

THE GREENSBORO PATRIOT.

VOL. 78.

GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1899.

NO. 42.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Dr. W. J. Richardson.

OFFICE: KATZ BUILDING.

RESIDENCE: 615 W. GASTON ST.

W. P. Beall, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

OFFICE: 117 Court Square.

RESIDENCE: 404 Asheboro St.

Hours, 11:30 to 1; 3 to 4:30.

TELEPHONE NO. 17.

E. L. Stamey, M. D.

RESIDENCE:

630 South Elm St.

OFFICE:

At Stamey & Grissom's Drug Store.

Dr. J. J. Bryan

Offers his professional services to the citizens of Greensboro and vicinity

OFFICE OVER JNO. B. FARISS' DRUG STORE.

OPPOSITE BENBOW HOUSE.

Residence: No. 325 North Elm St.

Dr. J. E. Wyche,

DENTIST.

Office in Savings Bank Building,

South Elm street, Greensboro, N. C.

Dr. J. H. Wheeler,

DENTIST.

Office: Op. Ward's Drug Store.

A. M. Scales,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Z. V. Taylor,

Attorney

At Law,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

SPENCER B. ADAMS. ROBERT D. DOUGLAS.

ADAMS & DOUGLAS,

Attorneys - at - Law,

SAVINGS BANK BUILDING,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

W. P. BYNUM, JR.

BYNUM & BYNUM,

Attorneys and Counsellors at Law.

106 COURT SQUARE.

Oliver S. Newlin,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Office in Wright Building, east of Court square. Attention given to all business engaged to him.

MURRAY BROS.

SPECIAL AGENTS FOR THE

Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Ask to see our plans.

We can interest you.

J. T. Johnson,

THE GREENSBORO

EYE SPECIALIST,

312 1/2 SOUTH ELM ST.

Examination Free.

Hours: 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., 2 to 6 p. m.

ESTABLISHED 30 YEARS.

W. B. Farrar's Son

WATCHMAKER AND ADJUSTER.

Watch Inspector of Southern Railway and P. & V. Railroad.

Specialty of fine watches a specialty.

GEO. W. PRITCHETT,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

CENTRAL AND SPECIAL AGENT FOR

BOILERS, ANY SIZE, WOOD AND

IRON WORKING MACHINERY.

Specialty of Gasoline Engines a specialty. Estimated upon application. Has always second-hand Engines and Boilers.

Price per piece.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Mr. A. W. McAllister went to Asheboro yesterday.

—Mrs. Judge T. J. Shaw is visiting relatives at Carthage.

—Mr. S. J. Pogram, of Madison, was on our streets Saturday.

—Mr. David Scott, of Liberty Store, was among our callers Monday.

—Mrs. Thomas Settle has returned from an extended visit to Asheville.

—Broken grain rice, 5 cents a pound.

HIATT & LAMB.

—All grades of fertilizers for wheat and oats for sale by 40-4t S. S. MITCHELL & Co.

—Bishop Hald will dedicate the new

Catholic church in this city on the fifth Sunday in October.

—Miss Birdie Garves, of Pomona,

has returned from a visit to her sister,

Mrs. J. C. Poole, at Auburn.

—His friends were glad to see Mr.

W. H. Curtis, editor of the Madison

Observer, in the city last Friday.

—An oyster supper, for the benefit of the Gate City band, was given at the Banner warehouse Friday night.

—Sheriff Gilmer is out visiting the taxpayers of the county. He is meeting with average success in collecting taxes.

—Mr. E. B. Wheeler, a well known citizen of eastern Guilford, is preparing to move to Greensboro to go into business.

—Washburn's Great Southern Minstrels are the next attraction at the Academy of Music. They appear Friday night.

—Mr. John B. McCauley, formerly a clerk at the dispensary, has gone to Lynchburg, Va., to work for the Southern Railway Company.

—Easie Ervin, a "soiled dove" of East Greensboro, was consigned to jaill by the mayor Friday afternoon.

She had been selling liquor.

—The football team of Oak Ridge

Institute will go to Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day to play the Agricultural and Mechanical College team.

—Hon. W. W. Barber, of Wilkesboro, spent most of the past week here looking after the interests of the Wilkes contingent in the Federal court.

—Messrs. A. H. Joyce, of Danbury, and John T. Brittain, of Asheboro, were among the attorneys well known in Greensboro who attended Federal court.

—On account of sickness Bishop

Cheshire was unable to hold confirmation services at St. Barnabas and St.

Andrew's Episcopal churches, this city,

last Sunday.

—Mr. Allen Lee, who until quite recently was employed as prescription

clerk at Fariss' drug store, is thinking of going to Porto Rico to engage in the drug business.

—Dr. W. P. Beall has purchased the Settle home place on Asheboro street, now occupied by Hon. Thomas Settle.

It is one of the most beautiful homes in Greensboro.

—Mr. J. S. Hunter returned Monday from Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been receiving treatment for rheuma-

—Miss Lizzie Crocker has gone to Richmond, Va., to join the orchestra at the Jefferson hotel. This orchestra is under the charge of Prof. Charles J.

Brockmann, formerly of this city.

—Mrs. N. C. Weatherly invites you to call at her store and examine her line of fall and winter millinery. If you want the best goods at the most reasonable prices she can please you.

—Mr. O. C. Benbow, of Jamestown, has his new roller flour mill at work and is said to be turning out an excellent grade of flour. The mill has a capacity of thirty-five barrels a day.

—Engineer Jesse Copeland has been transferred from the main line of the Southern back to his old run on the Rameur-Madison branches and his family will return to Rameur to live.

—Ladies, do you want to see something pretty? Go and take a look at the new lines of handsome dress fabrics Thacker & Brockmann are displaying this fall. It will do your eyes good.

—Mr. Thomas C. Taylor, a prominent lawyer of Washington city and brother of Mr. J. B. Taylor, of Guilford College, has been appointed assistant United States attorney for the District of Columbia.

—Read what Mrs. Gorrell & Dorsett have to say in the advertising columns in regard to their large and select line of millinery goods. The latest styles and lowest prices prevail at their store.

—The Woman's Missionary Society

of West Market Street Methodist church has collected $100 for the purpose of making its president, Mrs. L.

W. Crawford, an honorary life member of the society.

—Want to keep warm this winter and not almost freeze like you did last year? You can get Leakville, Elkin and northern blankets of all kinds and comforts, from 75 cents upwards, at Thacker & Brockmann's.

—A correspondent informs Webster's Weekly that a valuable gold mine has been discovered on the property of Mr. S. B. McKinney, near Ruffin. It is thought the ore will assay from $40 to $50 per ton.

—If you buy a pair of shoes for $1.25

or upwards at Thacker & Brockmann's before November 1st they will throw in a box of the best French blacking

free of charge, provided you tell them

you read this in the PATRIOT.

—Mrs. Rosa Hamner-Carter's stock of fall and winter millinery is composed of the latest and most stylish goods, and the prices are as low as close buying and economical management can make them. Read her new ad in this issue.

—The Southern Loan and Trust

Company intended to have a new ad,

in today's issue, but came in too late.

They have a number of desirable applications for money. Parties having money to lend can secure safe and remunerative loans.

—Mr. S. E. Hudson, one of the Southside's hustling grocers, has contracted for space in the PATRIOT in which to keep our readers informed as to what he has to offer them. He pays the highest prices for chickens, turkeys, ducks, butter, eggs, etc.

—Have you decided to get that new carpet this fall? Thacker & Brockmann have a good line to select from and can still sell you one at old prices.

Carpets have "gone up" and are still advancing, and the longer you wait

the more you will have to pay.

—We have received the first number of the Wake Forest Student for the present school year. It is published by the literary societies of Wake Forest College and is a very creditable magazine. Mr. J. E. Crutchfield, of this county, is one of the editors.

—Miss Sallie White, of Guilford College, is visiting friends and relatives in the city. She has given up her residence at Guilford and expects to live in a few days for Richmond Hill,

Long Island, New York, where she will reside with her sister in the future.

—The infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. G.

Crutchfield, of Salisbury, is seriously ill. Dr. W. J. Richardson was called to its bedside Monday and it is now thought that it may recover. The little one's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.

S. C. Dodson, have been in Salisbury several days.

—The Sample Brown Mercantile

Company has a new ad. in this week's paper. While in New York recently the firm's buyer purchased largely of dry goods and ladies' dress goods.

These goods are now in stock and ready for inspection by the public. A large stock of carpets and furniture is carried on the second floor of the store.

—Mr. John Barker suffered a severe accident at his farm, northeast of the city, late last Wednesday afternoon.

He was assisting in lifting some heavy timbers when a handspike slipped and struck him on the right leg, breaking and crushing both bones between the knee and ankle. He was brought to his home in this city immediately after the accident and attended by two physicians, who set the broken limb. Mr.

Barker is getting along as well as could be expected, though he suffers a great deal of pain and will probably be confined to his room for quite a while.

—Wanted.—Fifteen young women are wanted at once to operate sewing machines in the Hunter Manufacturing and Commission Company's overall factory, on Buchanan street. Those with experience in handling machines are preferred. Apply to the company

by letter.