JIM SMITH BEHIND THE BARS.

Noted Smithtown Character to be Given Preliminary Hearing in Greensboro Saturday.

Jim Smith, Smithtown blockader and alleged murderer, is in the Forsyth county jail in Winston-Salem awaiting a preliminary hearing in Greensboro Saturday on the charge of the murder of Deputy Collector J. W. Hendrix on the night of December 20th. Smith was arrested in Madison Friday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff H. T. Pratt and brought to Greensboro Saturday morning and delivered into the hands of United States Marshal Millikan.

The arrest was made on the strength of indictments in the United States court charging Smith with illicit distilling, and the prisoner came to Greensboro prepared to give bond in the sum of $5,000. When his bond had been arranged, Smith was immediately arrested on an indictment sworn out before United States Commissioner Wolfe charging him with a conspiracy to kill Deputy Collector Hendrix. He was committed to jail without bond to await his preliminary hearing. Owing to the fact that two of the prisoner's brothers and several other Smithtown blockaders are confined in Guilford jail, it was deemed advisable to send Smith to Winston-Salem to prevent him from coming in contact with his brothers and friends from Smithtown.

Smith has retained ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., of this city, and Mr. C. O. McMichael, of Madison, as counsel.

It is significant that the reward of $1,000 offered by the government for the capture of Smith will not be paid until the matters shall have been passed on favorably by the Department of Justice. This is taken to mean that there is a suspicion in the minds of the government officers that the capture of Smith was a prearranged affair in order that the reward money might be divided between the prisoner and others.

Mr. Tyre Glenn Not in Politics.

Mr. Tyre Glenn, cashier of the Home Savings Bank, whose name is mentioned in an article reprinted in this issue of the Washington Post, informs the PATRIOT that he gave out no interview in Washington and knew nothing whatever of the story until he read it in the Post. He did not deny the truthfulness of any statement contained in the story, but was positive in asserting that his visit to Washington had nothing to do with politics.

He was returning home from a business trip and merely stopped off in Washington on a visit," said Mr. Glenn. "So far as I recall, the only person with whom I talked politics at all was a Democratic congressman, and of course I could not have discussed with him the details of any fight in the Republican ranks. No, I am not in politics this year and do not expect to take any part in any fight for or against any faction. I am busy attending to my own private business affairs and am content to let the other fellows manage the political game. I've had enough of it."

Mrs. A. G. Wood Dead.

Mrs. A. G. Wood, of Detroit, Mich., died Sunday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Halladay, in this city. Mrs. Wood came to Greensboro several weeks ago on a visit and soon after her arrival suffered an attack of la grippe, which later developed into pneumonia, this being the cause of her death. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Halladay this morning at 10 o'clock and the remains interred in Greene Hill cemetery. Rev. Dr. S. B. Turrentine and Rev. Dr. G. H. Detweiler conducted the services.

Mrs. Wood is survived by her husband, to whom she was married two years ago; a father and mother, a sister and a brother.

J. N. Apple Dead.

Mr. James N. Apple, a well known carpenter of this city, died at his home on Jackson street last night. He had been ill for a long time, suffering from Bright's disease. The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and interment made in Greene Hill cemetery. The local lodge of Red Men, of which the deceased was a member, will attend the funeral in a body.

Mr. Apple was about 62 years old and is survived by his widow and four daughters.

Colored Attorney Arrested for Embezzlement.

Deputy Sheriff John Weatherly and "Bud" Shaw made an important arrest late Monday afternoon, when they placed the heavy hand of the law upon Martin L. Newby, a colored lawyer, who has resided in Greensboro for about a year. Newby was arrested on a warrant sent from Salisbury charging him with embezzlement. Before coming to Greensboro, it appears that Newby worked some sort of insurance graft on a portion of the colored population of Salisbury. The prisoner was carried to Salisbury yesterday afternoon by an officer from that place.

When arrested, Newby protested vigorously against being locked up like a common felon, saying he feared it would injure his reputation and standing in the community, but the logic of his reasoning failed to appeal to Deputy Sheriff Weatherly and Shaw.

Report of Water and Light Commission.

The report of the Greensboro water and light commission, as filed with the board of aldermen, shows that, during the quarter ending February 1, the total expenditures amounted to $6,274.11. The principal items making up this amount are: Expenses of city station and filter plant, $1,638.53; Reedy Fork station, $1,149.97; office expenses, $1,288.55; building house at reservoir for engineer, $1,259.85. The balance on hand January 1, was $947.60. The cost of maintaining both plants for the quarter was $4,592.05, and $1,592.18 was spent for permanent improvement. It is further shown by the report that there is due the commission the following amounts: Water rents due for quarter ending January 1, $4,150.81; water rents in arrears, $5,652.58; water rents due by meters to special consumers, $3,567.02.

An Arrest Made Under Difficulties.

Albert Pool, a white man, wanted in Rockingham county for eloping with another man's wife was arrested in Greensboro Sunday, and yesterday was carried to Wentworth and lodged in jail. Pool had deserted the woman with whom he had eloped and was living in Greensboro with his lawful wife. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff's Weatherly and Shaw, who found Pool locked in a closet at his home. The officers broke into the house and then forced open the door of the closet in which Pool was concealed. While engaged in making the arrest, Mrs. Pool attacked the officers with a rolling pin, and when disarmed of this weapon, renewed the attack with a hatpin.

Highways Need Repairing.

Recently the PATRIOT has heard complaints from many good citizens of the county over the fact that no provision is made for keeping Guilford's macadamized roads in repair. The rains and freezes have damaged the roads badly, and there is a general desire on the part of the people living along the improved highways that the county officials take immediate steps to repair the damage. The Tabernacle road, one of the best constructed highways in the county, is said to be washing badly.

The county commissioners will probably take some action looking to the organization of a force to keep up repairs on the roads.

Mr. Justice a Probable Candidate.

Mr. C. H. Ireland, of the Odell Hardware Company, has written a communication to the Charlotte Observer strongly endorsing Mr. E. J. Justice for the Democratic nomination for attorney-general of North Carolina. In reply to the direct question as to whether or not he would be a candidate for the nomination, Mr. Justice informed the PATRIOT that he had not arrived at any definite conclusion, but intimated that he was giving the matter serious consideration. A great many people believe Mr. Justice will stand for the nomination.

Death of Aged Lady.

Mrs. Susan A. Freeman died Sunday night at the home of her son, Mr. R. A. Freeman, on Arlington street. She was 60 years of age and had been ill for a long time. She is survived by two sons, four brothers and a sister. One son, Mr. Robertson Freeman, resides in Texas. The remains were carried to Lick Fork church, Rockingham county, yesterday for interment.

WANTED TO ESCAPE.

Frazier Jones Only Awaited Opportunity—His Religion Didn't "Take."

Since Frazier Jones, whose death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, has been carried to Raleigh and placed safely within the grim, strong walls of the state penitentiary, it is learned that the prisoner had resolved, before leaving Guilford jail, to make a desperate attempt to escape while en route. That he abandoned the idea is due to the fact that he was so securely manacled and bound by Deputy Sheriff John Weatherly, upon whom the duty devolved of conveying the prisoner to the penitentiary. After reaching the state prison, Frazier confessed to Mr. Weatherly that he had resolved to make a desperate effort to escape until he found himself bound hard and fast.

The prisoner was carried away from Greensboro on a night train and every precaution of safety was taken by the officers. A rumor had reached Greensboro to the effect that a portion of the colored population about Gibsonville was so incensed over the failure of the law to execute Frazier that an effort might be made to take the prisoner from the train at that place and wreak summary vengeance upon him. Of course the officers paid little attention to the rumor, but nevertheless it was considered wise to be prepared for anything that might happen.

When Deputy Sheriff Weatherly informed Frazier of the rumor, the prisoner replied to this effect: "If you'll just give me one of your guns, we'll kill the first negro that tries to enter the car." From the prisoner's language, it is evident that the religion he professed on the eve of what was supposed to have been his execution failed to "take."

Important to Tobacco Raisers.

This market continues strong for all grades. There is a strong demand and prices are very firm. Buyers seem anxious for everything offered at outside prices. We have never seen the market so ready to absorb tobacco seemingly with little regard to quality. In a word, the market is in prime condition.

NOW JUST A FEW WORDS ABOUT OURSELVES.

The Planters' Warehouse (the one furthest out on Greene street) is in equally as good shape as is the market. The buyers make and sustain the market and you will find EVERY BUYER in Greensboro at EVERY SALE at the PLANTERS. You are always sure at the PLANTERS of getting the highest price that ANY ONE OF ALL THE BUYERS, including ourselves, thinks each pile of your tobacco is worth. When you start to market drive to THIS HOUSE, THE HOUSE THAT ENJOYS THE CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT OF THE ENTIRE BUYING FORCE ON THIS MARKET.

We try to give to every man the treatment we would have others accord to us. We insure to every man a fair deal and the very best price this splendid market affords.

We spare no pains in looking after your creature comforts. We want your patronage and we want especially to emphasize the fact that our business is conducted upon such principles that it has the THOROUGH AND ACTIVE SUPPORT OF ALL THOSE whom it is to your interest should take an interest in the value of your offerings.

Hoping that we may have the pleasure of serving you and promising to do the best, the very best, we or any one can do, either by buying for ourselves or by forcing others to pay full value. Yours truly, WHITT & APPLE, Proprietors Planters' Warehouse, (the one furthest out on Greene Street), Greensboro, N. C.

Campaign for Sabbath Observance.

Rev. Dr. S. B. Turrentine, chairman of the executive committee of the State Sabbath Observance Association, says an active and vigorous campaign in behalf of a better observance of the Sabbath is to be inaugurated throughout the state at once. Several big meetings will be held in the interest of the cause in the near future. There will be two district conventions—one in the east and one in the west, to be followed by a state convention, which will be held in Greensboro or some other central point.
