DEATH OF W. S. HILL.

One of Greensboro's Oldest Citizens Called to His Reward.

Mr. W. S. Hill, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Greensboro, died at his home on West Market street yesterday, in the 81st year of his age.

He had been in feeble health for several months and had been confined to his room for a week.

Mr. Hill was born in this county and had been a resident of Greensboro for more than half a century. Prior to and following the civil war he practiced law here, and at one time he was solicitor of the judicial district. He was possessed of much real estate and was a director and vice president of the Greensboro National Bank. He leaves a large estate.

Mr. Hill never married, and the only surviving member of his immediate family is a sister, Mrs. H. H. Tate, of this city.

The funeral will be held from the West Market Street Methodist church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. S. H. Hilliard, of High Point, a former pastor of the deceased, will conduct the service. The pall-bearers will be: Messrs. W. E. Allen, Neil Ellington, C. H. Ireland, A. H. Alderman, R. M. Rees and Col. John N. Staples.

DEATH OF THOMAS O'CONNOR, SR.

Mr. Thomas O'Connor, Sr., who had been critically ill of cancer of the stomach for several weeks, died at his home on South Elm street yesterday morning, aged 73 years.

He was a native of Ireland and had resided in Greensboro for the past quarter of a century or more. He is survived by his widow and four children—two sons and two daughters.

The deceased was a faithful member of St. Benedict's Catholic church, from which place the funeral was held Monday morning at 11 o'clock, the service being conducted by the rector, Rev. Father Vincent Taylor.

A BIG VICTORY IS ASSURED.

Fifth District Democracy Will Roll Up Good Majority.

A survey of the political field a week prior to the election indicates that the Democracy of the Fifth district is in splendid shape and prepared to roll up a big majority for the entire ticket next Tuesday.

The same encouraging news comes from all the other congressional districts in the state. North Carolina will send to Congress a solid Democratic delegation to uphold the hands of William J. Bryan, who, if all signs do not fail, will be inaugurated president of the United States March 4th, 1909.

The Democracy of the Fifth district is making an aggressive and effective campaign, and the indications are that the Democratic vote will be increased in every county in the district. Hon. A. L. Brooks, the candidate for Congress, and Hon. P. W. Glidewell, the nominee for district elector, aided by other eloquent and forceful speakers, are making a campaign that will result in a flood of Democratic votes next Tuesday.

Bryan and Kitchin have no able champions in North Carolina than these two eloquent young Democrats.

Mr. Brooks, who will succeed Hon. W. W. Kitchin in Congress, and who has been making vote-getting Democratic speeches since he was a boy on the farm in Person county, has excelled himself during the present campaign. He has made a thorough canvass of the district, winning votes for the ticket wherever he has spoken.

His speech at Yanceyville last week is pronounced the greatest political speech made in Caswell county since the days of reconstruction. He electrified a big crowd in the court house in Winston-Salem Friday night with what Hon. Cyrus B. Watson, an old warhorse of Democracy, calls one of the most masterly speeches he ever listened to.

Notwithstanding the fact that a strong Republican county has been placed in the Fifth district since the last election, the election of Mr. Brooks is assured by a majority of 4,000 or more. This is the opinion of all the political wiseacres hereabouts. Brooks is simply irresistible and will be elected by an overwhelming majority, despite the large amount of money and the questionable methods that are being used against him in the campaign.

A WORD TO FARMERS

Every farmer ought to put his surplus money in a bank. It encourages thrift, insures safety, increases his independence.

Deposit a little each week, each month, and watch the account grow. We give the depositor a small bank book in which is kept a record of the money deposited and taken out, and this book is valuable to keep, since it shows the amount of money you handle.

Then encourage your boys and girls to have a bank account. Many of the best farmers in Guilford county have favored us with their patronage.

If you have not opened an account with us, do so now.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Young Man Falls From Train and is In Critical Condition.

William L. Richmond, a young man from Union Ridge, Caswell county, is in St. Leo's hospital seriously injured as the result of leaping or falling from a rapidly moving train last night.

The young man and Miss Mary Phillips were passengers on the train from Raleigh, and were coming to Greensboro to be married.

As the train was passing through the eastern section of the city, the porter announced Greensboro as the next stop, whereupon the couple left their seats and took their position on the car steps. It is not exactly clear whether they stepped or fell from the train.

The young woman escaped with slight bruises, but her fiancé was seriously injured. His head struck a rock or some other obstacle, causing a fracture of the skull. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and suffered greatly.

Dr. E. R. Michaux, the Southern Railway's local surgeon, attended Richmond and had him removed to the hospital, where a thorough examination was made. The young man was accompanied by Miss Phillips.
