--That's what we are.

The farmer is no longer recognized by his shabby dress.

Today as he passes along the city's thoroughfares he is a business man dressed in a neat business suit, or if you meet him at church or other public gathering, he is dressed befitting the occasion.

Why? Because he has learned by buying the ALL-WOOL ALL-RIGHT Clothes that we sell. He gets the kind of clothes that he should have.

A TURBULENT CONVENTION.

Fifth District Republicans Enjoy Themselves in the Usual Way—The Cannon Men Bolt.

The Fifth district Republican congressional convention in this city last Wednesday afternoon was a turbulent body prior to the time a number of Cannon men bolted. There were contestants from Durham, Alamance and Guilford. The contestants from Durham were Taft men who bolted the county convention, the contests from the two other counties being filled by Cannon men.

While the credentials committee was out speeches were made by State Senator Guy Carter, of Surry; B. S. Robertson, of Alamance; Postmaster Reynolds, of Winston-Salem; Chairman Benbow, of Forsyth; Sheriff Petree, of Stokes; Isaac M. Meekins, of Pasquotank; State Chairman Adams and ex-Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn, Mr. Blackburn put a good deal of ginger into his remarks, starting out by saying he thanked God he did not have to trail in the footsteps of any man, be he president, a collector of internal revenue or a postmaster. He made a bitter onslaught on the office-holding element of the party and asked: "How much longer are we going to stand here without manhood and courage?" Mr. Blackburn made a veiled thrust at some of his political enemies when he declared: "Although I have canvassed the entire state, I have never been molested by mobs or prevented from making a speech."

Mr. Blackburn was interrupted by the appearance of the credentials committee, which recommended the seating of the Taft delegates from the counties of Durham, Alamance and Guilford. Then it was that the fun began. Delegates from Alamance and Durham were on their feet demanding to be heard, the Cannon men from Durham being the more persistent. Mr. W. T. Riggsbee, leader of the Cannon forces, begged for a division of the delegates, saying he was willing to give the Taft bolters from the county representation in the convention. Mr. J. C. Angier, who came from Durham as the leader of the Taft forces, made a very warm speech, and before he finished the matter became personal. Mr. Angier accused one of the Cannon men of having voted for a Democrat, and the Cannon man interrupted Mr. Angier to acknowledge the truth of the accusation.

At this juncture Mr. Riggsbee mounted a chair and demanded a hearing. Half a dozen other delegates were suddenly possessed of the same desire, and for several minutes the convention was the scene of wild disorder. The chairman rapped vainly for order while ambitious statesmen were endeavoring to speak and weary delegates were calling for a vote on the adoption of the report of the credentials committee.

A corpulent gentleman from Durham yelled in stentorian tones, "You've given us a crooked deal," and Mr. Heenan Hughes, of Alamance, joined Mr. Riggsbee, of Durham, in inviting all who loved fair play to walk out of the convention. Messrs. Riggsbee and Hughes were followed out of the court house by the Cannon men, who went down the stairway yelling defiance at the majority.

After the bolt the convention proceeded to business by electing Mr. E. S. W. Dameron, of Burlington, permanent chairman, and Mr. Lee A. Folger, of Greensboro, permanent secretary.

Chairman Dameron appointed the following committee on resolutions: B. S. Robertson, Arthur White, Rufus Ham, Guy Carter and J. A. Pickett. The committee presented resolutions endorsing Roosevelt's administration, pledging support to Taft and recommending the re-election of Judge S. B. Adams as state chairman. The resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote.

Messrs. B. S. Robertson, of Alamance, and Guy Carter, of Surry, were chosen as delegates to the national convention, with Messrs. H. B. Worth, of Guilford, and J. C. Angier, of Durham, as alternates.

Judge S. B. Adams was endorsed as delegate-at-large to the national convention.

The following named were elected members of the new district executive committee: Alamance county, Dr. J. A. Pickett, C. J. Yarborough; Durham, H. H. Cheek; Forsyth, M. F. Masten; Guilford, R. L. Blalock; Granville, J. H. Gooch; Orange, W. B. York; Person, R. A. Burch; Rockingham, D. M. Lashley; Stokes, John W. Gant; Surry, J. D. Minick.

The committee re-elected J. T. Benbow, of Winston-Salem, chairman, and J. Z. Waller, of Burlington, secretary.

The nomination of a candidate for Congress was deferred until a later convention. Mr. B. S. Robertson, one of the delegates to the national convention, is prominently mentioned for the nomination.

The Cannon men who bolted the Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea tones the stomach, stimulates the lazy liver; strengthens the bowels and makes their action easy and natural. The best tonic for the whole system. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Howard Gardner.

convention repaired to the McAdoo hotel, where they organized by electing R. G. Foster, of Alamance, chairman, and N. W. Brown, of Orange, secretary. The following uninstructed delegates were elected to the national convention: W. T. Riggsbee, of Durham, and E. Spencer Blackburn, of Guilford, with Heenan Hughes, of Alamance, and N. W. Brown, of Orange, as alternates.

Winston-Salem Gets Methodist Orphanage.

The orphanage to be established by the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be located in Winston-Salem, this decision having been reached at a meeting of the board of trustees held last week. The people of Winston-Salem made a donation of $15,000 as an inducement to secure the orphanage.

Rev. Dr. G. H. Detwiler was made temporary superintendent of the orphanage, but his duties as executive head of the institution will not interfere with the continuance of his services as pastor of West Market Street Methodist church.

Three of the trustees are from Greensboro. They are Rev. N. R. Richardson, Rev. Dr. Detwiler and Mr. C. H. Ireland.

Strawshow which way the wind blows. This store is not everlastingly making a great noise about selling goods cheaper than all others in the wide world, but people who keep a sharp lookout know that we are the very last to put prices up and the first to put them down, just as soon as it possibly can be done. We were the first to change the price of spool cotton from six cents to five. There is now a slight tendency to lower prices in some lines and our customers get the benefit of it at the earliest possible moment. In shoes we have been able to put most of the $25 grade down to $20, the $17.50 kind to $15.00, and the $15.00 kind to $14.00. Genuine Lonsdale Cambric has been selling at 15 cents. This goes down to 12, and genuine Androscoggin Bleaching is reduced from 12 1/2 to 10 cents. And so on through the stock. If we can buy goods for a little less our customers get them for a little less. Besides buying at the lowest prices you can rely on getting first class goods here. If we ever sell "seconds" or imperfect goods at all we sell them as such, so that you know just what you are getting. Our clerks are not allowed to misrepresent goods under any circumstances. The store is full of new goods in every department now and we are better prepared than ever before to supply your wants in shoes, dress goods, carpets, matings, curtains and dry goods of all kinds.

Pomona, Guilford County, N. C., March, 27th, 1908.
Mr. Sides,
Dear Sir:
I am thinking you would like to hear how I am getting along after using the new remedy you and Mr. Yates so kindly had me to use. After nearly four months of suffering with rheumatism and kidney complaint, and everything done for me which only relieved for the time being, I am now using the Band, which seemed to help me at once. At the time my feet, knees and hips were so swollen that I could not walk a step. As soon as I put it on there was a heating sensation all over my system, and in one week I was surprised that the swelling was going out, and I could sleep. In two weeks I could walk around the room, the third week I could go where I pleased. I feel stiff in my knees somewhat, but that is going out fast. You may think this is quick work, but it is nevertheless true. My family and neighbors will testify the same. They all know I have suffered all winter, and I feel very grateful to you both, for what this remedy has done for me, and will recommend it to all suffering as I have.
Respectfully yours,
A. D. V. LEIGH.
(Signed)
Why don't you profit by the experience of others? Your family doctor is all right, and will do all he can for you, but he cannot cure that rheumatism. I have cured hundreds of hopeless cases with my wonderful Band, dozens of them right here in Greensboro, and in Guilford county. Write today for full information and terms.
