Devotional

Mrs. W.T. Hyatt

My devotional, this week, looks at the outward man, the inward man, things which are temporal and things etemal.

B's found in II Corinthin 4. verses 16-18. As I watch my father, suffering with cancer, my heart aches, wanting to try to ease the pain, wanting to make things better for him, but it seems I'm helpless. In one of these times God gave me these verses and He surely knows what to send and when.

"Though the 'outward man' perish the inward man is renewed day by day." I see him suffering and all the tubes and needles here and there, and yet the "inward man" of daddy is being renewed every day. Paul says this While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen, for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal."

What a comfort to me and to all those who see their loved ones suffering! Here is a small poem found in a book. It's entitled, "After the Dark-

After the darkness, the daylight shines through. After the showers, the rainbows' in view. After life's heartaches, there comes from above the peach and the comfort, of God's healing love!

Card Of Thanks

The family of Lettie Ann Bryson wishes to expess our deepest graditude to the many friends and neighbors who extended their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved Mother, Grandmother, Great-grandmother, Greatgreat-grandmother. The beautiful floral designs, telephone calls, food, visits and prayers were very comforting. Our deepest appreciation to Dr. Aldis. Dr. Adams and Dr. Fisher and the staff of second floor of C.J. Harris Hospital who stood by so faithfully. Our special thanks to the Whittier Church of God, Revs. G.H. Goins, the Rev. L.W. Wroley and the REv. Alfred Pitts, the pallbearers and Bill Moody Funeral Home of Bryson City. Thanks also to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Barker and Mrs. Brenda Coggins for singing her favorite songs. From the bottom of our hearts we thank each one of you and may God bless you richly always.

Norfolk-Southern Earnings

Norfolk Southern Corporation recently reported net income of $103.2 million, or $1.64 a common share, for the first quarter. This was an 81.7 percent increase over the $56.8 million, or $.91 million a common share, earned in the same period of 1983.

"Our first quarter reflected a major upturn in traffic and revenues after a tough year in 1983." Northfolk Southern's chairman and chief executive officer, Robert B. Claytor, said. "The railraod business lagged the general economy on the way down, and it certainly has lagged it on the way back, but business was up sharply in the first quarter. It is particularly noteworthy that this increase was across the board, with revenues from both coal and general merchandise traffic up by more than 20 percent."
