Orbit 18. This book report is written by Bronson Messer.

This is the 18th volume in a series of books full of science fiction short stories. The book begins with a story called "Ladies and Gentlemen, This Is Your Crisis." A couple sits down for an evening of T.V., and ghosts and specters battle it out on a 48 hour game show. My favorite is "The Rules of Moopsball". Moopsball is played on a field 500 yards long, takes three days to play, and is played by 324 people including Wizards, Warriors, and Turkeys. It's worth reading.

The Mystery of the Marmalade Cat By Janet Rogers Howe. This book report is written by Reba Jenkins

Dave Woods is at home. he receives a letter from a lawyer saying his uncle is giving him a house. The name of the house is Fraser's Folly. His family goes to Fraser's Folly for a day. They will go back to Fraser's Folly for the summer.

There is a mystery about Fraser's cats when they went back to Fraser's Folly. When they go back they meet Matt Mason. Strange things are happening. Pam, Dave's sister, draws sketches of different things. Dave, Pam, and Steve, Dave's younger brother, become detectives. They keep records of the things they find. Mr. Fraser had hidden a stairway to a secret room in the guest room because he and Red Noonan had fallen down them. It was just a ladder. The three detectives found them.

They had a younger detective, four legged Paul Small, their dog. They called him Smally, their cocker spaniel. He found a marmalade cat in a hole. Cora, the family's housekeeper, fed the cat secretly.

Pierre, a man that kept spying, finally gave up. He told the family that he was married to Cora since last winter. He also said they could tell the town that Cora would have surgery on her neck in September. She had had an accident and had not been able to talk since then. They had been waiting for some exciting news since they had heard about the rumors and believed them about Fraser's cats. That if you saw one it would bring bad luck even though it was a yellow cat. The End.

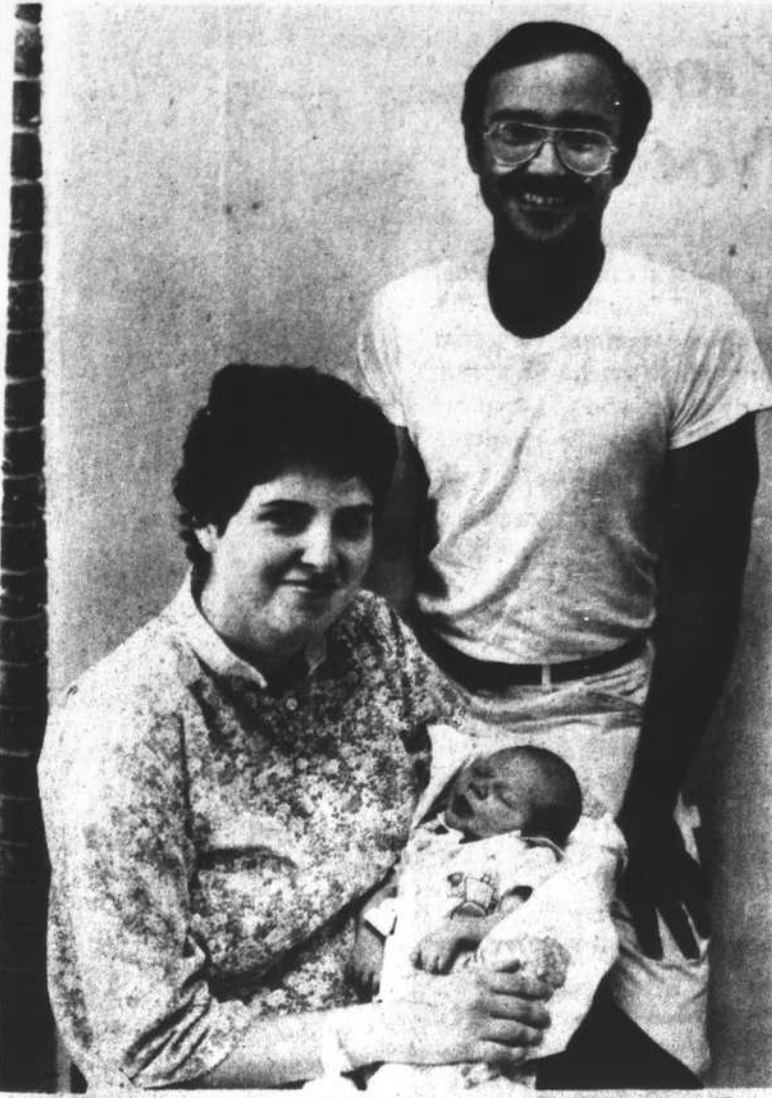

Descendants of George W. and Cordelia Revis will have their annual family reunion this Sunday, August 9 at the Whittier Clubhouse.

More Support For Lamaze: Patrick and Angela Lee McClain relate that the Lamaze method of childbirth "helped both of us really understand the process of giving birth." Both attended 12 hours of Lamaze instruction prior to the birth of their son, Stephen Joseph, July 31 at C.J. Harris Community Hospital. Patrick assisted in the delivery room at the time of birth.

Ask About Wildlife....

Question: Being an avid outdoorsman-sportsman and a faithful reader of your column, I couldn't help but notice in a recent edition the article pertaining to late season hunts for either sex deer on certain Game Lands. My question is-- who would I write to in regard to being eligible for the random drawing? Also, where do I inquire to get permission to and a permit for hunting OFF the (Blue Ridge) Parkway? M.P.C.

Answer: Information and applications for either sex deer hunts on Game Lands are available from hunting and fishing license agents throughout western North Carolina. All hunters having a 1981-82 Game Lands license or Sportsman's license are eligible to apply. Applications must be received in the Raleigh office of the Wildlife Resources Commission before October 1. Applicants who are selected (by random drawing) will be notified by receiving their permit about 30 days before the hunt. A permit for parking at certain designated overlooks and information about special Parkway regulations are available from: The Superintendent, Blue Ridge Parkway, National Park Service, 700 Northwestern Bank Building, Asheville, N.C. 28801. Wildlife.

Devotional

From Mrs. W. T. Hyatt

My devotional this week is entitled "Tempest at Sea." Webster defines "tempest" as "any violent commotion or tumult."

Has the reader ever been in a "tempest"? The disciples were in such a condition as found in Matt. 8:24, "And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves, but he was asleep." Jesus was on board with them. They became very fearful, as we do, in the midst of our storm. The verse says that the storm arose, meaning it was quiet and peaceful before.

These things happen to us. It's quiet for a time, then a storm arises. We know, as the disciples arise. We the disciples knew, that God is with us at these times, but our faith is so little. We, too, as the disciples, begin to pray and say, "save us Lord, for we perish." When in these storms of our lives, and the ship is covered with waves, we need to trust God. Sometimes in our weakness, we tend to be fearful and wonder if He will take care of us.

Jesus says to us, also, "Why are ye fearful O ye of little faith?" Remember, if you are in a storm, "the lowest ebb is the turn of the tide."

Tuckaseegee Running Club

The Tuckaseegee Running club will hold its monthly meeting at the Cherokee Boys Club in Cherokee this Thursday, August 6 at 7:30pm.

The club is for all interested persons in Swain, Jackson and Macon Counties.

On the agenda for this month's meeting is a discussion of the club's first race, the "Go Turkey 10K" which will be held at Whittier Thanksgiving morning. In addition Steve Gold of Cullowhee will lead a discussion on marathon training techniques. Helping him out will be a number of other club members who have successfully completed marathons.

All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

Dear friends,

It is advisable to have your insurance agent or attorney examine all policies on the life of the deceased, even those which may have lapsed, as they may have built-in policy extensions. Insurance policies on the lives of survivors also merit examination with reference to changes in beneficiary on those policies.

Respectfully,
