—We regret to learn of the illness of Rev. H. D. Lequeux, the popular pastor of Alamance and Springwood Presbyterian churches. We hope that health and vigor may soon be his again.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Odell and Miss Mary Trotter left yesterday on a visit to New York. On their return they will spend several days in Philadelphia taking in the national export exposition.

—Mr. D. M. Harry, of the Harry-Belk Bros. Co., has returned from the northern bargain centers, where he bought an immense stock of goods for his firm. Read their new ad. in this issue.

—The millinery business formerly conducted by Mrs. C. C. Gorrell is now owned by Mrs. Carrie L. Gorrell and Mr. C. H. Dorsett. Mrs. Gorrell went to New York last Friday to purchase new goods.

—Mr. Henry Boyles, who recently returned from Cuba, where he was connected with the hospital service of the Seventh army corps, has gone to Chapel Hill to take a medical course at the University.

—It is reported that Col. L. A. Thrasher, in charge of the revenue office at this place, will soon resign his position. Mr. A. C. Patterson, one of Col. Thrasher's subordinates, will probably succeed him.

—The postoffice department has sent out advertisements for proposals for carrying the mails by screen wagon, mail messenger, transfer and mail station service in Greensboro and several other North Carolina cities.

—Mr. W. L. Ferrell, who represented the American Tobacco Company on this market last season, is seriously ill at his old home in Durham. He was attacked by fever some time ago and is now in a precarious condition.

—Charlotte News: "I. W. Durham, the marble man, is erecting a handsome monument to the late Hon. R. P. Dick, of Greensboro, for so many years judge of the Federal court for this district. It is an imposing granite shaft."

—The infant daughter of Prof. and Mrs. C. C. Teague, of Fremont, died some days ago, aged about seventeen months. Prof. and Mrs. Teague are well known to many of our readers, having resided at Summerfield about two years.

—Claude M. Bernard, United States district attorney for the eastern district of North Carolina, was here last Thursday. Bernard is the man who was connected with the recent scandal at Greenville, the facts of which were published in this paper.

—The time has arrived when people will be called upon to purchase school books and school supplies. Wharton Brothers carry a full line and sell at reasonable prices. They buy your second-hand books if in good condition. See their new ad.

—Mr. J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, editor of the Biblical Recorder, spoke to the congregation of West Washington Street Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. He was greeted by large congregations and both discourses were listened to with much interest.

—Robinson's circus, which was here last Wednesday, exhibited at Chatham, Va., Friday. Some time during the day some fendish person mixed poison or ground glass in the horses' food. It caused intense suffering and resulted in the death of one or two fine animals.

—Associate Justice R. M. Douglas, who has been sick at his home in this city, is improving, we are glad to state, though he will be unable to be present when the Supreme court meets in Raleigh next Monday. He expects to go to Philadelphia within a few days for treatment.

—Evangelist T. C. Hodgkin, who created quite a sensation by his preaching at the Friends church in this city, is conducting a meeting under a tent at Randleman. From the reports we have heard of the meeting it seems that he didn't take his "holy laugh" to Randleman.

—Messrs. Perkins & Hall, proprietors of the McAdoo House, have leased the second floor of the Fields building, on South Elm street, formerly occupied as a boarding house. The rooms will be overhauled and nicely fitted up for the accommodation of the McAdoo's guests.

—We were in error last week in stating that the funeral of the late Rev. Dr. A. W. Lineberry would be preached at Gray's Chapel on the fifth Sunday in this month. The services will be conducted next Sunday. There are five Saturdays in this month, but only four Sundays.

—If it's a $1.25 shoe you want to buy, Thacker & Brockmann make it a point to give you the very best shoe that can be made for the price. And if a $3.00 or $4.00 shoe is wanted, the same rule holds good. They give you the very finest and best that can be produced for the price asked.

—Dr. Charles L. Scott, of Mebane, mention of whose location in our midst was recently made, has arrived and occupies an office over Faris' drug store. We are informed that another young physician will also locate here at an early date. Greensboro now has between twenty-five and thirty physicians.

—The city aldermen have imposed a tax of $3 annually on each boot-black, except those employed in barber shops. For some time our streets have been infested with a small army of young negro boot-blacks who have made themselves a general nuisance. It is thought that the tax will put a quietus on some of them.

—Wanted:—Purchasers for new or second hand iron safes, vault doors, etc. We exchange large for small safes, will buy your second hand safes for cash. We put on new combination locks and do all kind of expert repair work. Our prices are the lowest.

O. B. BARNES & CO.,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

—Mr. Hoagland Davis, of Fayetteville, spent Monday night in the city on his way to Davidson College, where he will attend school during the coming year. He will represent the clothing firm of Will H. Matthews & Co. at Davidson. Several years ago Mr. Davis was employed in the telegraph office of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway at this place.

—Mr. J. B. Bayler, of the United States coast survey, working in connection with the state geological survey, is here for the purpose of establishing meridian posts and magnetic observations. This is for the benefit of surveyors and for the purpose of testing surveyors' chains, and the work is being done in accordance with an act of the last legislature.

—Elkin and Gainsville home-made shoes are made of home-tanned leather, by Southern shoemakers. There are no better shoes made for farm and general country wear; and they are sold at prices which place them within the reach of all by Thacker & Brockmann, who carry a full stock of these excellent shoes in men's, women's, boys', girls' and children's shoes.

—John A. Young advertises the Greensboro herd of Registered Poland China and Mammoth Black Hogs in a rather unique way this week. He has been quite successful in developing high grade stock, yet what he has done can be done by every other intelligent farmer in Guilford. Call on or write him in regard to this stock and learn the advantages of raising such.

—Mr. John Flint, who has been spending his annual vacation at his farm a few miles west of the city, returned to New York Monday evening, accompanied by his son, Will, who will re-enter the University to complete a course in the languages, of which he will master eight before completing his course. Both father and son are very clever intelligent gentlemen.

—Asa Flynn, a Rockingham county country merchant who recently shot and killed his brother, J. B. Flynn, attempted to commit suicide in the jail at Wentworth a few days ago. He gashed his throat with a pen knife, but this method proving ineffectual, he stabbed himself in the breast with the same weapon. The blade of the knife was too short to reach a vital spot and this saved his life.

—Among our regular advertisers hereafter will be found the A. D. Jones Music and Sewing Machine Company, successors to Jones & Cox, and doing business at 123 South Elm street, next door south of Faris' drug store. This company is the general factory representative for the Carolinas of the W. W. Kimball Company, Chicago, the largest concern in the world making pianos and organs. Sewing machines of standard make are handled both wholesale and retail. We can commend the new company to our readers as being both reliable and trustworthy.

Scrap Iron Wanted.

We will buy all your old castings, wrought iron, plow steel, brass and copper. Will pay highest prices.

G. T. GLASCOCK & SON,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

—Recently we mentioned the fact that Mr. John Schenck, of Charlotte, a son of Judge and Mrs. D. Schenck, of this city, was in Baltimore for the purpose of having his eyes treated. From yesterday's Charlotte Observer we learn that the attending physicians think his case almost hopeless. He has inflammation of the nerves of both eyes. Mr. Schenck has the sympathy of many friends in his affliction.

—A negro giving his name as Bill Evans was arrested here last Thursday for breaking into the house of Mr. L. A. Atkinson, one of the Southern's engineers. He is an escaped convict from Rowan county and is thought to be the thief who recently entered the residence of Mr. J. W. Shaw, of the McLeansville section. Judge Brown will probably have the privilege of sentencing him at the next term of court.

—Upon complaint of Mr. W. T. Sergeant, a member of the board of aldermen, the Southern Railway Company was indicted for obstructing the King street crossing near Sergeant's foundry. The hearing came up in the mayor's court Saturday afternoon and the evidence was that the crossing has been frequently obstructed by freight trains for a considerable length of time, which is in violation of a city ordinance. The Southern was ordered to pay a fine of $20.

—When a shipment of shoes is received at Thacker & Brockmann's every single pair is taken out of the box and carefully inspected to see if they are free from imperfections and up to the mark before they are put in stock. If any shoes are found imperfect or flaky they are returned to the factory. This takes some time and trouble, but pays in the long run, as it makes it certain that every customer will get a pair of shoes that are all right.

—Mr. H. J. Hartsell, formerly of this county and who has been a student at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., the past three years, graduating with the class of '99, was here the first of the week on his return to Westminster, where he will enter the M. P. Theological Seminary for a two years' course. During the summer months he has assisted his father, Rev. J. E. Hartsell, in his work in Cleveland county, where he is now stationed.

—At Randleman last Saturday evening a shooting scrape occurred between a number of boys employed in one of the cotton factories and several country boys. It seems that the country youths had been warned to keep away from the factory neighborhood and when they made their appearance on this occasion a fight was precipitated, three of the boys from the country being shot. At the preliminary trial several of the participants were bound over to court.

—Every time a circus comes to town numerous persons are "picked up" by fakirs connected with the aggregation, but all the thieves do not follow the circuitous. We have a few in Greensboro. For instance, while Robinson's ticket agent was paying a business man of this city a bill last Wednesday night, having counted out and laid down $30, an unknown negro grabbed the entire amount and ran with the fleetness of a deer. Pursuit was made, but the bold thief made his escape.

—See the statement of the People's Savings Bank of Greensboro in another column. It is with pleasure we note the continued growth and prosperity of this, one of our most useful and reliable institutions. It has been in active operation for more than twelve years, has handled over half a million dollars in deposits alone, and has the remarkable record of having never lost a dollar. For several years it has paid its depositors interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, compounded every six months. Interest commences quarterly. October 1st is the beginning of the next interest period and all moneys deposited on or before then will bear interest from that date. We know of no safer or more convenient way or place than the Savings Bank for the laboring man or any one desiring to save money by depositing small amounts at a time. It is where he can draw on it at any time in case of sickness or any other cause, and at the same time it is steadily drawing him interest.

Seed Wheat for Sale.

I have at my farm, 10 miles east of Greensboro, 250 or 300 bushels of Fulcaster (bearded) seed wheat for sale at $1.00 per bushel. Guaranteed to be free of cockle, trash, etc.

JNO. R. STEWART,

At Greensboro Hardware Co.

—Thursday night two or three policemen were attempting to arrest John Taylor, colored, when the negro made a murderous assault upon Officer Whittington, striking him a severe blow on the arm with a small section of gas pipe. The blow was aimed at Mr. Whittington's head and had he not warded it off with his arm it would doubtless have proved serious. After striking the policeman the negro ran. Mr. Whittington firing at him twice. Taylor was finally captured and locked up, and when the next term of Superior court convenes he will be called upon to answer a serious charge—that of resisting an officer. He will doubtless fill a place on the county road force for a good long term.

A Sad Death.

Mrs. O. F. Cox died at her home six miles southwest of Greensboro, in the Hill Top neighborhood, last Thursday night. She had been in a feeble state of health for some time, though she had been confined to her room only a week. A peculiar sadness is attached to this dispensation of providence, for in the death of Mrs. Cox her family, which has recently been sorely afflicted, is left in a pitiable condition. Her husband, who only a few short months ago was in the possession of all his faculties, is hopelessly insane, with no prospects of an early recovery. The once happy home is thus made desolate to the four children who are left to face life's battles alone.

Mrs. Cox was the daughter of Mr. Henry Ledbetter, of Julian, and was forty-four years old. She was a woman of education and refinement and had a large number of true friends. For many years she had been a member of the Methodist Protestant church. The remains were interred at Shiloh M. P. church, near Julian, Saturday afternoon.

We learn that the husband and children will be cared for by the parents of the deceased, who will move to Mr. Cox's farm at Hill Top. Efforts have been made to have Mr. Cox treated at the state hospital for the insane at Morganton, but the over-crowded condition of the institution makes it impossible for him to be received there.

Transferred to Heaven.

Mrs. Betty Elizabeth Stewart, whose serious illness we noted last week, died at the residence of her son, Mr. M. C. Stewart, on East Washington street, shortly after 11 o'clock Monday morning. Mrs. Stewart was born on October 8th, 1832, and was the daughter of the late Marshall and Elizabeth McLean, of this county. She was married to Mr. John W. Stewart on October 8th, 1860, with whom she lived happily until the death of Mr. Stewart last February. This union was blessed by the birth of five children, three of whom are living—Messrs. Charles M. Stewart, Gibson county, Tenn.; J. Ed. Stewart, of Charlotte, and M. C. Stewart, of this city. In addition to these two brothers—Messrs. Emsley N. McLean, of Carroll county, Tenn., and James M. McLean, of this county—are left to mourn her death.

Mrs. Stewart's illness dated from early in the spring of this year. After the death of her husband she accompanied her son to his home in west Tennessee, visiting him and her brother until about eight weeks ago, when she returned to Greensboro to reside with her youngest son. Since her return to this city she had gradually grown worse, and although loving hearts and willing hands were ever ready to minister to her wants, it was impossible to afford any permanent relief.

In early life the deceased connected herself with Bethel Presbyterian church, transferring her membership to Alamance church after her marriage. Through these long years she lived the life of a faithful and devout follower of the Master, always setting an example of meekness, patience and devotion to duty that was helpful and inspiring to those with whom she came in contact.

The funeral party left the home of Mr. M. C. Stewart yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock and proceeded to Alamance church, where the last sad rites were performed. The services were conducted by Rev. J. McL. Seabrook, Rev. Mr. Lequeux, the pastor, being detained by sickness. The remains were interred by the side of her husband and one child.

Catarrah Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it, you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrah. Send for testimonials, free.
