If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Greensboro Drug Co.

State Normal and Industrial College.

We desire to call attention to the advertisement of the State Normal and Industrial College, which appears in this issue. Every year sees a steady growth in this great institution devoted to the higher education of the women of North Carolina. The McIver Memorial building, provision for which was made by the last general assembly, is now in course of erection and will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the fall term.

The college last year had a total enrollment of 980 students. Ninety-two counties were represented. Nineteenth of all the graduates of this institution have taught in the schools of North Carolina.

The college dormitories are furnished by the state, and board is provided at actual cost. Two hundred appointments to the dormitories, apportioned among the several counties according to population, will be awarded to applicants about the middle of July. Students who may wish to secure one of these appointments should make application before July 15th.

SUPPRESSION OF RABIES.

How It Has Been Effected in England and Germany. New York Sun.

This week I have been with intense interest blended with deep horror reading the profoundly painful newspaper record of a tragedy belonging to a category of incidents which, I am told, is very familiar in the United States. I refer to the death from hydrophobia of Mr. William H. Marsh. Such an incident as this would be, I am thankful to say, now impossible in Britain. I remember the time when the victims of rabies were numerous. Lovely children especially were liable to be attacked by rabid dogs. Dreadful cases occasionally came under my own notice. The time came when the public outcry was heeded by the government in so practical a way that measures were taken on such a drastic scale that the evil was in a few months absolutely stamped out.

That policy was an exact imitation of the Germar method, which was known to have succeeded. The British government knows its own mind when once that mind is made up. An order was issued that all dogs should be muzzled when let outdoors. Any dogs found wandering unmuzzled unless led in leash by the owners were captured by the police and the owners were fined, or if the owners could not be found, the dogs were killed. Of course, ladies fond of their lap dog and other persons infatuated in a similar way did not fail to protest vociferously, but such recriminations had no effect on the authorities.

In an incredibly short time rabies was eliminated from Britain. If any suspicious case occurs in any county the order is renewed for another specific period, and also in all the counties surrounding it, until there is no longer room for fear or suspicion.

Pomona, Guilford County, N. C., March, 27th, 1908.

Mr. Sides, Dear Sir: I am thinking you would like to hear how I am getting along after using the new remedy you and Mr. Yates so kindly had me to use. After nearly four months of suffering with rheumatism and kidney complaint, and everything done for me which only relieved for the time being, I am now using the Band, which seemed to help me at once. At the time my feet, knees and hips were so swollen that I could not walk a step. As soon as I put it on there was a heating sensation all over my system, and in one week I was surprised that the swelling was going out, and I could sleep. In two weeks I could walk around the room, the third week I could go where I pleased. I feel stiff in my knees somewhat, but that is going out fast. You may think this is quick work, but it is nevertheless true. My family and neighbors will testify the same. They all know I have suffered all winter, and I feel very grateful to you both, for what this remedy has done for me, and will recommend it to all suffering as I have. Respectfully yours, A. D. V. LEIGH.

(Signed)
