

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Mrs. W. F. Davidson, of Conover, is visiting the family of her brother, Mr. W. J. Weatherly.

—Mrs. L. A. Smith and daughter, Miss Mamie, have returned from a visit in the Whitsett section.

—Mr. J. P. Dempsey, the Brown's Summit millwright, has gone to Temple, Va., to put up a mill.

—Mrs. Wood, of Asheboro, mother of Rev. Dr. F. H. Wood and Mrs. J. R. Pearce, is visiting in the city.

—Rev. J. B. Tabor went to Rockingham county yesterday to assist Rev. J. M. Price in a revival meeting.

—Mr. John G. Brodnax, who went into bankruptcy a few months ago, was last week finally discharged from all obligations.

—Mr. W. B. Barker, of Elkin, is a new citizen of Greensboro, having accepted a position at Grissom & Fordham's drug store.

—The Friends yearly meeting at High Point will open next Wednesday. Some of the most noted men in the Friends church will attend.

—Feed Corn—We have just received a car of No. 1 feed corn which we will sell at the lowest cash market price.

HIATT & LAMB.

—Mr. W. R. Vickers, a well known citizen of Reidsville, died suddenly of heart trouble Saturday morning. He was proprietor of the Piedmont Hotel.

—We have received the first number of The Elon College Weekly, published by the members of the faculty of this institution. May it serve its purpose well.

—Dr. J. K. Stockard, of Burlington, who was chief surgeon of the late Second North Carolina Regiment, has been appointed a surgeon in the volunteer army. He will leave within a few days for San Francisco, from which place he will take passage for the Philippines.

—Mr. Ernest Teague, of this city, and Miss Flora Weatherly were married at the home of the bride, south of the city, last Wednesday evening, Rev. T. E. Wagg, of this city, performing the ceremony. The young couple are justly popular with a large circle of friends, who wish them all the happiness of a long and prosperous life.

—A successful revival meeting was held at Friendship Methodist church last week, conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Pegram. Considerable interest was manifested and the congregations increased with each service. The services were brought to a close Sunday, nine new members being received into the church as a result of the meeting.

—In a personal letter to the editor last week Rev. D. A. Highfill, of Liberty, wrote that he was unable to fill his appointment at AI, near Oak Ridge, the Sunday previous because of the serious illness of his little son, Clarence, who is suffering from a second attack of appendicitis within the past six weeks. We trust the little sufferer is better ere this.

—Including five new suits that are to be brought at the next term of court, there are twenty divorce cases on our Superior court docket. This will doubtless be a surprise to many, and it will be regretted by all who hold in reverence the sanctity of the marriage vows. In by-gone days it was the exception rather than the rule when a divorce case came up in our courts. But in those days people doubtless exercised more judgment in getting married.

—Our readers have doubtless noticed the advertisement of Whitsett Institute, that has been appearing for some time in this paper. We are glad to learn that all indications point to a very fine school during the coming year. Numerous applications are being received from young people who desire to enter school, and to meet the increase in numbers the school is erecting twelve additional student rooms. You should see the beautiful catalogue before deciding upon a school.

Sub-District Conference.

The sub-district conference of the fourth sub-district of the M. P. Church was held at Moriah church, Tabernacle circuit, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The attendance of both clerical and lay members was good, and much interest was manifested in the discussions and other proceedings.

After the organization Friday morning "The Proper Use of the Bible" was discussed in an interesting manner by Rev. J. R. Hutton, Prof. T. C. Amick and others. "What the Methodists Believe" was discussed by Rev. W. A. Bunch. Dr. M. F. Fox and Mr. J. S. Hunter made talks on church finances. A good portion of the afternoon session was devoted to the interests of the Christian Endeavor society. Rev. J. F. McCulloch, who attended the recent Christian Endeavor convention at Detroit, Mich., gave an interesting report of the work of the convention.

The Sunday school work was taken up Saturday morning and encouraging reports were made of the progress of the work over the district. In this connection the following subjects were discussed: "The Model Superintendent," S. A. Alexander; "The Model Teacher," Rev. G. F. Millaway; "The Model Scholar," Rev. John Bowman. At the afternoon session Prof. J. Allen Holt, of Oak Ridge, read a paper on the history of the M. P. Church. It was carefully prepared in a most intelligent manner, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mr. J. Norman Wills, of this city, made a splendid address on "The Methodist Protestant Church in the Past, and its Possible Future." Rev. W. C. Hammer ably discussed "Means Necessary to its Greatest Efficiency in the Future." At night Rev. T. M. Johnson gave a lecture on "The Institutions of the Methodist Protestant Church." The lecture was illustrated with magic lantern views, and was both interesting and instructive.

Rev. T. J. Ogburn preached an able sermon to a large congregation Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. At 1:30 in the afternoon Rev. H. S. B. Thompson addressed the conference on the subject of "Christian Citizenship." He was followed by Rev. G. S. Kernodle, who spoke on "Revivals." "The Polity of the Methodist Protestant Church" was discussed by Rev. J. F. McCulloch, editor of Our Church Record. Few men in the church are more able to handle this subject than Mr. McCulloch, and his address was one of the most interesting made during the entire conference.

STATE NEWS.

Judge James E. Shepherd has resigned as professor of law at the University of North Carolina.

It is said that there are four men in Durham who pay more taxes than the entire city of Winston.

The Durham Hosiery Mills, owned by Gen. J. S. Carr, are to be removed from Durham to Raleigh.

The Southern Railway Company last week increased the wages of all employes in the transportation department.

The Erwin Cotton Mills Company, of Durham, has purchased one thousand acres of land on Haw River, in Chatham county, on which will be built two large cotton mills.

Rev. J. R. Moore and family, of Asheville, left Monday for Korea, where Mr. Moore will engage in missionary work under the auspices of the Southern Methodist church.

Col. H. C. Wall, of Rockingham, who represented Richmond county in the last legislature, died at Blowing Rock Monday. He belonged to one of the most distinguished families of the state and his death is a great loss.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The rumors regarding the formation of a Chino Japanese alliance are semi-officially denied, and it is asserted that the envoys recently sent to Tokio were appointed simply to seek to promote friendly relations between the Powers.

THOUSANDS

INTO UP RUNS IT

—the amount of money expended annually by the people of Guilford county for Dry Goods and Shoes that are unsatisfactory, for several reasons, but chiefly because the quality is not what they thought they were getting. How often we buy an article because the price is low (or seems to be low) and find out after it is too late that we are bit. The lowest price goods are not the cheapest. Quality is the first consideration with us, then we make the price, and often it is less than you pay for shoddy goods. We bid for your trade if you want
