

SCOTT'S CORNER.

ROLLING IN.

New Goods are rolling in every day for our Fall Trade.

Just received:
50 boxes Full Cream Cheese.
100 cases new pack Tomatoes.
75 cases new pack Corn.
40 cases new pack Peaches.
New Crop Olives.
New Crop Citron.
New Crop California Dried Fruits.
Fresh Van Houten's Cocoa.
Fresh Baker's Cocoa
Fresh Shredded Coconut.

The "boys" have got a "Scott & Co." move on 'em now trying to keep up with their work. Drop in to see us.

J. W. SCOTT & CO.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

Oak Ridge Items.

Students expect to go to Pilot Mountain on an excursion soon.

The enrollment has about reached two hundred at the Institute.

Herman Cooper has taken a course in Suggestive Therapeutics in Chicago recently.

The O. R. I. band is succeeding wonderfully under the directorship of Mr. C. L. Whitaker.

Rev. T. H. Pegram preached a good sermon Saturday night at the M. E. church. He improves with age.

Harvey Lambeth, '98, of Fayetteville, spent a day or two at Prof. M. H. Holt's recently. He has many friends here.

Our latest accession is from Illinois. Duplin, Stokes, Rockingham and Caswell have all sent recruits during the past week.

Marvin Pickard, who died at Chapel Hill last week, was a member of the class of '96 at O. R. I. He is mourned by a large circle of friends.

Oak Ridge has games scheduled with several schools, but has not been able to get a date with Guilford yet, although strenuous efforts have been made to do so.

We congratulate Prof. W. D. Carmichael, of Durham, member of the class of '91, O. R. I., on his recent good fortune in obtaining the hand and heart of a gifted woman.

Mrs. J. B. Sparger, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. F. L. Smith, of Pilot Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Craven, of Spencer, are visiting at Oak Ridge, after attending the Frank-Case nuptials.

Rev. R. C. Craven, class of '87, pastor of the M. E. church at Spencer, near Salisbury, preached two excellent sermons for us Sunday. He is one of the rising young ministers of the state.

Rev. John W. Frank, '94, and Miss Josie Case, '91, were quietly married at the residence of Mr. Charles Case on the 17th inst. Rev. T. J. Ogburn officiating. They go to Japan soon. The best wishes and prayers of a large circle of friends accompany them.

The hardest football game the University has played this year, or expects to play in North Carolina, the O. R. I. boys gave them Thursday. The score was the small one of 16 to 0. They beat the A. & M. College 34 to 0, Guilford College 45 to 0, and had yet six minutes to play.

A. M. Moore, who lives two miles above Asheboro, says he has a chair 300 years old. He says it has been kept in the Moore family all this time and has been handed down from generation to generation as an heirloom of antiquity.

Whitsett Items.

We were glad to see Mr. J. V. Wagoner over last week.

Mrs. Minnie Clapp, of Burlington, moved here last week.

Large crops of wheat are being sown by the farmers this year.

The cadet company has recently been drilling enthusiastically.

Mr. W. Thomas Neese, of Loy, spent an hour or two here Friday.

Mr. L. A. Carmon was a recent visitor. His son is now a student here.

Mr. G. W. Davenport's new home is expected to be completed by the 10th of December.

We were glad to see G. M. R. Clapp, Esq., of Brick Church, in our place a few days ago.

Mr. W. J. Thompson has begun work upon his ten room boarding hall, just north of the Institute.

The handsome residence at "The Oaks" will soon be ready for the roof. It is a beautiful location.

A number of parties from eastern Carolina are prospecting with a view of building homes here soon.

A street has been surveyed running east and west across the north end of the campus. It will soon be opened.

The demand for houses continues. A number of houses, large and small, could be rented here at once to great advantage.

Students have recently entered school from Rockingham, Jones, Durham, Caswell, and other counties, and still they come.

Whitsett has now two as attractive stores as any place can boast. Excellent lines of goods are carried by both, and both enjoy a fine trade.

Several building lots have been sold within the past month. A better time to buy will never be found, as prices are beginning to advance rapidly.

Rev. J. D. Andrew preached Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon to attentive audiences. He soon leaves for Baltimore and Philadelphia to attend the Potomac Synod.

Stokesdale Items.

Mr. Charlie Cook went to Summerfield Sunday.

Mr. Eldridge, one of J. W. Scott & Co.'s traveling salesmen, was in town Monday.

Mr. Mason Gant, who has been at Cumcock relieving the agent, is expected home today.

Rev. P. E. Parker is at Summerfield this week holding a protracted meeting. His family is at Summerfield also.

Miss Josie Case, who was married to Rev. J. W. Frank Tuesday, came down from Mt. Airy Saturday and went over to Oak Ridge. She was accompanied by her sisters—Mrs. J. B. Sparger, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. Smith, of Pilot Mountain, and Mrs. Rufus Craven, of Spencer. Monday Mrs. Prince and Mrs. Dr. Spence came up from the eastern part of the state and went to Oak Ridge to attend the marriage. They are sisters of Miss Case. Also a number of Miss Case's friends were at the station Saturday to see her and bid her farewell.

Hinton Items.

Miss Bessie Starr, of this place, has gone to Greensboro to work in the overalls factory.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rankin are to be congratulated on the arrival of a fine son at their house.

Mrs. J. A. Starr, who has been confined to her room for quite a while, is able to be out again.

Eugene Glass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Glass, is not expected to live, having had an operation performed on one of his legs.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hanner and children recently visited Mrs. Hanner's uncle and aunt at this place—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parker.

Gathering corn and sowing wheat is the order of the day with the farmers of this neighborhood. They are enjoying fine weather.

Miss Virtie Sharp will teach at the Sharp school house. Prof. Gladson will teach at the Tucker school house during the coming term. Teachers have not been secured for the other schools in this vicinity.

The State Dairymen's Association meets in Raleigh today.

GENERAL NEWS.

J. L. Smith, a white man, was lynched in Louisiana Saturday for stealing cattle.

In Boston last Saturday Admiral Dewey was presented with another sword and a gold watch.

In his annual report Major-General Merritt sharply criticises the artillery branch of the army.

It is reported that Pu Tsuan, aged 9 years, has been selected to succeed Kuang Hsu as Emperor of China.

Rear-Admiral Farquhar has succeeded Rear-Admiral Schley in command of the North Atlantic squadron.

The British government has just bought 1,500 Texas mules for service in South Africa in the war with the Boers.

At Northfield, Vt., last Friday, Admiral Dewey laid the corner stone of Dewey Hall at his alma mater, Norwich University.

The police department of Hartford, Conn., will soon be equipped with automobile patrol wagons, ambulances and prisoners' vans.

The plans for the three new battleships authorized at the last session of congress will provide for the largest and most formidable vessels in the navy.

The War Department has received returns which indicate that sufficient enlistments have been secured to increase the strength of the army to 100,000 men, the limit fixed by law.

The action of the government in offering to anticipate interest payments on account of monetary stringency has again directed the attention of currency reformers to the need of a more elastic currency system.

W. J. Bryan is touring Kentucky this week in the interest of the Democratic state ticket. He is accompanied by William Goebel, Democratic nominee for governor, and a number of other prominent party men.

George W. White, aged about forty years, died in the city jail, at Starke, Fla., the other day, having on his person about $5,000 in paid up insurance policies. The authorities do not know who his connections are.

At a conference at St. Louis of Chairman Jones and other Democratic leaders, it is said that Rear-Admiral Schley, of the navy, was spoken of as a possible running mate for Hon. William J. Bryan, in the contest for the presidency in 1900.

The American yacht Columbia, in the first race with the British yacht Shamrock, off Sandy Hook Monday for the American challenge cup, won by a mile and a half. The second race was sailed yesterday and was also won by the Columbia.

Negotiations are in progress between the governments of the United States, Great Britain and Germany for a permanent settlement of the Samoan question. Germany is understood to advocate the partition of the islands among the three powers interested.

The preachers of the German Lutheran church of the Litchfield district, Illinois, assembled recently to discuss the relations of life insurance to the Bible. They decided that money secured by life insurance is the result of good luck or a species of a game of chance, and that it is therefore sinful.

Mrs. Josephine Curtis Woodbury, of Boston, has brought suit in the United States Court in New Hampshire against Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the leader of the Christian Scientists, asking for damages in the sum of $150,000 for libel. It is claimed that in a public address Mrs. Eddy referred to Mrs. Woodbury as the scarlet woman.

The widow of former Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, has created something of a sensation in business and social circles by going into the field as a general state agent for fire and life insurance companies. She says her purpose is to make a living and educate her five children. She is already doing well and has received letters of congratulation from numerous society women.

Pleasant Richards Jones, president of the Bank of Danville, and until recently the head of the Danville Street Car Company and of the firm of P. R. Jones & Sons, druggists, died at his home in Danville, Va., last week. He had suffered for two years or more from heart troubles, and recently went to Baltimore and New York to consult specialists. When a young man he resided in Rockingham county.

Mr. J. P. Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Observer, has returned from his European trip.

It is rumored that Senator Butler is to be the Populist state chairman next year.

We do not Claim to Have Bought Everything in New York,

But we do say with confidence that we can show you best line of

DRESS GOODS AND WRAPS

Ever exhibited in this section, and our PRICES ARE RIGHT.

Carpets, Curtains and Furniture shown upstairs.

Sample Brown Mercantile Co.

234 SOUTH ELM STREET.

J. L. KEELING,

Wholesale Grocer

Provision Dealer,

342 South Elm St., Greensboro.

New Millinery

Mrs. Gorrell & Dorsett
Have just opened one of the Largest and Most
Select Lines
OF MILLINERY GOODS EVER
BROUGHT TO THIS CITY.

Their work is done in the latest styles, by experienced trimmers, at prices within the reach of all. Call and examine their stock and be convinced.
109 W. Market St.
Mrs. C. C. Gorrell's old stand.

DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY IN

The People's 5 Cents Savings Bank,

OF GREENSBORO, N. C.

Established in 1887. Pays Interest on Deposits. Does strictly a Savings Bank business. Has been in successful operation for ten years and never lost a dollar. J. W. SCOTT, President. J. A. HODGIN, Treasurer.

WHY NOT?

Why not buy Tools and Cutlery that are RIGHT IN QUALITY, MATERIAL AND PRICE? That is the kind you will find here. Many years of experience has taught us that only goods of the best quality will give our customers the best satisfaction. Farmers, mechanics and machinists will find it to their interest to examine our large stock before purchasing. A specialty with us is first class Farming Implements. We carry everything from a Garden Rake to a Buffalo Pitts Cutaway Harrow.

Odell Hardware Co.,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Here are the Two Best Grain Drills Made!

Pay Your Money and Take Your Choice!

BICKFORD AND HUFFMAN.

These Drills are known as the standard of the world. They are made both disc and hoe. Don't be induced to buy any other until you examine them. We only have one price. You buy at the same price your neighbor paid. Prices are already advanced for next year. Don't put off buying.

BUGGIES! BUGGIES!

Our house is full and there are two more car loads yet to come in this month. Don't wait until spring and pay the advance.

Myron G. Newell & Co.

Wood's Grass

and Clover Seeds..

the fullest information about Grasses and Clovers—sells the different sorts adapted for—best combinations to give largest results in hay or pasture—care of pastures and meadows, &c., &c. A postal will bring this book to you. Prices and samples of Grass and Clover Seeds sent on application.

T. W. WOOD & SONS, Seedsmen, Richmond, Va.

Have obtained the highest reputation for purity, cleanliness and germination, causing our business in the same to become one of the largest in the United States. Handling these Seeds in the large quantities that we do, also enables us to sell same at the lowest possible prices, quality considered. WOOD'S SEED BOOK gives