A force of laborers are at work making the excavation for W. A. Field's new building, on Fayetteville street. It will be a three-story structure containing four store rooms, each 28x100 feet.

A smokestack 175 feet high will soon be one of the striking features of the new White Oak mills, north or town. It will contain 700,000 large Pennsylvania fireproof brick when completed. The gravel roof is being laid on the main building, which is 900 feet long.

Lt. Gen. C. Irvine Walker, commanding the Confederate veterans of the Army of Northern Virginia, recently appointed Mr. J. W. Scott, of Greensboro, lieutenant colonel of the organization. Mr. Jacob A. Long, of Graham, is appointed an assistant adjutant general.

Certain small boys in Greensboro might profit by the experience of the Durham boys who were fined $10 and costs last week for persistently robbing birds' nests, after having been warned to stop their depredations. The Audubon Society very properly put a stop to the practice. There are nobler pursuits, even for a small boy.

Through the kindness of Senator Overman the Audubon Society, through its secretary, Prof. T. Gilbert Pearson, has secured a number of valuable government publications relating to birds. These with other literature prepared by the society can be procured without charge from Prof. Pearson, whose permanent address is Greensboro.

The city authorities have recently been giving some attention to the ordinance that prohibits loitering about the railroad station, and there is consequent improvement in the conditions prevailing there. In recent months it has been no uncommon sight to see the colored people's waiting room packed with idle young persons about the time the noon and evening trains were due, when not one in fifty of the number had any business there whatever. Stationmaster White has been ordered to keep the waiting room and platforms clear of loafers in the future, and the traveling public will appreciate any measure of success that he may meet with in that particular.

THE CHRISTIAN churches at Constantinople, Turkey and Yokahama, Japan, have long used the Longman & Martinez Paints for painting their churches.

Liberal contributions of L. & M. Paint will be given for such purpose wherever a church is located.

F. M. Scofield, Harris Springs, S. C., writes, "I painted our old homestead with L. & M. twenty-six years ago. Not painted since; looks better than houses painted in the last four years."

W. B. Bari, Charleston, W. Va., writes, "Painted Frankenburg Block with L. & M. shows better than any building here have ever done; stands out as though varnished, and actual cost of paint was less than $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold."

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Southside Hardware Co., Greensboro; Gibsonville Store Co., Gibsonville; B. J. Sapp, Kernersville.

Will Blackburn Capture the Taylorsville Convention?

There is an interesting rumor in the eighth congressional district to the effect that Mr. E. Spencer Blackburn will capture the convention to be held at Taylorsville, the 29th instant. This convention was called by Dr. Carson, of Alexander county, chairman of the executive committee of the district. It will be recalled that Blackburn was nominated by his forces at the convention held at Wilkesboro last month. The same convention was adjourned on account of a lack of a quorum of qualified delegates, as found by the majority of the committee on credentials. If Mr. Blackburn should attempt to take possession of the Taylorsville convention there would more than likely be a very lively row. This comes as an interesting political rumor.

An exchange whose editor has ample time to study the styles in female society says: "The story of Lot's wife turning to a pillar of salt can no longer be doubted. A young lady the other day put her foot on a dry goods box to tie her shoe and two young men who were passing turned to rubber."

Librarians of the State Organize.

A meeting of the librarians of North Carolina was held in the library of the State Normal and Industrial College Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The most important business of this the first meeting was that of organization. A constitution and by-laws were drafted and adopted.

Several librarians and others interested in library matters were present. The organization starts off with a membership of about thirty. Anyone interested in the library movement may become a member.

Plans were discussed by the librarians and suggestions made. The meeting was pronounced very good by those in attendance. Letters were received from several librarians, who could not be present.

The next meeting will be held in Charlotte. The library board of Charlotte extended an invitation and it was unanimously accepted.

Officers were elected as follows: President—Mrs. Annie Smith Ross, librarian Carnegie Library Charlotte. Vice Presidents—Dr. Chas. D. McIver, president State Normal, and Mr. J. A. Bivens, Charlotte.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mr. Louis R. Wilson, librarian State University; Chapel Hill.

Executive Committee—Mrs. Annie Smith Ross, Charlotte, ex-officio; Miss Annie Petty, Greensboro; Mr. Breedlove, Durham, and Mr. R. D. Douglas, Greensboro.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

Stedman Ran Better in Mecklenburg Than Was Expected.

Charlotte Chronicle.

The result of yesterday's Democratic primary in Mecklenburg county was a surprise in several ways. First, a larger vote was polled than had been expected, showing the interest felt by the people generally in the contest. In speaking of the matter today, two or three members of the county executive committee and a successful candidate for the nomination for a county office said it was the largest primary held in ten years. Even two years ago, when county politics was much muddled, fewer votes were cast. Many of the candidates and party workers did not expect to poll over 2,000 votes, but the returns indicate that nearly 3,000 persons voted.

Another surprise is to be found in the strength shown by Maj. Charles M. Stedman, one of the gubernatorial candidates. The county had been promised to Glenn, and early in the campaign he undoubtedly had the support of a great majority of the Democrats of the county. It was known that Stedman had gained much strength recently, but it was not expected that he would run Glenn such a close race, especially after Mr. Glenn's repeated visits to the county and the strenuous efforts that were put forth in his behalf. By reference to the tabulated vote, published in this issue of The Chronicle, it will be found that Glenn ran only 125 votes ahead of Stedman and that the combined vote in the county is against Glenn.

The Stedman and Turner men, who are united in their opposition to Glenn, express the greatest satisfaction with the result and do not hesitate to say that it is more favorable to them than they had expected.

Letter to American Manufacturing Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sirs: Mr. ——— President of a cotton-mill at Union, S. C.—he don't want to see his name in print—had two orders of 500 gallons of paint; $1.30 and $1.25. Took the $1.25; and got skinned. He'd have got three-quarters skinned if he'd taken the other.

The $1.30 was full-gallon; the $1.25 was 18 per cent. short. The full-measure paint was adulterated 40 per cent.; the short-measure paint was adulterated 45 per cent., besides benzine in the oil, don't know how much.

Devoe lead-and-zinc wasn't sold in the town then.

I don't pay to monkey with paint. Devoe costs less than any of 'em, not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Yours truly,
38

E. P. Norvell, of Murphy, has placed in the Hall of History the finest collection of ancient Indian pipes ever seen in this state. He has been collecting for fifteen years. One of the pipes is a "treaty pipe," having four openings for stems, above these being four Indian heads or faces, each of a different type, and also with four points upon each of the stem-pieces, showing that four tribes joined in the treaty. There is also a chief's pipe, with an imitation of a head-dress of feathers, remarkably well done; also a double pipe, with two openings, the openings being the mouths of wild cats.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Conyers & Sykes.
