One of the busiest places in town these days is Republican state headquarters. Chairman Adams is giving his personal attention and all his time to the work of the campaign, having temporarily closed his law office on Court Square. A force of clerks is engaged in sending out a vast amount of literature received from national headquarters and issued by the state committee.

W. H. Cable, a representative of a Georgia Industrial insurance company, was given a hearing in the mayor's court Monday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and held for the Superior court under a bond of $50. It appeared from the evidence that the defendant went to the home of a colored woman representing himself as an agent of the Virginia Life Insurance Company and collected $1 in premiums on a policy she held in that company. Cable contended at the trial that he collected the money as an advance payment on a policy to be issued by the Georgia company.

BROOKS ON THE SITUATION.

Next Congressman From Fifth District Finds Democrats Aroused and Enthusiastic—Increased Majorities.

Hon. A. L. Brooks, the next member of Congress from the Fifth district, has completed a canvass of Granville, Person, Durham, Orange, and Alamance counties and is beginning his itinerary of the western end of the district. Wherever he has been he has found the Democrats aroused and enthusiastic over the prospects of increased majorities. Mr. Brooks is quoted as follows in an interview with Mr. Andrew Joyner, the Greensboro correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer:

"The general political condition is as good as it has ever been since I can remember," he stated, in answer to the question: "How have you found things politically where you have been?"
"I have been canvassing this district ever since 1896, when I was the Bryan district elector. Every two years since I have made Democratic speeches in these counties, in state, national and congressional campaigns, but I have never before seen more enthusiastic determination to roll up a big majority, a more harmonious Democratic unity than is shown at every place that I have made speeches."

"And do you know," the candidate continued, "I find people everywhere more enthusiastic over Bryan than they were twelve years ago. They feel now that Bryan is certainly going to be elected, and it makes them enthusiastic at the prospect of realizing a consummation of this long deferred hope of Democracy and a Democratic president once more coming into its own."

Two years ago Alamance county elected a Republican member of the legislature and some county officers. This year, Mr. Brooks says, the whole Democratic ticket will be elected by increased majorities, and the same improvement will be shown when the election returns from Person are received.

Mr. Brooks was asked this rather delicate question by this rather delicate correspondent: "Wouldn't it be a deal better for you?"

"What do you mean?" he responded. "I mean that if Bryan is defeated you will have no responsibilities except to draw your salary in Congress and cuss the Republican administration. If Bryan is elected there will be ten thousand good Democrats in this district wanting to fill places that only about one thousand can fill, and you, as congressman from this district, will have to do the recommending. Won't that add greatly to your burden and might I say, run you crazy? That's what I said."

Mr. Brooks replied: "I had rather be embarrassed by the responsibility of seeing one thousand good Democrats in the Fifth district serving the United States officially than any other kind of embarrassment in this world. I have been standing to Bryan twelve years in season and out of season, and it will be the happiest day of my life when I witness his inauguration on the fourth of next March, and myself become a member of what I believe will be a Democratic house of representatives."

MEETING OF ODELL CREDITORS.

Reject Proposition of Syndicate Formed to Purchase Property and Ask for New Order of Sale.

At a meeting of the creditors of the Odell Manufacturing Company, of Concord, held in this city Thursday afternoon, the original proposition of a syndicate formed in June to purchase the property was declined, as was a subsequent proposition, and it was decided to ask the court for another order of sale. It will be remembered that the property was to have been sold on the 16th inst., the sale having been called off on account of the fire that destroyed a portion of the property.

The syndicate formed in June offered to buy the property and pay the creditors in full with first mortgage bonds, and in addition invest $200,000 in the plant. The fire that destroyed mill No. 4 disarranged this plan, whereupon the committee on the part of the creditors called a full meeting of the creditors to apprise them of conditions and take new instructions.

Representatives of the syndicate appeared before the creditors, and without waiving any of their rights as embodied in the original proposition or contract, submitted a new proposition to the effect that, if the original contract should be carried out, the syndicate would, in addition to issuing the first mortgage bonds and putting $200,000 in new stock, also invest the insurance money in two business.

This proposition was declined by the creditors, whereupon the syndicate agreed to pay 50 per cent of the claims of creditors, exclusive of interest, in cash and the balance, exclusive of interest, in preferred cumulative stock, the first of the stock to mature in five years and the whole in fifteen years. This proposition also was rejected by the creditors, who thereupon adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the receiver be requested to apply to the court for permission to make distribution to creditors of available moneys, after the insurance losses shall be paid.

"Resolved, That the receiver be requested to obtain an order for the sale of the property, such sale to be made not earlier than November 15.

"Resolved, That the receiver be requested to operate the plant until time of sale, and thereafter, so that any purchaser can take the property as a going concern.

"Resolved, That the thanks of the creditors are extended to Mr. Caesar Cone for his able management of the property as receiver.

"Resolved, That the creditors' committee be continued with power to act on any incidental matters which shall arise in connection with the operation of the plant and the sale of the property, but without power to bind the creditors to any settlement or extension of their claims."

It was stated in the meeting that the insurance has been adjusted satisfactorily, and it is understood that the settlement will result in the payment of the full amount of $210,000 carried on the property destroyed.

MR. KERN'S VISIT TUESDAY.

Coming of Democratic Candidate for Vice President Will be Made Big Occasion.

The railroads have granted a reduced rate of one and a third fare for the round trip, and the Southern will operate a number of special trains between Greensboro and the Battle Ground. There will be a free dinner and two bands will furnish music.

Mr. Kern will be accompanied by Col. J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, who will also make a speech. Among the other speakers will be Governor Glenn, Congressman Claude Kitchin and Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, and one of the candidates for election at large. All the state officers and candidates for state offices have been invited, as well as the candidates from Guilford and adjoining counties.

Tuesday night Mr. Kern and Mr. Lewis will speak in this city.

Mr. E. P. Alsbrook, who has been with the Atlanta branch the past ten years, is resident manager of the Greensboro store. Assisting him are Messrs. Thomas Pickard, C. L. Shaw and Wendell Spencer, of this city. Mr. E. A. Hartsock, manager, of the Atlanta branch, was here several days last week helping to get things in ship shape for the opening.

HAZING AT GUILFORD COLLEGE.

Six Students Charged With Assaulting Member of Preparatory Department.

That the staid old Quaker institution of Guilford College is not immune from hazing was demonstrated yesterday, when six upper classmen were arrested for having hazed a student of the preparatory department. The offence was committed Tuesday evening of last week and the victim was Rodney Turner, a son of Mr. C. L. Turner, of Catawba county.

The warrant, which charged assault and battery, named the following students as defendants: Baxter S. Sellars, of Mebane; Samuel D. Campbell, of West Virginia; George Nichols, of Mt. Airy; John C. Whitaker, of Winston-Salem, and Lowrey Stafford and Lonnie Coble, of Greensboro.

The warrant was issued by Justice Glascock and the boys were accompanied to Greensboro for a preliminary hearing by Sheriff Jones, Deputy Sheriffs Weatherly and Crutchfield and several members of the faculty and student friends.

The warrant was sworn away from Justice Glascock, who sent it to Justice Collins. The case was prosecuted by ex-Judge R. C. Strudwick and the defendants were represented by Mr. R. R. King.

Rodney Turner, the victim of the hazing, was the only witness examined for the prosecution. He testified that he was approached by the defendants after supper Tuesday evening, September 22nd, and pulled behind the building in which the Guilford College postoffice is located. He was suspecting such an attack and when he left his room placed a revolver in his pocket.

Turner testified that, when one of the defendants seized him around the waist, he fired the revolver into the ground to frighten them. He was then thrown to the ground, after having been dispossessed of the weapon, and choked and beaten. The boys closed the program by placing Turner across a cabbage crate and beating him with barrel staves.

Justice Collins fined Sellars $10 and the costs; suspended judgment upon payment of cost as to Campbell, Nichols and Coble, and dismissed Stafford and Whitaker, there being no evidence to show that the two last named were connected with the hazing.

A warrant was issued against young Turner charging him with carrying concealed weapons, and he was held for the Superior court under a bond of $25. It appears that Turner brought the revolver with him to Guilford from his home for the purpose of using it in defending himself against hazers.

Soldiers Coming for the Centennial.

Mr. G. S. Bradshaw, president of the centennial board of managers, is in receipt of a letter from the War department notifying him that the troops to be furnished by the government for the soldiers' centennial and home-coming week will arrive here not later than October 10th for a stay of one week. The infantry, cavalry and artillery branches of the service will be represented, and in addition the Navy department will send a crew of men to man the portable searchlight loaned by the government as an attraction for the centennial. The soldiers will be accompanied by a regimental band. In addition to the soldiers furnished by the government, there will be ten or more companies of the North Carolina National Guard. The troops will be quartered at the fair grounds.

Begins Business Tomorrow.

The Foster-Moffitt Produce Company, recently organized and incorporated with a capital of $5,000, will open its doors tomorrow at the corner of South Elm and Fayetteville streets, where it has fitted up desirable quarters. Mr. Foster, who is well known to the trade, will direct the affairs of the concern, which promises to become an important factor in the business life of Greensboro.

It is earnestly desired that every Confederate veteran in reach of Greensboro be here on the day set apart in honor of the faithful followers of Lee and Jackson.
