works in order.
Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Murrow are chills and fever.
Mr. O. C. Hockett, of Greensboro, his parents here.
Mr. H. C. Gregson has moved into his new house, which is a great convenience.
Mr. W. B. Hockett was seriously ill the other day by falling out of his barn loft. The accident may prove fatal.
The Hutton brothers have sold their entire interest in Climax to Mrs. Curtis, who will continue the business.
Mr. H. L. Osborn will quit driving and try quill-driving. He will take the place of Mr. Waldo Woody as book-keeper at the High Manufacturing Company.
Mr. Woody will go north to enter school.
There will be but a small amount of oats sowed in this community, as the ground has been too hard to break. Corn is better than was expected. Wheat sowing will commence next week.
We recently saw an account in the Patriot of some gentleman who had a stalk of corn measuring thirteen feet in height. H. M.
Hockett has one which measures thirteen feet to the tassel. It also has two good ears of corn, the first one being ten and a half feet from the ground. This is Randolph county corn.

Mrs. Sophronia King, of Pleasant Garden, received the sad intelligence a few days ago that her son had died in Georgia of fever.
The remains were brought to his home at Pilot Mountain for interment. Mrs. King and children went up on the train Saturday morning. The deceased was about thirty years old and was a son of late Rev. C. W. King.

on Mr. G. L. Anthony, our nurseryman, last Sunday morning.
Mr. D. M. Gladson, of Hinton, and Miss Flora Anthony, of this place, attended church at Alamance Sunday last.

Misses Olena and Emma Elliott went today to attend a protracted meeting at Hickory Grove church, near N. C.

Misses Flora and Blanche Anthony returned from Pinnacle on Friday inst., after spending several days having a pleasant time.
Mr. Chamberlain, from Massachusetts, who bought the Reynolds place here some time ago, has moved his family here and is remodeling his dwelling house.

Thom's Mill Items.
Miss Lettie Glass is enrolled at the North graded school this session.

Messrs. Ernest and Terry Sharp have gone back to Guilford College this term.

down on a visit to his mother, Mrs.
Elizabeth Scott, recently.

Miss Lelia Kirkman, one of our most charming young ladies, is teaching school at Tabernacle.

Mrs. R. A. Brown, who has been here on a visit to her parents, left for her home in Georgia last week.

Miss Mamie Allred, of Concord, who has been visiting the Misses Foad, has gone to Reidsville on a visit.

Mr. A. M. Jordan has purchased the James place, in South Greensboro, and will move his family there soon.

Mr. Samuel Scott will remodel his dwelling house this fall. He will have a convenient house when completed.

Among those who visited here since our last writing were Mrs. C.
Mendenhall and her daughter, Miss Dovle, of Kimesville; Mr. Ed.
Tucker and family, of Greensboro;

Lego Items.

The weather is dry, cool and frothy.

The advertisements are up for the letting of the mail route at this place.

Mrs. S. E. Turner and family, of this place, moved back to your city last Saturday.

Land selling is still active in this section. Some has sold as high as $58.33 an acre.

We are now connected by telephone with your city and find it a great convenience.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hedgecock and children, of Deep River, are visiting their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. White, this week.

Mrs. J. A. Burney has the promise of the day school at this place and will commence teaching the first Monday in November. We consider this a wise choice.

The protracted meeting at Hickory Grove is now in progress. Rev.
D. A. Highfill, the pastor, has the efficient help of Revs. Raper, Trueblood and A. G. Kirkman.

Ramseur Items.

We had frost for several nights last week.

Our merchants are laying in their fall and winter stock of goods.

A number of our citizens have fine porkers to kill this season.

It is rumored there will be several marriages in town at an early day.

Our High School has about 130 pupils enrolled, and is doing excellent work.

Dr. C. S. Tate spent the past two weeks in Bladen and Pender counties recreating.

Messrs. Watkins, Carter and Craven, of the Ramseur Store Co., and O. C. Marsh, of O. C. Marsh & Co., visited the northern markets last week.

All the factories and enterprises of the place are making full time and the future is very bright for Ramseur. There is as much if not more business transacted here than any place its size in the state.

Woods-Glass.

Married, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. L. Allred, on Wednesday evening, September 27, 1899, Mr. Robert Clayton Woods, of Lacroise, to Miss Maggie Alice Glass, of Hinton. Miss Lizzie, the young and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Parker, of Guilford College, was maid of honor, while Mr. John F. Woods, brother of the groom, proved himself none the less handsome by taking the prominent position of best man.

After congratulations the happy party repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous supper was served, consisting of the many dainties that are calculated to satisfy the inner man.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods are deserving young people and carry the good wishes of their many friends, who wish them a long and prosperous life.

Rev. W. A. Bunch, pastor of the bride, officiated. WITNESS.
