Cox Friday morning and interment made at Holt's chapel. The deceased was 34 years of age and is survived by a widow and two children.

Judge James E. Boyd has been notified of his selection as one of the judges for the next term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which will convene in Richmond on the first Tuesday in May, but as the date conflicts with the regular term of United States court at Asheville, it is hardly probable that he will be able to attend.

Mr. D. E. Oakes, of Raleigh, who travels for a New York concern, had a close call for his life in this city early Saturday morning, when he took an overdose of laudanum by mistake. For several hours he was a very sick man at his room in the Beubow, but a physician who was hastily summoned finally brought him around all right.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas and family, of Charlotte, passed through yesterday en route to Mt. Airy, with the remains of their little daughter, Kathryn, who died of pneumonia. ANSWERS ARE FILED.

Bankruptcy Case Occupies Attention of United States Court.

In the United States court in this city yesterday several answers were filed in the involuntary bankruptcy proceeding against the Barber Buggy and Wagon Company, of Salisbury.

Some of the respondents claimed that they were stockholders in the company, which had been represented to them to be a corporation, and were not, therefore, liable for the debts of the company. Others answered that the company was not insolvent and demanded trial by jury.

Judge Boyd made an order referring the matter to W. C. Erwin, referee, as special master, to take testimony and report the findings of fact and conclusions of law upon the questions raised by the several answers. Action upon the demand for a jury by the respondents who denied insolvency was deferred until the report of the special master.

Further, upon the affidavits of the attorneys for petitioners, that certain of the assets of the company, valued at about $6,000, were in the hands of R. B. Thompson, C. B. Jordan and G. W. Garland, of Salisbury, having been transferred with intent to defraud the creditors, an order was made requiring the said R. B. Thompson, C. B. Jordan and G. W. Garland to appear in Greensboro on the 23rd instant and show cause why they should not be enjoined from disposing of these assets, and they were restrained, in the meantime, from making any disposition of them.

This last named case involves many important questions and promises to be one of interest.

Appeal From Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Guilford chapter of Daughters of the Confederacy, at their last meeting, decided to erect a Confederate monument on court square. This monument is to show the love of the people for the brave men who fought for principles that can never die. We hope our efforts will touch a responsive chord in patriotic hearts and bring many willing contributions—a sacred fund made up of contributions from young and old, men, women and children. Every contribution, no matter how small, will be appreciated and prove our loyalty and love to our soldiers. Every man or woman who had a member of his or her family in the service of the Confederacy is proud of it, and we should all join together and erect this monument before they all pass into the great beyond.

"With shouts and cheers they marched away
On glory's shining track;
But ah! how long, how long they stay!
How few of them came back."

In this great work that we have attempted we do not intend to neglect our Confederate soldiers who may need our help. As long as they live, that will be our first work, but it need not be our only work.

MISS ALICE D. NELSON,
Chairman Monument Committee.

WANTS CASE REMOVED.

The Suit of Editor Deal Against Former Revenue Officer Hasty.

Judge R. C. Strudwick, attorney for J. W. Hasty, has made application to Judge Boyd for the removal of the case of Deal vs. Hasty from the Superior court of Wilkes county to the United States District court in this city. This case is a suit brought by Editor Deal, of the Wilkesboro Chronicle, against Hasty for damages, growing out of an assault made by Hasty and George Samuel two years ago in retaliation for an article published in the paper, and for which they have served a term of imprisonment. Hasty's application for the removal of the suit from the Superior to the Federal court is based on the fact that at the time he made the assault on Deal, he was acting as a United States deputy collector, and therefore is entitled to have the case tried in the United States court.

Judge Boyd has not yet issued the order for the removal.

IMPORTANT LITIGATION.

Suit Against the City to be Heard in Federal Court Next Week.

The United States Circuit court which convenes in this city Monday will try the case of the Southern Paving and Construction Company against the city of Greensboro, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $18,481.60 balance alleged to be due by the city for the repaving of South Elm street by the plaintiff. The trial of this case will probably consume the entire week.

The case is of much interest to Greensboro people in that it involves to a great extent the matters embraced in the famous injunction case of Messrs. Merrimon and Benbow against Mayor Murphy and others, which was heard by Judge Ferguson here about two years ago, at the time South Elm street was being repaved. In the present case the paying company is suing for the balance of the contract price, while the city in its answer sets up a counter claim and asks for $12,000 damages for the alleged failure of the company to perform its contract in accordance with the specifications laid down by the city for the paving.

The attorneys for the plaintiff are Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., and Garland S. Ferguson, Jr., while the city is represented by City Attorney Shaw and Stedman & Cooke.

SCHEDULES ARE CHANGED.

Two Trains Discontinued Between Greensboro and Goldsboro.

An announcement of important changes in the schedules of passenger trains on the North Carolina division of the Southern Railway was made from the office of the corporation commission, in Raleigh, yesterday. Two trains between Greensboro and Goldsboro are to be discontinued, as well as two trains between Salisbury and Asheville. There is to be a change in the schedules of all other trains between Greensboro and Goldsboro, except No. 111 passing Greensboro at 6:30 A. M. for Salisbury and Asheville, and No. 112 leaving here at 12:45 A. M. for Raleigh and Goldsboro.

According to the changes announced, a train will leave Greensboro at 8:30 A. M. and arrive in Goldsboro at 1:30 P. M. A train will leave Goldsboro at 8 A. M. and arrive in Greensboro at 12:30 P. M. In the afternoon a train will leave Goldsboro at 3:30 and arrive in Greensboro at 8:30 in the evening. A train will leave Asheville at 8:15 A. M., leave Greensboro at 3:30 P. M. and arrive in Goldsboro at 8:30 P. M.

The new schedule gives three trains a day each way between Greensboro and Goldsboro.

TABERNACLE SCHOOL CLOSES.

Interesting Entertainment by the Children—A Successful Term.

The Tabernacle public school was closed yesterday with appropriate and interesting exercises. The pupils gave an entertainment that reflected much credit upon themselves and their teacher. After the exercises by the children, Capt. F. P. Hobgood, Jr., of Greensboro, delivered an address that was listened to with close attention by the large crowd present. Capt. Hobgood was followed by Prof. J. Allen Holt, who taught at Tabernacle over 30 years ago. County Superintendent Foust was present and took charge of the exercises after the children had completed their part of the program.

The term which has just come to a close, under Mrs. Espie Forbis as teacher, was one of the most successful in the history of the school. There was no dissatisfaction during the term, and all the patrons are highly pleased with Mrs. Forbis as a teacher and manager of the school, as well as a resident of the community.

Judge Pritchard and Governor Aycock invited to Make Speeches.

Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Asheville, who is taking an active part in the prohibition campaign in this state, will be invited to make a speech in Greensboro in the near future. The invitation will be forwarded in a few days and it is believed that it will be accepted. Ex-Governor Aycock has been invited to come to Greensboro some Sunday afternoon before the May election and speak at a big rally.

The prohibition campaign committee is arranging to hold rallies in every township in Guilford, and it is probable that an organizer will be employed to take charge of the field work of the campaign in this county. The work will be pushed vigorously.
