DEMOCRATIC ALWAYS AND UNDER ALL CIRCOMSTANCES

DURHAM, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1881.

Hard of Hearing.

Art in Manners. The Art of Conversation.

Why the Girls Don't Marry. "What are we girls to do?" This, A young Jonathan once courted the writes a correspondent in the St. daughter of an old man that lived from a social point of view, conversa- which should be thoroughly impressed cannot afford. Delicacy is a thing Louis Spectator, was the question of a down East, but, forsooth, was more tion will necessarily occupy a promi- on the mind, which is to remember which cannot be lost or found. No beautiful Richmond belle. "Here capricious than limited in hearing, as nent place; and to excel in this art it there are two persons of whom you art can restore the grape its bloom. is essential to be a good listener. should never suffer yourself to speak Familiarity without coufidence, withthere are," continued this lovely wo- the sequel will show:

there are, continued this lovely we the sequel will show: man, "in the best society of our city, It was a stormy night in the ides of People are generally more anxious to -one is yourself the other your enemy. out regard, is destructive to all that over two hundred and fifty marriage- March, if I mistake not, when light- speak than to listen. They are fre- The reason is evident; you run into make women exalting and ennobling. able girls, many of them highly ac- ning and loud peals of thunder an- quently Thinking of what they are two dangers-egotism and injustice. It is the first duty of a woman to be a complished and attractive women, swered thunder, and Jonathan (at by going to say rather than what is being Women are too justly accused of a lady. Good breeding is good sense. fitted to grace any position; and in the old man's fireside, discussing with said; and even those who are more love of scandal and in a group of la- Bad manners in a woman is immoralall Richmond we have not a dozen the old lady (his intended mother-in- polite very often fancy it is sufficient dies collected for a "chat," it often ity. Awkwardness may be ineradireally eligible men. We have hosts law), on the expediency of asking the if they seem to be attentive; and yet happens that severe remarks on the cable. Bashfulness is constitutional. of beaux, but no prospective husbands. old man's permission to marry "Sal.' at the same time their eyes betray an conduct or motive of their neighbors Ignorance of eliquette is the result of

Our streets swarm with pleasant Jonathan resolved to "pop it" to the absent mind, and show an impatient form the staple of conversation. The circumstances. All can be condoned young fellows, who do for escorts, old man the next day. Night passed desire to continue their own train of time passed in conversation on ser- and not banish men or women from dancing partners and flirtation ma- and on the dawn of another day the thought. When listening, the atten- vants or babies, or the more repre- the amenities of their kind. But selfterial, but we have absolutely no men old man was found in the barn lot tion should never be engrossed by hensible animadversions we have just possessed, unshrinking and aggressive to whom an intelligent, spirited, am- feeding his pigs, and Jonathan re- any ideas but those of the speaker. alluded to, is neither very entertain- coarseness of demeanor may be reck-Another important element is the art ing nor very instructive. The topics oned as a State's prison offence, and Lowest cash prices, payable $10 cash on an Organ, $25 cash on a Piano, and the balance in three months without interest. This offer ex-bires October 1st. Buy now and buy as cheap biticus girl could possibly think of solved to ask for Sal. s you can hext fall with cash in yoer hand. This is neither "Pie" nor "Taffy," but Good old Hog and Hominy be happy in this House and save time, and apparently none for us but to scratched his head, and ever and anon sight. When listening to the cares from danger to that "uuruly memform an old maid brigade and start gave birth to a pensive yawn. Jona- and troubles of others, it scarcely is ber" which requires such constant re- restrained. Do not have impuls:s reight and money, Address H. McSMITH, that need restraint. Do not wish to on a crusade to some of the far West- than declared he'd as lief take "thirty- gracious, and certainly not comfort- straint.

era Territories, where sterling men nine straps" as to ask the "old man;" ing, to give a long list of similar From a mind well stored with good dance with the prince unsought; feel "but," said he aloud to himself, "how- grievances. Nor is it polite, when a reading, good words are almost sure differently. Be sure you confer honor. West, and to-day the lamentations of won a fair girl," and addressed or other work of art, for him instantly beauty is the pleasant, intelligent look up to you for reward, not at you are selling lower than any one else to describe a similar thing, only more companion, whose clever original re in rebuke. The natural sentiment of for the same grade of work.

tion in the fact that Richmond is lit- "I say, old man; I want to marry valuable, that he has seen elsewhere, marks will be full of refreshment to man toward women is reverence. He or possibly has in his own possession. the tired man of business on his re- loses a large means of grace when he GO AND TRY THEM mable, but seldom envied or enviable "You want to borrow my halter. Several instances might be given of turn home, who will know that at is obliged to account her a being to portions of the divine economy known I would loan it to you, Jonathan, but saying the right word in the right home a bright welcome awaits him be trained in propriety. A man's as old maid. Every ball-room and my son has taken it and gone to mill." place; but one is sufficient. For a from one whose pleasant "talk" will ideal is not wounded when a woman THEY ALSO KEEP A LARGE parlor wall is richly tapestried with Jonathan, putting his mouth close host or hostess to introduce subjects refresh and amuse him, and render fails in worldly wisdom; but if grace, to the old man's ear and speaking in with which they know their friends to the evenings at home as agreeable as in tact, in sentiment, in delicacy, in

But Richmond is not alone in this a deafening tone, "I've five hundred be familiar is a delicate attention, those passed in society. But Richmond is not alone in this a deafening tone, "I've five hundred be found want-be familiar is a delicate attention, those passed in society. Having fully impressed yourselves ing, he receives an inward hurt, docplaint goes up from every city in the Old man, stepping back as if great- but will have the good effect of mak- with the first rule we have laid down trinal, practical, persuasive, inviting, land. The West sends to the East a ly alarmed, exclaimed in a voice of ing their guests feel at their ease, and respecting the two subjects of conver- encouraging, alarming. The Bible is gentle moan of sympathetic woe. surprise: "You have got five hundred leave a pleasant recollection, as every sation to be avoided, I would suggest full of them and the preacher should Plenty of girls, lovely as the sun shone pounds of honey, Jonathan! Why one likes to talk upon a subject upon that you should remember never to follow the Bible Preach often to the on, but a panicky lack of desirable that is more than all the neighbor- which he can talk well. Good humor, talk too fast nor too lond. children, and be neither too long nor or the habit of being easily pleased, is Many mothers, and those who have too learned. They are the hope of Thus spoke a clever and accom- Jonathan, not yet the victim of de- essential to politeness; but as there the care of the young, are apt to re- the church. Old sinners are nearly plished young lady not long ago to a spair, and putting his mouth to the are often occasions when annoyances strain them too strictly from conver- lost. In every sermon preach Christ ing out their minds, so that conversa-

old man's ear, and bawled out, "I've will arise, irritation may be concealed sation during meals. It is better to and see to save souls. by a little attention to Art in Man- make a rule that they should speak couraging the attentions of what you "So have I, Jonathan, and it is the ners, and thus prevent the discomfort only when spoken to, and then adners, which is another requisite, ena- comprehension, encourage them to

Confidence in Self.

4.4.

Don't Forget It.

prayer, with certain definite and full instruction what to do with it.

The growth of the "opium Labit" are two qualities as different as light

A True Lady.

HEAVY & FANCY GROCERIES, CONFECTIONERIES, &c., JOHN W. GRAHAM, ham, N. C. As he pays cash for gools, and thereby saves Attorney at Law,

HILLSBORO, N. C. Practices in the counties of Orange, Ala-Person, Granville

DAVID JUSTICE Takes pleasure in informing the public that he has opened a full line of

Will attend Durham every Wednesday, and an be seen at his office in Hillsboro every

On the Fayetteville road in Hayti, near Durrange and Terson, Ail business y attended to.

WHITENS THE FIELDS.

MCSMITH MUSIC HOUSE,

Branch of Ludden & Bates,

PRICES AND TERMS EXACTLY THE SAME.

"KEEP IN DE MIDDLE OB DE RODE,"

M'SMITH'S SPECIAL SUMMER OFFER

CASH FRICES AND 3 MONTHS' CREDIT. 500 Pisnos and organs on hand and contracted for that must be closed out before Oct. 1st.

A littly Cash Down and balance when Cotton comes in.

see me. DAVID JUSTICE.

July 19-6m

Attorney at Law,

Be Dou't forget the place, but come and

ROBERT E. CARR, Attorney and Counsellor at Law

DURHAM, N. C.

y at Law.

OAKS, N. C.

VOL. X.----NO. 35.

W. S. ROULHAC,

ROULHAC & FULLER,

ROBERT C. STRUDWICK,

N. LUNSFORD, -

BRIGGS,

H. WEBB,

JONES WATSON,

other day:

Special attention given to the claims in any part of the State.

Professional Cards.

Attorneys at Law,

DURHAM, N. C.

Attorney at Law,

DURHAM, N. C.

And Person counties. Office in Parrish & Blackwell's warehouse,

Attomey at Law,

BOXEORO, N. C.

Practices in the courts of Durham, Orange

*Practice in State and Federal Courts.

W. W. FULLER.

HULLSBORD, N. C.

a heavy discount, he has no hesitane in promising to sell as low as anybody.

Charlotte, N. C.

are plenty and women scarce." ...

the Virginia belle find full justifiea- the old man thus: erally overrun with these most esti- your daughter." .

delicious misery. The same com- pounds of money !'

"You mockingly criticise us for en- got gold !" contemptuously style 'whipper snap- worst cold I ever had in my life." being felt by others. And cheerful- dress them on subjects snited to their pers,' 'snips' and 'callow goslings,' but | So saying, he sneezed a "wash up." how can we help it? There are By this time the old lady came up, bles its fortunate possessor to make give their own ideas of things that are that you can accomplish your plans. Durham, N. C. twenty of these little fellows in society and, observing Jonathan's unfortunate the best of circumstances. A gloomy daily occurring, questioning them on Never say "I cau't"—they are ignoble can be purchased elsewhere, and where there is one really desirable luck, she put her mouth to the old or melancholy individual never loses the books they have read, and drawman; and it it were not for them we man's ear and screamed out like a his sell-constiousness. Manners should be to a man what tion will be no effort to them when would miss many an entertainment wounded Yahoothat we want to attend, many an opera "Daddy, I say, daddy-you don't coloring is to a picture; nothing clash- they go out in society, and that pain-Furniture Store and play, many a set in dancing, that understand; he wants to marry your ing or contrary to good taste, but all ful mauvaies honte, which makes a girl we now erjoy. But for these very daughter." pigmies, with their three-hair-power "I told him the calf halter was whole. Such a result cannot be ob- voice, will be effectually avoided. tained by mere entward polish. Its moustaches, that you speak of so gone." tained by mere entward polish. Its scornfully, every girl would be left at "Why, daddy, you don't undersoil of the heart. As our bearing to- Growth of the Opium Habit. like these self-conceited folks!" My home half the times she now gets out, stand-he's got gold-he's rich." and would be a wall-flower more than - "He's got cold and the itch, eh! wards others is guided and shaped by half the time when she managed to What's he doing here with the itch !" the feelings, the cultivation of charity inviegle her father or brother into So saying, the old man aimed a blow greatly helps to tene down or to mod- in this country is strikingly presented and darkness, and though the selfescorting her to parties and recep at Jonathan's head with his cane, but ify any rough or uncouth manners. by an article in a September magations. You find me plenty of those happily for Jonathan, he dodged it. Politeness may be a social virtue, but zine. The number of opium eaters in agreeable of companions, we infinitely cultivated, aspiring men with a juture Nor did the rage of the old man stop it can only be true and sincere when the United States is estimated at 250,- prefer him to the creeping, cringing, We are continually adding to our of girls capable of appreciating them he made after Jonathan, who took to Kindliness of heart will cause its inand ready to drop all their retinue of his heels; nor did Jonathan's luck fluence to be felt in a geutle bearing drug in the city of Albany, N. Y. is a like Uriah Heep, spends his life in of girls capable of appriciating them he made after Johathan, who took to Riadman of Real and the secret of Real and the secret of Albany, N. Y. is a first sample of the spread of the habit trying to be "umble." The man who says it from the chi ma OUR CUSTOMERS IN QUALITY, STYLE AND PRICE. If you wish to buy Fursiture at take an inventory of your male ac- in a mud hole. Jonathan sprang to Teach Them Integrity. pricts never before heard of in Dur- quaintances in what is called good his heels, and with the speed of John society, and you will have to admit Gilpin cleared himself. And poor Business men say that it is hard to nually in that feity. It is true that brought about by Lis own perseverior that this volume till " All own the balance the self. Fortune detests cowardice; and handling of money. They cannot divine use, but the suggestive fact self. Fortune detests cowardice; and the conquered COME TO SEE US ment is a "true bill." All, over the husband. withstand the temptation; and, new- remains that the increase in the pop- the man who will not be conquered country a man-famine prevails BEFORE YOU BUY,

$1.50 PER ANNUM

GO TO FOR

PHAETONS. &C...

FINS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

Always on hand, that they will furnish Rely on yourself; take it for granted at all times for less money than they words. He who does not feel within ar these slightly faded flowers.

young men.

journalist:

ED. C. HACKNEY, JOHN M. MORINO, MORING & HACKNEY,

Attorneys at Law,

DURHAM, N. C. Practice in the Courts of Orange, Chatham. Alamance, Bandolph, Wake, Person, Caswell and Granville, and also in the Supreme and Federal Courts. Collections and settling estates a specialty.

B. HENDERSON, UDITY

DURHAM, N. C.

Best references in the State given. All.operations performed in the latest and best style, and as none but the best conterial will be used, warrants entire satisfaction. CHARGES MOD ham

Polytechnic School, SOUTH LOWELL, N. C.

The 6th Sersion of this Institution will begin Monday, July 18th, A. D. 1881.

For terms and particulars, address O. NEWMAN BURT, je28-tf

DR. BUTTS, 12 North Sth St., St. Louis, No.

We have hosts of society fellows as we charge you nothing for showing swells, giddy boys-but they are hardly the husband material a sensible woman would select. Many of

THOMAS F. CHEEK

NEW FIRM.

is with us and will take pleasure in showing you goods. ner Remember we are on Main street, one door below Rawls' New York Cash Store.

M. C. HERNDON & CO. June 14, 1881-3m

a-days, ewing to various causes, temp- mation of Albany has been but .59, by trifles is her prime favorite. tations are stronger than formerly. while the increase in the sale of opium A Daughters Affection. Nine-tenths of the office and errand has been 900 per cent. and of morboys of to-day are holding positions phia 1,100 per cent. One of the druggists of Albany is quoted as say-She is the delight of her parents at them are kind hearted, agreeable little home, their pride abroad, the solace creatures, disposed to do everything of their labor and their cares, and the in their power to earn the gratitude anticipated hope and joy of their dein their power to earn the gratitude anticipated hope and joy of their de-of the girls, to whose enjoyment they clining lives. The love of offspring, necessity of inculcating in their boys to transition when the use of Albary in were afterwards of great use to him, have and are But a considerable is even stronger towards the female The hove themselves unused to the part of the country and there is force hever to forget anything." An old ture, only to be accounted for when the creation of mesquitoes, fleas, is just that it should be so—it is more wanted; it by its fascinations, induced by older the writer's suggestion that it is the creation of mesquitoes, fleas, is just that it should be so—it is more by its fascinations, induced by older time to regulate and limit the sales of mumps and measles is explained. requited. There is no pillow on which companions sometimes, are led to opism by legislative enactment. "Let They are as much alike, find them the head of the parent, anguished by petty thieving. The desire to spend it alone," and he fears that "opium where you will, as so many peas, sickness or by sorrow, can so sweetly There is not originality enough in repose as on the bosom of an affechim! Somebody says, "Oh, I don't Mangum St., Durham, N. C. friend, self-conceit and self-confidence

000, 3,500 pounds of opium and cessful, and all that sort of thing.

5,500 onoces of morphia are sold an- when, in fact, his luck has leen find boys who can be trusted with the much of these drugs is sold for me- efforts, and by his confidence in him- and Pure Corn Wiskey at

Carrington's

That Old Apple and Peach Brandy, Champagne and all the Finest Wines at

Carrington's

The Largest Stock of Finest Cigars and Cigarettes ever seen in Durham at

Carrington's

"Bat," inquired the young man, at their post and ice drinks of every "suppose I forget it; what shall I do variety served on short notice.

business, and they are the children, ing that, where twenty-five years ago there were two things which he for the most part, of men whose sta-he made laudanum by the gallon, he learned when he was eighteen, which necessity of inculcating in their boys fortunately, what is true of Albany in namely, "never to lose anything, and

The boys themselves, unused to the rest of the country, and there is force lawyer sent him with an important is natural enough, and but few boys may, ere many years, be used as ex- then ? are philosophical enough, not to say tensively in America as in China."