The commissioners are opening the Western extension of Main street.
Capt. E. H. Lynn and Mr. H. H. Stimms, of Winston, N. C., are in town.
Let every white man register. All the colored men are attending to that matter.
Mrs. M. A. Closs left Durham yesterday for Raleigh. She will attend the State Fair.
A. A. Sears, Tom Carrington and D. W. Whitaker are home from the Centennial.
The trustees of the Presbyterian church are having the lot around the church improved.
If you want good beef or fresh meats of any kind go to Herod's meat store on Main street.
If you want good flour, go to Lipscomb's mill. He makes the best we have tried recently.
Samuel H. Webb, one of the assistant marshals for the State Fair, left for Raleigh on Monday last.
Mr. Broughton is again able to contract for work. We hope he will entirely recover at an early day.
Dr. J. D. Davis is comfortably located in his new quarters over Markham's store on the corner.
Attention is directed to an interesting communication from Flat River on the fourth page of this issue.
F. B. King, one of the best writers in the State, is on the editorial staff of the Wilmington Star.
Terry, our barber has been absent several days. He has been at Mebaneville waiting on Bingham's boys.
We are looking new subscribers every day and the editor is happy. Money is scarce but people will have the PLANT.
Mr. A. D. Wilkinson is in attendance upon Person Superior Court at Roxboro where he represents the PLANT.

Morgan left Saturday. He expects to return to Durham at no distant day. The people will be duly notified of the time through the columns of the PLANT.
George Credle left on Monday last for Hyde county where he will spend several weeks. We hope he will not extend his trip longer than actually necessary.
Messrs. Levy Bick's, new advertisement appears in another column. This is the leading house in Richmond in its line and we advise a careful perusal of the ad. If you want any article they advertise order it by Express and rest assured it will come up to representation.
Morgan is without doubt one of the finest artists in the Southern States. During his recent visit to Durham he took some of the finest pictures we ever saw.
For dress goods go to Freeland & Co.
For table linen, towels, napkins, linen, cotton and rubber diapering, go to Mobsberg's.
Last Saturday there was a continual rush at Mobsberg's. This can be easily accounted for. He sells goods remarkably low and is not afraid to advertise and let the people know it.
W. B. Glenn, Democratic elector for the 7th District, and the Goslin who presides over the Winston Radical sheet had a little fistfight in Winston a few days since in which Glenn came off victor.
Caliches at 8 and 9c. bleached cotton at 6c. at Mobsberg's.

Go to Mobsberg's and get a pair of $1.00 kid gloves for 50c. and a splendid corset for 30c.
Public Sale.
A sale was made of the stock of drugs belonging to Blackhall & Ballance on Monday, J. R. Day became the purchaser. This sale we learn was made for the purpose of effecting a dissolution. The business will be conducted at the same place but we are not apprised of what will be the style of the firm.
Every one who has been to Mobsberg's store acknowledges that he has the best selected stock of goods ever brought to Durham.
Wholesale Establishment.
In addition to the large and constantly increasing retail trade of Freeland & Co.; they are also doing a wholesale business. Last week they sold a stock of goods to a country merchant, for the cash, and the merchant has been heard from and he is making good sales at a fair profit. Merchants who do not go North will find it to their advantage to call and examine Freeland & Co.'s stock and make money by buying of them. Freeland is a free merchant and is sure to strike a breeze if anybody else does.
The style, quality and price of these 25c. dress goods at Mobsberg's can not be beat.
Blackwell's Durham Warehouse.
E. J. Parrish, who has charge of this well known warehouse, announces in another column that public sales of leaf tobacco will be resumed in their house on Tuesday the 21st of October. Parrish is a thorough business man and as a war-horseman has no superior in or out of the State and we predict that he will have a heavy run of trade during the next year. Don't forget that after Tuesday he will be ready to receive and sell all this tobacco you will bring.
Mobsberg's sells a black alpaca for 50c. which has been proven to be as good as any 70c. black alpaca brought to Durham.

Turner's Almanac.
We are indebted to the publisher, James H. Egan, for a copy of Turner's North Carolina Almanac for 1877, now in its 48th year. The present is by far the most valuable volume ever issued. It is on sale at M. A. Angier's store in this place. The publisher says: "We have added a new feature in the way of a historic record of the most important events which have transpired in our state during the year 1875-76, which will be found on page 30. We also invite attention to a state department, page 37, record of towns of the state, page 38, North Carolina necrology, page 39, and a farmer's department, page 43. These additions to the almanac, we think, add to its value and success as a state periodical."
Every body buys one of those 75c. led spreads, at Mobsberg's.

VANCE AND SETTLE AT HILLSBORO.

GRAND OVATION TO ZEB VANCE OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.
Durham Well Represented.
Last Thursday was a gala day in Hillsboro, and will long be remembered by those whose pleasure it was to be in attendance. A delegation of horsemen ten miles distant from Hillsboro, and escorted him to town. The Durham Tilden and Vance Club, estimated 400 strong, were conveyed from Durham to Hillsboro on special train through the kindness of the clever Superintendent, Capt. A. B. Andrews, arriving at the depot of the latter place about half past 9 o'clock, where they were met by Gov. Vance, the Salem band and a delegation from the Hillsboro Club. The Durham Club bore not less than fifty banners and transparencies upon which were inscribed appropriate mottoes, some of which we give below, our space being too limited to admit them all.
"Tilden and constitutional liberty."
"Vance and Victory."
"Durham for Vance against the world."
"No Ties in our'n."
"Down with Revenue Ike."
"Stand by the nominees."
"We vote with our friends."
"Down with rogues and thieves. We must have reform."
"Where did Ike Young get his title of Colonel? Ans. In the Kark War."
"We pledge North Carolina 20,000 for Vance and Reform."
"Judiciary exhausted?" Settle, 1870.
"The honest colored man is respected and protected." D. T. & V. Club.
"Joe Davis, the honest man's candidate."
"Boss Shepherd, Babcock, Ike Young and Settle all belong to the same ring."
"Grant endorses Settle. He endorses Babcock."
There were numerous other devices which we have not space to publish.
At 11 o'clock Gov. Vance led off in a speech of an hour and a half, dealing death blows to Radicalism and carrying the crowd with him except a few negroes. He was frequently and loudly cheered. In the audience were a large number of ladies and they were all for Vance. If the ladies were enfranchised his majority would not fall short of 190,000. When Vance made a good bid the men cheered and the ladies waived their handkerchiefs. Settle followed in a speech of the same length. His speech was all about the war and Vance's war record. He made no votes in Orange. Vance replied in a speech of half hour's length and Settle had fifteen minutes rejoinder.
The crowd was large but not so large as we expected, though it was estimated that there were 4,000 persons on the ground. It was a glorious day for Democracy and our friends came off jubilant.
Freeland & Co. is head quarters for dry goods, notions, ready made clothing, boots, shoes, hats and caps. Go and examine before buying.
For a good overcoat, a fine pair of shoes or boots, go to Mobsberg's.
Persons desiring to procure conveyances can do so by application to Jno. A. Cox. Cattle and horses with careful driver, or horses by the day furnished upon reasonable terms.
The cheapest goods in Durham is that 85c. waterproof, and those 75c. bed spreads at Mobsberg's.
Those indebted to Dr. R. Blackhall are earnestly requested to come forward at once and settle their accounts.
