Devotional

From Mrs. W.T. Hyatt
If there ever was a time for the Christian and sinner alike, to become "stirred up," it's now.

I know, personally, that I need to be stirred up. Pressures, illness, stress, domestic problems, finances have left us almost "lifeless." Satan sure enjoys this. Those of us who have been given certain gifts, and we all have been given a certain gift, and personal way, to show God's love, need to be stirred up.

In II Timothy 1: vs. 6, Paul says to Timothy, "wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee by the putting on of my hands." I believe that Paul ordained Timothy to preach. So you see, the gift is there, it just needs "stirring up."

Next, we need our memories stirred up, as found in II Peter 1-13. Peter says in verses 12, 13: "Wherefore I will not be negligent, to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them and be established in the present truth, yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle (or body), to stir you up by putting you in remembrance." He says, "I know you know all these things and are established, but as long as I live, I feel I need to stir you up, to always remember them."

There was a time, in Exodus 35:21 and 26, that the children of Israel were willingly stirred up to work for God. With heart stirring offerings unto God. In Isaiah 64:7, we find a "repentance stirring." A return from a backslidden condition. They they did.

Does your life need a stirring up? God will stir us, if we will only ask.

Dear friends,

It is an honor to be chosen as a pallbearer at a funeral service. Usually six active pallbearers are selected. It is also appropriate to name honorary pallbearers, to recognize the deceased's close associates in business, civic, and fraternal affairs. Your funeral director can advise on this procedure.

Respectfully,
