NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Corps of Correspondents.

Oak Ridge Items.

The work is moving on satisfactorily in all departments.

There have been several accessions to the school recently.

Capt. Williams has been quite ill for a day or two, but is on his feet again.

Rev. J. R. Hutton preached his farewell sermon at the M. P. church Sunday night.

Master Harvey Holt has just returned from a visit to his uncle at Washington City.

Mr. Bledsoe, of Raleigh, was recently called home on account of the sickness of his mother.

Prof. M. H. Holt has just returned from a two weeks visit to the New England schools and colleges.

Prof. M. H. Holt delivers an address to the Y. M. C. A. of Winston Sunday afternoon next, on the subject, "Fittings by the wayside, or visits to some of the literary haunts of New England."

The football team played a game with Davidson College Saturday evening at Davidson, winning by a score of 6 to 2. They speak in high terms of their hospitable reception and kind treatment by the Davidson boys.

Vandalia Items.

Miss Luella Gossett, of Centre, visited relatives here recently.

Mr. Everett Kirkman, of Liberty, visited his parents here recently.

Some from here attended quarterly meeting at Centre Sunday night.

Mr. D. A. White, wife and children, of Lego, visited friends here last week.

Rev. W. A. Bunch filled his last appointment before conference at Methodist church last Sunday. Text, 1 Kings 18:6.

Mr. Alexander McEachern, a former resident of this locality, but now of Seattle, Washington, is shaking hands with old friends around here now.

SEED WHEAT.

For Southern Farmers.

The best and most improved varieties, carefully selected and grown for our Southern soil and climate. Write for Price List and descriptive Fall Catalogue giving full information about all seeds for Fall sowing.

T. W. WOOD & SONS, SEEDSMEN, RICHMOND, VA.

Wood's Seeds.

A Beautiful Lawn

is a joy and pride to the fortunate possessor. It can be easily and quickly obtained by sowing

WOOD'S EVERGREEN

Lawn Grass Seed

and following the full and complete directions for preparation, seeding and care of Lawns, given in Wood's Descriptive Catalogue, which is free for the asking, or will be mailed upon receipt of postal request.

T. W. WOOD & SONS, Seedsmen, Richmond, Va.

Wood's Evergreen is the best of Lawn grasses for the South, makes a beautiful velvet sod and stands better than any other kind in our climate.

Centre Items.

Some of our farmers are not yet through sowing wheat.

It is rumored that there will soon be another wedding at Centre.

Mrs. Roddy Woodburn is slowly recovering from an attack of fever. Miss Fannie Vuncanon, of Science, visited this section recently.

Miss Emma Hineshaw, of Cedar Square, was in this vicinity recently.

Mr. W. B. Hockett is slowly recovering from injuries received some time ago.

Gen. John Gill, of Baltimore, and a party of friends are expected at Climax soon to hunt birds.

Mr. C. C. Kime talks of moving his sawmill from near here soon. He has not decided upon a new location.

Mr. D. F. Hockett is boring an artesian well. Should he succeed in his undertaking it will be a curiosity in this neighborhood.

Mr. Charles Osborn, of Sumner, and Miss Sallie Hockett, of this place, were quietly married at high noon last Thursday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. B. Hockett. Rev. R. F. Bryant officiated. There were no attendants.

Friends quarterly meeting was held at Centre Saturday and Sunday and was attended by large crowds. There were representatives from Guilford College, Greensboro, Liberty, Randleman and other places. Rev. T. C. Hodgkin preached an able sermon Saturday. Mrs. W. W. Mendenhall and others preached Sunday.

We think Rev. T. C. Hodgkin has been doing an injustice in some matter we have read. If your informant will lay aside all prejudice and go and hear him preach, and then show where he preaches anything that he cannot back up by the Bible, we will say no more. The injunction is to prove all things and hold fast to that which is good. Be just as well as generous.

[For the benefit of our Centre correspondent, and others who may think as he does, we will say that the gentleman who informed us of Mr. Hodgkin's conduct at Freeman's Mill has heard him preach. He went with a good opinion of the evangelist, but came away thoroughly disgusted.—PATRIOT.]

Brick Church Items.

The farmers are almost through with their autumn work.

The public school at Brookfield opens next Monday, with Mr. W. C. Rankin in charge.

Mr. W. H. Fogleman and family visited friends and relatives at Graham last Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Shoffner was so lucky as to kill two wild turkeys at one shot. Who can beat that?

There is talk of a sawmill being put up near this place for the purpose of cutting hardwoods for shipping north.

Miss Gracie Hoffman and your correspondent visited friends and relatives near Greensboro last Saturday and Sunday.

We learn that Miss Mary Brown, who went to Salisbury some time ago, is thinking of going into the millinery business at that place.

Many of our Brick Church people will attend the protracted meeting at Mt. Hope, which will begin the fourth Sunday in this month.

Liberty Store Items.

Owners must show their tickets to agent or baggage agent, that dogs may be properly way-billed to train baggage man, and they must furnish chain, so that dogs may be securely fastened in baggage cars.

After March 31st, 1900, the regular dog tariff to apply in all cases.

W. B. BEVILL,
General Passenger Agent.
Roanoke, Va.

—P. Wall, Esq., of Scalesville, one of northern Guilford's most prominent citizens, made us a pleasant call yesterday. Mr. Wall read the notice of Rev. Mr. Lequeux's big turnip in last week's PATRIOT, and not wishing his section of the county to be left on the turnip question, brought along one of these vegetables raised on his farm which weighed 6 3/4 pounds and measured twenty-seven inches in circumference. So far it is the prize turnip of the season.

—Morganton Herald: "Reliable information reaches us that it is more than probable this town will be chosen for the location of the summer school for teachers to be taught under act of assembly by the faculty of the State Normal College at Greensboro." Mr. J. F. Spainhour, an attorney of Morganton, was here some days ago for the purpose of laying the claims of his town for the summer school before the officers of the college.

—The Sample Brown Mercantile Company's new advertisement will interest you. They have made arrangements whereby their customers may secure a dinner or tea set free. It will pay you to investigate the matter.

THE COLOR LINE IN CUBA.

Americans Sentenced to Fine and Imprisonment for Drawing it.

Havana, Nov. 14.—Three Americans, Hanson, King and Holland, have each been sentenced to two months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $65 and two-thirds of the costs of the proceedings, for placing over their saloons a sign reading: "We cater to white people only."

Their place had been closed January last by order of the Civil Governor because they had refused to serve a colored Cuban general, but they had been allowed to open the saloon again on promising to serve the public without distinction of color. The defendants have appealed the case, the cost of which already amounts to $2,000.

A letter has been published in a paper of this city, written by another colored Cuban general, complaining that the owner of a barbershop had refused to cut his hair on account of his color.

A Raving Maniac.

A "Sanctificationist" in New York from Virginia is playing havoc with people of a certain type in Buckingham county. He is a minister of the Virginia M. E. Conference. "He has worked his people up to a high pitch and some of the antics of the best citizens would do credit to an Indian ghost dance. One of the best business men in the county, and a steward in the Methodist Episcopal church for years, is in jail, a raving maniac, waiting to be sent to an asylum."—Wilmington Messenger.

It is said the Administration, for political reasons, will not ask Congress to enact legislation at the coming session for the permanent increase of the regular army. Secretary Root's report, it is believed, will contain no recommendation for an increase.

The Republican national executive committee will meet in Washington, D. C., to name the time and place for holding the next national convention. The cities of Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Denver, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Buffalo have asked for the convention.

Hon. William J. Bryan in an interview says that the recent elections indicate that the people do not approve President McKinley's policy.

The danger of war between Russia and Japan is regarded as more imminent.
