ARRESTED IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Fletcher and Frank Smith Brought to Greensboro and Lodged in Jail

Fletcher and Frank Smith, members of the Smithtown gang of blockaders, whose arrest in North Dakota has been noted, were brought to Greensboro last week and lodged in jail in default of bonds of $2,000 each. The prisoners were brought to this city by United States Marshal J. F. Shea and Deputy Marshal G. J. Stout, of Fargo, N. D., and Sheriff John J. Lee, of Minot, N. D.

The Smiths fled from Smithtown to escape arrest for illicit distilling, and when it was ascertained that they were in North Dakota, a capias was issued for them by Judge Boyd. The arrest was made by Sheriff Lee, in whose hands the capias had been placed by Marshal Shea.

The prisoners are brothers of Jim Smith, who is wanted by the government on the charge of the murder of Revenue Officer J. W. Hendrix.

The North Dakota officers spent a day in Greensboro most pleasantly, forming the acquaintance of quite a number of local people. The Greensboro people who had the pleasure of meeting them were very favorably impressed with the Westerners. Marshal Shea, who enjoys the distinction of a warm personal friendship with President Roosevelt, is a very interesting character. He is an old Indian fighter and served for three or four years as a scout under General Custer. When President Roosevelt conducted a cattle ranch in the West, Mr. Shea was a deputy sheriff, and the friendship of the two men dates from that time.

Sheriff Lee, who is a Scandinavian and a most agreeable gentleman, is a personal friend of Mr. J. C. Anderson, who came to Guilford county from the West a few years ago and bought a truck farm west of the city.

The North Dakota gentlemen left Greensboro Thursday night for Washington, where Marshal Shea introduced his fellow officers to the President.

FROM OLD FRIENDS.

Some Appreciated Expressions That Come From Patriot Subscribers Far and Near.

There is nothing the PATRIOT appreciates more than the friendship and esteem of its old subscribers, many of whom have been reading the paper regularly since before the birth of the present publisher. Many of these friends are scattered throughout the length and breadth of the country, and it is gratifying to know that they derive much pleasure and profit from the weekly visits of their favorite newspaper. The letters of appreciation and commendation that we receive from these good people encourage us to strive to make the PATRIOT even more worthy of the good opinion in which it is held by its clientele.

One of these letters was received the other day from Mr. B. F. Osborne, of Rippey, Iowa, whose father was a native of Guilford, and who has many relatives in this county. In remitting for another year's subscription, Mr. Osborne said: "I have taken the PATRIOT so long that it has become a family necessity, and its regular visits would be greatly missed at our home."

A good lady friend, Mrs. Louisa J. White, of Dublin, Ind., sent us a money order for a renewal of her subscription the other day and wrote: "It seems as though we can't do without the PATRIOT."

Expressions similar to the above are contained in letters that reach this office every week, and while we have not the time to make the proper acknowledgement in every instance, they are appreciated none the less.

DIES IN COLORADO.

Native of Guilford County Passes Away in the Far West.

Many friends and relatives in this section will learn with deep regret of the death of Mr. Stephen D. Winbourn, which occurred at his home in Cortez, Colorado, on January 22nd. He passed peacefully away after an illness of twelve days, following a fall from the roof of a building he was having erected. After the fall a clot of blood formed on his brain and caused paralysis. Mr. Winbourn is survived by a widow and four sons.

The deceased was a son of a wartime sheriff of Guilford and is remembered by many people in this county. During the spring of 1907 he spent several weeks in and around Greensboro mingling with friends of former days and forming new friendships. It was his intention to return to Guilford to take up his permanent residence, and he was arranging his business affairs with that end in view when he met with the accident that resulted in his death.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS.

Calls State Convention to Assemble in Greensboro on April 30th

The Republican state executive committee held a meeting in this city last Thursday for the purpose of selecting the time and place for holding the next state convention. It was decided to hold two conventions this year, the first to be an early convention for the selection of delegates to the national convention in Chicago and the second for the nomination of a state ticket.

Invitations for the convention were received from Greensboro and Charlotte, and after some discussion, it was unanimously decided to hold the first convention in this city on April 30th. Doubtless the second convention will be held in Greensboro also.

The committee adopted resolutions endorsing the course of President Roosevelt and pledging the support of the party in this state to Secretary Taft in his candidacy for the presidential nomination. The resolutions also endorsed Chairman Adams and deprecated the course of the Democratic party in the railroad rate matter.

The following members of the committee attended the meeting: S. B. Adams, of Greensboro, chairman; D. W. Patrick, Snow Hill; J. F. Dobson, Goldsboro; Claudius Dockery, Raleigh; B. S. Robertson, Haw River; S. M. King, Elizabethtown; W. A. Bailey, Advance; E. Spencer Blackburn, Greensboro; A. A. Whitener, Hickory; Thomas S. Rollins, Asheville; G. G. Hendrix, Asheville; George Butler, Clinton; Wheeler Martin, Williamston.

Former Railroad Agent Wanted for Embezzlement.

Sheriff Jones made a business trip to Richmond, Va., last Thursday with requisition papers for W. J. Clifton, a former resident of Guilford county, who is wanted by the officer on the charge of embezzling funds from the Southern Railway while station agent at Gibsonville a few years ago. Governor Swanson did not honor the requisition for the reason that Clifton had not been given a preliminary hearing.

Clifton bore a good reputation while a resident of this county, and it was with deep regret that his friends learned of his trouble. After he left Gibsonville, it was ascertained that there was a shortage of about $100 in Clifton's accounts with the Southern.

Mrs. Clifton died recently, leaving three small children.

Mr. Isaac Smith, of Richmond, Ind., has spent the past few weeks in northeastern Guilford visiting a sister whom he had not seen since 1861, when he emigrated to the West. Mr. Smith has reached the ripe old age of 84 years, but he is young in spirit and possesses a happy disposition that wins and retains the friendship of all with whom he comes in contact.

Miss Florence Stone delivered a lecture in the auditorium of Greensboro Female College Friday evening under the auspices of the senior class, her subject being Grecian art, history and archaeology. Miss Stone is a graduate of the college and for several years has been living in Greece, where she has devoted much attention to the subject matter of her lecture.

THE PANIC IS OVER.

Confidence has been restored and the panic is over. In fact, so far as we can see, the only trouble that ever existed was the want of confidence. The recent trouble only goes to emphasize how largely the business of the country is builded on confidence. When you destroy confidence, how quickly business goes to pieces. If you never betray confidence you will never lose it. We go on this assumption in selling goods: "If we sell nothing but good, reliable goods, our customers will never question our good intentions in this respect."

The prosperity of this country is more largely dependent upon the farmer than any one else and we feel that our business this year will be as great or greater than ever before, because a great many of our best customers are farmers and the farmers of this section are prosperous and able to buy all the goods they want or need. Feeling this way about it we are buying and opening up new goods every day and our lines for spring will be in every department the largest and best we have ever shown.
