prominent Sunday school workers are to take part in the exercises and the occasion will doubtless be both interesting and instructive. The program as published in the Patriot several weeks ago will be carried out.

—Holt's Chapel Methodist church, two miles east of the city, is being greatly improved and beautified. A new floor and handsome stained glass windows have been put in and the pews are being repainted. The walls will be plastered and the overhead ceiling nicely papered. When completed it will be one of the prettiest churches in the county—a great credit to the congregation. The Greensboro district conference will be held in this church the last week in July and a large attendance is expected.

—Mrs. Lou Weatherly died at her home three miles south of this city last Thursday evening. She had been sick for over two months, and while her death was not unexpected, it was nevertheless a great shock to her friends and loved ones. Rev. T. M. Johnson conducted the funeral services Friday afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in Greene Hill cemetery. The deceased was fifty-five years old and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was a devout Christian and a faithful member of the M. P. church. Seven children and a number of other relatives are left to mourn her death.

Good, Honest Dry Goods and Shoes,
AT EXTREMELY LOW PRICES.

—the amount of money expended annually by the people of Guilford county for Dry Goods and Shoes that are unsatisfactory, for several reasons, but chiefly because the quality is not what they thought they were getting. How often we buy an article because the price is low (or seems to be low) and find out after it is too late that we are bit. The lowest price goods are not the cheapest. Quality is the first consideration with us, then we make the price, and often it is less than you pay for shoddy goods. We bid for your trade if you want

Don't think our prices are high because we sell the best. We are sincere in our belief when we say we believe you can get more real value for your money in our store than any house in Greensboro. WE BUY FOR CASH AND WE SELL STRICTLY FOR CASH! Can you see any reason why we can't sell cheap?
