NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

McLeansville Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Jot Causey came down Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jane Gannon is confined to her bed sick, the result of summer complaint.

The health of the community is moderately good, considering the hot weather.

We are needing rain badly in this section. Corn is twisting and gardens are burning up.

Mrs. Lizzie McLean, who has been sick for some time, we are glad to learn, has improved considerably.

Mr. Charles Denny, son of Mr. Purvis Denny, is visiting his relatives here. Mr. Denny resides in Philadelphia.

Mr. R. L. Davis, one of our progressive farmers, is having a well dug in his pasture to supply his cattle with water.

We have an old colored woman in this vicinity that is over one hundred years old. She says she is one hundred and three.

Mr. John Tate came down last Saturday, making collections on more accounts, but was not very successful, returning the same day.

Our tinner is very thankful for the liberal patronage bestowed on him, and in the future will mend your umbrellas at a moderate cost.

Mrs. Betsy Ann Hutson, wife of Mr. Calvin Hutson, who has been confined to her bed for a long time, does not improve, and her condition is considered quite serious.

Mr. James Rankin, son of Mr. Robert Rankin, came up last week from Henderson, visited the family and returned Monday. Mr. Rankin is engaged in the tobacco business.

The harvest is about completed, but the yield is not large. Mowing is the order of the day now. The Davis-Wilson Co.'s threshing machine will start out this week with a full corps of hands.

We scarcely lose any chickens in this section of the country from coon depredations, but the mink has supplied their places, two of our neighbors losing eighty-three chickens each from minks, only one being captured. Mink skins are worth more than coon skins.

J. L. Anders, postmaster at Pecan, Bladen county, is out on bond, having been arrested for a violation of the postal laws—selling stamps for less than face value and also paying debts with them.

WOOD'S TURNIP SEEDS

not only grow the best turnips, but they make a large yield—quantity and quality too. Our aim is to grow and supply seeds that are adapted in kind, variety and growth to the soil and climate of the South, and that we are succeeding is evidenced by the large and splendid reputation which Wood's Seeds enjoy.

If your merchant does not sell Wood's Seeds, send for our special Turnip Seed-Price-List. Small packages can be sent by mail, and large ones cheaply and quickly by freight.

T. W. Wood & Sons, Seedsmen, Richmond, Va.

WOODS FALL CATALOGUE tells about seeds for fall planting: Crimson Clover, Hair or Sandvetch, Rape, Winter Wheat, Grasses and Clovers, Turnip and Vegetable Seeds, Hyacinths, and other flowering plants—write for it, and prices of any seeds required. All correspondence cheerful.
