PREAD WHAT HE SAYS:

Dear Sir—During this year I valued nine hundred cross of lung diseases. In the lower words of the city the cross were of a very severe type. It was there any itten him was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I contess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years, I have never known a medicine to act as promptly, and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most volent fits of coughing, and myariably citred the disease in a low days. I cheerfully indures it as the bost lung medicine I ever used.
