If your sons or daughters in school or college this spring need new footwear, tell them to look at Thacker & Brockmann's line before deciding on the purchase. Nice, good fitting, long wearing shoes and oxfords in patent kid, tan and gun metal calf and sold at very reasonable prices by this old reliable firm at 232 South Elm street.

Young man, don't let anybody make you believe you can't get a nice pair of oxfords or shoes for less than five or six dollars. Thacker & Brockmann will show you snappy, up-to-date, good fitting oxfords and shoes in tan, patent calf and gun metal calf at $2.75, $3.00 and $3.50. If you want good footwear at low prices, don't fail to see this line.

The Greensboro Drug Company, which has purchased the business of the Galloway Drug Company, was chartered by the Secretary of state yesterday, with a capital of $25,000. The incorporators are A. J. Klutz, Max T. Payne and F. P. Hebgood. Mr. Payne will manage the business, which will be continued at the same stand—the southwest corner of Sout Elm and West Market streets.

The Muir's chapel public school, taught by Miss Olive Anderson, of Caswell county, closed last Thursday, with a fine entertainment. A splendid program had been arranged and was carried out in an admirable manner, the school children acquitting themselves in an especially creditable manner. The patrons of the school have signed a strong petition asking for the return of Miss Anderson as teacher next term.

CRIMINAL COURT IN SESSION.

Convened Monday Morning With Judge Webb on the Bench.

A week's term of Guilford Superior court for the trial of criminal cases convened Monday morning, with Judge James L. Webb, of Shelby, on the bench and Solicitor A. L. Brooks representing the state. After the grand jury had been empaneled, Judge Webb delivered an able and exhaustive charge, which explained the duty of the jurors in a lucid and comprehensive manner.

The docket contained about 140 cases, of which 40 were continued. Good progress was made Monday and yesterday, a number of cases being disposed of. Verdicts were rendered and judgments pronounced in the following cases:

Grover Sprinkle, carrying concealed weapons, $15 and costs.

Dave Whitfield, retailing, 6 months on the roads.

Charles Freeland, larceny, 8 months on the roads.

Martin Worth, larceny, 12 months on the roads.

DeWitt Holbrook, carrying concealed weapons and an assault with a deadly weapon, (three cases) $40 and costs.

In the case of A. V. Hodgkin, who pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

The case charging William D. McAdoo with manslaughter in fatally shooting Ed Aldred, while on a hunting trip in the eastern part of the county some time ago, was continued until the next term.

H. C. Leonard, of Lexington, formerly a brakeman in the employ of the Southern Railway, was to have been tried during this term for criminal negligence resulting in manslaughter in the wreck of passenger train No. 34, at Ridd several months ago, but the case was continued.

The case charging Winston Fulton with slandering his wife is set for today and is expected to attract much attention. Many witnesses have been summoned on both sides.

The following constitute the grand jury: N. W. Ogburn, foreman, C. P. Soots, G. D. Case, John Barker, F. L. Robertson, John W. Lewis, H. C. Field, Ed L. Armfield, C. E. Marley, C. F. Loman, D. M. Sullivan, Z. T. Melvin, B. V. Johnson, Ed N. Hodgkin, E. H. Copeland, John T. Suits, John T. Payne and W. M. Mooney.

The petit jury is composed of A. C. Denny, D. A. Shoffner, C. C. Curtis, John J. Williams, S. J. Atkins, J. A. Stubblefield, T. J. Pettigrew, J. A. Hodgkin, P. R. Fields, Joseph Payne, John M. Amick, J. J. Lambert, C. O. Forbis, C. F. McCuiston, L. G. Bos, well.

SENT TO SUPERIOR COURT.
Solicitor Brooks Will Prosecute Man Who Sent Infernal Machine.

Hardin Germany, who was to have been given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Wolfe yesterday afternoon for sending through the mail an infernal machine addressed to Mr. Caesar Cone, as related in the last issue of the PATRIOT, was turned over to the state authorities and will be tried in the Guilford Superior court. When the case was called in Commissioner Wolfe's court yesterday afternoon, District Attorney Holton announced that inasmuch as the attempt upon the life of Mr. Cone was primarily a state offence, the mail merely having been used in an effort to accomplish this purpose, and inasmuch as the Guilford Superior court is in session this week, he was willing that the prisoner should be turned over to the state authorities.

The prisoner was then discharged from the custody of the United States, but was immediately arrested by Deputy Sheriff Seymour Jeffries on a warrant which had been issued by Commissioner Wolfe in his capacity as justice of the peace. Germany was remanded to jail in default of a bond for $1,000. Today a bill of indictment will be drawn by Solicitor Brooks and sent to the grand jury.

AUDUBON SOCIETY MEETING.

Sixth Annual Session Held in Greensboro Saturday—Report of Secretary Pearson.

The sixth annual meeting of the Audubon Society of North Carolina was held in this city Saturday afternoon, when reports of the past year's work were received and plans for the future considered. The most important matter to come before the meeting was the report of the secretary, Mr. T. Gilbert Pearson, who reviewed in a thorough and interesting manner the work of the past year, which was by far the most successful in the history of the organization.

During the year the society employed 72 game wardens at an expense of $6,400. The total expense of the year's work was slightly in excess of $13,000. As a result of the work of the game wardens, 235 convictions for violations of the game laws were secured in 30 counties, the number being in excess of the aggregate number of convictions for the four previous years. Rowan led with 52 convictions and Guilford came second with 47.

In Currituck county, where formerly it was impossible to secure convictions, 11 men were convicted of shooting ducks illegally.

One of the most difficult duties of the wardens is to prevent the shipping of quail to points outside the state, and Secretary Pearson says there was a great decrease in this practice during the past year.

One of the best of the game laws is that one which makes it a misdemeanor to hunt on land without the permission of the owner. This is a great protection to the farmers, who are showing a more decided sympathy with the aims and purposes of the Audubon society. There were 110 convictions for violations of this law during the past year.

The preservation of the seabirds on the coast has been made a special feature of the work of the society, and the results are gratifying. Last season a new species of seacoast bird, the roseate tern, came to the coast of North Carolina for the first time.

Miss Mary Moore, the assistant secretary, has charge of the educational work, which is a new feature. During the year she organized a number of junior societies in the schools of the state. She addressed farmers' meetings in 23 counties and spoke before many teachers' associations.

A work on the birds of North Carolina is in course of preparation and will be published by next year. The work will be edited by Secretary Pearson and Mr. C. S. Brimley, of Raleigh, and will be published in conjunction with the geological survey. The book will be a handsome publication, containing drawings of all birds in North Carolina and a number of colored plates. There are in North Carolina 325 species of birds, a number of which was discovered by Secretary Pearson.

At the conclusion of the meeting Secretary Pearson exhibited two paintings by John James Audubon, the great naturalist.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Raleigh, president; ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, vice-president; T. Gilbert Pearson, of Greensboro, secretary; P. D. Gold, Jr., of Raleigh, chairman of the board of directors.

Prohibition Rally at Pleasant Ridge.
A prohibition rally will be held at Pleasant Ridge Christian church next Sunday, the exercises beginning at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. The following program has been arranged for the occasion:

Opening exercises, Rev. S. B. Klapp, pastor; "A Little Boy's Reasons," Craven Huffines; "Duty," Miss Nettie Huffines; address by Mrs. Margaret Cotton, state W. C. T. U., secretary; "Brave Old North Carolina," Henry Huffines; "The Products of the Modern Saloons," G. W. Ellington; "The Rumpeller and His Father, Beelzebub," Nell Huffines and Ruth Barker; "Mary's Plea With Papa," song, four little girls; sermon on "Bible Prohibition," Rev. S. B. Klapp; "Prohibition Forever," song; selected reading, Mrs. L. C. Huffines; "Prohibition From a Business Standpoint," Mr. C. A. Hines; "Vote as You Pray," song; offering, benediction.

Imperiled Sight.
It is a settled fact, to wear glasses that are wrong, or glasses that are not comfortable, will surely imperil your sight. It will cost you but little more to get your glasses fitted right and comfortable, or your money back, by Dr. Taylor, a scientific refractonist, than to get them wrong. Examinations made without charge and without inconvenience of "drops." Greensboro National Bank Building. 11-2t.

Examinations for High School Teachers.
An examination of teachers who may desire to teach in the public high schools of the state will be held in the office of County Superintendent Foust on April 24th and 25th and on July 9th and 10th. The examination will be held under direction of the state board of examiners and in compliance with the high school act of the legislature of 1907, which prohibits any person from teaching any subject in a public school who does not hold a teacher's certificate covering the subject. The law requires all applications for high school teachers' certificates to be filed with the state superintendent of public instruction. The next issue of the PATRIOT will give detailed information in regard to these examinations.

Railway Flagman Seriously Injured.
Robert Saunders, of Danville, a flagman on the Southern Railway, is in St. Leo's hospital for treatment for injuries received in a fall from the rear platform of southbound passenger train No. 33 Monday morning. The train was pulling out from the station at Danville when Flagman Saunders, who was in the act of placing markers on the rear end of the last coach, lost his footing and fell to the ground. The force of the fall fractured his skull and broke a leg. The injured man was placed on the train and brought to Greensboro.
