A HORRIBLE TALE OF THE SEA.

Two Men Picked Up by a Charleston Bound Steamer—One Crazy, Had Bitten Big Chunks of Flesh from the Body of His Companion—The Two Had Previously Killed and Eaten a German, Whose Fate Had Been Decided by Lot.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 2.—The British steamer Woodruff, Captain Milburn, arrived from Hamburg to-day. August 31st, two hundred and fifty miles south of Charleston, the Woodruff picked up Maurice Anderson and Goodmund Thomason, survivors of the Norwegian bark Drot, wrecked on August 15th, off the Florida coast. The Drot was bound from Pascagoula to Buenos Ayres. Anderson is a raving maniac and his companion is shockingly mutilated from bites of the crazed man.

Thomason tells a dreadful story. The captain of the Drot and seven seamen were swept overboard and lost in the recent West Indian hurricane. The mate and seven other men put to sea on a raft made from decking. The raft parted soon after, and the mate and one man were separated from the others. The mate's companion was landed at Philadelphia by the German steamer Titania, on August 22d. He stated that the mate committed suicide. Of the six men on the other part of the raft one became crazed from exposure and jumped into the sea. Two others, exhausted from suffering fell overboard and were lost. Anderson, Thomason and a German seaman drew lots as to which should be eaten, as none of them had had a mouthful since they took to the raft. The lot fell to the German. He was killed and the blood was sucked from his veins by the two survivors.

Soon afterward Anderson lost his reason and savagely attacked his only companion. Thomason's breast and face were bitten in several places, chunks of good size being torn out. Both men are now in the city hospital and the Norwegian consul has taken the case in hand. Thomason is a native of Stevanger, Norway.

Germans to Help the Boers.

London, September 2.—The Standard and Diggers News today received a cablegram from its Johannesburg office, dated yesterday, saying that a German corps, 900 strong, had been formed there to co-operate with the Boers in the event of war with Great Britain. The dispatch adds that the Boers could mobilize 20,000 men in three days, while while the Orange Free State could muster 10,000 men in the same period.

The Good State of North Carolina.

Under the above caption an esteemed friend sends us the following, which is suggestive:

"Mr. Editor: I have been lately running over a little book, entitled 'Investment Guide,' compiled by Henry Clews & Co., Bankers, New York.

"As the miseries of man are mitigated, to some extent at least, by a state of greater wretchedness in another, I have thought it well to invite the attention of my fellow North Carolinians to a comparison of one of our great troubles with those of the same variety that afflict our sister States:

Alabama, population	1,800,000
Georgia, "	2,100,000
Iowa, "	2,185,000
Minnesota, "	1,800,000
Oregon, "	480,000
Ohio, "	4,794,810
North Carolina "	2,000,000

Alabama, indebtedness of individuals on country real estate.....$28,762,387

Georgia, same indebtedness 27,387,590

Iowa, same indebtedness 149,457,144

Minnesota, same indebtedness 75,355,562

Oregon same indebtedness 15,983,361

Ohio, same indebtedness 134,107,706

North Carolina, same indebtedness 14,537,439

"It will be observed that the indebtedness on country property alone has been taken, in order to show, with the more certainty, the relative conditions of the prosperity of the farming classes.

"We find that the indebtedness of Alabama, on farming lands, is nearly $24 to the inhabitant; of Georgia, $8; of Iowa, $74; of Minnesota, $38; of Oregon, $52; of Ohio, $51, and of North Carolina, only $7.30 to each citizen of the State.

"It is by such publications as that of Henry Clews & Co., which deal in cold facts, that the attention of investors has been directed to our good State.

"We shall be thankful for more of the same sort.

"TAR HEEL," in Raleigh Post.

A Bibb county (Ga.) farmer kept an account of the cost of sowing, cultivating and reaping ten acres of wheat, which he ascertained to be $57.62. He produced 180 bushels of wheat, which he sold at 75 cents per bushel, making $135. In addition, he sold three tons of straw for $24, making his gross receipts $159, and leaving a net profit on the ten acres of $101.38.

The trade of the United States with Africa has increased nearly 500 per cent. in the past ten years. American manufacturers have supplanted articles formerly supplied by other countries.

TILLMAN ON THE NEGRO.

The Conditions on Which He is His Friend—Must Keep in His Place.

Charleston, September 2.—In a letter addressed to Rev. Dart, a leading colored minister of Charleston, Senator Tillman to-day says:

"I am considered an arch enemy of the negro because while governor I tried to convene a constitutional convention to disfranchise them." Continuing, the Senator says:

"If you will contrast the condition of the negroes of South Carolina with those of North Carolina and Georgia you will see that there is much more good feeling and less friction here than where political activity and franchise exists on the basis of manhood suffrage.

"The Phoenix riot is directly attributable to the political virus injected into the negroes of that neighborhood by designing white men—such as the Tolberts—and the recent outrages are the natural aftermath.

"What the ultimate solution of the race problem will be I don't know, but I do know that the race and caste feeling is an insuperable barrier to social and political equality in the South, and the negro (as the weaker and inferior race) will always be the victim of every conflict by which he ceases, either by his own accord or when led by designing white men, to break down these barriers.

"There is no room in the north-west, nor opening for any negro communities, as you will find if you go there to investigate. The northern whites no longer sympathize with the ideas which brought on the civil war, as is proven by Governor Tanner's recent attitude and official action.

"There may be an opening for a limited number of negroes in Cuba and Porto Rico, but I think the field in the Philippines is already occupied by a race that would be more intolerant and cruel to the negroes than the whites.

"What the end will be I cannot say, but this I do know—the negro must remain subordinate, or be exterminated; and I, for one, will always set my face like flint against any injustice or unfairness towards him as long as he remains in his proper sphere and leaves politics alone.

"The whites are in the ascendancy, and will remain so, whatever comes. And as the superior and more civilized race, they owe it to themselves to protect the negro in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, even though that declaration was written by a slave-holder who did not take the negro into consideration when he wrote it."

The Atlantic and North Carolina railroad has declared a 2 per cent. dividend on its $3,000,000 capital stock, of which the state is two-thirds owner.

YELLOW FEVER IN THE SOUTH.

Cases of the Disease at New Orleans and Key West.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—Yellow fever has appeared here. Autopsy held today on the body of young F. J. Dolph, who died yesterday, revealed the fact that his death was caused by yellow fever. The case was reported to the authorities four days ago, but Dr. Murray, of the Marine Hospital Service, did not think the case was yellow fever.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 1.—Communication with Key West by the rest of the world has been cut off by orders of Dr. J. Y. Porter, executive officer of the Florida State Board of Health, on account of two deaths and a number of cases there which have been diagnosed as yellow fever.

The order was issued by Dr. Porter on the report of the existence of the disease in Key West from Dr. Charles B. Sweeting, agent of the board at Key West and sanitary inspector of the port. The dead are Dennis Egan, Jr., deputy collector of customs at Key West, who was taken sick early in the week, and a boy named Cosgrove. Both were buried this morning.

Five more cases have been diagnosed as yellow fever and seven suspicious cases are under surveillance.

Concord Policeman Murdered.

William Kerns, who was serving as a member of the Concord police force in the absence of the chief, was shot and instantly killed Saturday night by a negro named Will Edwards.

About a quarter to 12 he went home for his midnight lunch. After entering the house several negroes passed, yelling and behaving in a boisterous manner. Mr. Kerns went out on the sidewalk to remonstrate with them. They were drinking and resented his interference. They became insulting and the officer attempted to arrest them. Edwards drew his pistol, as did the officer, and six shots were exchanged. Just what one took effect in Mr. Kern's body was not known, but he fell with a bullet in his heart.

The news spread rapidly through the town, and search was made for Edwards, but he had made his escape. Tom Carr and Robert Richardson, the two other negroes who were with him were caught.

YOUNG GIRL SHOT DEAD.

Later Her Murderer Was Traced by Her Brothers With Bloodhounds—Slain by His Own Hand.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 2.—Wednesday night six Mormon elders were conducting a meeting in a school house at Pine Bluff, Stewart county, Tenn., when the building was stormed by a mob of over 100 men. Eggs and rocks were thrown through the windows and the building almost entirely demolished. Those present fled to save their lives, as bullets commenced to strike the building thick and fast. Miss May Harden, a popular young woman of the place, walked between the elders, Olson and Petty, with a view to checking the work of the mob. White the trio passed down the road shots were fired from ambush, and the woman was hit by a ball and almost instantly killed. Her brothers vowed they would avenge the crime, and after the first excitement died out, secured bloodhounds and placed them on the trail of the assassins.

Burton Vinson, a prominent young farmer and superintendent of a Sunday School, wrote a confession stating he had killed the girl, but that it was an accident and that he wished to rid himself of remorse of conscience. Shortly after the confession the bloodhounds trailed to his home. Vinson turned, picked up a knife and cut his throat, almost at the same instant sending a bullet through his brain. His family and the officers' posse witnessed the suicide.

Perhaps the oldest Confederate soldier in the world is Seymour Garner, who lives in Wilcox county, Ala. Though one hundred and eight years old, he is still alert and full of old-time Confederate spirit. He is remarkably well preserved, and was told a few years ago by Dr. McDaniel, of this place, that he would surely live to be one hundred and ten years old. He is now far on the way.
