Business in Santo Domingo is paralyzed on account of bad currency. Many houses hold large amounts of paper not guaranteed by two cents on the dollar. General Jimenez has declared that he will honor all government debts, but will not be responsible for the $4,000,000 of paper fraudulently issued by the old administration.

To Facilitate Appropriations.

There is abroad an idea that the house of representatives will, at its next session, deprive the speaker of the almost autocratic power exercised by Speaker Reed. Last session the speaker refused to countenance the Nicaragua Canal job, the shipping subsidy job and other jobs. He was a conservative power in the national legislature, and his interference was offensive to the jobsters. The administration also found him wanting in enthusiasm for expansion. His anti-job and anti-expansion record caused his resignation, and now the fence is to be thrown down for every sort of predatory movement. It is said that the speaker is to be put off the committee on rules and made ineligible for membership in it. A committee of seven—a sort of dicker committee—is hereafter, it is said, to exercise the control over business formerly exercised by Mr. Reed.

Uncle Sam May Withdraw.

New York, Sept. 11.—Congressman Jefferson M. Levy announced today that just as soon as congress meets he will introduce resolutions in the house withdrawing the support of this government from the Paris Exposition, on account of the Dreyfus case.

Altgeld's Slander.

In his address before the Chicago platform Democrats in New York the other night, Mr. John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, said that "for thirty years after the war the Democratic party stood practically for the same things that the Republican party stood for—it had become a mere convenience of political and commercial manipulators, who used it to further their own ends and amass fortunes." "During these thirty dark years," he went on, "it held out no inspiration, it pointed to no great principle, it espoused no great cause, it made no heroic fight for anything; but the Almighty has wisely provided that every lane shall have a turn, and that there shall be an end to all things."

Was there ever such a slander as this from the lips of one calling himself a Democrat against the great party of Thomas Jefferson and those grand men who fought its battles in the dark days of Republican triumph! Tilden and Hendricks and Thurman and Lamar, Hill of New York and Hill of Georgia, Daniel of Virginia, and Ransom and Vance of North Carolina, and all the rest of these noble men who represented Democracy and fought for its principles in the most trying times, were "manipulators who used the party to further their own ends and amass fortunes." And the party which under the leadership of these men fought the reconstruction monster, the corruption that existed under Grant's administration, the infamous force bill, the pension frauds and the iniquitous tariff, "espoused no great cause and made no heroic fight!" We say that a vile slander was never uttered against Democracy by one bearing the party's name, and it will arouse the indignation and resentment of every true Democrat in the land.—Richmond Times.

North Carolina ought to produce five times as much wheat as she does. Wheat can be grown to some extent in nearly every county in the state, and in some counties the yield rivals the production of the rich soils of the west. An item was printed a few days ago stating that a new roller mill in the extreme western part of the state would have to draw its wheat from Georgia and Tennessee for the next two years; and the mill is located in one of the finest wheat growing counties in the state.—Charlotte News.

To Reopen Briggs Controversy.

The opponents of Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs have decided to force the old fight again, if the latest reports in Episcopal church circles are true. It is said that those who were bitterly opposed to his ordination have again joined forces and will make their fight at the next Diocesan convention. Their opposition, it is understood, will take the form of a vigorous protest against the Episcopalian policy which permitted Dr. Briggs' ordination, and the strength of the Broad church and the High church factions will probably be developed in the election of the standing committee of the diocese.

The standing committee was the one upon which the responsibility for Dr. Briggs' ordination was officially placed. The High church faction is opposed to the re-election of the present committee, which ranks second to authority in the diocese to the Bishop and, in certain cases, can order the Bishop to take action.

Kentucky Feud Again.

London, Ky., Sept. 9.—News from Clay county, near the line of Leslie county, is that Henry Marcum was ambushed and murdered yesterday, and James Roberts suffered the same fate today.

Seven of the Griffin faction passed through here, armed, to join a camp of their fellows at Pittsburg. Three hours later 29 armed Philpots arrived and delivered to Sheriff McHargue warrants for the arrest of James and Thomas Griffin on the charge of murdering Deputy Sheriff G. W. Thacker.

The Sheriff managed to decoy James Griffin from his companions and arrested him and put him in jail. The Philpots, who are in a hotel here, want to take Griffin to Manchester for trial, but County Judge Stansbury has advised the sheriff to hold him here.

Politics in Luzon War.

Manila, (via Hong Kong), Sept. 9.—It is the general opinion among United States officers that the recent advance from San Fernando north to Angeles was entirely due to public political pressure in the United States. They agree that it was determined upon in order to offset the effect produced by the newspaper correspondents' "round robin."

It is believed that Otis has not enough men to spare to hold the position safely. There are five miles of unguarded railroad line between Calicut and Angeles, and the Filipinos were able to tear this up for three miles. The road was poorly built, and it has taken three weeks to repair it.

Owing to the lack of steam lighters to unload them, transports have to lie in Manila bay a long time and the delay costs more than a thousand dollars a day.

A national Democratic carnival has been arranged to be held at Dallas, Tex., on October 2nd and 3rd, under the auspices of Texas Democrats in connection with the State Fair. The carnival will conclude with an elaborate dollar dinner, at which Hon. William J. Bryan will be the principal speaker. Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is also put down for an address.

After a Huge Fortune.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 9.—The Baker Heirs Association has held a meeting in this city and decided to engage an American lawyer to look after its interests. The association was formed for the purpose of gaining possession of land in the United States valued at about $300,000,000, including the site on which the Centennial Exposition was held in Philadelphia in 1876, 92,000 acres in North and South Carolina, coal mines in Pennsylvania, and other valuable property which, it is alleged, belonged to Jacob Baker and which it is said he had leased for ninety-nine years. This period has expired.

The Censor Refused This.

Manila, Sept. 11.—The censor has refused to allow the following dispatch, the accuracy of which is unquestioned, to be telegraphed.

The surgeon's report in regard to the condition of General Max Arthur's division shows that 36 per cent. of the officers and 25 per cent. of the enlisted men are sick. This includes the sick in quarters and those sent home. Eleven per cent. of the enlisted men who are sick in quarters are mostly suffering from dysentery and malarial fever.
