An entertainment will be given at Coble's Academy Saturday afternoon and evening, the proceeds to be devoted to a fund for furnishing the new school building. The time from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 8 in the evening will be devoted to baseball and social amusements. At 8 o'clock the drama, "Under the Laurels," will be presented by the local dramatic club. An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, children between the ages of five and ten years being admitted for five cents. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, sherberts, etc., will be on sale.

Presidential Candidates Expected in Greensboro.

It is altogether probable that the presidential candidates of both the great political parties will be in Greensboro during the celebration of centennial week in October. It is practically certain that Mr. Taft, the Republican nominee, will be here, and a cordial invitation will be extended to Mr. Bryan. The Democratic candidate for vice president, Hon. John W. Kern, who has promised Hon. A. L. Brooks to make several speeches in the state during the campaign, may visit Greensboro during the centennial.

Buy's Father's Interest in Business.

Mr. J. Leslie Cartland, junior member of the firm of J. E. Cartland & Co., has become sole proprietor of the business, having purchased the interest of his father, Dr. J. E. Cartland, who retires from active business on account of the condition of his health. This is the oldest tailoring concern in Greensboro and enjoys a wide patronage. The new owner has been connected with the concern for a number of years. He is an experienced and successful tailor, having a knowledge of all parts of the business.

Young Man Commits Suicide.

C. B. Welborn, of High Point, who held a position as clerk in a store at Henrietta, committed suicide by shooting himself Monday afternoon. No cause has been assigned for the rash act. The young man was 27 years old and popular with all who knew him. The deceased was a son of Philip Welborn, of High Point. The remains were brought to High Point yesterday afternoon and the funeral will be held at Abbott's Creek today or tomorrow.

Eye Troubles.

If you have trouble with your eyes and want comfort in glasses, it matters not the failure of others, a visit to Dr. Taylor, a specialist in this line, will give you relief or your money back. Office: Greensboro National Bank building. 30-4t.

Back From National Convention.

Mayor Brandt, one of the alternates from the Fifth district to the Democratic national convention, and Hon. A. L. Brooks and father, Dr. Z. T. Brooks, who attended the convention as interested spectators, have returned and report a most pleasant and profitable trip. Mayor Brandt came back by way of Dallas, Tex., and attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Elks in his capacity as district deputy for the western half of North Carolina. Mr. Brooks and his father extended their trip to Colorado Springs and other points and came back through Canada.

Mr. Brooks had the pleasure of meeting Hon. John W. Kern, the candidate for vice president, at the home of Mr. Bryan and secured from him a promise to come to North Carolina and make several speeches during the campaign. He also secured promises from several other Democrats of national importance to visit this state during the campaign, provided satisfactory dates can be arranged.

New Tribe of Red Men for Burlington.

Keywanssee Tribe No. 97, Improvorder of Red Men, of Burlington, was instituted in this city Thursday night, the degree work being conferred by the Red Men of Greensboro and Revolution. The new tribe starts off with 29 charter members, representing well known citizens of Burlington. Officers were elected as follows: A. F. Barrett, sachem; J. R. Hoffman, senior sagamore; Clyde May, prophet; W. D. Foster, junior sagamore; A. Cheek, C. of R.; J. G. Pritchett, first sanap; E. L. Murray, second sanap; M. L. Holton, G. of W.; A. A. Iseley, G. of F. The officers were installed by Mr. E. A. Ebert, of Winston-Salem, great prophet of the Great Council of North Carolina.

Odd Fellows Install Officers.

At a meeting of Buena Vista Lodge No. 21, I. O. O. F., last night, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term: Vander Liles, noble grand; K. J. A. Ljung, vice grand; E. L. Clarke, recording secretary; J. R. Cutchin, financial secretary; J. L. Thacker, treasurer; S. A. Levy, warden; C. D. Sellars, conductor; E. M. Sellars, right supporter to the noble grand; J. G. May, right supporter to the vice grand; T. B. Gaskins, chaplain; W. M. Maxwell, inner guard. The officers were installed by Acting Deputy Grand Master R. W. Murray.

Charlotte Girl's Sad Case.

Miss Mattie Havis, a pretty young stenographer, disappeared from her home in Charlotte Friday morning and was missing until Monday afternoon, when relatives located her in Columbia, S. C. It is said that her mind is unbalanced, though she had shown no signs of mental derangement before leaving home. She has been brought back to her home in Charlotte and is in a precarious condition, both mentally and physically.

A small red calf, with hair clipped off tips of both ears. Owner can have same by proving ownership and paying charges. Emmet Huffman, on John Young's place. 30-2t

She Knows Where.

When you hitch up the old mare tomorrow just tell her to take you to the big sale. She will come right to Harry-Belk Bros. store.

Jim Clemmens, a negro, who two years ago entered the home of J. D. Spencer, of Martinsville, during the night and shot Spencer to death, was captured in Roanoke Saturday and placed in jail. Spencer was aroused by an intruder and got out of bed to investigate. He met Clemmens in a hall and the negro killed him and fled. There was a reward for Clemmens, and, had he been caught at the time, a lynching would probably have followed. He denies the crime.

Lightning destroyed the Kerr bleaching and finishing works, at Concord, last night, entailing a loss of over $200,000. The plant was operated by Capt. J. M. Odell and his son, Mr. W. R. Odell.
